

THE RACKET

No. 9 and 11 Critter's Exchange, Bellefonte, Pa.

I would like to call the attention of the ladies of Centre county, to the excellent quality of the fleece lined vests and pants, we offer this season for 25 CENTS.

They were intended for a good seller, but on account of an occasional drop stitch or oil spot were classed as "seconds"—This "special" cannot be found elsewhere in the County—we also offer a lighter weight fleece vest for 17c and another for 35c that are worth seeing before you buy.

The "Gaiety" Union suit, no buttons, easy to put on, made of wool at $1.25, and Cotton Union fitted. The Melba at 50c, Children's Union suits at 25c—with our big size men at 25, 50 and $1. Stamp our Underwear Dept. as first-class, saving nothing of the Dr. Jaegers finest all wool underwear, made in Germany and the new starter, Dr. Deinic Luen Mesh.

G. R. SPIGELMYER.

LIEUT. HOBSON.

Taken on the Merrimac. Undertook a risky performance in entering Santiago harbor. In doing clothing we take all risks for little gain, while you get the very best in the market, with no risks.

"Choose Ye"

There is "clothing," and then again there are clothes! If one is satisfied merely to be clad, that is one thing! To appear Well Dressed is quite another! To be well dressed must wear good clothes!

That doesn't mean expensive clothes! If produced under favorable conditions Good Clothes can be sold at Very Moderate Prices.

In our superb stock of Fall suits, overcoats, etc., every requirement of fashion, quality and economy is fully met.

Our materials are purchased from first hands, in large quantities, and made up by the most skillful cutters and tailors.

Our made up garments are sold at prices that only a large business done at a small expense will justify. A visit, and a close inspection will satisfy you that there's no place like Montgomery & Co. to buy your clothes.

Montgomery & Co., Progressive Clothiers, Bellefonte, Pa.

HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What Our Army of Alert Correspondents See and Observe Worthy of Note—The Local Happenings of Every Community Will be Gladly Published—Send the News, We will Publish it.

Mingoville.

Chas. Robb dined with Will Zimmerman, one day last week.

Quite a number of quail were killed on the first day of hunting season.

Mrs. Lyman Bickle and son, of Zion, were the guests of Mrs. Zong, on Sunday.

H. C. Robinson and wife were to attend the funeral of the latter's aunt, Mrs. Rupert.

The club people and others are busy shooting quail. Everybody that is able to carry a gun has one.

Charlie says it only costs $5.00 to get married out that is small compared with the cost of his household goods.

N. H. Yearick built a new corn house and wagon shed combined, which is quite convenient for his farm, and was badly needed.

Albert Steininger who had been sick with typhoid fever at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Losh, we are glad to say is able to be around again.

W. R. Shope has his saw mill in full operation. He has shipped several car loads of white oak lumber east. He surely is a hustler and understands the lumbering business.

Mrs. Lewis Zimmerman will accompany her son Chas. Trevisan to Stuart, Iowa, where she has two sons and one daughter living. She expects to make that her future home.

Some of the farmers say: "Oh don't miss the farmers reception, at the club house next fall." We rather think those that were there this year did not forget it for a day or two afterwards.

Chas. Snyder, of Millheim, while out hunting on Monday, was accidentally shot in the face, by one of his fellow hunters. Five shot were taken out by Dr. McCormick, of Hublersburg.

The sale of Chas. Trevisan was well attended on Thursday and everything brought a fair price. They are visiting among their relatives now, but will depart for Stuart, Iowa, on Tuesday, Oct. 25. May success accompany him is the wish of the writer.

Mrs. Rupert quietly passed away on Monday evening, Oct. 19th, after a long siege of suffering from abscesses on her limbs. She leaves to mourn two brothers, both of them living in the far west. Interment in the Reformed cemetery at Hublersburg, on Thursday. Rev. Sechrist officiating.

Hublersburg.

Some of our farmers are done husking corn. It is a good crop.

Mrs. Jacob H. Weaver is quite low with consumption, at present.

Boyd Kreamer was confined to the house with sore throat the past week.

Quite a number of improvements have been made by property owners in this town during the summer: D. A. Deitrich remodeled his house, Dr. McCormick built an addition to his house, D. M. Whitman is reroofing his house, Hubler's hotel is also being reroofed, Wm. Decker's new buildings are also nearing completion and will make quite an attractive home. Next in order would be new boardwalks. Who will make the start.

