

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS

What has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe Saw Worth Mention—A Week's Local News in a Few Words.

Recorder Harper had an attack of the grip during the holidays.

Mrs. J. A. Aikens and daughter Emma are visiting at Beaver Falls, this week.

Allen Rumberger, of Philadelphia, visited his parents here, during the holidays.

Did you miss your paper last week? Quite likely, but we enjoyed our vacation immensely.

District Attorney Singer and family spent a portion of their holidays among friends at Tyrone.

Ellis Bierly, of Milesburg, left last week for Southern California, for the benefit of his health.

Mrs. Wm. C. Cassidy, of Canton, Ohio is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson.

During the past week our young people have been enjoying skating at Milesburg and Hecla Park.

Col. Dunham is authority for the statement that George Freeman's shoes are 15 inches long and 5 inches wide.

The Wilson Theatre Co. will be at the opera house next Monday evening and play each night during the week, at popular prices.

Sheriff Cronister's disposition has not improved much, since he is nursing a sprained ankle. It still impedes his locomotion.

Mr. Fred Blair, after spending a few weeks in Philadelphia, returned home on Friday evening. He has now fully recovered his health.

Robt. F. Hunter, the insurance man, spent part of last week in Philadelphia, closing up his year work, which showed a very satisfactory amount.

The choir at the Reformed church repeated their cantata, "The Coming of the King" on Sunday evening. It was considered the finest musical treat of the season.

and Mrs. Morris Yeager and son, of Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived in Bellefonte Saturday morning and will be guests at Mr. Henry Yeager's home on Bishop street.

Ice twelve inches thick and clear as a crystal was cut at Hecla Park last week. It is shipped in car lots to Bellefonte, Jersey Shore and other points along the line.

Last week Senator Heinle successfully closed several large real estate deals by which he transferred the title of some large tracts of unseated land to some New York parties.

The assembly given by Miss Minnie Brew, in the armory, Wednesday of last week, was well attended. Lock Haven, Philipsburg, Patton and other points were well represented.

Clarence C. Parsons, of Tyrone, a fireman on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad, has been transferred to Bellefonte and will hereafter fire on the passenger train between here and Snow Shoe.

On Tuesday evening of last week, fire damaged the Yocum school house, near the chain works, by burning a hole in the ceiling, from a defective flue. It was discovered in time to save the building.

Rev. Leonard Weaver, the evangelist, who erected a tabernacle here, sent his numerous friends in Bellefonte Christmas greetings from England, where he now is located and is engaged in the same work.

Stuart Matthews, employed at this place by Adams Express company, spent Sunday with his wife in Tyrone. Mr. Matthews returned on Monday accompanied by his wife and they will make Bellefonte their future home.

Edward Hepburn, son of Robert Hepburn, of this place, and who clerks in a large grocery store in New York city, is at present home owing to illness. He is just recovering from a serious attack of stomach trouble.

On Saturday the jury commissioners, Messrs Joseph Hoy, of Marion, and W. S. Williams, of Martha, finished their work. About 500 new names were selected. There were twice as many applications as were needed. Harry Pontius officiated as clerk.

The bell for the Undine's new building was put in its place last week. It weighs 600 pounds and has a clear musical tone. By an electrical appliance, when an alarm of fire is given the bell will ring automatically when a signal reaches the telephone station.

The New Year's ball given by the Logan Fire Company in the armory, on Friday evening, was largely attended. The parade was complete containing the full company with engine and ladder truck. The appearance of fireman Beck with his new silver bugle on the truck elicited the greatest enthusiasm along the route. The dance proved a delightful affair for all who attended.

The Wilson Theatre Company will be here all of next week.

Charles Case has taken Mr. Cota's place, at the Y. M. C. A.

Frank T. Kerns, the laundryman, left Renovo, and is back to Millheim again.

James Noonan, the mixologist at the Bush House, got a New Year's gift—a bright baby girl.

Mrs. J. D. Geisinger, of Milwaukee, Wis., arrived in Bellefonte Friday afternoon to visit relatives.

