

CORRESPONDENTS

DEPARTMENT

The News Gathered From Various Sections

HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What Our Army of Alert Correspondents See and Observe Worthy of Note—The Local Happenings of Every Community Will be Gladly Published—Send the News, We will Publish it.

Nittany.

Chas. Robb has returned home from the woods.

There are still quite a number of sick folks through here.

A few folks of this place are going to attend Grange picnic.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Zerby is getting better of her fall.

The funeral of Mrs. R. Tolbert was largely attended last Thursday.

Newt Dorman was home over Sunday; he is working with the telephone men.

Mrs. Solomon Peck spent a day last week with her son Ed. and family, at this place.

Some of the farmers are done seeding, and are cutting off corn, while others are not done seeding.

DIED:—On last Sunday 11th, Mrs. Lide Chesebro, a widow lady, at her home in this place, died of typhoid fever.

You ask Mr. James Mease what made him fly around so, last Monday, and he will tell you that a young lady came to his house, and she intends to stay, too.

The members of the Evangelical Sunday School purchased a new organ. It is a fine instrument for the price. Many thanks to Mrs. Wm. Mauk for raising the money. She certainly deserves credit for her energy.

We wish to correct a few mistakes in last week's items. Sheriff Shaffer is 65 years instead of 60, and it was Mrs. Will Shaffer that was sick, not Mr. We hope this will not occur again, as we don't want to misrepresent anything.

DIED:—Mrs. Rebecca A. Tolbert, widow of Capt. T. H. Tolbert, died on Sept. 5th, at her home. Illness, dropsy; age 77 years, 9 months, 22 days. She was the mother of five children. She leaves 3 children, 15 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren to mourn their loss, but they mourn not as those who have no hope. Interment in Snyderstown cemetery. Rev. W. K. Diehl conducted the services. She has been a member of the Lutheran church, for a number of years.

Be Not Deceived! A Cough, Hoarseness or Croup are not to be trifled with. A dose in time of Shiloh's Cure will save you much trouble. Sold by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Zion.

Dr. Musser, from Pennsvalley, was in our town extracting teeth.

The farmers are about through seeding and are busily engaged in cutting corn.

Wm. Zimmerman is engaged in painting the new iron fence around our cemetery.

Mrs. Henry Noll, of Pleasant Gap, was visiting her son B. A. Noll, of this place.

The members of the Zion U. S. school remodeled their room, making it very attractive.

Rev. W. K. Diehl held his harvest home services in the Lutheran church, last Sunday.

Mrs. C. Garthoff, of Coburn, spent a few weeks here visiting her sisters, Mrs. Kauffman and Veneda.

Mrs. Sallie Dorman, who had one of her limbs fractured, is seen again walking about town. She is fast improving.

Isaac Stover has concluded a bargain for forty-seven acres in the Philip Boyer farm, and Horace Kauffman has purchased the balance.

Dr. P. S. Fisher's sons, Charles and Arthur, moved to State College. These young gentlemen expect to become students of that institution.

Jacob Wilson, of Bellefonte, who has been ill for some time, was visiting friends here a few days ago. He says he feels better since the weather has become cooler.

There was buried on Friday, in the Zion cemetery the child of Wm. Brooks, of Pleasant Gap, and on Saturday Mrs. Susan Garbrick, wife of Joseph Garbrick, Sr., from Bellefonte.

Dyspepsia Cured. Shiloh's Vitalizer immediately relieves Sour Stomach. Coming up of Food, Distress, and is the great Kidney and Liver remedy. Sold by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte.

Runville.

Lucy, wife of Elmer Resides, is on the sick list.

Samuel Lucas, of Warriors Mark, was to visit his parental home over Sunday.

Arbitus, son of Michael and Cora Witherite, is at present on the sick list.

Israel Rhue and wife, of Morrisdale Mines, were visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Rhue.

The grove meeting, held by the Free Methodist denomination in Bush Hollow, was well attended by the people of this place.

The following church officers have been elected for the ensuing year: For class leader, E. R. Hancock; assistant class leader, C. S. Lucas; stewards, Geo. W. Heaton and C. S. Lucas.

The Young People's Society have elected the following officers for the ensuing six months: Pres., Miss Maggie Lucas; Vice Pres., Miss Sallie Hancock; Treas., Geo. W. Heaton; Sec., Miss Ella Lucas.

