PEACE OF PARIS.

THE ARTICLES AGREED TO.

Philippines Evacuation Commission Will Be Unnecessary.

The Questions Relating to Coaling Stations and Religious Freedom in the Philippines, However, Must Be Settled Through the Usual Diplomatic Channels-Owing to Spain's Poverty, Our Government Will Transport the Spanish Prisoners Now Held in the Philippines.

Paris, Dec. 7 .- The peace of Paris is practically an accomplished fact. Yesterday's session disposed of the essential features of the treaty, which will will be embodied in the following eight First-The customary preface of treaties, in the nature of an expression of amity and of hope for perpetual Second - The relinquishment by Spain of her sovereignty over Cuba. Third-The withdrawal of the Spanish troops.

Fourth-Therelinquishment by Spain of her sovereignty over Porto Rico. Fifth-Spain's cession of the Philip-

Sixth-The withdrawal of the Spanish troops there.

Seventh-Payment by the United States of $20,000,000 for the Philippines. Eighth-The provision for the "open door" commercial policy in the Philip-

The rough draft of the treaty, which may be considerably changed, covers these proposals. It makes a long document, which Senator Cushman K. Davis, of the United States peace commission, says will be found to be one of the most interesting papers in its character ever written. So completely are the details of the evacuation of the Philippines stipulated that a commission such as arranged for the Spanish withdrawal from the West Indies will be unnecessary.

Among the questions not yet settled, however, are the coaling stations and religious freedom in the Carolines, the Spanish commissioners not having replied to the American offers.

The Americans have agreed to transport the Spanish prisoners home, including the garrison and sailors at Manila captured by Admiral Dewey and General Merritt, as well as the soldiers and civilians held by the Filipinos, for whose return the Americans have guaranteed. As compensa- make of the islands a territory, and the Monday when Cashier Bateman saw it Cuban, Porto Rican and Philippine political prisoners. Spanish soldiers electing to remain in the colonies may do so, but it is more a matter of economy for the Americans to return the others, as these must be fed as long as they are kept, and Spain is unable to bear the expense of the repatriation

Although the Americans have rejected Spain's request for free shipping for ten years in Cuban and Porto Rican waters, they have given the Spanish commissioners such poor consolation as the latter may derive from the permission to re-apply.

Diplomatic relations have been renewed for shipping concessions under the reciprocity scheme of the Dingley

There are still under discussion eight secondary subjects which the Spanish commissioners broached last week, including the status of patents and copyrights. The American commisioners yesterday handed to Senor Montero Rios a written reply covering these questions.

THE TREATY EXPECTED SOON. It May Be Submitted to Congress Before the Christmas Recess.

Washington, Dec. 7 .- It may be reasonably presumed that the peace commissioners at Paris will be ready to sign a treaty of peace within a day or two. It is learned that the president's instructions to Judge Day were to hasten the conclusion, and to that end the American commissioners have been authorized to limit the treaty closely to the protocol points, leaving other matters, such as the acquisition of cable stations and naval stations. to be dealt with hereafter. As such a separation of the points is entirely in line with the expressed desire of the Spanish commissioners there appears to be no reason, now that an agreement has been reached as to all of the protocol points, why these should not be immediately reduced to the form in which it is desired they should appear in a treaty and be at once signed by the commissioners. In this case it is possible that the treaty of peace may be submitted to congress even before the Christmas recess. It is believed that it will make toward a speedy treatment of the convention in the senate to limit the peace treaty to the points of the protocol. As to the other points which our commissioners were instructed to negotiate upon, they may or may not be disposed of at Paris by the present commissioners, but the indications now are that they will be left to adjustment in the future by the ordinary methods of diplomacy, the Spanish government being under no compulsion whatever, save such as may be exercised by the Spanish people who may suffer from the lack of proper treaty safeguards to regulate commerce between Spain and the United States. Perhaps consideration for this threatened evil will lead the Spanish commissioners to consent to an inclusion in the peace treaty of a clause providing for a renewal of

THE NEW DIPLOMACY.