Mrs. Alice L. Rishel and two children, Aicha and Oscar, visited friends near Coburn, last week.

A number of Bellefonte's active politicians are at Harrisburg this week to take a hand in the Quay fight.

Horace B. Herring, of Penn Hall, was in town on Monday and secured his commission as county surveyor.

During the holiday season many of our patrons called to see, and most of them dropped something with us.

Thermometers are not alike or else people are very unreliable. Reports about here varied from ten to twenty degrees below zero.

Andrew Brockerhoff, of Reading, and Dr. Joseph Brockerhoff, of Pittsburg, were home during the holiday week on a visit to their mother.

Walter Butts, formerly of Bellefonte, has given up the Imperial Hotel at Houtzdale, and is engaged in the business at Winbaer, Somerset county.

W. Harrison Walker, Esq., is recovered from his attack of chicken pox and is about again attending to legal business. "And his whiskers grew."

Daniel Garman has been confined to the house the past few weeks from a slight attack of grip. He is not seriously ill, but is taking good care of himself.

Mrs. John Trafford, who had been to the Williamsport hospital for treatment, returned home last week much improved. No operation was found necessary in her case.

George Hayes, formerly of this place, but now a practicing physician, of Pittsburg, Pa., visited at the home of Mrs. M. H. Wilson, on High street during the holidays.

Joseph Fox, Jr., who holds a responsible position in the shipping department with the Carnegie Steel Company at Braddock, Pa., spent Christmas at his home in this place.

On Monday Senator Wm. C. Heinle, Representatives Rob't Foster and J. H. Wetzel took their departure for Harrisburg to attend the opening sessions of the General Assembly.

Shaffer & Son have moved their grocery store to their new rooms in the Allison building, next to Criders' Exchange. The interior has been carefully and conveniently remodeled and is handsomely finished in polished Georgia pine.

The Bellefonte Creamery company is about to establish a branch at Lemont with cream separators. The plant at this place has been in successful operation the past season and the business has largely increased.

February 15th, argument will be had before the State Board of Pardons in regard to the application of James Cornelly of this place, convicted of arson. It would have been heard in December but his attorneys were unable to appear.

C. M. Bower, Esq., has been kept at home the past week on account of an attack of grip. His son, John, who accidentally sustained a gunshot wound, last October, while hunting, is able to be about again and is greeting his many friends. He is looking quite well.

While in town last Saturday, Burdine Butler, of Howard, emphatically denied that he was interested in starting a democratic paper at Howard, as had been reported. He finds that he has no time to spare for such an enterprise, and believes his present profession is more popular and profitable.

Every night of next week we will have an attraction in the opera house, by the Wilson Theatre Company. Monday evening they will render "The Galley Slave," one Bartley Campbell's best productions. Popular prices of admission—10, 20 and 30 cents. You can see a good show for a small sum of money. They come well recommended.

Our merchants all agree that the holiday trade this season was very large. It was better than for several years past. The large crops for the past two years evidently has placed more money in our community than has usually circulated. It certainly did not come from reviving industries as fewer men are employed about here now than for many years.

F. H. Cota, for a number of years secretary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., recently tendered his resignation and same was accepted. Mr. Cota expects to return to his former home in Connecticut soon. The rooms at this place will be kept open in the meantime and a new secretary will be selected by the Board of Directors.

During the holidays Messrs C. M. and C. B. Garman, proprietors of the Garman House, gave out a large number of fine presents in the shape of a double-entend paise that is a convenient and useful article. The one that came to this office was timely as several purses are worn out each year carrying large sums of money handed between banking hours—nit.

Carload of Kansas horses will be sold at M. B. Garman's sales stables, Bellefonte, January 12th.

When are you going to hold your sale? Better select your date in time. Consult us in regard to bills and advertising.

For Sale—A 25-horse power stationary engine and boiler. Frick make, good condition. John H. White, Mingo-ville, Pa.

The county Auditors, Messrs Frank Hess, Philipsburg, (democrat); G. G. Fink, Huston township; and J. D. Wagner, Gregg, (republicans), began on Monday examining the accounts of the various county officials. H. B. Pontius was chosen as clerk, for which he is well qualified.

