

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS

What has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe Saw Worthy of Mention—A Week's Local News in a Few Words.

—"The White Slave," at the Opera house, tonight.

—Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Bower's child has been seriously ill with the grip.

—J. E. Lawrence, the insurance man, has been on the sick list the past week.

—The new paper, at Howard, is expected to make its appearance this week.

—Geo. Hart, of Bloomsburg, is spending a few days at the home of his father on Bishop street.

—Edward Harper arrived home Friday morning after a lengthy stay in Chicago, Illinois.

—Miss Mame McClain, of Spangler, spent the holiday season visiting at her former home in this place.

—On Monday evening Evangelist Rev. Charles Inglis will begin a series of meetings in the Court House.

—D. E. Woodring, of Milesburg, is assisting Harry Hutchison in the ticket office at the Pennsylvania station.

—On Dec. 20th, Mr. Horace Musser, son of Wm. Musser, of this place, was married to Miss Ida Schlutueier, of St. Louis, Mo.

—Public installation of officers and camp fire at Gregg Post rooms, Saturday evening, Jan. 14th to which the public is cordially invited. By order of S. B. Miller, commander of Gregg Post.

—After being in the house for four weeks from an attack of grip, Daniel Garman is able to be about again, and is in good shape.

—Lewis Fabian, of Philadelphia, spent Friday here. He is engaged in the cutting department of a large wholesale clothing store.

—The Revolution sale at the Racket store is attracting much attention. See the special announcement in another part of this issue.

—Some of our people are looking for important news this week in regard to the construction of the C. R. R. of Pa. extension to Clearfield.

—The 60th Regiment New York Volunteers now at Huntsville, Ga., is to be mustered out. This is the regiment that John Pearl, of this place, belongs to.

—Ex-Treasurer Mites, of Martha, was in town on Monday on a short trip. He says he has been working entirely too hard of late for the benefit of his health.

—Shem Spigelmeier, of Jersey Shore, who takes considerable interest in the new telephone system attended the meeting of stockholders, here, last Tuesday.

—Roland Kerr, formerly of Centre Hill, Pa., but now an employee of the Chicago board of trade, left for Chicago Saturday morning after a pleasant visit with friends at his old home.

—The Senior class of the Bellefonte High School had a sledding party to the home of Treasurer Kline, in Spring township, on Tuesday evening, where they were royally entertained.

—One night the past week, A. Baum, the liverman, lost a fine plush 5-g lap blanket with yellow figure one side and black on the other, somewhere between Bellefonte and Spring Mills. The finder will be suitably rewarded.

—Friday the new caps and overcoats for Company M arrived and were issued to the men. The caps are a new design and are neat and attractive. The boys are all anxious to attend the inauguration at Harrisburg.

—A leak in the water pipes, on the diamond, flooded the steam street mains and caused considerable annoyance for them the past week. It made it necessary for them to cut up the concrete pavement at a number of points.

—Mr. and Mrs. Morris J. Loeb, of Hanover, arrived in town Friday afternoon to visit Mrs. Loeb's mother and sister, Mrs. Newman and daughter. Jos. Newman accompanied them and will spend a few weeks in Bellefonte.

—Lloyd Rearick, a son of L. C. Rearick, of Benner township, is lying in a critical condition at his home in Punxsutawney. He is employed in the iron works there and was stricken with grip last week, pneumonia developing later. The pneumonia is of a mild form.

—Frank Wallace, of Milesburg, the member of Co. B., who was so seriously hurt by falling from the regimental train while coming home from camp at Lexington, by a fracture of his skull, is sufficiently recovered to be about again. At one time it was thought that he could not recover.

—Auditor Fink recently brought some fine specimens of "Mastodon" corn to town for exhibition. In his absence some one entered the arbitration room and scattered the same over the floor. The janitor cursed a blue streak and Fink fairly jumped in the air, but thus far have failed to find the joker. There are some smooth smiles among the officials when the corn subject is mentioned. They say the court house was not intended for a corn crib.

—Col. Theodore Burchfield, of Altoona, was nominated by the Republicans of that city for mayor.

—See our circulation statement on page 4. During the past year it averaged over 2300 copies per week. That is not slow.

—Miss Clara Barry left Tuesday morning for Philadelphia to enter the Medico hospital to have an operation performed for throat trouble. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Tillie Barry, and her brother James and Edward.

