Mrs. Irvin Craig and daughters Grace and Josephine spent the holidays at the home of Rev. John Craig.
James Davis wife and little daughter, of Winburne, spent the Christmas festivities under the parental roof.

Alfred Irwin is at present visiting his brother Louis, in Bellefonte. But I don't think that is the only attraction, is it?
Miss Grace Biederman and Miss Martin, of Bellefonte, spent a few days with their friend Miss Emma Murray last week.

Mrs. Z. White, of Philipsburg, is visiting her brother George Campbell. Mrs. White was formerly a resident of our town.
Squire Nason, who has been in ill health for the past year, left last Monday for Altoona, to undergo an examination.

Mrs. Catharine Williams left last week for Bellefonte where she expects to spend a few weeks with her daughter Mrs. Louis Irwin.
Mrs. Wickoff, of Sinnemahoning, and Mrs. Jno. Eberts, of Clearfield, were here last week to see their aged mother Mrs. Morely, who is seriously ill.

Mr. Campbell, our oldest citizen, fell and seriously injured himself a few weeks ago. His condition was critical, but at present he is slowly recovering.
Mrs. Mary Hoover, of Bald Eagle, who has been suffering the last few weeks with a tumor, was removed to the home of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Hoover, at this place.

The many friends of Mrs. Hannah Murphy will be sorry to learn that she has been confined to her bed for some time with an attack of paralysis. Her condition was quite dangerous last week but at present we understand she is on the road to recovery. We trust she will soon regain her health.

On Friday, Dec. 23rd, death claimed another of Julian's old citizens in the person of Harrison Barr. He had been a sufferer for some time previous to his death with brights disease, but none was prepared for his sudden demise. Services were held in the M. E. church, on Christmas. Interment in the cemetery at Julian. Mr. Barr is survived by ten children, his wife having preceded him a few years ago.

Miss Jennie Cassler has returned to her home in Holsopce, after a stay of a few months with her sister, Mrs. Lila Crouse.
Mr. and Mrs. John Keller, of Lock Haven, spent the greater part of last week at the home of the latter's parents, Fred Limberts.

Miss Nora Guiswite, of State College, spent a week with friends in the burg. Her sister Lottie accompanied her to the College, where they both expect to spend the winter.
The boys had a very good fantastic parade on Saturday, and hailed the New Year in by ringing all the church bells right after the town clock had chimed twelve.

A GRAND SURPRISE—On Christmas morning class No. 3 of the Reformed Sunday school, comprising the Misses Fannie and Maize Hafley, Lula Detwiler, Lottie Leitzell, Lisle Acker, Lottie Stover, Myra Burd, Margaret Mayes and Catherine Small presented their teacher Edwin R. Wolf, with a beautiful winter scenery which was very highly appreciated by him. Especially does he appreciate it the more as it was given out of pure respect to him by his class, which he has taught for several years.

On the 23rd of December Mary Stephens, a maiden lady, was found unconscious in her house. The neighbors had not seen her all day and when evening came on, and still no light they became alarmed and a few of them forced the door open and found her prostrate on the floor, with the oil oozing out of the lamp aside of her. Her whole right side was paralyzed. She had been to prayer meeting on Wednesday evening, and it is supposed that this came over her soon after she got home, and then was not found until Thursday evening at ten o'clock. At this writing she is no better. Her brother William was dispatched for at once, and he is the only relative that survives.

Port Matilda.

Mrs. James Patton is very sick at her home in this place.
Mrs John Kelley has been dangerously ill for a week or more.

Christ Cowher, of Sandy Ridge, spent Christmas with his parents and Mrs. Joseph Cowher near this place.
Miss Metta Lucas, who teaches school in Union township, is spending the holidays among her many friends in this place.

Samuel Hoover, of Howard, fell a few days since while loading ice, sustaining some painful injuries, of which he is recovering slowly.
Mrs. C. Reese, accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Wood, made a recent trip to Lock Haven, visiting the former's niece, Mrs. Lucy Neff.