Rev. Kelley preached his farewell sermon for the conference year, on last Sunday evening, which was attentively listened to by a large audience. The congregation voted almost unanimously to instruct the delegate to conference to do all in his power to secure Bro. Kelley for the ensuing year. As this is the third year for him on this circuit, shows that he is well liked by his congregation.

Kerr's Clover Root Tea is a pleasant laxative. Regulates the bowels, purifies the blood, clears the complexion. Easy to make and pleasant to take. 25 cts. Sold by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte.

Milesburg.

T. W. Rynder, of Erie, paid the burg a short visit, last week.

Miss Larkins, of Lock Haven, is a guest of Miss Mary Confer.

Robt. Holmes, Sr., of Lock Haven, was a recent visitor to the burg.

Miss Flora Smith, of Tyrone, was a recent guest of C. H. Elise and family.

Shafer Wagner, of Punxsutawney, was a recent visitor of Dan'l Boyer and family.

Mrs. Minerva Scott and son, of Allegheny City, are guests of her mother, Mrs. Mary McKinley.

Dr. H. S. Branch and wife lost their infant, by death, from cholera infantum. It died Sunday morning.

Byron Teller took the benefit of the late excursion, to Buffalo, Niagara, Canada, and other places of importance.

W. Campbell, of McKeesport, was a guest of his brother, W. R. Campbell. At present writing he is visiting his parents at Blanchard.

The public attention is called to the fact that on the 24th will be given in the principal streets of the burg, a large demonstration. The O. U. A. M. are arranging for a grand display. Everybody and all their friends are invited to be present. Oysters in abundance will be served at the festival.

Ladies Take the Best. If you are troubled with Constipation, Sallow Skin, and a Tired Feeling, take Kerr's Clover Tea. It is pleasant to take. Sold by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Port Matilda.

George Woodring boasts of fast driving since he got the Barker horse.

Farmers in this section are complaining of a shortage in the potato crop.

J. H. Sprankle and wife, of Altoona, are visiting the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Daughenbaugh.

George Price claims the championship in raising corn, he reports some stalks in his field at from ten to fifteen feet high.

Charles Crain, of the Willow tree store, is giving his present stock on hand a regular overhauling preparatory to laying in a large stock of fall and winter goods.

DEATH:—Died near Port Matilda, September 9, 1898, of consumption, Mrs. Martha T. Thompson. The deceased suffered much in the year past, but bore it with true Christian patience. She was a close member of the Presbyterian church, a loving wife, a tender mother and a kind neighbor. Her loss will be deeply felt by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. She leaves a husband and three small children, who deeply mourn her death. Her remains were laid in the Presbyterian cemetery at Port Matilda. The funeral was unusually large. Rev. James Hughes, officiated.

Cure that Cough with Shiloh's Cure. The best Cough Cure. Relieves Croup promptly. One million bottles sold last year. 40 doses for 25 cts. Sold by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Aaronsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stover spent a few days with friends in Lewistown.

Benj. Beaver and lady, of State College, are spending a week with friends in the burg.

Master Bright Bitner, of Spring Mills, has been visiting his Grandmother Bright for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Soavely, of Spring Mills, were the guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Fred Limbert, one day last week.

Rev. F. W. Browns have gone to Selmsgrove, to attend the Womans Missionary Society, which is in session there.

Frank Sylris and family moved from Kipple, Pa., to this place, in the house formerly occupied by George Burd.

Alouza Rupp, of Boalsburg, while on the way to the peach orchard stopped at the home of H. H. Weaver, a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Feidler, of Coburn, and Mr. Andrew Meyer and wife, of Woodward, spent one day last week at the home of Samuel Beaver's.

Frank Tomlinson and family, of Clearfield, are paying their annual visit to Noah Letzels. Frank addressed the Young People's meeting on Sunday evening, in a very pleasing manner.

—The price of the Centre Democrat and 3-times-a-week World has been reduced from $1.75 to $1.65 per year. This is a great continuation at a low price. We always furnish "The Most News for the Least Money."

Romola.

Prof. S. W. Butler, of Walker, spent a few days last week in our town.

James Boone, who has been employed in Potter county for a number of months, is now at home.

Miss Mollie Boone, who has been suffering with typhoid fever, is still in a critical condition.

Joseph Thiel and wife, of Berwick, visited among their friends and relatives in this place last week.

Corporal Daley, who, as was stated last week as suffering from typhoid malaria, is rapidly convalescing.

Newton Wilson, of Loveville, spent a few days in this place at the home of his father-in-law, H. S. DeLong.