—Prof. H. C. Rothrock, of the Millheim Public Schools, has concluded to be a candidate for County Superintendent. Among the other aspirants are Prof. C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, for re-election and Prof. A. R. Rutt, principal of the Bellefonte High School.

—George Holt Gehret, while coasting near Reynolds' mill Tuesday, broke his leg between the knee and ankle. The guiding stick broke, and not being able to control the sled, they ran into the fence in front of the residence of Nelson Robb. This is the first serious accident of the season.

—Last Friday the drawing took place at Lewin's store for the large clock. Ticket No. 97 will get the clock, but the holder thus far has failed to turn up. If it is not claimed inside of two weeks a second drawing will take place. So it will be well for you to keep your ticket, if you have one.

Howard's New Paper.

On Tuesday a paper found its way to our sanctum, the "Post and Bulletin," published at Howard, Pa. The first number was issued January 6th, '99 and is a 4-column, 8-page, independent paper, three pages of which are home print. The enterprise we understand is under the direction of Dr. O. McEntire, of that place, who is a versatile writer and practicing physician.

The first issue contains a very cleverly written introductory, along with a large amount of local and general news. This makes the second weekly paper started in that thriving town during the past season and Howard certainly should be well written up in the future. We expect to see our visitor thrive and prosper.

Fine Attractions.

The Wilson Theatre company is filling a week's engagement at this place in the Opera House and each night they have been greeted by large audiences. The performance, have all been of a high order, and much appreciated. The program for the balance of the week will be:

Thursday—"The White Slave."

Friday—"Kidnapped."

Saturday afternoon—"Little Miss Johnston."

Saturday evening—"The Circus Queen."

Popular prices prevail—10, 20 and 30 cents, which is within the reach of every body to hear a first-class entertainment.

Knights of the Golden Eagle.

The following are the officers of Bellefonte Castle No. 357, for the ensuing six months' term:

B.—A. Luk-enbach, W. C.—Wm. Fishburn, Ensign—Geo. Hollobaugh, Esquire—Roy Johnson, P. G.—Ed Gehret, S. G.—A. V. Hamilton, Trustee—John Noll, Representative to the Grand Castle—James I. McClure.

The Spring Elections.

The constitution of Pennsylvania provides that all elections for city, ward, borough and township officers, for regular terms of service, shall be held on the third Tuesday of February. The third Tuesday of the coming February will be the 21st of the month. Accordingly the next election will be held on that date.

The ballot law, approved June 10, 1893, provides that certificates of nomination for municipal offices must be filed with the county commissioners at least 28 days before the election and they be filed earlier.

New Law Offices.

J. C. Meyer and W. G. Runkle, have arranged for a new suite of rooms on the second floor of Crider's Exchange, at the north end of the hall. Four rooms will be occupied by them—consultation, reception, typewriter and library—and will make it more convenient than heretofore. Mr. Crider is having the same prepared and they will change quarters in a short time. The rooms will be elegantly furnished and equipped.

Excursion to Inauguration.

For the inauguration of Governor Stone, at Harrisburg, Tuesday January 17, 1899, the Pennsylvania R. R. will sell excursion tickets from all stations in Pennsylvania on January 16 and 17, good to return until January 18, 1899, inclusive, at rate of single fare for the round trip. (Minimum fare 25 cents.) Children between 5 and 12 years of age, half rates.

Musical Convention.

A musical convention will be held in the new grange hall, Centre Hall on the week beginning Monday, February 6th. Prof. P. H. Meyer will conduct the convention, which will be held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Reformed church.

Co. M's Officers.

On last Friday evening Captain Mullen appointed his non-commissioned officers with the exception of the 1st sergeant. The officers of the company are: captain, Amos Mullen; 1st lieutenant, James Harris; 2nd lieutenant, John Bower; 2nd sergeant, Frank Derstine, 3rd W. T. Noll; 4th, A. Smith; 5th, John Houser; 1st corporal, James E. Scott; 2nd, Will Dorworth; 3rd, Peter Cain; 4th, John Gors; 5th, Robert Gunsalus; 6th, Joseph Fauble; 7th, Samuel Roberts; 8th, William Runkle. On that time the new overcoats and caps were issued to the boys. They expect to attend Gov. Stone's inauguration.