Harry Chaney and family, from Six Mile Run, Bedford county, spent the holidays in our town, as guests of the former's parents.
J. F. Marks, one of Port Matilda's wagon and buggy makers, finds no time for recreation since the sled and sleigh season has opened.

Rev. Newell is holding a protracted meeting at Mount Pleasant, which is proving highly successful, as is shown by the many conversions.
The I. O. O. F., of this place have moved in their new hall, which is a model of comfort, being highly finished and elaborately furnished.

Christ Reese is up to date in improvements, adding comfort to his cattle stock by erecting an addition to his large barn for their special benefit.
Budd Cowher, teacher at the Laurel Run school, speaks highly of both attendance and conduct which is due him. A competent teacher makes attentive pupils.

About 9 o'clock, on Wednesday evening of last week, Frank Kuop's new barn burned with a valuable horse and all other contents excepting two cows; a heavy loss with no insurance.
The entertainment on Christmas night at the Baptist church was considered excellent by a large audience. Miss Miles sang a solo which was highly appreciated, being a rare selection well rendered.

YOU TRY IT.
If Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure, which is sold for the small price of 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00, does not cure take the bottle back and we will refund your money. Sold for over fifty years on this guarantee. Price 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Nittany.

A Happy New Year to everybody.

Clate Royer has moved his family out to Indiana county, where they have their saw mill.
Monday morning, January 2nd, was the coldest morning we have had this winter.
Miss Mable Culby, of Lock Haven, is the guest of her aunt Mrs. Rachel Rossman.

Miss Ellie Tate spent Christmas at Hubbersburg with her sister, Mrs. Harvey Stover.
The Christmas entertainment in the Lutheran church was well attended and was enjoyed by all.
Mrs. Hattie Winkleman, of Mackeyville, spent Christmas with her sister-in-law, Mittie Winkleman.

THREE WEDDINGS.
On Christmas evening, Bob Billet, of this place, and Annie Bierly were married at the bride's home at Clintondale.
On Christmas, at the home of Adam Decker, Mr. Deviney, of Lewistown, and Miss Ettie Decker, of this place, were married.

On December 22nd, at the home of the bride, Mr. Mingle, of Birmingham, and Miss Ida McCaleb, of this place were married by the Rev. W. K. Deihl.
The home of John Bartley was made very happy by the arrival of a young son, on the 23rd; both baby and mother are doing fine.

Dan Showers has been home from Johnsonburg where he has been working at his trade, carpentering. He went back again to work.
We are glad to hear that little Victor Guiser is getting along real well at the hospital. We hope he may soon be brought home a well boy.

The infant class in the Evangelical school surprised their teacher very much, by making her a present of a beautiful pair of vases; that shows their esteem for her.
As we are entering another year, it would be well for all to stop a moment, and consider whether we have done all the good possible in the past year; if not, let us try and do better, next year.

The following young men, who are working away from home, came home to spend their holidays with friends: Boyd Emerick, G. W. Robb, Ed. Robb, Charley Emerick, Art Young, Frank Minick, John Tolbert.
There was no Christmas tree in the Evangelical church, but all the same Mrs. McCaslin treated her class of little folks with candy. Mrs. McCaslin deserves credit for the way she has been handling the little folks, between 20 and 30 little tots. She certainly is the right one in the right place.

YOUNG MOTHERS.
Group is the terror of thousands of young mothers because its outbreak is so agonizing and frequently fatal. Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure acts like magic in cases of Group. It has never been known to fail. The worst cases relieved immediately. Price 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

GET your neighbor to subscribe for The Centre Democrat and you will tickle us immensely. A new subscription always gives us cause for rejoicing.

Zion.

Jack frost is having a snap.
Christmas and New Year passed off very quietly, at this place.
The thermometer registered 20 degrees below zero, last Monday morning.

Christ Decker was the guest of his brother Ed, of Lock Haven, last week.
It has been rumored that John Kauffman is going to take unto himself a wife.
S. E. Showers and Samuel Decker made a business trip to Mill Hall and Jersey Shore, one day last week.