A number of our young folks attended the bush meeting which was held near Yarnell on Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Alice Pletcher and sister Emma, two of Howard's fine young ladies, are visiting among their many friends in this place.

A great many people of our town attended the Schenck, Holter and Pletcher reunion, which was held at Howard, last Thursday.

FOR $1.50—You can get two weekly newspapers for a year—"The Centre Democrat" and either the "Pittsburg Post" or the "Cincinnati Enquirer." Our claim is to furnish the Most News for the Least Money.

Fillmore.

The farmers are cutting their corn.

Frank Harnish, of Snow Shoe, paid our town a short visit, recently.

The Meyers family, of Boalsburg, Sunday with Mr. Clayton Whitmer.

Miss Mary Bell, of Clearfield, is visiting her many friends at this place.

Miss Minnie Ardell, of Philipsburg, is visiting at the home of Daniel Stine.

We are sorry to note the illness of Mrs.

Wm. Fisher. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Ed. Wasson is poorly. He has dysentery and is being treated by Dr. Thompson, of Stormstown.

Our burg had quite a deserted appearance last Saturday, because almost everybody was at the Park.

We would like to know if Mr. Gettig found his girl. The last we knew of him he was searching for her, on his wheel.

Three passenger coaches were thrown off the track, above this place, last Saturday evening. Fortunately the coaches were empty, so nobody was hurt.

WANTED—We are anxious to hear from some of our correspondents who have neglected to send in any news from their locality. Your neighbors like to see the happenings in this paper. Send in the news and we will cheerfully print it.

—Men's working shoes $1.25—Powers Shoe Co.

Mingoville.

Jacob Zong, of Walker, spent Sunday with his parents, of this place.

J. W. Johnson, lost a valuable horse last week. The cause unknown.

The carpenters began work on Workmans house on Monday morning.

Quite a number of our people are attending granger picnic, this week.

M. M. Zong entertained Dr. J. L. Walker, of Hublersburg, on Sunday.

Geo. Robb and wife of Bellefonte was visiting at Wm. Zimmerman on Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Lee is over at Howard taking care of her sister, Mrs. Holter, who is very poorly.

Bush Meeting was well attended on Sunday from all points. They are having quite a good time.

Mother Bierly is very sick and her recovery is very doubtful. She is one of the oldest ladies in this valley.

The farmers are now busy cutting corn and finishing their seeding. The corn crop is extra good through here.

The infant son of Harry Stover has been very sick the last couple days. It is reported a case of diphtheria.

H. C. Robinson is moving his family over to Spring Mills, where he expects to engage in the boot and shoe business.

We wonder if the matrimonial bug is tickling Cline, in the ear. We rather think it is. Well we would just as soon see him get married, as anyone we know of.

Hog cholera is raging. Claud Johnson has lost 17 hogs and pigs among them was a large brood sow belonging to Wm. Leathers. Thomas Evers lost 2 of his large fattening hogs also.

Some of our young men, and also some of the older ones, wear a long face since the departure of the New York lady. We would think a crape bow worn on the lapel of their coat would be very appropriate.

Chas. Trevillian, expects to make sale of his farm stock next month. He expects to go to Iowa, where he has secured employment. He will take his family with him. The writer wishes him all the success possible.

There are a number of State College students stopping at the club house, at this place. They seem to be of a mild disposition, and have conducted themselves as perfect gentlemen. We always like to see good jovial people come here.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: We are authorized to announce that Hezekiah Corman, of Zion, a candidate for a young lady over at the Mountain, subject to the decision of her parents; also Callie Hoy, of Zion, for a lady of the same place subject to the same decision.

One of Zions young sports while showing his skill in riding his wheel around the lake, on Sunday, took a header into the water. Called after getting out of the water, again mounted his wheel, though very much excited, tried to ride up a tree, or at least ran into it.

Mother Bierly quietly passed away Monday evening after an illness of a few days. She was one of the oldest ladies in Nittany Valley. She was 82 yrs, 9 months and 26 days. Her husband preceded her to the grave in March. Interment in Jacksonville cemetery, today, at 9 o'clock. Rev. S. Earl, of Clintondale, officiating.

Walker.

Samuel Aley was to Bellefonte on Friday.

Misses Edith Wilson and Erma Ertley were to Bellefonte on Friday.

John Hoy, Sr., and wife attended the Schenck reunion, at Howard.

W. P. Lucas and wife, of Howard, visited friends at this place on Sunday.

Samuel Vonada, of Bellefonte, visited his sister Mrs. John Shafer on Sunday.

