

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT

The News Gathered From Various Sections

HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What Our Army of Alert Correspondents See and Observe Worth of Note—The Local Happenings of Every Community Will be Gladly Published—Send the News, We will Publish it.

Howard.

Philip Ertle is improving very slowly. R. P. Long was to Bellefonte on Monday.

Wm. G. Ertle and Lyon Shay went to the woods on Monday.

W. N. Neff transacted business in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

Snow, rain and sleet were the guests of everybody, on Sunday.

Misses Jennie and Lydia Wyble returned to Lock Haven on Monday.

John Thompson, we are sorry to say, is on the sick list at this writing.

The editor and proprietor of the Hustler is getting fat, ragged and saucy.

George Hoy, of Hubersburg, loaded a car with wheat, at this place, on Tuesday.

Albert Irvin, of Walker, was storm-stayed on Saturday evening, while here counting.

Wm. Stoner and sister, Hattie, of Mill Hall, were the guests of J. C. Leafers, on Friday.

For good accommodations and select oysters go to W. E. Confer, barber and confectioner.

John Booni was home from the woods over Sunday. Mr. Booni is an industrious woodsman.

LOST—Daniel Diehl left this town last week—whereabouts unknown—object, marriage.

Reuben Sooner, of Alto, Pa., is seen on our streets again. Since then Miss Nannie is all smiles.

Charles Lucas, of this place, who had been employed at Bellefonte, came home to stay on Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. McDowell, of Nittany, was the guest of her brother, Philip Ertle, of near this place, on Sunday.

Rev. Manley, pastor of the Christian church of this place, expects to leave this place the beginning of the year.

Our town is just swarming with candy agents, with holiday supplies, as everybody has a sweet tooth about X-mas.

Say, Mr. Editor, they say Correspondent No. 2 has holed up for the winter. If alive we would like to hear from him.

John McCommins, formerly of this place, now of Somerset, Pa., is in our town shaking hands with his many friends.

John Fletcher expects to move his family to Johnsbury in the near future, where he has secured a job at blacksmithing.

We saw something on our streets, on Sunday, we never had on our streets before. It was the bakery wagon delivering bread.

Thomas Pletcher, our new saddler, is just overrun with work. He has a saddler employed from Williamsport, to assist him.

Wm. Rossman, our prominent shoemaker, has met with opposition; but Wm. says he would not know it if some body did not tell him.

Our enterprising blacksmith, John Bearley, is just snowed under with work since the cold weather. He always does his work first class, too.

Bearley had to employ Miles Ertle as helper to chase the horses in and out of the shop, and to see that none leave until all are made happy.

Wm. G. E. was in Bellefonte on Saturday evening to see his dame, but it snowed and William did not get back until Monday morning, after the stars had gone down.

Some people, when in business, forget that their fellow merchants want to live, and delight in cutting prices. One of our dealers advertised a cut price in the "Hustler," last week. It made another so cross that he went forthwith and stopped the "Hustler."

HOWARD NO. 2.

"The Clover Leaf Society," of this place, gave an interesting and instructive debate, Friday evening, in the school building. The question, "Resolved that one gains more information by reading than by traveling," was ably discussed by both sides. The affirmative side of the question, was composed of the fine looking young ladies who received the judges' decision. Some of Beech Creek's and Mill Hall's fine looking lads and lassies were to be found among the many that thronged the house. After the close of the debate your scribe, in company with two other young people, retired to the house of William Hannah and with a host of others who had already congregated enjoyed ourselves 'till the wee sma' hours of morning playing games and pulling and eating taffy, when after a hearty good night we all, except Mr. Stoner and Miss Gallagher, took our departure for home, all feeling happy that we had been there.

H. C. W.

Cure that Cough with Shiloh's Cure. The best Cough Cure. Relieves Croup promptly. One million bottles sold last year. 40 doses for 25 cts. Sold by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, 2

Fairbrook.

Butcher season is about over.

William Goss is suffering from a disordered liver.

Fairbrook is going to have a wedding on the 22nd.

Our schools will close on the 17th, for a week's vacation.

J. B. Herberling purchased a lot from J. B. Ard, of Pine Grove Mills.

The protracted meeting of the M. E. church closed last Friday evening.