Miss Struble and Miss Allie Irvin have gone to Philadelphia to visit relatives. They expect to be absent one month.
Chas. and Arthur Fisher have gone to State College again to resume their studies in that institution. They enjoyed their vacation very much.

Fearon Showers, son of S. E. Showers, while playing at school one day this week fell against the stove and burned his hand and face severely.
The men employed at Orwig and Kryder's saw mill, have all gone home for a few days. I presume to eat turkey and see their best girls. How is it, Cal?

An appropriate New Year's gift for your friend would be a year's subscription to the Centre Democrat. We hope there were many who made their friends happy in that way.
This is the first time for twenty-five years that the W. S. S. did not celebrate Christmas. Such should not be the case. It is the anniversary of our Lord, and there should be appropriate services by the children.

MANY A LOVER
Has turned with disgust from an otherwise lovable girl with an offensive breath. Karl's Clover Root Tea purifies the breath by its action on the bowels, etc., as nothing else will. Sold for years on absolute guarantee. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Spring Mills.

Will Rankin's infant child is sick.
Mrs. Jacob McCool is on the sick list.
Mrs. Archie Allison is improving slowly.
Mrs. James Crape visited her daughter at Centre Hall.

Edward Ruhl is attending to the hotel for the past week.
John Lloyd forgot to say his words, so he can't catch no fish.
D. H. Ruhl was called to Lancaster to attend his father's funeral.

The snow that fell last Saturday night brought out the sleighs on Sunday.
Edward Eckley, of Pine Grove Mills, visited at Green Deckers, Georgesvalley.
The boys say they took the wrong time of the year to tramp. Better wait till the robins nest again.

Miss Mary Moyer and Frank McClelan, both of Tusseyville, were visiting friends and relatives here.
The Sons of Veterans gave an oyster supper at the town hall, where they royally entertained the old soldiers.
Shook brothers gathered at their mother's house, last Saturday, to do justice to a turkey dinner and surprised her with a fine set of China-dishes.

The Knights of Golden Eagles gave a supper to their families, at the hall, where the tables were laden with the good things to eat. Ida Condo, C. C. Bariges, John Weaver and Prof. Brown furnished the music for the occasion.
WHAT IS SHILOH?
A grand old remedy for Cough, Colds and Consumption; used through the world for half a century, has cured innumerable cases of in-cipient consumption and relieved many in advanced stages. If you are not satisfied with the results we will refund the money. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Yarnell.

Protracted meeting began the 1st inst. Jacob Shank, of Abdera, was with his aged parents over Sunday.
Quite a number of our citizens attended the sale of Mrs. Elmer Resides.
With the beginning of the New Year our woodsmen will again return to their work.

As John has been away so long it certainly is appalling how Rosy R—keeps in cheer.
Chester Walker is now manufacturing piling for Wm. Cox. Clapboards are next on hand.
Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Reasner will on the 14th of February, celebrate their fiftieth year of married life.

Some of our young men seem to be important characters in Howard society, whilst others are of Runville type.
A new organ has been placed in our school, at a cost of $50. To be paid by the scholars and patrons of this school.
Samuel Shank and wife are the oldest residents in this section, having enjoyed the blessing of married life for 62 years. The eldest son is 60 years.

A very social gathering convened at Clayton Yarnells on Dec. 23. Those who used most influence in aiding it on were Messrs. Claud Yarnell and Wm. Nyman.
Our newly married couple have returned from their wedding journey. It now looks as though J. Frank will follow suit as too frequent visits to Bellefonte will urge it on.

Woodward.

Most of the people have finished putting away ice.
Mrs. Emma Eisenmine is visiting at Frank Guiswites at Feidler.
Mrs. Henry Meyer was visiting at S. M. Weber's during the county institute.
The Sunday School, at this place, received a bountiful Christmas treat.

The P. O. S. of A. met in extra session last week for the purpose of initiation; that means new members.
Samuel Williams fell and fractured one of his ribs while on his way to work at Harter Bro's, saw mill, week before last.
In about three days our hunters killed four bears, and a few days afterward wounded a fifth; profitable hunting, that is.