Governor Hastings tendered Colonel Wilbur Reeder the appointment of superior court judge to fill the vacancy created by the death of J. Howard Reeder, of Easton. The colonel, however, prefers to resume his private practice when he retires as deputy attorney general, and declined.

Geo. R. Smull, the representative of the New York Life Insurance Co., left one of the finest calendars we have seen for this year on our desk. Each year Mr. Smull is thoughtful in this direction. We wish him a prosperous New Year and hope he may write more business than ever—and he always had his big share.

Our readers will notice that "The Racket" store makes an important announcement in another portion of this paper. Another large room has been added and new lines will be introduced. Preparatory to this event a "Revolution" sale takes place that means bargains. "The Racket" is growing along rapidly and increasing its business every year.

The services in the Lutheran church on Christmas night were a decided success. The Sunday school, in connection with the congregation, rendered the beautiful service. "The Angel's Message," to the edification of the large audience that crowded every part of the spacious church. The entire school received a Christmas treat. The pastor told the children a beautiful Christmas story. The singing by the school was of a high order. The church was handsomely decorated. The persons who managed this service deserve the highest praise.

New Officials.

On Monday M. I. Gardner, the new Prothonotary was qualified for his position before Recorder J. C. Harper at his home, as he was kept at home by the grip. Mr Gardner has retained Mr. Kimpf as Deputy Prothonotary.

W. F. Smith's resignation as Prothonotary expects to remain in effect until near April when he will resign his property in Penn township, and Millheim. It can be truthfully said that Mr. Smith made a competent, obliging and satisfactory official, and has made many warm friends while in our town.

N. B. Spangler, the new District Attorney, was also qualified before Recorder Harper and is sizing up the duties of his office and preparing cases for trial at the coming term of January court. Wm. J. Singer, who ably filled this position during the past six years will now turn his entire attention to the practice of his profession. His varied experience as District Attorney has well fitted him for the trial of causes and transaction of all forms of legal business.

Election of Officers.

The Logan Steam Fire Engine company held their annual election of officers in the Public building Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. There was a full attendance of the company and the following officers were elected: John Kniesly, president; Harry Jackson, recording secretary; James Seibert, treasurer; George Cunningham, chief; John T. Laurie, 1st assistant; William Hogarth, 2nd assistant; R. A. Beck, 3rd assistant. George Kniesly 4th assistant. Trustees—Thomas Shaughnessy, James Harris and George Eberhart.

A CARLOAD OF KANSAS HORSES.

A carload of selected horses from Kansas are now at M. B. Garman's sales stables, East Howard street, Bellefonte. They consist principally of heavy draft horses, also some fine drivers, 23 head; good stock, sound and guaranteed. The entire lot will be sold at auction on Thursday January 12th. Sale commences at 1 o'clock, the highest bidder must be sold. These horses can be seen anytime by calling at the stables. Terms cash, or approved security. J. H. A. Steinkerkner, of Newton, Ks.

DOLL DAY.

DEAR EDITOR.—Will you announce to your "Little Women" readers that Saturday will be "Doll Day" at our store. Every girl who, accompanied with her parents, brings her doll to us, will be presented with a pair of genuine Vic Kid slippers, of a size to fit its feet. Tell them to be sure to bring their doll—no matter how big or how little it is, if we haven't a pair of slippers to fit it, we will make a pair to measure. Yours truly A. C. MINGLE.

FARM FOR SALE.—A farm of about 75 acres, in Howard Twp. Inquire of Wm. G. Runkle, Esq., Bellefonte, Pa.

IN THE COURT HOUSE.