Mr. Gearhart, of Huntingdon county, has put up a reservoir for Mr. McWilliams.

Miss Dolly Eisenberg, of Yellow Springs, Huntingdon county, is visiting her sister Mrs. Frank Black.

Miss Gertrude Miller, of Rock Springs, went to the hospital last Monday morning for the removal of a tumor.

Rock View.

A. M. Herman visited friends at State College, last week.

Wanted—A high silk hat to wear since that baby boy arrived in this vicinity.

Sanford Wilson and James Wigley, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday in this vicinity.

Sanford Zettle, of this place, spent Sunday with his father, in George's Valley.

Jacob Sundy and Abby Fleck attended Epworth League, at Pleasant Gap, last Sunday night.

Mrs. Louella Brewbaker, of Freeport, Ill., and sister Millie Wagner, of Bellefonte, spent a few days in this vicinity.

Charles Kuhn, of this vicinity, while returning a gun, which he borrowed from a neighbor last Thursday evening, saw the largest rabbit he had ever seen, but to his surprise, after investigations were made it proved to be a large yellow cat.

Last Wednesday night the young folks of this vicinity gathered at the home of Arthur Norris for the purpose of bidding him farewell, and also having a party before he left the vicinity. The following persons were there: D. J. Tressler, Annie Albright, Abby Fleck, Lizzie Gross, Gray Hastings, Minnie Benner, Dale Benner, Minnie Kuhn, Hezekiah Hoy, Sally Benner, Miller Herman, Daisy Heverly, Gardner Kuhn, Tilly Benner, Clarence Benner, Etta Lutz, Wallace Hernan, all of this vicinity, and H. C. Hudson and E. J. Stine, of Bellefonte. All report having a very pleasant time.

Be Not Deceived! A Cough, Hoarseness or Croup are not to be trifled with. A dose in time of Shiloh's Cure will save you much trouble. Sold by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, 2.

Mt. Eagle.

Elsie's treat was fine.

Mr. Archey is improving slowly.

Miss Nora Solt, of Bellefonte, spent several days with Lina Vangorden.

Mellie Lucas again made his mother a present of a thirteen-pound wild turkey this week.

Miss Elbie Leathers has returned from North Bend, where she was visiting her brother Ambrose Leathers.

James Bathurst is improving slowly. Dr. Hensyl claims his hip is fractured, which will cripple him for life.

Miss Delia Heverly and Miss Perle Lucas were visitors at Miss Bella Womert's, of Marsh Creek, on last Tuesday.

On last Sunday afternoon E. E. Heverly, of this place, and Miss Annie Pitzer, of Milesburg, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, by Rev. King, of Milesburg.

Our debate, last Friday night, was one of unusual interest. Both sides did well with the country side gaining by two to one. The question for next night—"Resolved, that greater men have been produced north of the Mason and Dixon line than south," is one on which much can be said. Before the debate comes a play entitled "The Declaration of Independence," and after debate, the "Society Journal." Come all.

Dyspepsia Cured. Shiloh's Vitalizer immediately relieves Sour Stomach. Coming up of Food Distress, and is the great kidney and liver remedy. Sold by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, 2.

Linden Hall

Postmaster J. Hale Ross made a business trip to Zion, on Saturday.

James Raymond will leave this place and move to Houserville, in the spring.

Wm. Stover and David Snyder transacted business at the county seat, on Saturday.

John Diehl, the miller, will make a business trip to Rebersburg on or about Christmas.

A young man was seen going east, early on Saturday evening, at the rate of about 240.

A singing class was organized on Tuesday evening, to close with a convention at a later date.

Frank Lingle and Calvin Ripka, of George's valley, were visiting friends in this vicinity recently.

A certain young hunter, who gets his mark at this place, was somewhat excited several mornings ago, when he discovered a track in the snow which he surely supposed a large bear had just made, and with double barrel shot gun in hand ready for immediate action, he bravely started towards Nittany valley on the trail and was happy when he learned it was only a medium sized dog, belonging to someone of the neighbors, at Perse.

Ladies Take the Best. If you are troubled with Constipation, Sallow Skin, and a Tired Feeling, take Karl's Clover Tea. It is pleasant to take. Sold by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, 2

Aaronsburg.

