

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT

The News Gathered From Various Sections

HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What Our Army of Alert Correspondents See and Observe Worthy of Note—The Local Happenings of Every Community Will be Gladly Published—Send the News, We will Publish it.

Aaronsburg.

Tammie Stover, of this place, is spending several weeks at Coburn.

Charley Mensch, foreman of the Bellefont Gazette spent Sunday with his parents at this place.

Mrs. Harry Clapp and son, of Hartleton, are visiting at the home of John Yarger, residing near town.

Rev. T. F. Faus opened a series of protracted meetings in the M. E. church, of this place, on Monday evening.

A few of our people took in the concerts held in the United Evangelical church, of Millheim, on Friday and Saturday evenings.

Richard Rhule and daughter, of Millmont, were the guests of Thomas Frank, on North 2nd street, several days last week.

Mrs. Sadie Wolf and two children, of Madisonburg, visited her aged mother, Mrs. Elias Stambach, several days last week.

Mrs. Rev. D. O. Shoemaker, of Lock Haven, is spending several days this week at the residence of her sister, Mrs. E. J. Desher, on Main street.

Lewis Mensch, of this place, left for Maytown, Forrest county, on last Saturday morning to attend the funeral of his brother, who died at that place recently.

Miss Dorman and Mr. Miller, of Zion, who had been attending the convention at Millheim last week, spent Sunday in this place at the hospitable home of Merchant W. H. Philips.

Owing to the death of the father of F. W. Brown, the Reformed minister in this place, no services were held at any of his appointments on Sunday. The funeral took place in Lewisburg, on Sunday forenoon.

Do not fail to take in the exhibition in the Academy building on Saturday evening; not only will your presence be appreciated, but you will be giving your financial support to a worthy cause—that of purchasing a library for the use of the public schools.

Mr. Mertz, accompanied by three of his children, of Salem, Snyder county, visited at the residence of W. H. Philips last Sunday. They came up by private conveyance and owing to the blizzard were unable to leave for home until the latter part of the week.

Frank and Joe Holloway, of Brownstown, Wis., are spending several weeks among their relatives and friends in this place. Joseph formerly resided here and is well and favorably known to many of the older citizens. They shipped a carload of western horses to Millheim, where they were sold at public sale on Wednesday.

The grammar school, of this place, will hold an exhibition in the Academy building, on next Saturday evening, to which the public in general is cordially invited to attend.

The program will consist of dialogues, speeches, recitations, charades and tableaux, and promises to be a rich literary treat. Admission 2 and 10 cents, which will be used for the purchase of a library.

The marriage of Miss Minnie Cronmiller, of this place, to Mr. Perry Adams, of Millheim, took place on last Wednesday evening. It was quite a surprise to our people, and especially to their most intimate friends—not a word of it having been known before-hand. They will reside in Millheim, in the future, where the gentleman has a large cigar factory. We wish the young couple happiness, joy and prosperity.

The stereopticon entertainment, held in the Aaronsburg school-house on last Saturday evening, under the management of Mr. McManalin, was a grand treat. His views for the children were very interesting to both young and old, as were also his Scriptural views. His lecture and exhibition of the Johnstown disaster was listened to with the closest attention, as he was a citizen of that place at the time of the awful catastrophe, and knows just how to bring it before the people with the greatest effect. The room was well filled, taking into consideration the inclemency of the weather and other attractions in the form of concerts and sleighing parties. We hope the gentleman is well pleased with the patronage of the citizens, taking all into consideration.

HOW IS YOUR WIFE? Has she lost her beauty? If so, Constipation, Indigestion, Sick Headache are the principal causes. Karl's Clover Root Tea has cured these ills for half a century. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. Money refunded if results are not satisfactory. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Sober.

W. W. Jamison is on the sick list. W. T. Lingle is still hauling props. One of our boys felt very badly since Jane went home.

The R. R. Co. is putting up a new water tank at this place. Quite a good many potatoes froze through the cold weather.

Grip is still in this vicinity. The doctors are kept busy day and night. Daniel Kerstetter and son are framing hemlock props at this place for C. K. Sober.

H. V. Gentzel moved to Georges valley last week. Sorry to lose such a good neighbor.

Post Master U. G. Auman says the weather has been so cold that a four week old calf froze to death for him.

