Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith spent Sunday at Howard. Holloway Hoy, of Pleasant Gap, was in our town on Sunday. Preaching services in the Presbyterian church, August 7, at 11 o'clock a. m. Miss Bessie Harter spent a few days visiting near Beech Creek, last week. Chas. Smith, of near Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his parents at this place. Mr. and Mrs. Al. Spayd and little daughter visited at Fillmore, last week. Our town was well represented on Saturday evening, at Nittany Hall festival. Hog cholera is still very bad in this vicinity. Quite a number of hogs have died. We would not be surprised to hear of a wedding when that party goes to Niagara Falls. Misses Mabel Strunk and Mattie Lucas, of Howard, were in our vicinity on Friday, last. The funeral of Mrs. Thompson took place on Friday. Interment was made at Buffalo Run. Rev. Sechrist delivered a very able sermon on Sunday morning in the Evangelical church. Mrs. Bertha Hoffman, of Philadelphia, visited last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes, Sr. IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. Samuel Aley has built new steps to his front porch. New window blinds have been put up in the Reformed church and a new carpet laid. M. S. Bets has put up an ice cream saloon alongside his storeroom. Any one desiring a good dish of ice cream should not forget to call.

Walker No. 2.

Mrs. Maggie Wakefield, of Lock Haven, is visiting friends at this place. Hurrah for "Old Glory!" It is not a breakfast job, nevertheless, we'll be there in time for dinner. Mr. Williams and his Katie, and Ira Condo and Miss Lyra attended the festival at Nittany, last Saturday evening, by means of a two-horse carriage. A festival will be held at Jacksonville, for the benefit of the United Evangelical church of that place, on Saturday evening, July 30th. A fine time and a large crowd are expected. Miss Krape, of Howard, was visiting her sister Miss Lulu Krape, who is at J. C. Hoy's over Sunday, when they attended the festival at Henderson's school house, July 23. The following should fill our veins with patriotism: Spain, Spain, Spain, why did you blow up the Maine? Spain, Spain, Spain, you ought to be ashamed. Spain, Spain, Spain, we'll surely make you pay. Spain, Spain, Spain, at home you ought to stay; There is a hot time in Cuba, to day. TWO PRAYERS. The following is a prayer, made by a Spaniard, shortly after reaching Cuba: "Our Queen which art in Spain, Saved by Thy crown; Thy Kingdom extend o'er Cuba; Thy will be done in Cuba, as it is done in Spain; Give us this day our daily rations; Lead us not into many battles; But deliver us from them; For thine be Spain, and Cuba, And Manila, forever.—Amen." It was responded to by an American in the following manner: "Our President who is in the U. S., Great be thy banquet; Thy Kingdom extend o'er Cuba; Thy will be done in Cuba, as it is done in U. S.; Give us each day double rations; Lead us into many battles; And bring us out victorious; For thine be Cuba, U. S. and Manila, forever.—Amen."

Kreamerville.

Sunday was a pleasant, but warm day. Chas. Diehl has again returned to the western state, Ohio. Mrs. Gideon Kreamer is seriously ill and the hope of her recovery very small. Jonas Styers' son, of Farmer's Mills, was the guest of J. R. Styers one day last week. Sallie Winkleblech left for Renovo, Tuesday, where she will spend a few weeks with her father. W. J. Bierly and wife, of Jersey Shore, are at present visiting Mrs. Kreamer, mother of Mrs. Bierly, who had been ill. James Neese, of Wolfs Store, died Monday and was buried in the Union cemetery, at Rebersburg. Rev. Mumma officiating. Huckleberry pickers are plenty and also the berries, which makes the lonely mountains burst forth with voices of laughter and mirth. Strong reports are afloat that Brush valley will have two campmeetings this year again. The Dubs faction and the Negro people, get ready for the jubilee. John Beck, of Ohio, has returned to us again to stay for some time. He is in poor health and thought old Brush valley would be the place to get nourishment. T. D. Stover left Monday for Snow Shoe to conduct the sale of the property of the late E. J. Burd, who was found dead along the road, near Snow Shoe, a few weeks ago.

The walk leading from here to Rebersburg seems to be a very desirable place for some folks to have sport and amusements thereon and of course we don't have any objections, but we would kindly tell them it would be better to use a cushion and have a guard some distance away.

The other evening a few ladies and gentlemen were standing in front of the residence of J. W. Housman and discussing several interesting topics, as young folks do, amidst a shower of wooden blocks and hickory nuts. Their conversation was sometimes compelled to close down on account of the fragments flying towards them in the air. The boys tried in vain to get the secret of this, thereby incurring the displeasure of individuals not interested, and all this time Mrs. K. not far away, had lots of fun at the boys expense. Boys the snake is not always in the grass, when you look for it. Catarrh Cured. A clear head and sweet breath secured with Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy, sold on a guarantee. Nasal Injector free. Sold by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte.

Linden Hall.