Miss Kate Fehl has gone to Sunbury to spend the winter.

Miss Bertha Lane, of Tyrone, spent a few days with her parents, Noah Leitels.

Miss Annie Limbert has returned home to spend the winter under the parental roof.

Thomas Hull, accompanied by his daughter Jennie, have gone to Bellefonte to spend the week with friends.

Frank Weiser, formerly of this place, but now located at Altoona, was the guest of Squire H. K. Sumner's on Monday.

On Monday we heard the jingling of the sleigh bells for the first time this winter. Quite a number of our people were out sleighing, even if it was a little rough.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, on Sunday evening, there were no services in any of the churches except the Reformed, and there the crowd was rather small.

While walking through the room Absolon Confer, an aged citizen, fell and broke a bone in his ankle. He has the sympathy of the people, as he has been keeping house all by himself since in the spring.

Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicates a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the chest over the seat of pain and prevent the threatened attack of pneumonia. This same treatment will cure a lame back in a few hours. Sold by F. Potts Green, druggist

—Why don't you subscribe for the CENTRE DEMOCRAT? Do you know it is the cheapest paper in Centre county, if you pay for it in advance.

Romola.

Miss Vernie Brickley and Mrs. Thos. McCloskey spent Saturday in Bellefonte.

Miss Maude Brickley was the guest of Eva Meyers, of Blanchard, over Sunday.

Harry Sayres, who has been employed in the woods for some time, is again home.

K. D. Packer, of Lock Haven, is spending a few days in this place, at the home of David Confer.

Mrs. John McCloskey left on Tuesday for Washington where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. John Green.

The sale of Irvin Wentzel, which was held on Saturday last, was well attended by people from a distance.

We are glad to note that Hensyl Packer, who has been suffering for several weeks with hemorrhage of the stomach, is again able to be around.

The weather on Sunday and Monday was about the worst the weather factory has sent us for some time. Rain and snow succeeded each other at intervals, but the snow seemed to get a shade the better of it.

One of the hunting parties of this place succeeded in capturing three deer, one wild cat, a fox, four porcupines, and a number of rabbits. They also report seeing a snow-white fawn which they were unable to capture. Another party got several deer and a bear, besides smaller game. All report game more plentiful than it has been for a number of years.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by F. Potts Green, druggist.

Madisonburg.

Witmer Smith, of Williamsport, is at present visiting friends at this place.

Herbert Yearick, who went to Ohio in the Spring, returned home this week.

Turkey locked jaw; the fellow who confiscated two of John Royer's turkeys.

Geo. Miller, who had been in Ohio for the past two years, returned to this place last week.

Rev. Stover, of the United Evangelical church, is at present conducting a series of revival meetings in this place.

To hear the agonizing cry of the expiring porker is just about a thing of the past. Sausages are next in order.

Rev. Salem, of Johnstown, Pa., occupied the pulpit of the Lutheran church on Sunday morning, and preached a very interesting and much appreciated sermon.

Mrs. Isalia Feidler, of Carthage, Mo., is at present visiting friends and relatives in this community. Mrs. Feidler left this place fourteen years ago, and just arrived in time to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Duck.

A good thing it would be, if the young lady who expresses herself, that she is going to teach some of our young people etiquette, if she would commence on Sunday evenings, after society adjourns. If you are seriously inclined, Miss, we would advise you to take this plan.

Coburn.

Sunday was a snowy day.

T. B. Motz made a business trip to Bellefonte this week.

Emanuel Brown, of Bellefonte, spent a few days at this place.

A great many umbrellas were out—inside out—Sunday at this place.

Our merchants have gotten in a new supply of goods. Call and see them.

Mrs. Dr. Frank, of Millheim, made a visit at this place, Tuesday afternoon.

Jacob Kerstetter has three champion hogs this fall. They will tip the scales at fifteen hundred.

Miss Grace Meyer, daughter of merchant T. F. Meyer, while coming home from school Tuesday noon, fell and broke her left arm. Dr. G. S. Frank, of Millheim, was summoned, who set the broken bone. Grace is doing as well as can be expected, under the circumstances.

Karl's Clover Root Tea is a pleasant laxative. Regulates the bowels, purifies the blood. Cleans the complexion. Easy to make and pleasant to take. 25 cts. Sold by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, 2

Julian.