British Ambassador to France Gives

Advice to Frenchmen. Paris, Dec. 7 .- At the silver jubilee banquet of the British Chamber of Commerce here last evening the British ambassador, Sir Edmund J. Monson, referring to the "new diplomacy" which is said to have come into fashion during the past year, said it was chiefly due to the enterprise of the press, but also it was in a measure due to "mother country innovations and to the originality of the American mind -ever restlessly watching to improve everything-which will perhaps end by improving the diplomatists of the old school off the face of the earth." He ambassadors in Europe. Sir Edmund then proceeded to dilate en the recent remarkable outburst of

SIR EDMUND MONSON. public feeling in Great Britain provoked by the Fashoda incident. He appealed to France to disabuse herself of all suspicion of unfair intention upon the part of Great Britain; to try to believe there was no general animosity in England toward France, and to meet England on every question at issue with an honest desire for an equitable arrangement. He concluded as follows:

"I would earnestly ask officials in power and unofficial exponents of public opinion to discountenance and abstain from a continuance of the policy of pin pricks, which, while it can only procure an ephemeral ratification to a short lived ministry, must inevitably perpetuate across the channel an intolerable irritation. I would entreat them to resist the temptation to thwar: British enterprise by petty maneuvers, such as the proposal to start colleges as rivals to General Kitchener's projected institution in the reconquered Soudan. Such ill considered provocation might have the effect of converting Great Britain's present policy of forbearance in Egypt into the adoption of measures at which I presume French sentiment is not aiming."

The Territory of Hawail.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The president carrying E. T. Cooper, Clark yesterday submitted to congress the report of the Hawaiian commissioners, tion Spain promises to liberate all | right of citizenship is conferred on all | lying on the witnesses' desk and spoke hites and on all natives who gave al legiance to the island republic. Provision is made for a legislature, to conhouse of representatives, consisting of the house under the Hawaiian republic. The first election takes place in November next. The commissioners point out that the Hawaiians have proven themselves capable of self government while the Filipinos and Porto Ricans are ignorant of popular government.

Senator Quay Must Stand Trial. Philadelphia, Dec. 2.-Judge Finletter in the court of quarter sessions, handed down an opinion deciding against the defense in the Quay conspiracy charges on all the points it had raised, overruling the demurrers to four indictments and denying the motion to quash the fifth, thus sustaining all the indictments as presented by the grand jury. The defendants, United States Senator Quay, Richard R. Quay, his son, and former State Treasurer Haywood, were not in court, the presence of the defendants on a charge of misdemeanor at this stage not being necssary. In their behalf, however, their counsel entered pleas of not guilty on all five indictments. The court fixed upon Monday, Dec. 12, for the beginning of the trial.

Four Killed by Exploding Mine. Boston, Dec. 7.-Four men were killed and several seriously injured at Fort the United States Fire Insurance com-Independence, on Castle Island, in Boston harbor, yesterday afternoon, by the explosion of a mine which had been removed from the channel by a diver. The dead are Sergeant Morris Mc-Grath, Hiram Vaughn, Private Brennan, a diver, and James Ryan, a citizen. Sergeant McGrath was 20 feet from the mine, and was killed by concussion The others were alongside the car: which was carrying the mine over a smooth road. Not a vestige of their bodies or clothing has been found.

The Anti-Annexationists.

Washington, Dec. 7.-The first note of the anti-expansionists was sounded in the senate yesterday by Senator Vest, of Missouri, who introduced a joint resolution declaring that under the constitution the federal government had no authority to acquire colonial possessions, to be governed as such, but all the territory acquired by the government except such as may be necessary for use as coaling stations, correction of boundaries and similar Union as states.

The Pope Will Co-operate. London, Dec. 6.-Mr. William T. Stead, editor of the Review of Re views, who has just returned from the Vatican, gives to the press an unqualified denial of all stories representing that the pope is hostile to the American policy regarding the Philippines. On the contrary, his holiness is ready to co-operate with the United States in restoring order there.

Steamer Foundered, Eleven Lost. Algiers, Dec. 6.-The French steamer Algerois has foundered near Bona, a fortified seaport town of Algeria, near the old treaties of commerce and amity | the mouth of the River Seibous. Eleven and extradition, at least temporarily. persons were drowned.

MR. KENNEY'S TRIAL

Ex-Teller Boggs Gives Damaging Evidence Against the Senator.

THE SENATOR ADVISED FLIGHT.

At the Time of His Election to the Senate Mr. Kenney's Accounts Were All in Good Shape and His Financial Condition Excellent.

Wilmington, Del., Dec. 7 .- When the court opened for the trial of Senator Kenney yesterday Mr. Kenney's coun el informed the judge that they de sired to take exception to the request made by the government Monday to require Senator Kenney and the officials of the First National bank of Dover to produce all checks, drafts and notes drawn to the order of Senator Kenney on the Dover bank between April, 1896, and January, 1897.