DEATH—Mrs. Mary Decker, nee Clevens, wife of John Decker, died last Thursday night after a lingering illness. She was born April 17th, 1833, and was 65 years, 5 months, and 26 days old. She was a devoted Christian and a kind neighbor. She leaves a husband and the following children: Christ and Mrs. Rockey, of Zion; William, of Ironva; Edwin, of Lock Haven; Charles and Herbert and Mrs. Irvin Yarnell, of this place, together with a host of friends to mourn her loss. Funeral services were held on Sunday, conducted by Rev. Runkle of the Reformed church, which were largely attended showing the estimation which the community had for her.

Nittany.

Mr. and Mrs. Zerby took a trip over to Penns valley on Saturday.

The farmers are busy putting away their corn, which is a fair crop.

Mr. Will Knecht and family, of Parvin, were the guests of Mr. B. F. Shaffer on Sunday.

Miss Blanche Holmes, of Lamar, is making her home with Mrs. Rachel Rossman, this winter.

There was lots of shooting going on Saturday, but how many squirrels were killed, we didn't find out.

Mrs. Amanda Evans, of Rebersburg, has been staying with her sister, Mrs. Crawford during her sickness.

Mr. Tate, of McKeesport, was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. McCaslin and family, a few days last week.

We are sorry to hear that Bellmont and Hannah Beck, children of Charley Beck, are both laid up with sore throat.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. B. F. Crawford is able to be up and around again, after being sick in bed for two weeks.

Mr. William Stover and wife and niece, Miss Bennet, of Brookville, were the guests of their niece Mrs. William Mauck and family, last week.

Axemann.

A new roof is being put on the large mill in our town, which was needed very badly.

Mrs. John Sampsel and Miss Jennie Knofsfinger spent Sunday with friends in our town.

Reuben Kaup and family Sundayed at the home of his brother, Geo. Kaup, of near Bellefonte.

Mrs. George Harter and children, of near Oak Grove, spent Sunday with relatives in our town.

Mrs. E. Frasier, of Altoona, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hunter of our town.

Miss Cynthia Hoover, of Mountain View, spent Sunday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Wallace White.

Rock View.

Miss Edith Herman has been very ill for some time, but is recovering.

Samuel Tibbens and sister, of Nebraska, were seen in this vicinity.

There will be preaching at Peru, next Sunday evening by Rev. Horner. Every one is cordially invited to attend.

By what the correspondent can understand, James Mackey, of Spring Creek, carries the championship for raising big corn. He raised one stalk 13 feet high with three ears, each ear having 14 rows of grains, and measure respectively 12, 14 and 16 inches in length, with a medium sized field pumpkin in the top of the stalk. James is a good farmer and comes out on top every time.

On Friday night of last week a jolly crowd of calathumpians met at the toll gate along the Boalsburg pike for the purpose of serenading R. A. Miller and wife who were located at that place. The music commenced about 8:30 o'clock and about 9 o'clock the bride and groom made their appearance at the door, after which a treat was given to the noisy boys. Congratulations were tendered to the young married couple. From there the crowd went to Spring Creek, at the residence of A. G. Kuhns, where they found Mr. John E. Kuhn and wife and gave the same music as before. They made their appearance soon after the music commenced, and another treat was given after which the boys showed their respect to the young married couple by wishing them a long and safe journey through life.

Sober.

Andrew Zettes were the guests of J. P. Wolfe on Sunday.

Anthony Garver was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Malinda Smith.

Mrs. Mary Shunk is confined to bed for the last three weeks; old age is the cause.

The correspondents of this place were almost forgotten, but since the chestnuts are past, they get time to correspond on Sunday.

The rabbit season is here and Warren has a new gun; not a rabbit will be left for next fall. (Better consult your game laws; season opens Nov. 1st.—Ed.)

Fred Auman, you ought to be ashamed to make Frank Miller pay ten dollars for bumping chestnut trees and only getting about two quarts of chestnuts. Those ten dollars would come very handy to buy clothes for the girl, that came to his home on Sunday night.

A. H. Frank, of this place went to Farmer's Mills for a horse and buggy to go to Aaronsburg on Sunday. Two round trips to Farmer's Mills would be 20 miles and one trip to Aaronsburg would be 12 miles. This is as bad as the man that walked from Millheim to Smithtown for a horse to ride to Aaronsburg.

