

THE CUBAN PROBLEMS.

Independence and Annexation the Chief Topics Discussed.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.

They Are Bartolomeo Masso, Mendez Capote, Jose Miguel Gomez and Calixto Garcia-The Election to Take Place at Cuhitas Next Month.

Havana, Sept. 14.—The presence of Robert F. Porter, who is in Havana on a special mission from the United States government to study the financial and economic aspects of the situation, is regarded with suspicion by the party of free Cuba, as indicating the establishment of an American policy of guardianship. Mr. Porter is preparing a revision of the Cuban tariff, which will probably be protective of Cuban industries, and is acquainting himself with every detail of local taxation. In this work he is assisted by a capable staff. For the present his efforts are only preliminary, as, until after the definite settlement of peace, it will be impossible to establish the new regime.

But his efforts and inquiries, taken together with the announcement that American troops will be sent later to occupy the city—which has hitherto been doubted by many—have had the effect of provoking protests from the more rabid Cubans, who are holding meetings and adopting resolutions against "encroachment upon our rights as citizens of the free and independent republic of Cuba by the establishment of an American protectorate."

These two problems—Independence and annexation—are the chief topics discussed, and the idea of an American protectorate, with military occupation, is nowhere favorably considered. Everywhere it is recognized that the choice is between independence and annexation.

Several well known Cubans arrived here on Saturday by the Mascote, ostensibly as delegates commissioned by the Cuban junta to facilitate the work of disbanding the Cuban troops. There is reliable authority, however, for the statement that they are really commissioned to agitate the question of Cuban independence. On Sunday night they were present at a meeting held at the residence of one of the most aristocratic families of Havana, and the question of independence was then discussed at length.

Next month at the headquarters of the so-called Cuban republic government at Cuhitas, province of Puerto Principe, representatives of the different corps of the Cuban army will proceed to a presidential election and a definite constitution of the government.

Each army corps will send eight delegates, making a total of 48 electors. There are two separate and distinct tendencies in the Cuban army, one strongly supporting the present government and the other favoring General Maximiliano Gomez.

Already four presidential nomination tickets are in the field. In the first are the names of Bartolomeo Masso for president and Mendez Capote for vice president; on the second, the names of Mendez Capote for the first place, and Jose Miguel Gomez for the second; on the third are Jose Miguel Gomez and Pedro Botancourt, and on the fourth Calixto Garcia and Jose Miguel Gomez.

THE DREYFUS SENSATION.

Another Important Arrest Imminent in the Celebrated Case.

Paris, Sept. 14.—Among the rumors in circulation regarding the Dreyfus case is one that an arrest still more sensational than any yet made is imminent. Another report says that when General Zurlinden, minister of war, resigns legal action for revision will be commenced before his successor is appointed. General Zurlinden at the last moment begged to be excused from accompanying President Faure to the maneuvers.

The frank newspaper assertions that M. Faure is supporting General Zurlinden in opposing revision have created considerable concern and given rise to the notion that there will be no revision while M. Faure is president.

Last night four men, armed with clubs, attacked and severely injured M. Philibert Roget, director of a Dreyfusite paper. One of the four is under arrest.

Delaware's Democratic Ticket.

Dover, Del., Sept. 14.—The Democratic state convention was held in the court house here yesterday and nominated candidates for congress, state treasurer and state auditor, and was called to order by Chairman John Biggs, who made a stirring speech favoring unity of action in the coming campaign. William T. Records, of Laurel, was elected permanent chairman, and Robert Y. Willson, of Clayton, was selected as secretary. The nominations were all unanimous, and were as follows: For congress, L. Irving Handy, state treasurer, William M. Ross, state auditor, Dr. L. A. H. Bishop.

Arms for Philippines Insurgents.

Manila, Sept. 14.—The American bark Abbey, with a cargo of arms and ammunition from the United States, which left Canton, ostensibly for Singapore, under heavy bonds, ten days ago, has now, it is said, landed 5,000 rifles and cartridges in Batanga province for the insurgents. The report seems impossible, though it comes from good source. The indications today are that the insurgents intend to comply peacefully with the American request to leave the suburbs of Manila tomorrow.

Steamer Lost, Eighteen Drowned.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 14.—E. B. Wheeler, who arrived here yesterday from St. Michael, Alaska, brings confirmation of the report of the loss of the steamer Jessie at the mouth of the Kuskokwim river in July with 18 lives. The news was brought to St. Michael by a trader named Ling, who said that only one Indian survived. The bodies of Captain Murphy and Rev. Walsh had been washed ashore. The Jessie carried a party of gold seekers.

SPANISH STATESMEN

Create an Uproarious Session of the Senate.

WEYLER DEFENDS THE GENERALS

Senator Gonzales Declared the Army Had Been Worst First by the Insurgents and Then by the Americans. Hispano-American Protocol Passed.