Misses Mary Eby, Maud Williams and Messrs J. M. Orndorf, W. T. Williams, J. G. Eby and S. M. Weber were attending the Teacher's Institute at Bellefonte.

Penn Hall.

Sleighbells are jingling again.
J. D. Mesmer is going in the confectionery business.
Fantastic parades were the latest craze here for the last two weeks.

Most of our citizens have filled their ice houses with the crystal beauty.
S. P. Gramly and H. M. Wert made a business trip to McClure, Pa., last week.
J. C. Condo, our hustling coachmaker, has disposed of his entire stock of sleighs.
H. N. Meyer, of the Millersville state normal, is at home on a ten day's vacation.

We understand there will be quite a lot of fittings done in our section this spring.
Query—We wonder why J. H. Gramly wears such a broad smile? Because it's a boy.
Mrs. Mary Goodhart, of Centre Hall, was visiting at C. E. Zeiglers a few days last week.

John H. Keller, of Lancaster, was the guest of his brother-in-law, F. M. Fisher over Christmas.
J. Frank Meyer, of the John's Hopkins University, Baltimore, M. D., is spending his vacation under his parental roof.
H. F. McManaway had six invitations to turkey dinner's on Christmas. Of course he accepted the invitation down the pike.

Miss Mollie Gettig, who had been staying with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Meyer, returned to her home at Centre Mills, last week.
M. L. Snyder, Esq., and wife, of Sunbury, were the guests of Mrs. J. B. Fisher over the holidays; Mr. Snyder is one of Sunbury's prominent lawyers.

We are informed that there are already five candidates on the slate for the constabulary, at the coming spring election, and evidently more to join in the race.
We are informed that the St. Paul United Evangelical church, north of town, will be dedicated on the 29th inst. Bishop R. Dubs, D. D. L. D., of Chicago, will officiate.

S. O. Baney, our photographer, has equipped himself with a brand new outfit and is now in a position to do first-class work in the line of photographing, at very moderate prices.
The Centre Hall creamery company have recently started outmen in our section. Our farmers are largely patronizing this project and, by the way, are well pleased with the new separator system.

On Christmas evening, just as the golden sunset flush was dying away in the western horizon, throngs of people began to gather in the Salem Reformed church, to witness one of the grandest Christmas entertainments of the season. The church was elaborately decorated with evergreens and ferns which made it a very inviting scene. The program was very artistically arranged and received the strictest attention from a house crowded to its utmost capacity. Rev. W. F. Brown and Prof. J. Frank Meyer delivered very appropriate and eloquent addresses. The choir sang exquisitely fine. J. S. Meyer, the musical director, deserves special mention as his untiring efforts proved to make this entertainment a decided success.

—The price of the Centre Democrat and 3-times-a-week World has been reduced from $1.75 to $1.65 per year. This is a great combination at a low price. We always furnish "The Most News for the Least Money."

Romola.

L. O. Packer visited his girl at Penn Hall last week.
Miss Mabel Singer is visiting in Snyder town at present.
Fountain Lucas, of Panther Run, called in our town on Sunday.

Misses Alice Miller and Sadie McCloskey are visiting in Eagleville.
Miss Edith Beates, of Philipsburg, visited at the home of Frederick Robb.
Benj. Singer who has been in Glenn Union for some time, is home again.

Ernest M. Brickley and sister Maud spent a few days in Bellefonte last week.
James Packer and wife visited their son David, of Beech Creek, week before last.
Charles Pletcher, of Howard, attended the social at Mr. Rayhorns, on Friday night.

Thomas McCloskey left last week for Cammal, where he will be employed this winter.
Milford Brickley is spending a few days here after an absence of several months.

A social was held at the home of John Rayhorn for the benefit of the Reformed church, last Friday. There was a large attendance and all report having had an enjoyable time.

J. A. Packer, who teaches at Coal Grove, McKean county, spent a few days at his home in this place. Miss Blanche Wensel, who teaches at Wilcox, Elk county, was also home.