Pine Creek.

We had a wedding on Sunday.

James Bird's house is painted very nicely.

James Glasgow's little boy is on the sick list.

Michael Everetts had very good water melons for sale yet.

Jackson Stover and family were off on a pleasant trip, on Sunday.

G. B. Shaffers, of Pine Creek, were the visitors of Wm. Kerstetters on Sunday.

Mrs. Perry Stover and Mrs. James Harter were to Aaronsburg on Tuesday.

Miss Laura Ard, daughter of Dr. Ard, of Woodward, was the guest of Michael Everetts, one day last week.

Three Doctors in Consultation.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says is best to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to natural and healthy condition. For sale by F. Potts Green, Bellefonte, Pa.

Incident to Grow Timber.

Owners of land having a forest of timber trees of fifty acres and not less than fifty trees to an acre, each tree to measure at least eight inches in diameter at a height of six feet above the surface, shall be entitled to receive annually from the commissioners of their respective counties, during the period the trees are maintained in sound condition, a sum equal to eighty per cent. of all taxes annually assessed on such fifty acres, or 80 per cent. of eighty per cent. as does not exceed forty-five cents per acre. No person can receive a reduction on more than fifty acres.

Opera House Attractions.

William Garman will manage Garman's opera house for the season of 1898-'99, and the list of his attractions already booked are as follows:

Nov. 14th, Martin's Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Dec. 2nd, Roger Bros. "Next Door."

Feb. 13th, Keller, the Magician.

Feb. 20, Rickett's Comedians.

Applications for dates from some other companies are being considered, and it is probable that a sufficient number will be selected to give Bellefonters amusement during the show season.

A SENATORIAL SCANDAL

Some Grave Charges From Republican Sources.

OSBORNE'S SENATORIAL DEAL

Allegations That Womelsdorf Traded the Nomination for a Mine Inspectorship—Elkins Said to be in the Deal to Defeat Miller the Anti-Quay Candidate—Decried Miller.

George L. Miller, of Westport, Clinton County, Pa. is mad, very mad, and indeed justly mad at his treatment at the hands of the Centre and Clearfield County aspirants for the senatorship; so are Mr. Miller's friends, whose name is legion in Clinton County; so are all the anti-Quay Republican leaders and henchmen of the County of Clinton. These are in the majority in that county's politics and have complete control of the Clinton County organization, but they feel that they have been cheated, humbugged, and outraged by the deal between these two worthies to the very last moment by pretending to be contesting seriously for the senatorial nomination, when the whole matter had been settled weeks in advance to the mutual satisfaction of both contracting parties. Long before the meeting of the conferees Mr. Miller and his friends received notice from Quay circles that Osborn had been selected by the chief boss to represent this district in the senate. But George L. Miller is a man of brains, of great influence and political integrity; he had been selected by the anti-Quay people of Clinton County as their candidate, and in the preliminary battle had triumphed without difficulty over his Quay opponent; he, therefore, had the choice of Clinton County's three conferees, and his honor was pledged to continue the fight against Quay in the district. The Republican party of Clinton County expected him to do it, and the apparent condition of things in the district justified him in the effort. It is true that Osborn as a pronounced Quay healer had beaten Mr. Mitchell, the Wanamaker candidate, by a small majority, and had obtained the three conferees of Clearfield County; but this victory had been obtained through the worst machine political methods and all over Clearfield there were and still are evidences of a general revolt, both on the part of honest leaders as well as the rank and file of the party. Mr. Miller, therefore, had every reason to expect substantial aid from Osborn's home county, but his best prospects came from Centre. Womelsdorf was the only Republican candidate. Two years ago our readers will remember Womelsdorf was the opened and avowed Wanamaker candidate for the Legislature, and was defeated because he so announced his leanings. Order came from Quay to beat him, because Quay would always rather have a Democrat than an anti-Quay Republican in the Legislature. Of course, Womelsdorf would naturally be anti-Quay in this fight, but a change had come over W's dreams; all through the preliminary canvass every one in Centre County knew that he would not be nominated and did not expect it. Every Quay leader in private said Osborn would be nominated. Osborn himself, in his home town of DuBois, repeatedly and publicly declared that he would be nominated, and that there was an understanding between him and Womelsdorf, that Womelsdorf was to receive a mine-inspectorship, or a place in that State department. Miller's conferees say without hesitation that Osborn frequently made the above statement without hesitation and reserve. The fact that he stated so is public property known all over the district.

