

THE RACKET

No. 9 and 11 Crider's Exchange, Bellefonte Pa

Remember Tuesday, January 31st is the last day of The Revolution Sale

If there is one person among the hundreds that have visited the store and made purchases since this great sale commenced, and have gone away dissatisfied, I am not aware of it.

If you buy goods in Bellefonte and do so without looking through The Racket first, you will make a big mistake. The last days of January, 1899, will be big days at Bellefonte's

BIG BARGAIN STORE.

The carpenters are now at work cutting through the partition; stacks of goods are in the way and must be moved quick, and a little money will go a long ways at The Racket. Nuf ced.

Yarnell.

This is a prosperous winter for the blacksmith.

Mrs. Foster Poorman, Charity Yarnell and O. E. Petzer are also on the sick list.

Revival meeting is still in progress, although the Rev. is not enjoying the best of health.

Thomas Zimmerman returned home from the woods this week with a slight touch of the grip.

Daisy Reasner has left for Reading where she will assist her mother in the millinery business.

Yes! We saw Claud on Saturday evening. He was prepared for a muddy walk, and he got it, too.

Mrs. Samuel Shank, who has been very ill for the last two weeks, is not improving, at this writing.

J. Edward Confer and family were to Unionville on Monday paying tribute to his old friend W. G. Womer.

The Misses Bessie and Flora Poorman, of Runville, were pleasant callers at J. Edward Confer's on last Friday.

Any person desirous of renting or purchasing a good farm, call on or address W. D. Walker, agent, Yarnell, Pa.

W. D. seems to be in quite a study whether to enter the ministry, or army life. It now looks as though he will be accepted as clerk in the Runville post-office.

On Saturday a break occurred in E. O. Walker's mill, which is managed by his son Chester. The dishonored fragment was shouldered by the youth, and in one hour he was at Roland, having traveled in this time four and one-half miles with about forty pounds of metal; then on the train he wended the remainder of his way to the Bellefonte machine shops, added about ten pounds to his former load and walked home a distance of nine miles, ate supper and escorted his girl from church three and one-half miles. Is not this ambition?

If you use Red Ribbon Mocha and Java coffee your health will be much better than when you use trashy coffee.

Zion.

"How is the grip?" is all you here now a days.

John Shaffer is at present very low with the grip.

John W. Eby shipped a car load of wheat, one day last week.

A fellow who can't keep his temper, needn't try to keep a diary.

John Stover and wife, of State College, Sunday with Ad. Reish.

Dr. Fisher is very busy at present attending to the sick. Don't see when the Dr. has time to sleep.

Alfred Robb, wife and two children, of Nittany, spent Sunday with Mrs. Robb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cole.

L. Yocum, teacher of the Forest school, on account of being afflicted with grip, has closed his school for two weeks.

The death of Daniel Lane, of Bellefonte was felt with deep regret at this place, as he had many friends here.

Nearly all the people in our village have been afflicted with the grip within the past two weeks. It is no respecter of person.

It affects the young, rich and poor, and often claims the child; Some forms of it are hard to endure. While others are very mild. It claims its victim everywhere. In the home and in the street. We all should take the best of care And avoid the grip to meet.

Runville.

C. A. Lucas is the sport of our town. L. J. Heaton is slowly recovering from the gripe.

Some people say "Duwell" gets flighty about the change of the moon.

Miss Ollie Brower, who has been very sick, is some better at this writing.

T. H. Quick, who has been on the sick list, is much improved at this writing.

There was more than "Duwell" heard Sallie sing, "Why can't I have a beau."

Mrs. Alice Quick, of Letonia, is visiting at the home of her parents, at this place.

Rev. J. B. Hummel is again able to attend his protracted meeting, at Marsh, Creek.

I wish some one would raise an excitement in Runville as news items are very scarce.

Mr. Clyde Brower, of Jersey Shore, was seen in our town on Sunday. Come again Clyde.

Misses Maud and Mabel Duffield, of Lock Haven, visited C. S. Lucas and wife, over Sunday.

Dr. Hayes was in Runville on Monday night, at two o'clock, on account of the sudden illness of Harry Hoy.

Some of the people are very much alarmed about "Duwell" as his articles did not appear in last week's issue.

Some of our farmers are nursing the gripe, while others are chopping wood and clearing ground, and some are roasting their shins.

Wanted:—The little boy wants a scribe, about two and one-half weeks, above Shingle avenue, to watch "Duwell" to get some news about him.

Roland Items.

Soup Barger went to Lock Haven, Monday on business.

Wm. Laird and John Walker, have removed to their new home this week.

That the Broadway ladies are footing quite a conspicuous part of late; is no joke.

Henry Shultz is repairing the house, formerly occupied by Robt' Gingham, for Frank Smith the miller.

Mrs. Net Bryan, Mrs. Andy Glenn, Cal Bathurst and Samuel Bathurst, Sr., are among the grip victims.

Messrs Robt' Gingham and Oral Bryan returned from Lewistown Friday last, where they were unsuccessful in getting work.

Mrs. Rebecca Curtin, who has been quite sick, is improved at this writing. She is being attended by Mrs. Eliza White.

Thomas Scholley was nominated by the eastern precinct of Boggs township, for the election of road supervisor. (Republican.)