Wm. Auman left for West Virginia again where he is engaged in a lumber job. Billy says he likes it down there.

Auman, when a young lady comes to post office and is on the lookout for a better-half you should watch such chances.

Christmas Holidays Are Over. Now Boys, for some good hard WORK. I want a few car loads of choice, large Walnut logs delivered on line of Railroad. If you are prepared to furnish them, address me at Barnesville, Ohio. x 8 J. H. WATT.

Julian.

Geo. Sones captured eight fine skunks on Monday.

Mrs. Louis Irwin, of Bellefonte, spent Saturday at Julian.

Vincent Harbridge visited his parents, at this place, last week.

Miss Parker, of Penfield, is a guest at the home of her uncle, J. C. Hoover.

Wm. Marks, of Port Matilda, spent a few hours in our town last Saturday.

Mrs. Hannah Murphy is visiting friends at Philipsburg and Sandy Ridge.

Harry Ruggles, of Altoona, grandson of Mrs. Horner, spent Saturday in our village.

Mrs. Harvey Hoover and Miss Blanche McClincy, of Unionville, were visitors in Julian last Sunday.

James Swisher returned home last Wednesday, after an extended visit among friends and relatives at Clearfield.

Alfred Irwin, who is assisting his brother Louis in the hardware business at Bellefonte, was home for a few days last week.

The house occupied by Edward Lucas and Emanuel Beightol, two miles west of Julian, was totally destroyed by fire on last Sunday.

Reuben, we meant no offence whatever, but we were not aware that you did not want the community to know you were raising a mustache.

Quite a pleasant evening was spent by the many friends of Henry Hale, a veteran of the civil war, on Thursday 16th, in honor of his 54th birthday.

A certain young lady, of Unionville, drove to Julian last Sunday and took Will and Art sleigh riding. The young lady evidently thought this was leap year, but Blanch you are ahead of time.

Daniel Boone met a trio of would-be pugilists on Saturday evening who proceeded to dispatch him on the spot. He has fully recovered, however, and owes it to the free use of Barker's Nerve & Bone Linctament, always kept on hand by W. G. T. & Son.

ON EVERY BOTTLE

OF SHILOH'S Consumption Cure is this guarantee: "All we ask of you is to use two thirds of the contents of this bottle faithfully, then if you can say you are not benefited return the bottle to your Druggist and he will refund the price paid." Price 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Pine Grove Mills.

We are again thawed out and will give the news from our town.

Miss Etta Ross and Ella Bortoff were visiting friends in our village last week.

Mrs. Mary Ard has been on the sick list for the last two weeks with the grippe.

The Ground hog has lost his grip on the weather, and in consequence it is much warmer.

Mrs. Nora Felty, of Altoona, with her two boys, paid Mrs. Tate a flying visit the latter part of last week.

Howard Goss has been laid up for repairs for the last week with neuralgia of the stomach. At this writing, he is some better.

On Saturday evening our young folks had a pleasant time at the Kepler home, in the Glades. They were joined by a number of young folks from Tyrone.

James Musser has been confined to the house for several days with the grippe. He and his brother William expected to leave for the West on Tuesday, but were unable to do so.

On last Friday, while carrying in an armful of wood Mr. Geo. Kaustenbauder was stricken down with a stroke of paralysis. He is one of our pioneer farmers of this valley, aged 85 years.

Lost, strayed or stolen—somewhere between this and Centre Hall, a young man about five foot ten, black curly hair, quite a tiny mustache and a great checker player; his initials are L. A. Smith. Any information will be gladly received by his friends.

We are sorry to note the death of one of the oldest citizens of our town, Mrs. Lucy Saucerman, aged 72 years. She had been a helpless invalid for several years, owing to a paralytic stroke. Interment on Thursday forenoon, at 10:30. She leaves four sons: David and John in the West, and Wm. and Fletcher of Altoona; also four daughters, two of whom are in the West, and Mrs. Wm. Ward and Mrs. H. M. Krebs, of this place.

TELL YOUR SISTER

A beautiful complexion is an impossibility without good pure blood, the sort that only exists in connection with good digestion, healthy liver and bowels. Karl's Clover Root Tea acts directly on the bowels, liver and kidneys keeping them in perfect health. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Green Briar.

