

BIG BATTLE IMMINENT.

After Resting, Our Troops Resume the March to Malolos.

THE BRAVERY OF OUR SOLDIERS.

Swam the River Amid Splattering Bullets and Charged the Rebel Trenches. Our Losses Include Colonel Egbert, Who Had Served Nearly Forty Years.

Manila, March 29.—General MacArthur and his army have been resting on the plain beyond Marilao, after three days' scrambling in the brush, fording rivers and charging trenches in the blazing sun. The men were tired, but are in splendid spirits.

The engineers are repairing bridges, the rebels having failed to destroy the iron work, and the railroad is kept busy burying supplies to the front. The country to Malolos is level, with occasional streams and patches of wood, but there are no more jungles.

The American troops advanced at daylight, taking four days' rations with them and each having 200 rounds of ammunition in their belts. They expect to take Boca, on the railroad, to the east of Bulacan, today. It is a difficult position, protected by streams.

The American line is only about 1,200 yards from that of the rebels. Desultory shots were exchanged yesterday.

The American reports show that 20 men were killed and 61 wounded on our side on Monday. The Dakota regiment lost ten men killed and had 37 wounded.

One of the most brilliant and costly achievements of the campaign was the charge of Major Howard's battalion across the river. Advancing at double quick, they found the river beneath them and splashed across with a yell, swimming and wading, with bullets splattering in the water, and rushed upon the rebel trenches. Ten of our men were killed and 11 were wounded in the charge.

At the capture of Marilao there were several incidents showing the bravery of our troops. Some Filipinos were entrenched on an island in a bend of the river. The Americans approached in a triangular formation, with the Third Artillery in the apex and the Kansas and Pennsylvania regiments forming the sides. Colonel Funston called for volunteers to swim the river. Two men crossed under fire and secured materials with which a crossing was eventually effected.

Major Bell, of General MacArthur's staff, with Company I, of the Pennsylvania regiment, and Lieutenant Abenethy and ten men engaged in similar exploits. After the Filipinos had raised the white flag many of them attempted to run, and several were shot for so doing.

In the churchyard of Marilao the Americans found 30 newly made graves of Filipinos, and a dozen bodies were seen drifting down the river.

The prisoners are digging their former comrades graves.

Many tents are smoking ruins, having been burned by the inhabitants. The Americans are not burning any buildings.

Our troops captured four Spaniards who were fighting with the insurgents. According to prisoners in the hands of the Americans, Aguinaldo's generals, Garcia, Tofreo and Pacheco, were with the Filipino army on Monday and drove their followers into the first aggressive demonstration. The rebels attempted to charge across the plain, east of the railroad, but the Americans charged to meet them and the Filipinos bolted after a few shots, leaving several killed on the field.

The prisoners say Aguinaldo has declared that if the Americans can take the Filipino capital he will surrender.

On Saturday and Sunday there was sharp fighting with the rebels by the forces under Generals Wheaton and MacArthur. On Sunday General Wheaton's troops captured the town of Malinta, and in the fight Colonel Harry C. Egbert, of the Twenty-second regular infantry, was killed, after having served continuously as a line officer for nearly 40 years. Prince Loewenstein, of Germany, was also killed. He somehow got in front of the firing line. Our total loss in two days' fighting was three officers and 25 enlisted men killed and 212 wounded. Of the Tenth Pennsylvania regiment Private Aliz Newell was killed and Privates Charles O. Walker, Eugene Morgan and Vernon Kelly wounded.

On Saturday night, evidently anticipating a bombardment of the town, a thousand rebels evacuated Malaban leaving a few to burn the town. Owing to the natural obstacles and to the strong opposition our troops were powerless to prevent the withdrawal. Little was left of the place when the American soldiers took possession.

On March 19 General Otis sent the following telegram to Washington. It has just been made public:

"Have purchased all gunboats in Philippines of Spain, 13 in number, now at Zamboanga. Half are in serviceable condition. Payment in cash from public fund upon delivery at Manila. They will be sent this week."

DEAD HEROES BROUGHT HOME.

Bodies of Brave Soldiers From Cuba and Porto Rico.

New York, March 28.—The transport Crook, which left Santiago March 23, arrived at quarantine late this afternoon with the bodies of dead soldiers from Cuba and Porto Rico. The dead that are identified will be given to the relatives or friends of the deceased. Those who are not identified will be interred in Arlington cemetery, near Washington. There are 1,900 dead to be brought back, and as soon as the Crook is unloaded she will return to Santiago to bring back the remainder.