Legal Intelligence Gathered from Various Offices.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. Wm. N. Finburn, Bellefonte; Margaret I. Stahler, Millheim; Hazel Strunk, Blanchard; Anna B. Bechdel, " "

George A. Michael, Centre Hall; Lloyd L. Worral, Lingen Hall; John McCannons, Howard; Hannah Galinger, " "; George M. Peters, Osceola; Clara E. Barton, Union Twp.; Edw. L. Worral, Lingen Hall; Edw. M. Brown, Borsburg; John Kelley, Spring Twp.; Mary McGinnis, Punxsutawney; Emmon H. Swartz, Altoona; Elizabeth May Walters, Unionville; J. Manan A. Cole, Clearfield Co.; John J. Hazzard, Snow Shoe; Wm. H. Hingle, Penn Twp.; Lizzie A. Jamison, Gregg; Wm. Crawshaw, Morrissdale Mines; Jennie Naper, " "; Mrs. T. Daugherty, Jersey Shore; Rosie H. Schestny, " "; Edward B. Sprow, Snow Shoe; Lula E. Heaton, Fleming; C. Edward Ryan, Bellefonte; May Hoover, " "; John Hoffman, Walker; Elizabeth Shaffer, " "; Wm. Beveridge, Snow Shoe; Anna Houston, " "; Charles D. Matts, Patton; Laura Rumbarger, Warrior's Mark; Nathan D. Hosterman, Coburn; Maggie H. Letzler, Millheim; Theodore Snyder, San Antonio, Tex; Katie Derr, Spring Twp.; David S. Glasgow, Tusseyville; Lettie Kline, " "; James B. Harshberger, Linden Hall; Emma S. Glasgow, Tusseyville

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

James Murphy et ux to Agnes Suhrie, dated June 18, 1898, for tract in Rush Twp. $60. Charles Smith et ux to Eve Sharrer, dated Nov. 12, 1898, for tract in Rush Twp. $400. George Vaughn, to Eve Sharrer, dated Nov. 18, 1898, for tract in Rush Twp. $225. Rebecca J. Tipton to Frances T. McEntire, et al, dated Dec. 23, 1898, for lots in Howard Boro. $1. Elizabeth Lybeger's Adm'r., to J. C. Williams, dated April 22, 1897, for lot in Philipsburg Boro. $160. G. F. Hoop et ux to Calvin Sharrer, dated Dec. 22, 1898, for tract in Rush Twp. $75. Guarantee Trust and Safe Deposit Co., of Philadelphia to Isaac Reese, et al dated July 14, 1898, for tract of land in Rush Twp. $1100.00. Charles Gobbie et ux to Amelia Geringer, dated April 1, 1897, for tract of land in Gregg Twp. $800. Irene Houtz et al to Jas. C. Williams, dated Mar. 12, 1896, for lot 160 and 161 in South Philipsburg Boro. $40. Horace Hering's bond filed for surveyor. M. I. Gardner's commission filed. Catharine Burd widow to David Burd, dated May 9, 1898, for tract of land in Haines Twp. $523.50. Tyrone Mining and Manufacturing Co. to A. M. Brown, dated Dec. 19, 1898, for tract of land in Ferguson Twp. $3500. Samuel Frank to James P. Frank, dated April 7, 1893, for tract in Miles Twp. $425. Jeremiah Haines to James P. Frank, dated April 13, 1891, for tract in Miles Twp. $70. J. R. Runner to Emile P. Gardner, dated Nov. 29, 1898, for lot in Liberty Twp. $75. Jno. L. Thompson et ux to Thos. D. Boal, et ux dated Dec. 2, 1898, for tract in Harris Twp. $1400. Geo. M. Stover et ux to Jno. W. Haffley, dated April 29, 1885, for tracts in Haines Twp. $475. Benj. Haffley et ux to Jno. W. Haffley, dated Oct. 22, 1894, for tract in Haines Twp. $2000. Benj. Haffley et ux et al to Jno. W. Haffley, dated Oct. 22, 1894, for tracts in Haines Twp. $2000. John Moyers Ex'r's, to William Haffley, dated Dec. 1879, for tract in Haines Twp. $475. J. L. Roush et ux to D. D. Royer, dated Mar. 26, 1898, for tract in Spring Twp. $2500. John L. Kreamer et ux et al to Isaac M. Orndorf, dated Mar. 20, 1891, for tract in Haines Twp. $100. Emanuel J. Orndorf to Isaac M. Orndorf, et al dated Oct. 15, 1898, for tracts in Haines Twp. $275. Michael Evert et ux to C. H. Meyer, et al dated Mar. 17, 1894, for tract in Penn Twp. $125. C. H. Meyer et al to Jacob W. Moyer, dated Mar. 28, 1898, for tract in Penn Twp. $87.50. W. M. Cronister Sheriff to Henry Meyer, dated Aug. 24, 1898, for tract in Miles Twp. $50. J. H. Reifensyde to W. P. Hosterman, dated Feb. 1, 1896, for tract in Gregg Twp. $70. Dr. J. Y. Dale et ux to Frances M. Sones, dated Dec. 17, 1894, for tract of land in College Twp. $275.

