He was a consistent member of the United Evangelical church, and his good qualifications and talents made him a pillar in the church. He had been, for many years, class lead-DEPARTMENT er and Sunday School superintendent, and always did all that was in his power for the edification of the church. He was a perfect lover of Christ and died in the hope of a blessed immortality, through taith in Christ as his Saviour. The fun-eral was held on Thursday morning in the St. Paul's United Evangelical church. The services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. H. Brown, assisted by Rev. W. H. Stover, of Rebersburg, and Rev. Jared Lohr, of Millheim. People from every direction gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to one whom they loved so dear. He was in his 58th year; a de-

CHURCH DEDICATION.

The dedication of the new United Evangelical church, on Sunday, was an event long to be remembered by the people in this vicinity. A vast assembly of strangers gathered there to witness the Jas. Smith. nteresting exercises and help a good cause along. The citizens of Penn Hall and vicinity had the honor of listening to D., of Chicago, and learning lessons of wisdom from him. He to-day stands as the great pillar of the United Evangelical church, and it may be, a long time granted such a privilege. The Bishop preached the dedicatory sermon in the norning at 10:30, from Hebrews 11th chapter and 4th verse. It was a plain, practical sermon, but seldom do so impressive words fall from the lips of man. They were well adapted to the occasion, and cannot help but be productive of great good.

After the sermon the Bishop took the finances in charge and began making a to Clintondale, to attend the funeral of Maggie Hoy, of Hublersburg, attended the social which was held on Saturday debtedness of the church, which was understands his business, as he raised $250 in the morning; and the remaining $100.00 of three nights.