Andrew Barger is becoming quite a musician, it is said of good authority that he counted the notes from Ira Bryan's horn.

The flour and buck wheat flour rolled by the mill at this place is considered by the people who have used it to be the best they have had for a few years.

We have a new miller at this place, by the name of F. W. Smith, who is proficient. He has an assistant who is an expert at grinding corn meal. He puts it in whole, and it comes out whole. We think he is sort of a magician, slight of hand. Look out Jonnie.

Fillmore.

Charley, you went down the road on Sunday night—but, nit.

John, the trapper, is doing a good business at present, one rat a week.

Miles, when you walk on your ear, do not try to make the horse do the same.

Harry Sellers, of Waddle, spent a pleasant night at the home of C. H. Kepharts.

At this writing, Christ Strong is very poorly. Several others are sick with the grip, but not serious.

Gray, when you go to town and cannot stand up when you come home, you should not go for the mail.

George Rockey has returned home from Cresson, where he has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Harry Corman.

Some fellows who were at the shooting match got chickens, others got turkeys, and some got nothing. Henry Tate got a girl; he is a hustler.

Harry, you and Henry are getting the blame, but I am getting the game. I do the writing here, and if you have any news for the paper, give it to me.

A man that is mean enough to haul corn cobs home and wet them and roll them in saw-dust and then feed them to his pigs for corn, ought to be in the same pen with them.

Some men go to a shooting match and come home with what they get by good shooting. Others go and buy what they bring home. John, when you go again take me along and then you can get a chicken too.

Mt. Eagle.

W. T. Leathers and wife transacted business in town last Saturday.

Tice's hay balier was employed several days at Martin Gates, recently.

Messrs Riley, Yeager and Leathers have completed their hoppole contract.

Miss Delia Heverly was the guest of Miss Williams of Eagleville, over Sunday.

Wm. Brown and wife of Somerset county, are visiting at his mother's, Mrs. George Brown.

If you wish to see some of Montgomery's fine clothing, call and see H. W. Reeder of this place.

Mr. From butchered nine shoats last week. X rays could have been used very successfully on all of them.

Miss Esther and Mr. Frank Leathers left on Tuesday to attend the singing convention at Fillmore. Others expect to follow later in the week.

A new minister of the "Church of Christ" is expected in our vicinity soon. He is a young man, a graduate of Bethany College, and is well suited to the position.

The question under discussion last Friday night was ably handled on both sides. Society adjourned to meet on the next Thursday evening on account of a number of the members not able to be present on Friday evening.

Rebersburg.

L. B. Frank was at the marriage on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Jane Weber, of Woodward, is spending this week with her parents, at the old home.

Jared Kreamer, of Centre Hall, was in our burg in his usual friendliness on Tuesday. We are glad to see you Jared; do not stay so long next time.

Old Mrs. Julia Weaver, who stayed with her son-in-law Michael Keam, of near our burg, and who died on Tuesday morning, was buried at Aaronsburg, on Wednesday morning.

The worthy son of our landlord, Geo. Nearhood, left for Orangeville, Ill., on Tuesday. We are sorry to see George leave our burg, but we hope it will be for the better. George, be a good boy.

Cyrus Erhard, was indeed a little surprised when he received a box last week which contained the following:—One overcoat, and two suits as good as new, which was sent to him from Johnstown, Pa. They formerly belonged to his brother Amos, who died recently.

Our expert hunters, in the persons of Samuel Stroebker, Willis Weber, both of our burg; Jacob Walizer and Elmer Miller, both of Kreamerville, shot a big bear on Saturday evening on the mountains between Sugar and Brush valleys, near Bletzes. The monster animal weighed two hundred and fifty pounds. This is enough to encourage almost any sportsman; ve expert bear hunters, try it again while courage is fresh.

MARRIAGE:—Quite a number of guests and friends had gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Sholl, Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, to witness the marriage of their daughter Lilla, to T. H. Baker, of Trough Creek, Huntingdon county, Pa. The matrimonial ceremonies were conducted by Rev. Romig, of Madisonburg. Miss Grace Miller in her masterly way played the wedding march. After the marriage ceremony refreshments were in order and jokes, to break the general solemnity. The following were present from a distance:—Mr. J. W. Oats, a student of Juniata College, Huntingdon, Pa.; Rev. W. W. Sholl, of Pine, Pa.; Miss Lizzie Sholl, of Campdown. On Saturday morning the bride and groom left for Huntingdon county, to spend the winter with the groom's parents. We wish them a long, prosperous, and above all a happy life.

LOCAL TEACHER'S INSTITUTE:—The following is a general report of the Local Institute which opened on Friday evening, with a packed house: Prof. Hosterman, President of the evening. Music by the choir, after which the devotional services were conducted by Rev. Salom, pastor of the Lutheran church. The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. Moses George, pastor of the Reformed church. An address by ex-Superintendent D. M. Wolf, D. D., of Spring Mills, subject, "The True, The Beautiful and The Good." Dr. Wolf had the attention of his hearers. His discourse was very well treated, which made it interesting to all. We must say the Doctor's discourse was rich. Also an address by C. L. Gramley, County Superintendent, subject, "School Government." Our Superintendent's discourse was very good, but too much cant, he said about it. Our correspondent could not attend the session on Saturday which was largely attended and very successful.