B. Gentle will move to Woodward. A quilting party at Israel's, down in Georgetown.

Jacob Auman will move to Brushvalley this spring. The Widow Wingard will move from Georgetown to Drum Station.

We will have good music at Drum Station this summer. We have one more horn.

Del. thinks the No. 10's are better than No. 8's, as they are not so easily upset. Sel is right.

If F. Wingard is elected constable it will be necessary for him to sell some fishing tackle.

William has three dogs—lap dog, bird dog and a dooper, which prefers the parlor to out doors.

Our merchant, Jac Auman, purchased the timberland from Gentile Bros., between here and Sober, and will fence it for pasture.

DO YOU KNOW.

Consumption is preventable! Science has proven that, and also that neglect is suicidal. The worst cold or cough can be secured with Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure. Sold on positive guarantee for over fifty years. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Prepare for Spring.

Don't let this season overtake you before you have attended to the important duty of purifying your blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla. By taking this medicine now you may save sickness that will mean time and money as well as suffering later on. Hood's Sarsaparilla will give you rich, red blood, good appetite, good digestion and a sound, healthy body. It is the greatest and best spring medicine because it is the One True Blood Purifier. Its unequalled record of marvelous cures has won for it the confidence of the whole people.

Runville.

We cannot all be "Dawells," but that is understood. But we can be what's better, We can be the "Little Boy" good.

The cold snap is over. Calvin Green, of Zion, spent Sunday at this place.

Some people got valentines, while others did not.

Girls did you notice Claud's bat wings. They are magnificent.

Soft weather came in time for the voters to come down Salt river.

William Daley and wife spent Sunday at Mrs. Kate Kelleys, at State College.

When a pick pocket pulls at your watch, tell him you have no time for him.

Some write for pleasure, some write for fame, but I write just to sign my name.

Mr. and Mrs. Green Heaton, of Bellefonte, visited at G. W. Heaton's, on Monday.

James Witherie built a cottage on Main street last fall, and then locked it up and lost the key.

Some of our people looked very dusty since Ash Wednesday. Some forgot the day and kept Thursday.

You get the worth of your money in buying candy at Ed Pootman's. If you don't believe it, ask Fordan.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walker attended the wedding of Miss Maggie Hoover, on last Thursday, at Unionville.

Mrs. Nathaniel Bierly, of Milesburg, and Mrs. Coapley and son Edward, of Yarnell, visited at J. L. Heaton's, on last Monday.

Twenty-nine copies of the Centre Democrat come to this office, while there are only nineteen of all other county papers. How is that for a record.

Ed said "Jee whis" it was cold, the morning of Feb. 5, when my bed fellow ventilated the bed room. Then he couldn't play checkers either.

Anyone contemplating buying seed corn should call at Runville store No. 2. Mr. Witherie is the proprietor and carries a heavy stock of good variety.

LITTLE BOY.

DOES THIS STRIKE YOU. Muddy complexion, nauseating breath come from chronic constipation. Karl's Clover Root Tea is an absolute cure and has been sold for fifty years on an absolute guarantee. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Kreamerville.

Will try to give more news next week. A few week's silence, on account of grip.

The grip has done its work pretty well in this vicinity.

A few houses may remain empty in our village, this year.

Harry Stoner, of Salona, was seen in our town a few days last week.

J. W. Housman has secured employment in Mr. Harter's planing mill, at Millheim.

We will give the results of the election next week, as this was written a little beforehand.

Miss Nellie Brindle is visiting at Aaronsburg at present, as the guest of Adam Winters.

If you want a shave or a hair cut, you can have it by calling on S. A. Walizer, our new barber.

Valentine day is over, and quite a lot of our fair maidens and gents got their share of them.

Rev. Faus, of the Methodist church, will preach his farewell sermon here on the 5th of March.

Two sales were held in our village on Saturday last; one was held by William Emerick, the other by Chas. Douty.

Our weather prophet is walking round without a coat. We do not know whether the valentine he got is the cause of it or not.

Elery Krape, the Rebersburg liveryman, is going to quit the business and will sell his black team at a bargain. One weighs 900, the other about 10,000 pounds. They work any place hitched.