In order to insure the success of the deal Osborn called upon State Chairman Elkins in person in order to have the deal ratified by him. We state what we know from unimpeachable sources that Mr. Elkins admitted the visit from Osborn, but, of course, did not admit that he had authorized the deal.

The trouble was that Womelsdorf as an avowed Wanamaker man had to make a pretense of making a fight for the nomination, and so the conference dragged on from one adjournment meeting until another, and the Clinton County conferees were pulled from one place to another in the district until the very last day in Phillipsburg; on that day, Steele Crissman, Womelsdorf's personal and political friend, openly criticised Womelsdorf for his delay in not making Osborn's nomination, stating that the whole thing was agreed upon, that all of Womelsdorf's claims were satisfactorily complied with, and that it was simple nonsense to prolong the conference to so late an hour. These frequent statements of Osborn's and his friends and Womelsdorf's friends, and the deal between the two was well known to Mr. Miller and his friends. Is it any wonder that the Clinton County conferees refused to make Osborn's nomination unanimous? Is it any wonder that the Renovo Record openly advocates the defeat of Osborn, that the men working in the Renovo shops are almost to a man against him, that the feeling of indignation against Osborn, not only as the Quay candidate, but as the successful victor in an ignoble, political bargain is rapidly rising to a high tide which will result in an overwhelming overthrow of the ring man at the polls in that county? The salary which Mr. Womelsdorf expects to get for his share in the deal is $3000.00 per year and expenses. It is promised him just as the senatorial nomination was promised Osborn. Will either of them get it? This disgraceful deal must be ratified by the people next November in order to be successful, but the people know of it, they already condemn it, and at the November polls will overwhelmingly repudiate the shameful dicker. If these rumors are not correct why, in Heaven's name, did not Womelsdorf nominate the Wanamaker man from Clinton County, instead of the Quay man from Clearfield? To explain away these and worse rumors, both Womelsdorf and Osborn may have the use of these columns.

Attention.
Dr. M. Salm, of Columbus, Ohio, will be in Bellefonte, Pa., at the New Brockerhoff House, Allegheny street, on Thursday, October 27th. Call and see him.

To Have Teeth Like Pearls.
The reckless manner in which most people abuse their teeth is enough to make their worst enemy remonstrate with them. The care of the teeth should be begun in babyhood, a soft toothbrush being used twice a day by whoever has care of the infant. As soon as the first teeth loosen the child should be taken to a dentist to remove them, so the new teeth will have room. After this periodical visits should be made to the dentist. A child should never be allowed to bite bread or crack nuts with his teeth, for it is likely to chip the enamel.

The teeth, to be kept in proper order and to look white and immaculate, should not only be brushed night and morning, but after every meal in the day. The toothbrush must be rather hard and you must provide yourself with two or three of various shapes, so as to keep the teeth in proper condition, as you cannot properly clean every tooth unless you have a brush that is specially constructed to reach the back corners in your mouth. A toothbrush should be well washed in clean fresh water and either soap or ammonia used now and then to clean it with.

It must be remembered that to take too hot drinks or eat too hot food is very bad, indeed, for the teeth. The rapid transition from heat to cold is the worst possible thing that could happen to them and often causes cracks and disease of the teeth. If vinegar is taken with one's food or medicine in which is any kind of iron, steel or any acid, the teeth not only should be well brushed afterward, but the medicine taken through a glass tube.

Affecting the Health.
Do not eat very acid fruit with farinaceous food unless you have a very good digestion.

Hops pillows are a great comfort to nervous people and a headache is often soothed thereby.

Oranges, lemons and limes affect most directly the complexion and are especially good if taken before breakfast.

Early morning exercise is denounced nowadays by the majority of hygienic teachers. At that time, they say, vitality is at its lowest ebb and needs the stimulation of food.

A French physician declares that dyspepsia is often caused by soup. He says it distends the stomach and prevents the digestion of the solids that are eaten after the soup.

An excessively nervous woman, if she has a liking for onions, should gratify it. Two or three eaten with bread and butter before going to bed are a fine sedative.

Ripe peaches are easily digested and are also fattening. Strawberries, containing a larger percentage of iron than any other fruit, enrich the blood.
