

THE SPANIARDS YIELD

To All of Our Peace Commissioners' Demands.

THEY MAKE A PITIFUL PROTEST.

Cannot Afford to Renew the War, and Decided, "In the Interest of Humanity," to "Submit to the Conditions of the Conquerors."

Paris, Nov. 29.—Spain has accepted the United States' offer of $20,000,000, and at a joint session of the peace commissions yesterday afternoon consented without condition to relinquish Cuba and to cede Porto Rico, Guam and the Philippine Islands.

The document presenting this acceptance contained only 300 words. It opened with a reference to the final terms of the United States, and said that the Spanish commissioners, after having taken cognizance of the terms proposed by the Americans, replied that their government had tried to give an equitable answer as possible, but that they were not prepared to commit their government to the acceptance of the principles embodied in the American argument.

The document presenting this acceptance contained only 300 words. It opened with a reference to the final terms of the United States, and said that the Spanish commissioners, after having taken cognizance of the terms proposed by the Americans, replied that their government had tried to give an equitable answer as possible, but that they were not prepared to commit their government to the acceptance of the principles embodied in the American argument.

Spain's reply yesterday, in substance, continued by declaring that the United States has offered, as a kind of compensation to Spain, something very inadequate to the sacrifices the latter country makes at this moment, and she feels, therefore, that the United States' proposal cannot be considered just and equitable.

Spain has, however, exhausted all the resources of diplomacy in an attempt to justify her attitude. Seeing that an acceptance of the proposal made to Spain is a necessary condition to a continuance of negotiations, and seeing that the resources of Spain are not such as to enable her to re-enter upon war, she is prepared, in her desire to avoid bloodshed and from considerations of humanity and patriotism, to submit to the conditions of the conquering nation, however harsh they may be.

A great deal of interest was taken in yesterday's meeting. The two commissions arrived at the foreign office in carriages in the rain, almost simultaneously, and, repairing to the conference room, immediately opened the only business before them.

Senor Montero Rios, the president of the Spanish commission, has usually preceded the presentation of a Spanish communication in writing by verbally summarizing it, but yesterday Senor Rios was silent and unusually grave. His face was deeper lined, and he clearly showed the mental strain under which he was laboring as he approached the final relinquishment of Spain's colonial possessions.

Without a word, Senor Montero Rios produced two typewritten sheets and passed them to the interpreter of the United States commission, Mr. Ferguson, who read them substantially as cabled, the outline of the Spanish document being furnished later to a press correspondent by Senor Ojeda.

The commissioners left the foreign office immediately after the secretaries had been directed to prepare the articles of the peace treaty. There was scarcely any conversation between the American and Spanish commissioners after the adjournment.

Among the Americans only the most grave consideration for their Spanish colleagues was apparent. The Spaniards seemed to be relieved at having arrived at the conclusion of a long controversy.

Having embodied in the treaty articles all the protocol questions, the two commissions will now enter upon friendly negotiations regarding the matters suggested in the American ultimatum a week ago, matters subsidiary and incidental to the principal provisions, which must form part of the peace treaty as finally signed. These include the religious freedom of the Caroline Islands, as agreed to 12 years ago; the release of political prisoners now held by Spain in connection with the insurrections in Cuba and the Philippines; the taking over of the island of Kosuati, or Uralan, in the Carolines, for a telegraphic and naval station; cable station rights at other points in Spain's jurisdiction, and the renewal of certain treaties previously in force between the United States and Spain which may be lapsed or been violated by war.

QUAY FILES DEMURRERS.

Motion to Quash the Indictments Made By His Counsel.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—The great Quay conspiracy case came up in the court of quarter sessions yesterday and was argued for nearly three hours before Judge Finletter. Demurrers were filed by the defense to four of the five indictments, and a motion to quash the fifth was made. The latter was on the indictment in which the Haywood letter to the People's bank figured, notifying the bank that he would, as state treasurer, deposit $100,000, and that Richard R. Quay was to borrow $100,000 from the bank. After arguments by Rufus E. Shapley and A. S. L. Shields for the defense and District Attorney Graham court was adjourned until today, Judge Finletter reserving his decision. At today's session the judge had the case still under advisement.

