

CONFEDERATE WELCOME

To the President in the City of Macon, Ga.

WEARS A CONFEDERATE BADGE.

In a Welcoming Speech Commander Wiley Hopes That in the Future Legislation of This Country the Living Confederates Will Be Remembered.

Macon, Ga., Dec. 20.—The president and his party reached Macon promptly on time, and were received by the largest crowd which has gathered in Macon since the last visit of Jefferson Davis to this city.

Drawn up in front of the station was the Bibb County camp of the Confederate Survivors' association, 400 strong, headed by Commander C. M. Wiley.

THE FIGHT AGAINST ROBERTS.

Women Organized to Prevent Him Taking His Seat in Congress.

New York, Dec. 19.—Two hundred thousand women, enrolled in societies of the Presbyterian church, are making a fight against Brigham H. Roberts, representative-elect of Utah, to prevent him from taking his seat in congress.

The argument of these women is that polygamy is unlawful, and that to allow him to take his seat is to give it sanction.

CONGRESSMAN-ELECT ROBERTS. Low Roberts to retain his seat would be equivalent to endorsing polygamy.

Senator George F. Edmunds says in a statement that the national government is powerless to prevent polygamy from being made lawful in any state if its lawmakers so choose to declare it.

BURIED BY AN AVALANCHE.

Six Lose Their Lives While Crossing the Chilkoot Pass.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 21.—The steamer Alki, which arrived here yesterday from Alaska, brings meager particulars of an avalanche on the Chilkoot pass, in which at least six persons were killed.

The slide occurred Dec. 9 at Crater lake, about one mile beyond the summit, on the Lake Lindeman side.

As the president was about to proceed Dr. Roland B. Hall, another veteran, addressed him as follows:

"My President: In behalf of our noble dead, and as Confederate veterans, we are here to manifest our appreciation of the noble and generous sentiment you have recently uttered. Do us the honor, sir, to accept and wear this badge of a Confederate veterans' association, which bears your likeness and words, which should endear you to the heart of every Confederate."

"I do not know that it will be proper," said the president.

"But you must," said Dr. Hall, and without further ceremony the president marched ahead with Judge Spear. The sight of the Confederate badge on the president's coat as he passed through the lines of veterans called forth vociferous cheering.

One of General Wheeler's old cavalrymen also pinned a badge to the lapel of his major general's coat, and the doughty little warrior proudly wore it away with him when he left the city.

The presidential party was driven in carriages to the stand where the president was to review the troops of General Bates' division of General Wilson's army corps.

After the review a great crowd gathered about the stand, though a steady, soaking rain was falling.

The president's remarks were frequently interrupted by cheers. Then there were loud calls for General Wheeler, "Little Old Fighting Joe," as he was affectionately called.

"Splendid as the president's work has been, there still remains greater work for him to do. It is work which justifies the president in saying we are at last one, and that the Confederate soldier should receive the same treatment as the federal soldier.

"That from and after the passage of this bill every pension law now on the statute books shall apply to every invalid soldier, widow, minor child, dependent relative, the army nurses and all other pensioners who may be able to prove their claim under the present pension laws, without regard to whether said soldier was enlisted in the federal or Confederate service of the civil war of 1861-5, provided that those enlisted in the Confederate service shall not draw any back pensions prior to the passage of this bill, but their claim under existing laws shall begin and become operative with the passage of this bill."

Chile's Reorganized Ministry. Valparaiso, Chile, Dec. 21.—The cabinet crisis ended yesterday and the military has been reorganized under Senor Martinez, in part as follows:

Acquitted of Lese Majeste. Berlin, Dec. 21.—The provincial court has acquitted Frank Knaak, of New York, of the charge of lese majeste, because, it appears, Mr. Knaak was intoxicated when he committed the offense.

Carnegie Underbids the English. London, Dec. 20.—The Daily Mail this morning makes the following announcement: The Carnegies have secured an order for 40,000 tons of steel rails for the Cape at 15 shillings per ton under the British tenders.

GOMPER'S POPULARITY.

He Is Again Chosen President of the American Federation.

ONLY ONE VOTE AGAINST HIM.

The Federation Votes Against the Proposed Tax on Factories Employing Women and Children, on the Ground That It Would Legalize Child Labor.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 21.—Samuel Gompers was yesterday re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor by a practically unanimous vote at the closing session of the 18th annual convention of that organization.

During the election of president William J. O'Brien, of New York, was in the chair. George E. McNeill, of Boston, placed Mr. Gompers in nomination. He said he might never again attend a convention of the Federation and he wanted the honor of naming Mr. Gompers for the place.

The greatest applause followed Mr. McNeill's remarks. John Kirby, of Ouray, Colo., said the members of the west were looking more to Mr. Gompers to aid them in their struggles than any one else.

There were no other nominees, and Henry Lloyd, of Massachusetts, moved that the vote of the convention be cast for Mr. Gompers. This was done amid great cheering.

With the exception of the fourth, fifth and sixth vice presidents and three fraternal delegates the rest of the old officers were elected without any opposition.

Praternal delegates—To the Union Congress of Great Britain: Thomas F. Tracey, New York, of the Cigarmakers' union, and James O'Connell, Chicago, of the Machinists' union.

The resolution of J. F. O'Sullivan, of Boston, looking to a bill in congress to impose internal revenue tax against all factories employing women and children overtimes was killed.

The committee on laws reported against the measure on the ground that it would legalize the employment of children as laborers.

THE FIRST PROTEST

Against Our Government Carling For the Graves of Confederates.

Somerville, Mass., Dec. 21.—Mayor A. S. Perry, a member of Willard C. Kinley post, No. 139, G. A. R., has written a letter to the post severely condemning that portion of President McKinley's address at Atlanta suggesting that it would be proper for the government to assist in the care and preservation of Confederate cemeteries.

"Perhaps it is better for me to stay away from Grand Army gatherings for a little time, at least until I recover from the shock of the statements lately made by President McKinley at Atlanta. I love the south and her people, and no one rejoices more than I at the splendid spectacle of a reunited country presented during the recent war with Spain. But I cannot yet believe that it is the duty of the nation to give the same attention to the graves of the men who sought to destroy it as to the resting places of those who died for its preservation.

Bliss Determined to Resign. Washington, Dec. 21.—Several western senators, including Wolcott of Colorado, Spooner of Wisconsin and Warren of Wyoming, yesterday urged Secretary Bliss to remain in the cabinet.

Blanco's Return to Spain. Alicante, Spain, Dec. 20.—The Spanish mail steamer Villa Verde, with Marshal Ramon Blanco, former captain general of Cuba, arrived here yesterday afternoon from Havana.

Acquitted of Lese Majeste. Berlin, Dec. 21.—The provincial court has acquitted Frank Knaak, of New York, of the charge of lese majeste, because, it appears, Mr. Knaak was intoxicated when he committed the offense.

Carnegie Underbids the English. London, Dec. 20.—The Daily Mail this morning makes the following announcement: The Carnegies have secured an order for 40,000 tons of steel rails for the Cape at 15 shillings per ton under the British tenders.

Wasting in Children can be overcome in almost all cases by the use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod-Liver Oil and the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda.

It is a scientific fact that cod-liver oil is the most digestible oil in existence, in

SCOTT'S EMULSION

It is not only palatable, but it is already digested and made ready for immediate absorption by the system. It is also combined with the hypophosphites, which supply a food not only for the tissues of the body, but for the bones and nerves, and will build up the child when its ordinary food does not supply proper nourishment.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper. All druggists: 50c and $1.00.