V. Williams, shipped a fine specimen of deer last week.

Mr and Mrs. J. McCarron, of Tyrone, spent a few days at the home of Chas. Murray.

Mrs. Ellenberger, of Port Matilda, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Eller, last Saturday.

Vints Harbridge, who has been away for the summer, is home to spend the winter with his parents, at this place.

School re-opened on Monday morning, after a weeks vacation; the teacher O. D. Eberts being on the jury. I. P. Davis was also a jurymen.

While Levi Doughenbaugh, formerly of this place, but at present employed by James Round, of Buffalo Run, was out last Saturday attending to his daily labor, some long-fingered gentleman entered his cabin and helped himself to about twenty dollars in money.

Sober.

Mrs. Hannah Jamison, of George's Valley, was among friends and relatives.

L. C. Rote has a job to cut 30 cord of wood at Egg Hill.

W. M. Jamison, our expert butcher, was butchering below Aaronsburg for several days.

W. B. Musser and A. F. Snyder spent a week trapping below Paddy Mountain, but they don't brag about it.

Your Danger Now

Is from the overworked condition of the liver and kidneys which are unable to expel impurities from the blood. This causes rheumatism. Hood's Sarsaparilla has been wonderfully successful in curing this disease. It neutralizes the acid in the blood and permanently cures the aches and pains which other medicines fail to relieve. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best winter medicine because it purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood. It gives help just where help is needed. It tones the stomach, stimulates the liver, and arouses and sustains the kidneys. It wards off pneumonia, fevers, bronchitis, colds, coughs and the grip.

Nittany.

Belle says she is so lonely since Boyd left.

Ask Clara what Shaffers put in their sausage.

Sunday and Monday were two rough, stormy days.

Ida Heller has been very sick the past week, but is better at this writing.

Girls were you ever left? Better take your taffy to the cellar to cool, next time.

Mrs. Squire Peck, of Mingoville, spent last Wednesday at this place, to help her son's butcher.

We are sorry to hear that Grandpa Peck is not well. We hope it will not prove any thing serious.

Miss Bertha Watson and Edna Walker, of Lock Haven, were the guests of Miss Helen Beck, on Sunday.

The invitations are out for Joe Emericks wedding to Miss Mary Dow, of Loganon, on Wednesday the 7th, at the brides home.

The Central Commercial Telephone company have put in two phones at this place, one in Shaffers store, and one in Peck's store.

Elmer Snavely spent last week at the club house, showing some of those club men how to shoot game. He is just the one that can do it.

We failed to make mention of Lew Shaffer and family, of Bellefonte, spending Thanksgiving with his parents, B. F. Shaffer and family.

We regret to say that Boyd, the youngest son of D. S. Yearick, fell and broke his arm again. That is the second time, since school began.

There was a taffy party at the home of Mittie Winkelman on Saturday evening. We don't know whether there were any boys there to taffy, or not.

B. F. Guiser has taken his little son, Victor, to the Lock Haven hospital, to have him treated for rheumatism. His limbs are drawn almost double.

Daniel Diehl, of Howard, and Miss Ida Showers, of this place, were married on Thursday evening at the bride's home by Rev. W. K. Diehl. May happiness and prosperity be their lot all through life.

Dreadfully Nervous.

GENTS—I was dreadfully nervous, and for relief took your Karl's Clover Root Tea. It quieted my nerves and strengthened my whole Nervous System. I was troubled with Constipation, Kidney and Bowel trouble. Your Tea soon cleansed my system so thoroughly that I rapidly regained health and strength. Mrs. S. A. Sweet, Hartford, Conn. Sold by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, 2

Spring Mills.

Mrs. Philip Himer is not improving.

Boys, you must not fight about a lap robe.

John Heckman lost two fine hogs by cholera.

Are there no big porkers in our town this year.

Geo. Dunkel has been housed up for the past week.

Mrs. Floyd Bowersox visited her parents, at Rebersburg.

Mrs. Andrew Croizer is visiting at her parents, Luther Roper.

Dr. Braucht will occupy the office of Dr. VanValzah, dec'd.

Austin Crape and family are visiting his mother on Main street.

Mrs. Sarah Zeiger is not improving from her spell of sickness.