At Council Meeting.

Wm. G. Runkle, Esq., inquired what action was taken by council on the case of Maggie Miles for breaking an arm by a fall on the Garman pavement, some time ago. Informed that no action had been taken. Steam is being put in the public building, on Howard street. The pumps at the water works are running 18 hours per day. Ordinance being prepared to keep cows off the street. A. G. Morris proposition to fill the pike from boro. line to McCoy's residence was accepted.

The report of the finance committee was as follows: Bal due Treasurer Dec. '98 $1,395.51; Bonds and orders paid $930.85; Water $28.75; Interest 225.00; Total 2,781.11; Rec'd acct line fence (Car. tin's) 3.00; Rec'd acct Water com. 8.72; Total 11.72; Bal due Treasurer Jan. 2, 99 $2,792.83. Bills to the amount of $256.93 were approved.

A list of 28 of our surrounding towns was read. It costs this town $705 per light. The average for the 28 towns quoted is $64 per light. The matter was discussed from every standpoint. Mr. Sheffer moved that the council make the Edison Electric Light company an offer of $75 per light per annum for 50 arc lights. This was seconded by Mr. Houser and carried unanimously.

JANUARY TRIAL LIST.

Commencing Monday, Jan. 23, 1899, Continuing Two Weeks. FIRST WEEK.

R. L. Pierce vs. Thomas Byron. Dr. S. F. Nevlng vs. Overseer Poor of Burnside township. W. W. Laird vs. Samuel Frantz. John P. Harris, use of, vs. John M. Dale, adm'r et al. Charlotte C. Burd (now Balm) vs. Elizabeth Burd, adm'x.

SECOND WEEK.

Emaline Hough vs. M. G. Brown et al. Geo. W. Ford's estate vs. W. J. Jackson et al. Lillie E. Essington vs. Marie Boileau. Wm. H. McCausland vs. Milton Wilson. Bucher Gibbs Plow Co. vs. Cyrus Brumgart. Laura C. Mull et al. vs. Jacob Walker. John P. Harris et al. vs. Jacob Thielen et al. Com. ex rel. Rachel Dale and Amanda Walker vs. J. Henry Meyer. Austin Swisher vs. John Bruss et al. Samuel Lewin vs. Kohn, Rosenheim & Co. Jesse and Samuel Long vs. Jeremiah Snavely, ex'r. J. V. & A. McEntire vs. Israel Runkle. M. D. Snyder vs. J. N. Krumrine. M. D. Snyder vs. J. N. Krumrine. Lehigh Valley Coal Co. vs. Beech Valley Coal and Iron Co. James H. McCool vs. Peter D. Auman. First National Bank of Bellefonte vs. Jacob D. Valentine's ex'r's. James Duck vs. Benjamin Limbert. Charles McCafferty et al. vs. Lancashire Insurance Co. Charles McCafferty vs. Ins. Co. of North America. First National Bank of Bellefonte vs. A. M. McClain & Co. First National Bank of Bellefonte vs. A. M. McClain & Co. Use of C. F. Cook vs. Jerry Shearer. Use of C. F. Cook vs. Jerry Shearer. Julia L. Hale vs. Chas. Ammerman. S. M. Buck use of vs. Annie Thompson et al.

Large Barn Burned.