Madrid, Sept. 14.—There was another uproarious session of the senate yesterday. Count Almenas, referring to his statement of Monday giving the names of the generals he recently said ought to have their ashes tied around their necks, instead of around their waists, naming Weyler, Blanco and Primo de Rivera, after which he also included Admiral Cervera in the category, said General Linares was also incompetent and ought to be arraigned.

Their support General Weyler and others loudly protested against these charges, and General Weyler called on Count Almenas to name those generals who were accused of falling to do their duty, and he added, if the accusations were true and the culprits could not be legally punished the generals would take the matter in their own hands and inflict proper punishment.

A great tumult ensued, the senators standing, shouting and threatening each other. The president of the senate vainly strove to restore order and break his sword in attempting to do so.

When the debate was resumed Senator Gonzales attacked the army. He said it had been worsted first by the insurgents and then by the Americans. The speaker asked what had become of 200,000 men sent to Cuba. He blamed General Weyler and the late premier, Senor Canovas, asserting that the latter was unimportant while in power and might have done what he pleased.

The premier, Senor Sagasta, replying, said that neither Senor Canovas del Castillo nor himself had ruled long enough to change the character of the race, which was the true cause, he claimed, of the disaster to Spain. "We are," the premier said, "an anemic country. We were attacked when acting as an honest man would. We defended ourselves. I have lost my prestige, but it is because I believe the path I am following is the best."

General Weyler then made a speech of great violence, which provoked such an outburst that the premier had to intervene and called upon the gentleman to explain. General Weyler replied that he had not threatened the government, but only those who were attacking the army.

The Duke of Teutan, the former minister for foreign affairs, defended Senor Canovas del Castillo, whereupon Senor Gonzales made another attack upon the deceased premier, declaring that the latter had foreseen the loss of Cuba and had planned with Senor Sagasta to sign the surrender. The loss of Cuba, Senor Gonzales continued, was a just punishment to those who failed to profit by the doctrine that the colonies should not be governed by oppression.

The chamber of deputies yesterday adopted the Hispano-American protocol by 151 votes against 48.

The War Investigators.

Washington, Sept. 12.—The president has selected the following gentlemen as a commission to investigate army bureaus, as urged by Secretary of War Alger: Lieutenant General J. M. Schofield, U. S. A., retired; Lieutenant General and ex-Senator John B. Gordon, of Georgia; General and ex-Senator Charles F. Manderson, of Nebraska; General Grenville M. Dodge, of New York; Colonel James A. Sexton, of Chicago, the newly elected commander-in-chief of the G. A. R.; ex-Secretary of War Robert T. Lincoln, of Chicago; ex-Secretary of War Daniel S. Lamont, of New York; President D. C. Gilman, of Johns Hopkins university, of Baltimore; Dr. W. W. Keen, surgeon and physician, of Philadelphia.

Officers of the G. A. R.

Cincinnati, Sept. 8.—James A. Sexton, ex-postmaster of Chicago, was last night elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. The elections were concluded today, as follows: Senior vice commander-in-chief, W. C. Johnson, of Cincinnati; Junior vice commander-in-chief, David Ross of Delaware; surgeon general, Dr. Phorce of Nebraska; chaplain-in-chief, Colonel Louis of Indianapolis. The report of the pensions committee, vigorously attacking Commissioner Evans' management of the pension office, was unanimously adopted. The encampment adjourned to meet next year in Philadelphia.

Dewey Wants Warships.

Manila, Philippine Islands, Sept. 12.—Rear Admiral Dewey says he considers the situation critical. It is understood he has asked for an additional cruiser and a battleship. The Spaniards assert that Spain will take a coaling station here, and that Spain will retain the remainder of the islands. The last Spanish garrisons at Hocos and Laguna have surrendered and the whole of the island of Luzon is in the hands of the insurgents, except at Manila and Cavite.

Furiogths For Jewish Soldiers.

New York, Sept. 14.—Adjutant General Corbin, of the United States army, has consented, and issued orders that 4,000 Jewish volunteers, who had either joined volunteer regiments or had been fighting at the front during the late Spanish-American war, should receive furloughs to enable them to participate in the celebrations of the orthodox Jewish congregational union of America.

New President of the Mormon Church.

Salt Lake, Utah, Sept. 14.—At a special meeting of the council of apostles, held yesterday afternoon, Lorenzo Snow was chosen president of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of President Woodruff.

Corea's Rulers Poisoned.

Yokohama, Sept. 14.—Telegrams from Seoul, capital of Corea, report that the king of Corea and the crown prince were taken suddenly ill after dinner on Sunday last. Poisoning is suspected. Both are recovering. Eleven courtiers have been arrested.

A PRETTY BURGLAR.

Extravagance Led Chicago Girl to Crime, Inexperience Caused Capture.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Miss M. L. DeRoche, a young and pretty French girl, is locked up at Harrison street police station, charged with attempted burglary. Monday evening as the clerks of the Fair, a large department store, were leaving the establishment Miss DeRoche entered the store and concealed herself under a counter. She remained there without moving until 2 o'clock yesterday morning, when she made her way into the silk department and packed up $500 worth of silk, which she intended to carry out when the store should be opened in the morning. She made too much noise, however, and was caught by two of the watchmen. Her father is said to be a wealthy silk merchant of Paris, France, and she received from him every month a handsome allowance. Extravagant habits and need of money to pay her debts caused her to turn burglar.