The chief point in the argument for the defense appeared to be that when state money was deposited in a bank it ceased to be state money and became the personal property of the bank. It was admitted that the funds were deposited in the People's bank as alleged, but it was contended that if a burglar had stolen that money he would have taken the bank's money and not that of the state. This simile was used to prove that if the defendants borrowed the money they secured the bank's money and not the state's.

BLANCO LEAVES HAVANA.

The Fiercy Captain General Sails For His Native Land.

Havana, Nov. 30.—Marshal Blanco went on board the steamer Villaverde shortly before midnight, and the steamer left for Spain early this morning. He finished dinner at 8 o'clock last evening, and then, accompanied by his aides, Major Duzell and Captain Panzan, went on foot to pay a farewell visit to the family of Senor Lambillo, with whom he has been in former years on terms of intimate friendship. Afterward the boat of the captain of the port carried him to the Villaverde.

Two companies of the Otumba battalion embarked on the Villaverde at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Last evening the Spanish steamer Covadonga sailed with two batteries of artillery, the Gerona squadron of cavalry and the Fifth battalion of infantry, a total of 1,800 men.

SPANISH SOLDIERS ORDERLY.

General Butler Speaks Well of Our Whilom Enemies.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Major General M. C. Butler had another conference with the president yesterday concerning affairs in Cuba. In an interview he said: "Since the American commissioners have been in Havana about 20,000 soldiers have been sent back to Spain. Thirty-two transports will soon arrive there and take away from 50,000 to 60,000 more. The remainder will depart about the first of January or soon afterward."

General Butler said that it was hard to tell how many Spanish soldiers will remain on the island to become citizens. At one time a decree was issued permitting some to make their homes in Cuba, but this was withdrawn. General Butler added a good word for the Spanish soldiers. He said he had never seen a more orderly or better behaved lot of men. He saw thousands of them every day and never witnessed a disorderly act.

Gillett Made a Big haul.

Kansas City, Nov. 30.—The liabilities of Grant D. Gillett, the absconding Kansas City cattle plunger, continue to grow, and the belief that he had prepared for the crash months ahead becomes stronger. "Gillett must have taken hundreds of thousands with him," said a prominent member of one of the caught firms. "It was at first supposed that, finding himself in straits for the first time, Gillett had simply thrown up everything and left penniless. But we know now that he owed a million and a half dollars, and we cannot find where he invested or spent more than half that sum." There is a scramble at the stock yards for every train load of Gillett's cattle shipped in from his Woodbine ranch.

Cervera's Fittle Warnings.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The navy department publishes, through the office of Naval Intelligence, the "Views of Admiral Cervera regarding the Spanish navy in the late war." This is a reprint of a number of letters published in La Epoca, of Madrid, on the 5th of the present month. The letters are dated from before the war up to May 5. They were written by Cervera in protest against Spain rushing into war in the face of certain defeat, due to the naval strength of the United States and the unpreparedness of the Spanish navy.

Negro Soldiers Threatening.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 30.—Rumor has been rife in the city that the negro soldiers of the Third North Carolina regiment, stationed here, intended to break out of camp and destroy the city, and much uneasiness has been felt both by citizens and soldiers. The excitement among the negro soldiers was caused by the shooting in self defense of Private Will Kempin, of Company F, Third North Carolina, by W. S. Simmons, proprietor of a saloon. Kempin is thought to be fatally wounded. Simmons is in jail.

The Magowan's Out on Bail.

Cleveland, Nov. 30.—Frank A. Magowan and wife were arraigned before Judge Disette in criminal court yesterday upon the charge of child stealing. After a brief hearing Magowan's wife was placed at $2,500 and that of his wife at $1,000 for their appearance in court today. Hackman & Johnson, attorneys, furnished the bail. Mr. Magowan stated that the case would be bitterly contested, and no effort or money would be spared in the fight.

SEÑOR SAGASTA SAD.

His Emotion on the Conclusion of the Peace Negotiations.

CARLIST UPRISING IMMINENT.