The C. E. S. of this place had a special program on Christmas evening. It consisted of recitations, select readings, and singing. All were well rendered and highly appreciated by the audience.
—Why don't you subscribe for the CENTRE DEMOCRAT? Do you know it is the cheapest paper in Centre county, if you pay for it in advance.

Runville.

Hurrah! for 1899.
Claud Lucas visited at Snow Shoe, during the past week.
Miss Ella Lucas is at present visiting friends at Snow Shoe.

Thomas Rowe, of Lock Haven, visited Willis Poorman last week.
Miss Myrtle Shirk visited at Snow Shoe, during the past week.
School directors J. L. Neff and John Swartz visited our school on last Thursday.

Messrs. John Furl and Willis Witherite have gone to Pittsburg, to seek employment.
Duwell's advice is good, but he sets such poor examples. What think you? (Nt, nat, not.)
Mrs. Mary Rhine, who for some time has been visiting friends at Centre Hall, has returned home.

Rev. B. J. Hummel has closed his series of meetings at this place and began one at Marsh Creek.
Watch meeting, conducted by B. J. Hummel, at this place on last Saturday night, was well attended.
Mrs. Annie L. Lucas returned home from Wallaceton, last week, and is now visiting friends at Eagleville.

The men who were home from the lumber woods to spend the holidays, have again returned to their work.
Geo. Heaton, our enterprising blacksmith, is on the strike every day. The more work he gets the more he strikes.
Misses May Getz and Bella Murray, two of Lemont's charming young ladies, spent Christmas with Mrs. Annie Lucas.

Messrs. John Crock and Milligan Lucas, two of our promising young men who have been away for some time, have returned home.
Mrs. Hettie Brown claims the championship of the turkey hunters of this place, as she captured a fine gobbler the last day of the season without the aid of a gun.

The sale of Mrs. Lucy Resides, was well attended and everything brought a fair price. J. L. Neff, of Roland, was auctioneer, and is the best salesman in the county.
Some of our people are talking of having a telephone placed in the post office, while others think it unnecessary, especially when Seldom Duwell is in our community.

On the 20th of last month Orren Poorman, while trying to board a moving train at the school house crossing was thrown off and had his right leg broken above the knee.
On Thursday, December 22nd, Miss Anna Fisher and Harry Hoy, of this place, were united in the bonds of wedlock, by Rev. B. J. Hummel in the presence of their near friends and relatives. After the ceremony a fine wedding dinner was served, and the bride and groom departed on the noon train for their bridal trip to Petersburg.

RUNVILLE NO. 2.
Willis, when does leap year come?
William has shaved his mustache off.
Miss Ella Lucas is visiting friends at Snow Shoe.

We are glad that Mrs. W. C. Walker is some better at the present time.
Mrs. Mary Phue has returned home, after visiting friends at Centre Hall.
There was a piece started up the other night, followed by a solo—say do you catch on.

There must be great attraction in Runville for Sam, for he didn't stay away long.
Charles Shawley was seen in our town not long ago. We wonder what is his attraction.
Claud says he hopes we will soon get skating for he would like to have Mable try her new skates.

Any one wishing to buy a good Jog just call on Edward Poorman, he is selling them out at cost, $5 a head.
Hello! here I am, after an absence of two weeks, and just in good health to give you some long and spicy items.
When an old maid of Runville says she has refused lots of good chances, just wink your eye and say "chestnuts."

W. C., you had better quit making dates or you will get ripped up the back, for those widowers are not to be trifled with.
If anyone should wish to know where the new paper hangar is located, just ask Mrs. Watson; she says he does fine work.
Mr. Kurtz says he has lost one subscriber on account of Duwell criticising his friends, and gained five. What do you think of that?

The girls of Runville should be careful when they get married, as many a girl has lost her good name by marrying a man with a bad one.
One of our old boys bought his girl a whole pound of candy for a Christmas present. I bet you can guess who it was—Uncle Charley and Auntie.

Quite a number of the woodsmen were home spending Christmas: James Lucas, John Crock, Willis Poorman, James Walker, all of this place.
That cold New Year's eve J. H. Puff, of Centre Hall; B. E. Shank, of Snow Shoe; and Edward Bottorf, of Pittsburg, spent Sunday at the home of James Lucas.