Dangers of The Grip.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for the grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by F. Potts Green, druggist, Bellefonte, Pa.

Roland.

Bion Williams and family visited in Port Matilda, over Sunday.

Preaching in the M. E. Church at this place, Sunday morning at 10:30.

Mrs. J. B. Curtin and Mrs. Bion Williams drove to Howard Friday night.

Wm. Pink and wife, of Howard, attended the funeral of Mr. O'Neil, Mrs. Pink's father.

Joseph Candor and family, of Lock Haven, visited at the home of Mrs. Candor's mother, Mrs. Rebecca Curtin, who is very ill.

Messrs John and Aust Walker went to Snow Shoe, Monday, to haul an engine and boiler to Bellefonte for P. W. Crider. They were assisted by Wm. Barnhart.

A sled load of young ladies and gentlemen, of this place, went to the home of John Neff, of Eagleville, where they spent a very pleasant evening, returning at 5:30 Monday morning.

For La Grippe.

Thomas Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash-av., corner Jackson-st., one of Chicago's oldest and most prominent druggists, recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe, as it not only gives a prompt and complete relief, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. For sale by F. Potts Green, druggists, Bellefonte, Pa.

—The price of the Centre Democrat and 3-times-a-week World has been reduced from $1.75 to $1.65 per year. This is a great combination at a low price. We always furnish "The Most News for the Least Money."

Mt. Eagle.

Our office seekers were very busy on Tuesday.

James Heverly spent several days at Runville, last week.

Mellic Lucas has secured a position in a tea store at Williamsport.

With the ice, went duck hunting. With the flood comes sucker fishing.

Mrs. Brown is making her home in Somerset county, with her son William.

A number of people intend going to Eagleville to the concert Saturday night.

W. F. Leathers was to Bellefonte on Saturday evening and reports a big time.

The snow storm prevented the party from going to Bellefonte last Thursday night.

Ambrose Leathers and wife, of North Bend, attended her father's funeral, Mr. Lions.

Skip and Wm. have been very busy moving their grain and farming implements.

Our girls certainly must be attractive. They are invited to parties when not a boy is asked.

The male quartette is becoming quite popular as they have had a call to give an entertainment.

Miss Mollie Lucas, who has been sick at her home in March Creek for several weeks, has returned.

R. C. Leathers drove to Snow Shoe for coal, but so many sleds being ahead of him, he came home empty.

Mrs. Dixon Hall has gone with her son William, to live at Johnsonburg. The family expect to go in the future.

Rev. Berghan delivered several good sermons at the Church of Christ, on last Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Debate last Friday night was excellent. The question for next night: Resolved that the old bachelors should keep the old maids, ought to produce lots of fun. Music and a play are also on the program.

Frank was in such a hurry to go fishing on Tuesday that he left a bushel of corn set in the entry. Before he returned the old cow had devoured the corn. Frank was afraid the cow would bloat and die, before his father would come home, but luckily it was Bower's corn and contained no wind.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe. George W. Waitt, of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by F. Potts Green, druggist, Bellefonte, Pa.

Fillmore.

On last Thursday the sun came out and it made everybody feel happy.

When the little gun came on the ground, then the headache begun. It is an old complaint.

George Rockey did not go to Iowa, as was his intention, on account of the illness of his mother.

The insects were out—Ed Marshall rode a "spider" to the post office—a sure sign of soft weather.

There was a large turnout on Sunday to church. With good sleighing and a pleasant day and people came from a distance.

We saw James Waddle taking a fine horse home from the horse sale in Bellefonte. James knows a good horse when he sees one.

On Saturday there was a slight-of-hand played here in town. It was done behind a man's back, in a way a man should not do such things. No man should attempt to encourage others to do such things. It was not a nice trick for anyone to do.

Since sledding parties have been so plenty and Love is such a strange thing to handle, I think it advisable to give a receipt free, as I believe in doing as I would be done by. No catch-penny, it's free: Take 12 ounces of dish-ice, 1 pound of common sense, 2 grains of resolution, 2 ounces of experience, a large sprig of time, and 3 quarts of cooling water of consolation. Set them over a gentle fire of Love, sweeten with the sugar of forgetfulness and skin with the spoon of melancholy. When cool cork it in the bottom of your heart and take it in small doses when the spell comes on. It cured me and my case was hopeless.