ITEMS OF STATE NEWS.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 12.—Frederick W. Tyrell, one of the most prominent Masons in northeastern Pennsylvania, died yesterday of appendicitis, aged 57. He was division commander of the Sixteenth Masonic district and grand marshal of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Pennsylvania.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 10.—Louis Scherer, a young farmer of Hunkel township who was committed to jail on the charge of killing his brother Frank with a pitchfork, was given a habeas corpus hearing before Judge Bennett yesterday and discharged. The judge said it was an injustice to commit the man to jail on the slight evidence offered.

Wilkesbarre, Sept. 14.—The trial of Andrew Condish, charged with the murder of his friend, Andrew Sabol, came to an end last night after a verbatim record of manslaughter and a recommendation to mercy. The two men quarreled while intoxicated, and Condish struck Sabol on the head with a rake, fracturing his skull. From the effects of which he died the next day.

Pittsburg, Sept. 12.—Rev. Dr. C. C. Pershing, one of the best known Methodist Episcopal ministers in the state, died at Cambridge Springs yesterday of pneumonia. Dr. Pershing was born at Johnstown about 65 years ago, and for 26 years was president of the Pittsburg Female college. The deceased was a brother of Judge Cyrus L. Pershing, who was at one time prominent in Democratic politics and was once the party's candidate for governor.

Lock Haven, Pa., Sept. 10.—The west bound Erie rail train on the Philadelphia and Erie railroad was wrecked yesterday at North Bend, caused by the locomotive jumping the track. Engineer John M. Butler, of Harrisburg, had both legs cut off and died soon after. Fireman John Kutz and Baggage Master Devictor, both of Harrisburg, were also slightly injured. The engine ran a hundred feet on the ties and went over on its side, the tender going entirely over the engine. The baggage car turned end over end and landed 20 feet from the track. Passengers escaped injury.

Philadelphia, Sept. 12.—By the explosion of 40 gallons of gasoline in the cellar of a grocery store at 1444 South street last night surely four and possibly a dozen more lives were lost. As an immediate consequence of the explosion the building where it occurred and those adjoining it on either side collapsed. Five bodies have thus far been recovered from the ruins, as follows: Samuel Schatterstein, keeper of the grocery stores his 16-year-old son, Aaron; Birdie Schatterstein, 9 years; Rebecca Schatterstein, 17; Max Goldberg, 10 months. Schatterstein went down in the cellar with a light, and the gasoline fumes ignited. The search for bodies continues.

Pittsburg, Sept. 12.—The Eighteenth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers, arrived home from Camp Meade last night about 9 o'clock and were accorded a reception such as has seldom, if ever, been given to any four and men in this city. From the train to the armory of the regiment one solid mass of cheering humanity lined the streets, giving the returning soldiers a most enthusiastic welcome. The welcome home was remarkable in that at least 15,000 people along the Pennsylvania road from Wilmerding into Wilkesbarre lined the track on either side, burning red fire and cheering as the train passed through them on its way to the city.

Philadelphia, Sept. 12.—A. J. Cross, an American born colored man, from Sierra Leone, arrived here yesterday on the Waceland from Liverpool. He comes to protest against foreign aggression in Liberia, which he says is the present government is paying out to the Germans, French and English, against the interest of Americans. He states that recent attacks of Sierra Leone by the natives were caused by the brutality of the foreign police, and that over 1,500 persons were killed by the natives under the charge of a warrior named Bibarra. Many captives were taken, among them being the entire family of D. T. Johnson, of Hot Springs, Ark., who were taken to Liberia by the steamer Laurada.

Seranton, Pa., Sept. 10.—Lizzie Russell, a 7-year-old girl, was shot and instantly killed yesterday by Mary Moran, 14 years of age. The latter in play pointed a self-cocking revolver at the Russell girl and pulled the trigger. The bullet severed one of the main arteries, near the heart. The parents of the children are neighbors. In the Moran house, where the accident occurred, an infant child lay dead. The father was arranging to drive to Wilkesbarre to consult his brother about the funeral. He had laid the loaded revolver on a shelf, as he intended carrying it for protection during his ride home last night. The Moran girl was arrested and arraigned before an alderman. The coroner advised the discharge of the girl and she was released.

The Case Against Mrs. Botkin.

San Francisco, Sept. 14.—The habeas corpus proceedings in the Botkin case was postponed until next Monday. The matter of the extradition will be heard tomorrow by Governor Budd. Chief of Police Lees received a telegram yesterday from Attorney General White, of Delaware, stating that experts had positively identified the writing in the note which was enclosed in the box of bonbons as that of Mrs. Botkin.
