-The enterprising firm of Katz & Co., have again taken considerable space in the Centre Democrat, to tell the many readers of what nice selections they have for the Easter and spring trade. They mention prices that are inviting, and what you read in their announcement you can find at their store.

-Last Thursday John E. Homer, one of Philipsburg's prominent merchants, spent some time in Bellefonte interviewing democrats. He is one of the three democratic candidates of that place for the nomination for Treasurer. He is one of the party workers in that section and should he receive the nomination, would be a strength to the ticket.

-There will be special music in St. John's Episcopal church, at both morning and evening services next Sunday. In the evening the same choir that sang the crucifixion, last Sunday, will sing Stainer's "Magnificat" and "Nunc Dimittis," Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus," and "The Radiant Morn," by Woodward. This is a greater imusical effort than the crucifixion, and it is hoped, will be as successful. Members of all

-It is reported that Edward Chambers, Esq., was tendered and accepted a nice position from Gov. Stone. The last legislature created a new position for two men, an accountant and an attorney, to audit all accounts of money appropriated to schools, asylums, hospitals, and all charities, and to inspect the manner in which same was used. The position is worth about $2000 per annum. Gov. Stone evidently appreciates the work done by some of the boys here in Bellefonte. Mr. Chambers is the first from this section to secure any favors from the new state administration.