Port Matilda.

Mrs. Christian Beckwith is slowly recovering from a severe attack of grip.

John Kelley is operating a bank prop job, near this place, shipping them to the hard coal regions.

Election day was a fine day with a large turnout. Everyone seemingly was interested, in selecting good officers.

The sleighing is played out at this writing. Now where is the groundhog? He must be at the far end of the hole.

Mrs. Jonathan Laird, has returned to her home after an extended and pleasant visit among friends in and around Sandy Ridge.

Chaney and Thompson, by extra exertion, have sledded into their mill about half a million feet of logs from Hannah, finishing last Monday.

To The Farmers.

We are placing in our mill a corn cob crusher of the latest improved make. This, in connection with our splendid stone-burr choppers, will enable us to make for the farmers and general trade a feed that cannot be beaten anywhere.

It is our intention to make the custom and grist work of the farmers a specialty, and we earnestly solicit this trade, and will do all in our power to give perfect satisfaction. We are now building a large corn crib, and will be buyers of ear corn at top prices.

For the convenience of our trade, we are putting up feeding troughs in the Cooke coal yard, opposite the mill, where you will be welcome at all times. Soliciting a liberal share of your patronage, we remain

Yours very truly, PHOENIX MILLING CO.

Klondike of the South West. $20,000—120 Acres Lead and Zinc Land in fee ore developed—will pay 100 per cent. on investment. P. O. Box 335, Joplin, Mo.

Nittany.

Miss Maggie and Emma Yerick, were home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Zerby, were to Lock Haven last Thursday.

Evening, the 24th. Everybody invited to come and take part.

There will be some disappointed men after Tuesday. Who will it be?

N. C. Shaffer was to Bellefonte on Monday of this week, on business.

A sociable will be held at the home of M. William Shaffer's on next Friday.

Miss Katie Robb spent Sunday in Bellefonte, with her brother, Nelson Robb.

Miss Clara Emerick, of Fishing Creek spent Sunday with her parents at this place.

Mr. E. Probst and family, of Lockport, were the guests of William Emericks, on Sunday.

A. A. says he does enjoy a car ride, especially when it is free, like that one Saturday night.

Next Sunday will be Rev. Serl's last appointment at this place, for this conference year.

The members of the Church of Christ, are having a series of meetings at this place, at present.

Miss Clara Robb has gone to Bellefonte to take her position as operator for the Commercial Telephone Exchange.

Clem says he didn't know G. M. was quite as stinging as he is, but never mind Clem, it was only a couple of cats that George burned.

There were quite a number of disappointed people at the different stations on Saturday evening. Never mind boys, it is a long lane that has no turn.

What do you think of a man falling out of the sled, and then crying afterwards, not because he fell and hurt himself? He broke the jug and split the cider. Ha, ha.

It is a fact that more married men than single ones loaf at the stores, night after night. How and where are your families enjoying themselves, these long winter evenings?

Two young gents of Walker, were visiting Mr. Mard's school last week one day. The one took some of the young ladies out sleigh riding. The other one stayed at the school house and took care of the rest. We won't tell who they were, Alma.

Among the list of aspirants for office, Walker township is not without a representative. J. D. Miller has announced his name and waits for election of the Democracy. Mr. Miller has been a faithful Democrat, and an honest tiller of the soil and an honest upright citizen.

Romola.

William Beck, of Snydertown, spent Saturday here.

H. S. DeLong is again home from his employment in Kenova.

Edward Bechdel, of Blanchard, was seen on our streets last Saturday.

Amos Shank and wife, of Walker, visited in our town last Thursday.

Robert Cook and daughter, of Howard, spent Saturday in this place.

A number of persons from this place attended the horse sale in Bellefonte last week.

Miss Mamie DeLong is at present suffering from a severe attack of "La Grippe."

David Gansallus and wife, of Beech Creek, visited at the home of Wm. Robb on Thursday.

James Boone arrived home on Monday from a several months stay in Potter county.

Miss Anna Candy, of Howard, attended the Endeavor meeting on Sunday evening.

Mitchell Weaver expects to leave this week for Davis, West Virginia, where he has