Old Mother Roper has been confined to her bed for the past week.

The stores are picking up trade since the cold weather has come.

The Snow, on Sunday night, brought out the rabbit hunter on Monday.

Henry Rearick, of Altoona, spent a week here visiting friends and relatives.

John Smith, one of the Smith Bros. furniture dealers, made a business trip to Sunbury.

It will not be long any more until you bear the children calling out "My Christmas Gift."

Frank Mayes, of Houserville, spent Saturday here putting up tomb stones. They have a reputation of putting up good work.

The price of the Centre Democrat and 3 times-a-week World has been reduced from $1.75 to $1.65 per year. This is a great combination at a low price. We always furnish "The Most News for the Least Money."

Milesburg.

A man with a bad liver, very often has a good heart.

Homer Noll, of Kane, arrived home again last week.

Travel may broaden the mind, but oh how it flattens the pocket book.

The diamond has the most sparkle, but window glass does the most good.

Wm. H. Musser, of Bellefonte, was in the burg a short time on Saturday night.

Geo. Moore and Family, of Kane, are guests of Geo. Noll and family, his wife's parents.

The world is full of lion fighters, but it is hard to find people who won't run from a hornet.

Scott Bailey and wife, of State College, were guests of S. W. Neyhart and family, recently.

Mrs. Fannie Baldrige returned home after an extended visit to Pittsburg and other important places.

"Street rumor" is an untrustworthy jade, and has gotten many a good man into an ocean of trouble.

The O. U. A. M. met in their new Hall on Saturday night, the 3rd, for the first time, in the Crider building, on the corner of Mill and Market streets.

Joseph Shope and wife, of Renova, Reuben Crust and wife, of Fillmore, and Mrs. Kate Marshall, of Falls Creek, attended the sale of Mrs. Martha Haverracker on Saturday, the 3rd. She will, in the future, make her home with her daughter Jennie, of Fillmore.

Opera House Attractions.

William Garman will manage Garman's opera house for the season of 1898-'99, and the list of his attractions already booked are as follows:

Dec. 8th, Royer Bros. "Next Door."

Feb. 13th, Keller, the Magician.

Feb. 20, Rickett's Comedians.

Applications for dates from some other companies are being considered, and it is probable that a sufficient number will be selected to give Bellefonters amusement during the show season.

Runville.

Protracted meeting is still going on. So far there has been one conversion.

Mr. Hancock is improving. He is now able to leave the bed and come down stairs.

Butcherings are about all over. Chas. Smoyer killed the largest hog of the season at this place, weighing 436 pounds.

Willis is able to capture more game than turkey. He does not always roam the hill, but travels down the valley quite frequently to Snow Shoe Intersection.

Widows seem to be in demand at some of the butcherings. Ask Tom, he will tell you how a little piece of strategy was used by another widower, to get a widow away from the butchering that he attended on Tuesday.

Joseph Rodgers and family, of Ocoola, Sundayed with Mrs. Rodgers's mother, Mrs. Lydia Witherite. Their many friends were glad to see them in our midst once again. Mr. Rodgers returned to Ocoola, on Monday, but Mrs. Rodgers will remain for some time.

Two of Milesburg's young men on account of bad weather had to stop in Runville all night on last Wednesday night. It should be a warning for them not to come up on Sunday, or else there is some very strong attraction here to bring them so far through such a bad snow storm.

Rev. Hummel, Travilla Kunes, Boyd Kunes and John Furl went over to Fair View last Sunday to attend the dedicatory exercises of the new Union church that has been completed at that place. On account of bad weather it was not dedicated. The exercises were postponed until New Year's day.

On last Saturday evening while James Witherite was going to church, he walked off the bridge in the diamond of the town, striking his head against the stone wall getting a severe bump on the head. help was near and a night was secured and the old man helped out and taken home. At present he is recovering from his sudden shaking up.

RUNVILLE NO. 2.

B. E. Shank made a flying trip to Runville, on Sunday.

A. D. Shank visited at this place a few days of last week.

Mrs. Annie Lucas has returned home, after visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Shank, of Snow Shoe.

Frank Reese shot a very fine deer on the last day of November. Frank, you can capture another deer, yet.

Friends since you have guessed so often who No. 2