The large barn on the farm of M. H. Heard, two miles east of Salona, was burned Wednesday of last week together with a large quantity of hay and grain. There were 9 calves and 30 hogs perished in the flames.

Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hite, Sr., are visiting friends in Altoona. James Dulen and sister Kate, were seen in our vicinity on Sunday. Samuel Kling is again in our midst, after spending some time at Lancaster. W. W. Orndorf and wife, of this place, visited friends at Howard, on Saturday. Mr. Kerstetter, of Pleasant Gap, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ohl last week. Samuel Pravel and little daughter Mary, visited friends above Bellefonte last week. Mr. Fox, of Cedar Run, died on the 1st inst. He is the father of Curt Fox, of this place. Preaching services in the Reformed church, on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 8, 2:30 o'clock. Henry and Bert Tate, of Fillmore, were circulating among friends at this place during the holidays. Newton and Calvin Kling, Richard Thompson and Guy Benson, of Parlandville, were home over Xmas. R. K. Wilson, of Farrisville, was in our vicinity on Monday. He came to attend the funeral of William Irwin. Mr. and Mrs. Grant Petrow, of near Mechanicsburg, visited Mrs. Petrow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of Jacksonville, last week. Rev. Craighead delivered a very able sermon in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning. His text was selected from Hebrews, 13th chapter, 8th verse: "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever."

Harry Hoy and wife returned home to his father's Z. N. Hoy, on Tuesday of last week, where a reception was held for them. Our boys who are ever on the alert for such occasions rendered them a serenade in the evening. William Irwin one of Nittany Valleys most highly respected citizens quietly passed away on Thursday evening, Dec. 29, of heart failure, aged 70 years, 1 month and 28 days. Further account in another part of this issue. Misses Josie and Mollie Hoy, two fine young ladies of this place, in company with Messrs Will Long, of Howard, and Stamp, of near Bellefonte, were seen wending their way in the direction of Howard on Sunday. They returned home on Sunday evening.

Rebersburg.

Surely our Odd Fellows had a pleasant time with their annual oyster supper, on Saturday evening. All people, who are filled with up-to-date county news, you will notice, are subscribers of the CENTRE DEMOCRAT. On Xmas eve, the Esler Evangelical church had been filled to its utmost to experience an excellent Xmas entertainment. Mrs. Susan Long, of Iowa, who came to visit her parents the other week, expects to spend the greater part of the year at home. Prof. Harry Conser, the principal of the Sunbury high school, who had been visiting his half brother, Dr. Bright, left again the latter part of last week. The fantastic brigade, that passed through our burg on Saturday noon, was quite an attraction to such who were almost as foolish, but to the respected it was rather degrading. Edward Ziegler, who had been spending his winter vacation at the old home, left again on Monday morning for Lancaster, where he will continue his studies at Franklin and Marshall college.

On Monday morning our people positively refused to have a long haul shake with Mr. Cold, because they claimed that he never before, presented himself with such an unusual (26) below zero grip.

Mr. Michael, a student of the Susquehanna University, preached in the Lutheran church, on Sunday, both morning and evening, and was very much liked by the people. No doubt Mr. Michael's presence would be very much appreciated any time in the future.

Fiedler.

Miss Clara Bressler is visiting at W. J. Krapes. We are having cold weather, but fine sleighing.

DIED.—Infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bower, aged 2 days. Interment at Wolf's Chapel.

The Goodwill creamery is busy filling their ice house, and have already stored a large quantity.

R. E. Stover made a trip to Penn Hall, on Saturday evening, and on account of the extreme cold weather did not get home till Sunday morning.

The industrial parade from Woodway passed through this place on Monday and the people expressed themselves, as the best parade they ever saw.

Samore Winklebleck also had a runaway and smash-up. He jumped off the sleigh to walk, which frightened the horse. He was caught at E. M. Boones.

Dr. Musser had a runaway and smash-up last week. His horse frightened at a few small boys, who were hauling sleds at the chapel, with the above result. No one hurt.

P. S. Dale, of Oak Hall, circulated among friends here last week. He is supplying the telephone company with poles, which are being cut on his farm, east of Woodward.