The list of the dead on the Crook, given out by the army officials in this city, includes the following who were members of the Sixteenth Pennsylvania volunteers: Corporal Philip Koph, R. H. Manning, John F. Segerstrom, Sergeant Edward S. Bailey, Sergeant Loten A. Winsmore, Musician Clayton E. Damon, William H. George, Herman D. Hughes, Ervin M. Koons, Corporal H. F. Ransom, Corporal George E. Sloan, Arthur E. Darren, Burton A. Downey, Musician James A. Olsen, Hiram A. Reynolds, H. E. Vincent, Jacob A. Wheeling, Harry M. Bodine, Arthur L. Borden, G. R. Mong, Charles B. Palmer, William P. McCourtney and Philander Young. The Crook also brought from Porto Rico the bodies of Charles W. Gangaware and John E. Hamburger, of the Fourth Pennsylvania.

The bodies brought from Cuba are many of those men who belonged to the regular army, though there are a number who belonged to volunteer regiments from Massachusetts, Ohio, New York, Illinois and Michigan and to the First volunteer cavalry, known as Roosevelt's rough riders. There are also 110 bodies of unknown soldiers.

WINDSOR HOTEL FIRE VICTIMS.

Unidentified Dead Will Be Buried at Tarrytown on Easter Monday.

New York, March 29.—Warren F. Leland, proprietor of the Windsor hotel, announces that arrangements have been definitely made for holding funeral services over the remains of the unidentified bodies recovered from the ruins of the hotel on Easter Monday. The services will be held in the Church of the Heavenly Rest. Rev. D. Parker Morgan will officiate. It has been decided by a majority of the friends and relatives of the deceased that the interment will take place in Sleepy Hollow cemetery, at Tarrytown, and an appropriate monument will mark the last resting place of those who perished in the flames.

The trunk of a woman's body was found last night about the site of the laundry. Nothing remained but the trunk, and that was much charred. This body was entered on both the police and morgue records as "Body No. 27." "Body No. 28" was found at midnight. It is the best preserved yet taken from the ruins. There is a trunk, parts of the legs and a part of one arm. The body is evidently that of a man. It was found about where the main entrance of the hotel opened into the office. The total number of identified persons killed during the fire and dying subsequently from injuries received in the fire is 11, making the total number of known dead 37. The bodies recovered in the ruins account for 26 of the 45 persons reported missing.

Olney For the Presidency.

Millwaukee, March 29.—The Journal says that a movement is under way to make ex-Secretary of State Richard Olney the Democratic candidate for president next year is revealed in a letter from Boston to The Journal. General Olney's campaign is based on the theory that he is in favor of imperialism, while opposed to annexation. The writer of the letter referred to is very prominent in Democratic politics, and he says the movement in Mr. Olney's favor is well under way. It is urged in his behalf, that he, though a gold Democrat in 1896, did not make himself obnoxious to the free silver element and that on the expansion question he would be an available candidate, being opposed to the annexation of distant islands.

Guilty Lover's Confession.

Bridgeport, Conn., March 29.—In the trial of Dr. Nancy Guilford for the murder of Emma Gill by a criminal operation Harry Oxley, of Southington, who is said to have been responsible for the condition of Miss Gill, was called to the stand. The young man was nervous, and trembled violently. He testified that he had known Emma Gill all his life. He saw her last Aug. 27, 1898. On Aug. 17, 1898, he went with her to the Bridgeport house of Dr. Guilford and there made with Dr. Guilford a bargain that the girl should be operated upon for $150. At that time he paid down $65 in cash. Witness testified to further payments to Mrs. Guilford.

The Wrecked Portland Located.

Boston, March 29.—It is believed that the hull of the lost steamer Portland has been located. The crew of the schooner Maud S. on Monday hauled up a quantity of steamer fittings entangled in their fishing trawls. The wreckage consists of two electric light brackets, a mattress, some minor cabin furnishings, a heating line and a garter. The point at which it was brought up was 22 1/2 miles from Boston light, 17 miles south southeast of Cape Ann and 24 miles from Highland light, and the depth of the water between 50 and 60 fathoms.

A Valuable New Mineral.

Cambridge, Mass., March 29.—Professor J. E. Wolff, of Harvard university, has recently discovered in a newly developed part of the zinc mines at Franklin Furnace, N. J., a valuable new mineral containing from 22 to 24 per cent of zinc. It is thought that the discovery may prove of considerable economic importance. From the name of the town, Hardyston, in which it was first recognized, Professor Wolff has christened the new mineral "Hardystonite."

OUTLAW'S CONFESSION

May Save Two Innocents Serving Life Sentences For Murder.

AN ORGANIZED BAND OF ROBBERS

Who, According to the Confession of a Member of the Gang, Have Been Guilty of Many of the Crimes Charged Against the Dalton Boys.