New Officers.

Rinesmith; financial secretary, E. J. Gehret; chief, F. C. Waltz, first assistant, Harry Walkey; second assistant, J. H. Houser; third assistant, William Cunningham; chief engineer, Joseph Wise; first assistant, P. H. Garrity second assistant, Joseph Cushing; third assistant, J. Knisely; band leader, Christ Smith.

Basket Ball at State College.

On Friday evening, Jan. 13, State College opens the season with a basket ball game with the Clover Wheelmen, of Philadelphia. The fact that this team represents the Quaker City in the "Big Five" is a sufficient guarantee that the game will be both interesting and exciting. State's team is in excellent shape this year, having scored 36 points against the scrub team last Saturday in an exhibition practice game. The game will be called at 7 o'clock in the armory.

Stamps on Leases.

It will be well for all persons having property to rent to remember that all leases of property must have a U. S. government revenue stamp attached. Those for one year must have a twenty-five cent stamp; for two or three years a fifty cent stamp, and for over three years a stamp costing one dollar. If no stamp lease is used, then each receipt for rent must bear a stamp. This is imperative. Failure to comply with the law invites heavy penalties.

A Curiosity of Time Reckoning.

Rochester Democrat and Chronicle: A child born in this city about 12:30 o'clock last Saturday night will hereafter date his birth January 1, 1899. Another child born at precisely the same time in Chicago will date his birth December 31, 1898. The two will not be able to celebrate their birthdays in the same year, the same month or on the same day. That is one of the many curiosities of our time reckonings.

FARM FOR SALE.

A farm of about 75 acres, in Howard Twp. Inquire of Wm. G. Runkle, Esq., Bellefonte, Pa.

S. STUART LYON.

On Wednesday morning S. Stuart Lyon, one of Bellefonte's prominent citizens, who had been ill for a short time from softening of the brain, died at his home on Curtin street surrounded by his immediate family. He was 76 years, 2 months and 27 days old. Mrs. Lyon preceded him to the grave in 1885. The surviving children are Anna V., of Bellefonte; Clara V., wife of William J. Nicolls, of Philadelphia; Mary T., wife of Ellis L. Orvis, Esq., of Bellefonte; and Rebecca, at home. About a week ago, John Lyon, the only son, died at his home in Pittsburg.

Mr. Lyon came of one of the oldest and most influential families in the county. He was the son of John and Margaret Lyon. John Lyon was one of the greatest iron masters in the country and the firm Lyon & Shorb of which he was senior member were known all over the country.

He attended the Bellefonte Academy and afterwards was a student at Harvard College and always was a cultured student of literature. During the famous railroad strike of 1877 Mr. Lyon was Chief Burgess of Bellefonte.

After his marriage in 1855 to Anna, daughter of Abraham Valentine, he lived for a while on what is now the Gentzel farm, near this place. Afterwards he moved to Pennsylvania Furnace and resided at his beautiful place, called "The Cedars," until 1870, when he came to Bellefonte, and he has ever since resided here. He was a trustee of the Bellefonte Academy for a great many years, resigning only a short time ago.

The funeral will take place Friday afternoon at two o'clock from the family residence.

John Stuart Lyon Dead.

John Lyon, son of Stuart Lyon, of this place, died at his home in Pittsburg, Thursday morning at 3 o'clock. His death was due to a sudden collapse from brights disease. To add to the affliction of the family, his faithful wife while watching at his bedside last Saturday, was stricken with paralysis and little hope is entertained of her recovery.

John Stuart Lyon was born near Bellefonte, January 4th 1857. He was the only son of S. S. and Anna Valentine Lyon, of this place. His early life he spent in and about Bellefonte. He was educated at the Bellefonte Academy and Swarthmore college afterwards entering the employment of Shortridge & Valentine, coal dealers and lime operators, under whom he worked until he went to Pennsylvania Furnace to take charge of the iron ore operations there. About 12 years ago he entered the employ of the Firth Sterling Steel Co., in Pittsburg, remaining with them ever since. His ability as a business man was recognized there and when he died he held the position of secretary and treasurer of the company. This company is one of the strongest concerns of the kind in this country or England and the responsibility of Mr. Lyon's position can be plainly seen.