Judge Bradford said that it seemed to him that it would be an act of gross impropriety to permit the introduction of all checks drawn to the order of Senator Kenney between April, 1896, and

January, 1897. "If you have information," said Judge Bradford, addressing the United States district attorney, "of any specific check or checks that will aid you in the prose cution, and if you name them, they will be admitted as evidence."

William N. Boggs, former teller of the First National bank, who is awaiting sentence for embezzling the funds of the bank, was called to the stand. He gave his testimony in a firm, deliberate manner. He said he first began to use the funds of the bank in 1893, when he began to issue checks to Senator Kenney when the senator had no funds in the bank. One of these checks, for $900, was drawn by Senator Kenney to Thomas Clark. He called the senator's attention to impending trouble, but the latter said that he could not help it, as he had no money This state of affairs continued until the exposure came, Senator Kenney glways promised to make good his shortage by a cash deposit, but he never kept his

Boggs described a number of in stances in which he had "doctored" the accounts in order to hide the manner of cashing Kenney's checks. This he did by changing the depositors' slips, taking from some accounts enough to make up an account for Mr. Kenney.

Witness related his introduction to a gang of gamblers and race track folowers by some of Clark's friends, and the subsequent embezzlement of more money from the bank. The shortage was constantly growing, and he was becoming afraid. Witness then described how he had been summoned before the board of directors, had confessed to gambling and had been forgiven. Subsequently Senator Kenney told him (Boggs) that he was in financial difficulties by reason of his heavy specu lation in gas stocks. Senator Kenney knew all the time that Boggs was carrying E. T. Cooper, Clark and others

Boggs stated that on one occasion in with bills embodying the recommenda- July, 1896, he had withheld a $1,000 tions of the commission. The bills check of Kenney's from Saturday to told the cashier he thought Kenney would be all right. Boggs said he told sist of two houses-a senate to consist | Kenney of the danger of discovery and of 15 members, as at present, and a urged him to deposit sufficient to pro tect this overdraft. To aid him in this 00 members, double the membership of Boggs said he borrowed from Clerk of the Peace Dickson a check drawn to Kenney's order and gave him some money also. Boggs said all the money Kenney got from the bank was subsequently made good, and the only loss in funds to the bank was for the time in which Kenney had the use of the bank's money. When exposure could be no longer averted Senator Kenney adrised Boggs to flee to Cuba. Senator Kenney is charged with aiding and abetting Boggs in looting the First National bank of Dover. Boggs fled when exposure was imminent, but subsequently returned and surrendered, confessed his defalcation of $107,000, was convicted and is now awaiting sentence. Since Boggs' return E. T. Cooper, a leading politician, was convicted of complicity with Boggs, and is now serving a sentence in the Trenton state prison. When Boggs absconded H. A. Richardson, president of the bank, made good the defalcation and saved the bank from failure. Mr. Richardson testified on Monday to the events leading up to the exposure.

Fatal Elevator Accident.

New York, Dec. 7 .- An accident to the elevator in the 11 story building at Pine and William streets, occupied by pany, yesterday resulted in the death of one of the company's directors, the fatal injury of another director and the serious injury of a third insurance man. Several other passengers miraculously escaped. Walter Hayden Griffen, secretary and director of the company, was instantly killed. Thomas W. Caldwell, of Morristown, N. J., also a director, received a compound fracture of the skull and is not expected to live. George H. Smith, head of the firm of Smith & Hicks, fire under writers, was injured about the head and body. In some unknown manner the cables were broken and the heavy counter weights crashed through the roof of the car. The elevator had been inspected and pronounced safe ten minutes before the

The Increased Army Bill. Washington, Dec. 7 .- The measure which will serve as a basis for the legislation of congress this session looking to the incrase and remodeling of the regular United States army has been completed by General Miles, and yesterday was handed by him to Secretary Alger, who will transmit it to congress, probably through the chairman of the house committee on military affairs. Representative Hull, after he has had an opportunity to make any changes he may deem desirable. The bill provides for one soldier to 1,000 of the population of the United States and two soldiers to 1,000 population in the dependent colonies-approximately 100,000

Admiral and Rear Admiral. Washington, Dec. 7.—Senator Hale, of Maine, chairman of the naval affairs committee, introduced a bill to revive the grades of admiral and vice admiral

General Debility and Loss of Flesh

Scott's Emulsion has been the standard remedy for nearly a quarter of a century. Physicians readily admit that they obtain results from it that they cannot get rom any other flesh-forming food.

There are many other preparations on the market that pretend to do what