Billy Lytle and wife were in town Sunday. Joe Page is considerably better at this writing. John Lough got lost Saturday evening, but found himself early Sunday morning. Jim Wagner has charge of the Lemont station this week. Jim knows how to do it. J. Tressler tried his new thrasher at Robt. Corls, Monday, and did excellent work. Prof. H. Bitner, of Millersburg State Normal, was noticed in town Monday morning. Wm. H. Bohn, of Aaronsburg, was seen here Saturday, shaking hands with old friends. Charlie Miller, of Rebersburg, spent several days with his aunt, Mrs. Keller, last week. Harry Hartraft and family, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with Jno. Wibley and family. A. C. Musser and family, of Altoona, visited the home of J. H. Ross, several days this week. Miss Gramley, of Oak Hall, is the new clerk in Mrs. Keller's store. Some of the boys like to deal there. J. T. Ross, who had been sick and had a back set after being up a week, is again able to sit on the porch. John Page was visiting his brother Joe, who is seriously ill. The I. O. O. F., of Boalsburg, have a detail of two nursing him now. Geo. Swabb cradled Mrs. Kellers oats in two days and was not played out either. The lot is about 40 by 120 feet—pap is an old timer. D. M. Campbell lost his mustache; we don't know if Davy is guilty of some crime, or whether his lady friend was the cause of the trouble. "Jennie! Jennie! is there anyone down?" "Yes—am I'll be down in a minute." The gentleman from Lemont better come earlier next time as it is considerable bother to go to bed twice in one day. Daily papers are cheap in our city—Press 2 cents, Inquirer and Record 1 cent; but the Times at one news stand, can be had for nothing, every morning. One man in this town, many years ago killed himself when his money was all gone. There are others.

John A. Daley, republican candidate for the nomination of Assembly, from Curtin twp., spent part of last week in Philipsburg. John Robb is able to be around again. He attended the Howard festival, on Saturday evening, accompanied by two charming young ladies, Misses Beck and Singer. Mrs. E. H. Bodley (nee Miss Dickinson) and two children, also Miss Katie Bodley, of Renovo, are visiting in this place at the home of Mrs. Bodley's uncle, H. S. DeLong. Some of our Socialists are a gay set, they held an ice-cream social one evening, and make a public announcement the next day. Of course some peoples' patronage isn't accepted. If the shoe fits, wear it. Messrs T. S. DeLong and E. M. Brickley are catching fish for sale. Just leave your order at Robb's store and they can supply you with as many as you desire, anywhere from a dozen to one-hundred pounds a day. They play croquet in the cool of the evening, and when it gets too dark for that game they have another that they play by lamp-light.

Rebersburg.

Mrs. Harry Leitzel and her two children, of Millinburg, are the guests of Snyder Miller. Geo. Erhard, of Millinburg, has been the guest of his cousin Miss Lulu Erhard the greater part of last week. Miss Mame Solly, of Harrisburg, Va., is the pleasant visitor of her many friends and relatives of this place. Floyd Bowersox and family, of Spring Mills, were among their friends in our burg, over Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. J. Kreamer, of Centre Hall, is the guest of her daughter Mrs. Samuel Frank and her many other friends. A sister of Mrs. Charles Woodring, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the pleasant guest of Mrs. Flora Burd, of near this place. One of our farmers, in the person of Geo. Diehl, we noticed was out driving in a new top buggy, which he bought from our town clerk, Wm. Heckman, on Saturday. Some of our, supposed, most respected young people should remember that it is not a very secret place to do their courting out doors; the people would have less to talk about. If you don't believe that Peter Kessler is a favorite friend of The Centre Democrat, look at the extra large spurs he wears when he carries The Centre Democrat to his cozy home to read its interesting columns.

Some of our so called pavement stumblers and blockaders, should always remember that the side walks should be clear enough so, at least, one passer by could get past without getting off the walk. Some people of course are forgetful, but according to actions it is hard to forget something which was never known. The following is the story of Mrs. Reuben Smull's (the mother of our life insurance agent, George) first bicycle experience on Saturday:—"Ich hop uoch aulies dau kenner dos ich mer unnernummer hop und so wile die Bianch carer bicycle doh g'stornen hat, hop ich g'denkt, ich wet aw mole en side mer—on der sainer zite wore ich sure, Jos mich unner sainer dut—no hop ich dopper der bicycle erickt, und bin ever g'swint druf g'jump fa der hivel nummer fawer foner on unserum hose, auver ech ich recht druf wore hop ich ever owfonger zu bodsel-home-schloger bis ich un der bicycle der hivel drunner wore und ich hop mere shear gore my aint be for brucher darich de operation und es is mere doad bong es kumpt in de zeiding."

SKILL OF DOCTORS TESTED. Fifteen Years of Suffering.

"I thought I should surely die."

When the stomach begins to fail in its duties, other organs speedily become affected in sympathy, and life is simply a burden almost unbearable. Indigestion and dyspepsia are so common that only the sufferer from these diseases knows the cause of John C. Fritchard. He went on for fifteen years, from bad to worse. In spite of doctors he grew constantly weaker, and thought he would die. He got well, however, and this relates his experience: "For fifteen years I was a great sufferer from indigestion in its worst forms. I could not walk fifty yards without having to sit down and rest. My stomach, liver, and heart became affected, and I thought I would surely die. I tried Dr. J. C. Ayer's Pills, and they helped me right away. I continued their use and am now entirely well. I don't know of anything that will so quickly relieve and cure the terrible sufferings of dyspepsia as Dr. Ayer's Pills."—JOHN C. FRITCHARD, Brodie, Warren Co., N. C. This case is not extraordinary, either in