A coal mine is being opened on Wm. Warner's farm, along the Pine Creek road. A smut vein has been found and a few coal. There are sure indications of abundance of coal.

Roland Items.

J. Soup, B.—is becoming quite a ladies man. While others are too young.

Clyde Cox returned from Johnsbury last week, where he was employed in the paper mill.

Bion Williams is a very lucky man, having found gold about 20 feet from his house, Monday afternoon.

The thermometer registered 21 degrees below zero Monday morning, the coldest it has been for a great many winters.

H. Laird Curtin, of this place, accompanied James Farst, of Bellefonte, on an extended visit to Lebanon, last week.

Miss Sue C. Holter departed for Philipsburg, Tuesday morning where she expects to visit her sister, Mrs. H. M. Walker, and friends.

There is some talk of Prof. Ellery Johnson starting a musical convention in the M. E. church, at the close of which, he will continue a class in singing.

The new roller process being placed in the grill mill at this place, is almost completed and will undoubtedly turn out good flour at the time of its completion.

The concert, at the close of the musical convention held at Mt. Eagle, by Prof. Johnson last week, was attended by the young men of this place and all report having a good time.

A Perfect Cathartic.

Is one which does not wrench the system or leave it weak and exhausted. A perfect cathartic is found in Hood's Pills. They are praise everywhere, and after once being tried they soon permanently take the place of the old fashioned drastic pills, such as "our grand-fathers used." Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla and they greatly aid that medicine in its cleansing and purifying work.

PUBLIC SALE REGISTER.

Parties contemplating having sale this year will do well to have their bills printed at this office. It is an acceded fact that the best displayed sale bills are secured here. We use extra heavy paper, better than most offices, have ample supply of material, and good workmen who give pains and attention to your wants, and the result is our patrons are always pleased.

We won't promise to print your bills for nothing, nor for half-price, nor cheaper than anybody else, and when you come, "pull your leg." We will charge you a fair, legitimate, consistent, living price; THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT always believed in "living and let live" and has won the reputation for reasonable prices and honest dealing.

Notice of date of sale and sale notes will be furnished free to persons securing their bills at this office. To others the charge is 50 cents. A complete copy of bill will be inserted for $1.50 until day of sale. We have one price for all.

JANUARY 17—Valuable real estate of C. C. Loone in Miles township will be sold at his residence in the village of Rebersburg, at one o'clock, P. M. W. J. CARTER, Auctioneer.

JANUARY 21—The Fishburn homestead, in Bennet Twp., and 3/4 miles south-west of Bellefonte, containing 50 acres more or less. Sale at 2 o'clock at the Court House. Israel Kauffman, Administrator.

MARCH 16—Two and one-half miles east of Centre Hall, Hiram Durst will sell 80 head of live stock, including 3 short horn bulls, binder, mower, wagon and a lot of farm implements, etc. Wm. GOBLEN, Ast.

FRIED, MARCH 24—G. W. Miller will sell 7 head of horses, 20 head of cattle, large line of farm implements and household goods, on the Robert Valentine farm, along Borsburg pike, 3 1/2 miles south-east of Bellefonte, sale at 10 a. m. Wm. Goheen, auctioneer.

Bellefonte Markets.

Table listing market prices for various goods such as Potatoes, Onions, Eggs, Lard, Tallow, Butter, and Grain. Prices are listed in dollars and cents.

Just in Time.

A well known lady in town exclaimed the other day: "I have been wearing my life out from the effects of Nervous Exhaustion, Neuralgia and Headaches. My attention was attracted directed to Barr's Celery Sarsaparilla for the Nerves, and after using two packages I am entirely well. Keep your nerves well and strong by the use of this great Vegetable Compound. Samples free. Large packages 25 cents. Sold only by C. W. Parsh, Bellefonte; Wm. G. Noll, Pleasant Gap; J. C. F. Motz, Woodbury; W. H. Miller, Asemann; J. H. Griffin, Strömstown; L. B. McEntire, Fillmore.