The Spanish Government Has Ordered the Military and Civil Authorities to Maintain the Strictest Vigilance Over Telegraphs and Telephones.

Madrid, Nov. 30.—Senor Sagasta showed much emotion on learning that the Spanish commissioners in Paris had formally agreed to sign the treaty of peace on the American conditions, but he assured his friends that he was convinced he had adopted the best course in the interests of the country and the monarchy, adding that the news had lifted a great weight from the minds of the people.

The government, apprehensive as to the effects of signing the peace treaty, has ordered the military and civil authorities to maintain the greatest vigilance over telegrams and telephones. A strict censorship of newspapers is continued throughout the country, and special severity is shown with respect to articles alluding to the peace negotiations.

Unfavorable information had been received, even from official sources, concerning the Carlist propaganda and preparations, which are decidedly assuming serious proportions. El Epoca says that Carlist is spreading, not only in Biscay, but in Gulpuzcoa, a Basque province bordering on France, and in places hitherto tranquil. The Bilbao papers report official precautions there owing to the smuggling of muskets.

Other papers assert that the Carlists are openly offering in Madrid and elsewhere commissions for officers and daily pay at three pesetas for volunteers. There is much anxiety in financial and political circles lest the Carlists seize the opportunity which is presented by the profound disappointment of the country at the loss of the Philippines, after the government had unwisely led the nation to believe the archipelago would be retained.

The Carlists do not conceal their intention to issue a manifesto, though the government has issued orders for the severe repression of any disturbance. Many noted civil and military Carlist leaders have been abroad for some time, and there is no doubt the Carlists have collected funds in Spain, if not abroad. Their propaganda in the army, however, has been unsuccessful, even among the discontented repatriated soldiers, who were expected to become willing recruits.

HONORING IGLESIAS.

President McKinley Dines the Chief Magistrate of Costa Rica.

Washington, Nov. 30.—President McKinley had as guest of honor at dinner last night President Iglesias, of Costa Rica. Invited to meet President Iglesias were the vice president, Mr. Ho-

SENOR DON RAFAEL IGLESIAS. bart, the representatives at this capital of the South and Central American governments, the members of the cabinet and other gentlemen prominent in the official and social life of Washington.

The interior of the executive mansion was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers. The great east room was particularly beautiful, magnificent palms and flowering tropical plants being banded in the window sills and about the room. In the main hall-way leading from the east room to the state dining room the orchestral section of the Marine band was stationed. It furnished music throughout the evening.

A Bereft Husband's Pathetic Suicide

Watertown, N. Y., Nov. 30.—Fred W. Ganther, the champion bicycle rider of northern New York, killed himself at his home at Pamela yesterday. Ganther's wife died in the morning while giving birth to a child. The husband took a Winchester rifle and went to the room where his wife's remains had been laid out and shot himself. Death was instantaneous. Ganther was 22 years of age, and had been married a year.

Killed at Club Meeting.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—An attempt to break up the annual meeting of the Eighteenth Ward Republican club at Bricklayers' Hall, at Peoria and West Monroe streets, last evening, resulted in the death of one of the attacking party and the wounding of several of those who participated in the fight. The dead man is Charles Lattimer, a bricklayer, who was instantly killed.

Speedy Justice in Virginia.

Bedford City, Va., Nov. 30.—On Monday an indictment was found by the grand jury against James Webster, a negro, for rape committed on Miss Mary Aunsbaugh, an aged white lady of this city, on Nov. 19. Yesterday the case was called at 10 o'clock, at 3:30 it was given to the jury, and at 4:05 a verdict was rendered of guilty, with the death penalty. The prisoner was sentenced this morning.

Puny Children

Who would prescribe only tonics and bitters for a weak, puny child? Its muscles and nerves are so thoroughly exhausted that they cannot be whipped into activity. The child needs food; a blood-making, nerve-strengthening and muscle-building food.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-Liver Oil is all of this, and you still have a tonic in the hypophosphites of lime and soda to act with the food. For thin and delicate children there is no remedy superior to it in the world. It means growth, strength, plumpness and comfort to them. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion.