In April 1895, he was married to Miss Margaret McKnight, of Allegheny city. She survives him with five children, the eldest of whom is twelve years. They are: Stuart Lyon, Margery, Fanny, Anne and Catherine.

County Commissioner Rall Dead.

Fred A. Rall, one of the republican members of the Board of Commissioners, of Clinton County, died at his home in Lock Haven on Wednesday morning, 4th, aged 44 years. For several years Mr. Rall had been complaining. Stomach trouble seemed to have been the cause of his death. He was a carpenter by trade.

George Weymouth, of the firm of Hopkins & Weymouth, has been appointed by the court to succeed the late Fred A. Rall.

Mrs. Wm. M. Allison Dead.

Tuesday noon, Mrs. William M. Allison, of Spring Mills, died of consumption. She had been ill for some time. She was born in Corning, N. Y., and was about 35 years old. Her maiden name was Laurena Higman. She is survived by her husband and the following children: Charles, Mable, William and Frank.

The funeral will take place Friday morning at 10:30. Interment at Spring Mills.

Dropped Dead.

Daniel Wieland, a retired farmer of near Linden Hall, went to Linden Hall to see his son who keeps a store and the grain elevator at that place, and while talking with him he fell over dead. Heart failure was the cause.

William Hemphill.

William Hemphill died at the Soldiers' Home, Erie, on Wednesday of last week. He was an old soldier, a member of Company C, Fifth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers and formerly was of Philipsburg.

Died in Canton Ohio.

Thursday morning 5th, Lydia, wife of the late John Tonner, died in Canton O., at the advanced age of 86 years. She was the mother of Mrs. Henry P. Harris of Bellefonte.

Death of a Lady at Tyrone.

At Tyrone Monday, Mrs. Emma Stevens, wife of Attorney A. A. Stevens, was stricken with paralysis and expired.

MINGLE'S DOLL DAY.

Last Saturday was a busy day at Mingle's Shoe Store, on Allegheny street. It was Doll Day at the store, as Mr. Mingle invited all the little women folks to bring their dolls to the store that day and get a pair of slippers, free of cost. From morning until evening there was a continual stream of little folks going and coming, carrying dolls of all sizes and descriptions. There were new dolls as one not so new, but all got a pair of nice leather slippers and the little ones went away smiling and happy.

The following clever letter was sent to Mr. Mingle that is worthy of notice:

ZION JAN. 6, 1899.

MR. A. C. MINGLE:

In looking over the Centre Democrat, I noticed an announcement to the little women readers, that Saturday was Doll Day. Please don't forget that there are little men readers too, I am one of them, but not the only one. Please don't forget that boys don't play with dolls, so when our day comes, you will not need to call it Doll Day.

Well I guess I must close with Good-bye. Your little friend of eight years old, NEVIN E. COLE, Zion Pa.

GET your neighbor to subscribe for The Centre Democrat and you will tickle us immensely. A new subscription always gives us cause for rejoicing.

Farmers Institutes.

The attention of our farmers is called to the list of institutes, to be held this winter, by the State Department of Agriculture, assisted by local board of institute managers for the county. These meetings are in the interest of all our farmers, and open to all. The expenses of conducting them is borne by the State. No collections are allowed for the advertising of any business. The discussions are upon farm topics for the benefit of farmers. Arrange your business so as to attend and take part in the exercises. All classes of citizens are welcome, and interesting programmes have been prepared.

The State Speakers who will be present are: Gabriel Heister, Esq., of Harrisburg; J. A. Fries, of State College, and Mr. John P. Boyer, of Snyder Co.

The institutes will be held at the following dates and places: Boalsburg, Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 31 and Feb. 1; Madisonburg, Thursday and Friday, Feb. 2 and 3. Come out to these meetings and bring your families and friends.

FACTS ABOUT HEALTH

It is Easy to Keep Well if We Know How—Some of the Conditions Necessary to Perfect Health.

The importance of maintaining good health is easily understood, and it is really a simple matter if we take a correct view of the conditions required. In perfect health the stomach promptly digests food. The blood is employed to carry nourishment to the organs, nerves, muscles and tissues which need it. The first great essential for good health, therefore, is pure, rich blood. No medicine has such a record of cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla and it is because it is the one true blood purifier. Hundreds of people are alive and well today who would have been in their graves had they not taken Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is depended upon as a family medicine by thousands.

are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.