Miss Lottie Nesterhood, of Tyrone, was the guest of Miss Bessie Carter last week.

John Smith and wife spent Sunday at the east end of this valley where they attended religious services.

Miss Mattie Lucas, of Howard, and Will Kessinger, of Beech Creek, were the guests of Miss Bessie Carter, on Sunday.

Among those who attended the picnic at Hecla Park from this place on Thursday were Messrs John Holmes, Sr., and Jacob Orndorf.

—Finest line of childrens school shoes ever brought to Centre County, at low prices—Powers Shoe Co.

DAVID LEWIS, THE ROBBER who died in the jail in Bellefonte July 13th, 1892, was well known to our citizens. Several years ago I published a book of 34 pages, size of page 5 1/2 x 9 inches paper cover, giving his life and adventures, for 25 cents. Having several hundred copies remaining on hand which I shall dispose of at the reduced price of 15 cents. Also war maps of Cuba, size 21x27 inches, as neat as a chromo, printed on heavy paper, reduced from 30 cents to 20 cents.

Assortment of large chromos, seven in a set for 25 cents or 5 cents each. Tiny flags like postage stamps with mullage to place on letters, envelopes, etc., for 2 cents a package or six packages for 25 cents each containing 24 flags. This will please the little folks.

Liberal inducement to dealers. Any reader of the Democrat who sends me the name of five teachers and ten cents I will mail him one package of flags and two chromos.

C. D. FISHER, Altoona, Pa.

WANTED—Several Trustworthy Persons in this state to manage our business in their own and nearby counties. It is mainly office work conducted at home. Salary straight $20 a year and expenses—definite, bonafide, more, no less salary. Monthly $25. References. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. Herbert E. Hess, Pres't, Dep't H., Chicago, 331

We will mail THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL, beginning with the October number, to January 1, 1899, also THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, every week, from the time subscription is received to January 1, 1899, on receipt of only Twenty-five Cents.

Advertisement for 'The Ladies' Home Journal' and 'The Saturday Evening Post'. Lists special features like 'Men and Women of the Hour', 'The Post's Series of Practical Sermons', and 'The Best Poems of the World'. Published by THE CURTIS PUBLISHING COMPANY, PHILADELPHIA.

THE WONDERS OF SCIENCE

Advertisement for 'E. K. Rhoads' medicine. Claims to cure lung troubles and consumption. Includes text: 'LUNG TROUBLES AND CONSUMPTION NOT BE CURED. An eminent New York Chemist and Scientist makes a free offer to our readers.'

GETTING READY

Advertisement for 'Mother's Friend' medicine. Claims to help mothers get ready for childbirth. Includes text: 'Every expectant mother has a trying ordeal to face. If she does not get ready for it, there is no telling what may happen.'

Advertisement for 'The Bradfield Regulator Co.' medicine. Claims to be a 'Mother's Friend' for relieving motherhood of danger and pain. Includes text: 'Nature is not given proper assistance. Mother's Friend is the best help you can use at this time.'

Advertisement for 'E. K. Rhoads' products. Lists 'ANTHRACITE AND BITUMINOUS COALS', 'WOOD, GRAIN, HAY, STRAW AND SAND', and 'ROYAL STOCK FOOD'. Includes contact information: 'Telephone 1312'.

Advertisement for 'The Dietz Driving Lamp'. Claims to be 'about as near perfection as 50 years of Lamp-making can attain to'. Includes text: 'It burns kerosene, and gives a powerful, clear, white light, and will neither blow nor jar out.'

Advertisement for 'How to Make Money!'. Claims to help people get out of employment. Includes text: 'If you are out of employment and want a position, paying you from $20 to $100 monthly, we will help you by working regular, or if you want to increase your present income, we will help you by working at odd times.'

Advertisement for 'BEEZER'S MEAT MARKET'. Lists products like 'BEEF PORK and MUTTON', 'GENERAL INSURANCE', and 'GRANT HOOVER'. Includes address: '1st Floor, Crider's Stone Building, BELLEFONTE, PENN'A.'

Advertisement for 'McCluskey Bros.' slate roofing. Claims to be 'the best slate roofing'. Includes address: 'McCluskey Bros., Lock Haven, Pa.'

Advertisement for 'A. SNOW & CO.' patents. Claims to be 'the best patent office'. Includes address: 'A. SNOW & CO., Patent Office, WASHINGTON, D. C.'