Kansas City, Mo., March 29.—The Star prints a three column story regarding the arrest of a remarkable gang of Kansas criminals who have for years lived by means of robbery and murder. One of the gang is believed to be the murderer of Joseph New, who was killed in Greenwood county, Kan., two years ago, for which crime New's wife and George H. Dobbs are now serving life sentences. So firmly does Warden Landis, of the Kansas penitentiary, believe in the innocence of Mrs. New and Dobbs that he will immediately urge Governor Stanley to pardon them. Frank Alford, alleged to be the real murderer, is in jail at Jola, Kan., under charge of forgery. Alvin Ballard, serving an eight year sentence in the Kansas penitentiary for horse stealing, has confessed that he, Alford and "Bill" Turner were the murderers of New, and that Mrs. New and Dobbs are absolutely innocent. Turner has not been found.

It seems that the men who murdered New and robbed his dead body conspired afterwards to convict the widow and Dobbs. The supposed murderer, Alford, according to Ballard, even went so far as to try to get on the jury which convicted them. Ballard goes on to say that he, Alford and Turner were members of an organized gang of thieves and murderers that operated in southern Kansas. As a result of his confession he stolen horses, a bag of counterfeit silver dollars and a counterfeiting outfit have been recovered. Fifty other horses stolen by the gang have been located. Besides Alford, E. L. Mathes, Mary Mathes and Herbert Simpson are under arrest. The officers are on the trail of other members of the gang. Officers who have been working on the case have corroborated many of Ballard's statements.

Ballard confessed to the prison officials several days ago, and the arrests noted were the outcome. Ballard said: "We had run from Texas and the Indian Territory all through No Man's Land and the sand hills south of Hutchinson, Kan. We stole horses, buggies and cattle. There are caves and underground houses all over the northern part of the territory and Kansas that were dug or found by the gang. Up in the sand hills they have lots of plate machinery where we turned on the money. Mathes' ranch, near Hutchinson, is the headquarters of the gang. Mathes has a corral on the ranch, in which stolen cattle and horses are driven from the territory and then shipped. There are tools hidden all around the ranch house and a few graves, too."

Ballard described these graves, smiling as he said that no one knew who their occupants were. "A few stragglers," he said.

Mrs. Mathes, Ballard said, kept a diary of the gang's doings, and was thus enabled to aid in procuring alibis. "This gang," continued Ballard, "did lots of things the Dalton boys were credited with. The older ones in the gang have done trains for 20 years, and are guilty of crimes others are suffering for. Three of the men who were in the Missouri train robberies have been robbing the trains and stages in Texas and the southwest for 20 years. Alford and Jim Kennedy made several holdups near the Blue cut together. Alford has done a turn in some eastern penitentiary."

Killed His Wife in a Dream.

Tacoma, Wash., March 27.—Dr. Charles Corey shot and killed his wife yesterday morning while she lay asleep. Corey was ill, and his story of the affair is that he was laboring under a nightmare, believing his wife was being pursued by a stranger who was intent on killing her. In his dream Corey says he followed the two from Tacoma to Washington, and just as he fancied the man was about to stab her fired twice with his revolver. He awoke with a start to find himself sitting in bed with a smoking revolver in his hand. Corey had drawn his revolver from its place under his pillow and killed his wife. The relations between Corey and his wife have been very affectionate, and the authorities believe his story. He is nearly crazed with grief.

The Chicago Holocaust.

Chicago, March 29.—Five bodies have been recovered from the ruins of the Armour curled hair works, which were burned Monday evening. Four of the bodies recovered were identified. They are: William Ricksecker, aged 40; John B. Gorge, aged 69, unmarried; James Flanagan, aged 24, lived with his mother and sister; John Smith, aged 18; unidentified man, burned beyond recognition, thought to be the remains of Daniel Sheehan. The missing are: Miss Helen Hemmelwright, forewoman of the picking room; William Gillson, workman; John White, elevator man. Of the injured Jeremiah Steele, who dropped from a fourth story window, is the only one who is in a critical condition.

Trouble in the Island of Negros.

Singapore, March 29.—Trouble is brewing in the Island of Negros, where the Insular Republic is the self constituted authority of Aniseto Lacon, president of the provisional government, to arrange affairs with the Americans, and have attacked the Americans. The Insurgents in Luzon sent a message to Lieutenant Commander Cowper, of the British gunboat Plover, when the latter endeavored to effect a compromise, suggesting that they were ready to treat for peace through a neutral great power.

Volunteers Back From Cuba.

Savannah, Ga., March 28.—The First North Carolina regiment arrived at Pulaski, 14 miles below this city, yesterday on the Ward line steamer Vigilance, from Cuba. Five companies of the Fourth Virginia regiment also arrived at the fort on the steamer San Antonio. The troops will go on at once to camp, and be mustered out here next week.