There seems to be another wedding brewing, for a young man was seen purchasing a teapot, and then took his lady home Thursday evening to see if it would do.—Rats.
Say, boys, do you know who the man was that got lost on his way to work? He was a woodsman and not one-half mile from farms. This man was making tips for Green Watson long ago.

Lucy, the next time you attend a wedding be more careful of the bride's cake, as people do not care to eat a thing after it has been knocked all over the table. Girls how did the ice cream go?
Wanted, by a member of the Anti-poke-your-nose-into-other-people's-business society, a person at a salary of $500 a year with a periodical increase to $1000 to mind their own business and let other people's alone.

No. 1 didn't get a Christmas present, because his face was too dirty after writing the last items. That's what it is to keep your face clean. We should think that No. 2 would have set an example for No. 1 by this time.

Mr. Harnish must be recalling his old attraction, for he is seen quite frequently in Runville. Uncle Charley says Edward must certainly love my Maggie, for he came all the way from Snow Shoe, Saturday evening, then fired for me all night, 'till the breaking of the dawn.

Why did Mr. Crock leave our town, pretending he was going to see his cousin and return with his lady friend, and then leave his associates in an uproar, to get back to meet her after services, and before they could reach him, he and lady took a march for home—too bad.

There were quite a number of turkeys eaten in our town on New Years Day and Duwell felt very much embarrassed about dinner time, for he was not asked to come, nor neither stay away. So you see friends I did not know which to do; but hope you will not become offended by my absence.

Fairbrook.

Over 3500 people, of Altoona, have the grip.
Sawing wood is the principal occupation now.
Parties are plentiful, with lots of good things to eat.

Another new year; we hope it is a happy one to all.
D. G. Meek is taking his milk to the State College creamery now.
We are glad to publish the recovery of Miss Annie Rockey, of Fillmore.

The Commercial Telephone Company have completed their line to Pa. Furnace.
William Gardner, of Rock Springs, is on the sick list, his temperature was as high as 104.
N. E. Hess and son Samuel returned home from spending their holidays in the Mountain City.

We were glad to meet the Misses Olivers, one from Kansas and the other from Nebraska. They were both reared near McVeytown.
Miss Maud Heberling, of Eagleville, was visiting the home of Frank Bowersox, of Rock Springs.

Samuel McWilliams, Alfred Bowers and Sumner Miller returned to C. S. N. S. after having a two-weeks vacation.
Miss Henderson of Big Valley is visiting relatives here and about, making her stopping point at H. McCrackens.

Mt. Eagle.

All who chew Toddy, call and see S. C. Bower.
The new year is being opened with Klondyke fever.
All attend debate, next Friday night, and see the new president on his throne.

The scholars of the Mt. Eagle school presented their teacher with a handsome bible.
Sickness is visiting many homes in this vicinity. Mr. F. C. Leathers is quite ill at this writing.
Miss Sue Leathers and Dorsy Leathers are spending several days with their mother, Mrs. Nancy Leathers.

The musical convention held at this place last week was one of which we should be proud, as it showed to the public what a grand corps of singers our vicinity can produce. Splendid attendance, and much enthusiasm was shown during the week by the class. Many fine selections were rendered on the evening of the entertainment and the audience was completely carried away with the splendor of the occasion.

Just a Cough

Not worth paying attention to, you say. Perhaps you have had it for weeks. It's annoying because you have a constant desire to cough. It annoys you also because you remember that weak lungs is a family failing. At first it is a slight cough. At last it is a hemorrhage. At last it is easy to cure. At last, extremely difficult.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

quickly conquers your little hacking cough. There is no doubt about the cure now. Doubt comes from neglect.

For over half a century Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been curing colds and coughs and preventing consumption. It cures Consumption also if taken in time.

Keep one of Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Plasters over your lungs if you cough.

Shall we send you a book on this subject, free?

Our Medical Department.

If you have any complaint whatever and desire the best medical advice you can possibly obtain, write the doctor freely. You will receive a prompt reply, without cost.
