Making Clothes

To Measure.

Is an art nowadays, and it isn't everybody who knows what are the latest points. Our tailoring department is organized and run by young men whose only thought is to better and perfect the clothes-making they do. We can't afford to have a man take away a garment that is not satisfactory. If you're not acquainted with us and our methods we don't know a better way or time than to ask you to see now. Our Mr. Bullock's only thought is to made perfect fitting clothes. No matter town. We have just opened our heavy overcoatings. They're beautiful.

Men's Suits.

It's almost taking our great stock by storm-the way people have come in for our suits. Goods for all tastes are among these roomfuls, cheviots, worsteds, cassimers; double-breasted and singlebreasted; walking coat and double cates it. breasted sack suits-they're all here and properly priced-$7.50 to $20.

Come in; no obligation to buy; only you-'re not doing fair to your own pocket unless you see what sort of clothes we are telling about how they're made and what they cost.

Men's Overcoats.

Hundreds of overcoats. See the window display and follow up that sight by coming right in and handling the overcoats. A physician would ask if you had rheumatism, a dull pain or ache in the back or over the hips, stomach trouble, desire to urinate often, or a burning or scalding in passing it; if after passing there is an unsatisfied feeling as if it must be at once repeated, or if the urine has a brick dust deposit or strong odor.

When these symptoms are present, no time should be lost in removing the cause. Delay may lead to gravel, catarrh of the bladder, inflammation, causing stop-page, and sometimes requiring the drawing of the urine with instruments, or may run into Bright's Disease, the most dangerous stage of kidney trouble. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great discovery of the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, is a positive remedy for such diseases. Its reputation is world-wide and it is so easy to get at any drug store that no one need suffer any length of time for want of it.

THE RIGHT MAN FOR GOVERNOR

Why a Palmer and Buckner Leader Supports Mr. Jenks.

A Vigorous Communication From Samuel Dickson, a Leader of the Philadelphia Bar-Facts For All Honest Citizens to Ponder.

The strongest men in Pennsylvania, regardless of partisan, factional or financial views, are rapidly getting into line for Jenks and reform. The Philadelphia Ledger, notwithstanding its large proportion of Democratic readers, has been hitherto very unfriendly to the Democratic nominee for governor, being inspired to this course by certain well known influences which were against the Democratic party two years ago. But the tide of public indignation against Quayism, and the manifest determination of the people to rise superior to party and to overthrow the enemies of honest government, is showing The Ledger the error of its ways, and that journal is now devoting every day a large amount of space to the Jenks meetings, and editorially is pursuing a much more commendable course with regard to the state contest. Our contemporary gives a solid column, on its editorial page, to Samuel Dickson, Esq., one of the leading lawyers of the country, who shows in the strongest language not only why all Democrats of his way of thinking should support Mr. Jenksand he was one of the Palmer and Buckner leaders in 1896-but all other good citizens as well. Mr. Dickson thus writes:

"As many independent voters are apparently in doubt as to whether to vote for Dr. Swallow or Mr. Jenks, a statement of some of the reasons which will lead many of the sound money Democrats to vote for the latter may be of interest. The first is, that the powers conferred and the duties imposed upon the governor of the state are of such transcendent importance the choice. In point of fact, the office of governor is of singularly little consequence relative to party politics. He has but little patronage, and, in recent years, at least, he has not been a party leader. On the other hand, he has a controlling influence in the making and amending of laws of the state, which really come home to the people Every one, who knows anything, knows that the laws which govern the tenure of property, by which every man holds his house and his goods, which relate to the effect and enforcement of contracts, taxation, to schools, to roads and all the interests which really enter into our daily life, are state laws. Now, when it is remembered that at the session of 1897 over 400 new statutes were enacted, making up a volume of over 500 pages, it is apparent that the incessant tampering with our laws is an imminent danger to every property

"It must be conceded by every one who pauses to reflect that the first and fundamental questions as to the candidate for the high office of governor of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania are those of Jefferson: Is he capable? Is he honest? Tried by this test, there is one candidate and one only who satisfies the requirements of the office. For half a lifetime Mr. Jenks has been known as a leader of the bar of Pennsylvania. His life has been led in the open practice of his profession, and is known to his neighbors and the beach and bar of the state as an open book. It is the common and concurrent testimony of all that he had enriched a vigorous and capacious intellect by unremitting and discriminating study, and the effect of his powerful and logical arguments is reinforced by a character so genuine and open and sincere that the listener gives absolute confidence to every word he utters. He has not only had the leading practice in his own county, but he has been sent for to appear in every court in that section of the state, and his arguments before our own supreme court and the supreme court of the United States and the electoral commission have given him eminence among lawyers in the entire country. In addition to his forensic ability he is an exceptionally calm, wise, judicially minded man-a safe and good counsellor as well as effective advocate. It is impossible that one of such intelligence and character could such intelligence and character could be deceived by bad advisers or coerced or cajoled into doing what his own conscience condemned. No single voter, if required to select a lawyer to advise or act for him in that part of the state, would fail to consider himself fortunate if he should secure the services of such a man. Now that we are all compelled to choose one as our adviser and representative at Harrisburg, why should we not do collectively what any one of us would do if acting alone?

"Without making any invidious comparison, it may be said with entire confidence that no one would engage the services of Dr. Swallow to represent him in any private matter calling for knowledge of the law, or sobriety of judgment, or prudence in action. On which ever side the account between him and Governor Hastings the balance should be struck, the fact is that he was convicted of libel before Judge Simonton, as accomplished a judge as sits in any coult of the state; and when called before the committee of investigation, composed of men of all parties,"

It is inconceivable how any business man would be willing to trust one so reckless and incautious to pass upon the revision of our laws, or to use the National Guard to enforce order. He is simply impossible. As to Mr. Stone, it is enough to say that his political life has always displayed the qualities becoming a follower-none of the qualifications of a leader. "The sentimental influence upon na-tional politics, by the election of a suiteven if temporarily prejudicial, it is always wise to bear in mind that as true reform can only be worked to the mind that as true reform the able person for governor, it likely to be one or the other of the two great parties, it is essential to the safety and welfare of the people that they should be kept as nearly as possible in even balance. Nothing could be more salutary for the Republican party itself than to have its old adversary restored to equal strength, so that each may know that the only hope for preference in the popular vote is in greater diligence for well doing. There is no discipline for official misconduct like defeat, and there is no safeguard for the party in force like a powerful opponent; but no permanent party organization can be effected and maintained in this state or in this country upon only one of the Ten Commandments.
