

The Racket.

No. 7 and 11 Crider's Exchange, Bellefonte Pa.

"There's Music in the Air."

We are busy in Room No. 7. (That's the New Variety Annex, U kno.

We are hustling in Room No. 9, that's the room "The Racket" started in business, January 1st, 1889, total first day's sales, $3.00; a small beginning that's right, but "big oaks from little acorns grow," U kno.

We are stirring around lively in Room No. 11, that's the room that was opened April 1st, 1895, and made U ask, "what in the world do U want with this big room in Bellefonte? and when we cut two partition walls and jumped into Crider's stone building, November 1st, 1896, and added 1800 more square, "The China Annex" U kno. U only asked "what's next?" The answer is "The Greater Racket," wait and C.

Kreamerville.

Henry Detwiler says it is a dishwasher. Most that our people find to do at present, is to attend sales.

One of our boss hunters bought a bottle of Early Risers, to shoot boxes with.

Let the people be more of one mind and attend the Sunday school better.

Ed. is perhaps leaving here, but we don't think he will go very far west.

A rompus at the east end of town the other night; some big talk, but no one hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hubler, of Loganton, were the guests of J. R. Styers, Sunday.

Saturday will be a lively day in money matters, as that is the settling up day of the year.

Nellie Brindle left here Monday for Woodward, where she will work this summer.

Action is now over, everybody has bought themselves rich, or poor, as the case may be.

Henry Winkleblech left for Renovo, Tuesday, where he will work at the carpenter trade.

Judging from the way some people bought soap at auction, they must have a very crusty hide.

Services in the M. E. Church, this Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The new pastor, Rev. Chilcote, will preside.

Sunday morning we shoveled snow, and some people said we were doing a sin. We'll let that to the one who settles all accounts.

Chas. Gramley, the young landlord of Millinburg, came here Monday. No doubt to escort his lady-love to their fair summer home, in Millinburg.

Yes, her beau came up street Saturday evening, pushing his wheel through the snow. His departure, on Monday morning, was more comfortable, because of the improved condition of the road.

William Bierly and family, who for quite a time were located at Jersey Shore, employed as a cigar maker, came to this village Friday and will make their home with the lady's mother. William intends farming tobacco this season.

Some time ago W. S. Miller offered 13 2-ct. stamps for a cent and a quarter; but a little more surprised that for a cent and a half, a raise of only a quarter on the first bargain, he promises for a short time to give 25 2-ct. stamps and a 1-ct stamp. He is certainly very clever and people should take advantage of the opportunity thus handed to them.

—BLACK DEATH:—An absolute annihilator of all insects, bugs or beetles that prey on vegetation; positively kills potato bugs, squash bugs, pumpkin bugs, water melon bugs, currant worms, cabbage worms, etc. It will kill all kinds of creeping things, that eat the leaves of vegetables or plants.

Every package is guaranteed to be full strength and full weight. For sale by R. F. VONADA, COBURN, PA.

Coburn.

Winter went out with snow. Sales are all the go this week. Mrs. Springer left for her home on Monday morning.

Traveling men will always find S. R. Kings a good stopping place.

W. H. Meyer and wife, of Centre Hall, made a visit at this place over Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Hoover, of Millheim, spent a few days among friends at this place. Miss Fannie Stover, of Rebersburg, arrived home from Philadelphia the other day.

We are safe in saying that the exhibition held on Saturday evening in the school house, was quite a success.

The cream gatherer, of Georgetown, had a very novel experience with a new kind of tea which was sent to him by a patent medicine firm. He no sooner had brought it home, when his good wife prepared it for him and he took an awful big dose of it before retiring. Our friend had an experience he will not soon forget. The tea did its work more effectively than half-a-dozen doses of little early risers.

GEORGETOWN.

Mrs. Wingart will move from Georgetown to Drum Station.

Miss Emma Wingart was in town on Sunday, also two lady friends from Ohio.

Al. Corman and sister Katie, from Snyder county, were the guests of Mrs. Wingart one day this week.

B. F. Gentzel will, this week, vacate the house of W. H. Ertle and move to B. F. Tolbart's farm, near Woodward.

We are sorry to lose so good a neighbor as B. F. Gentzel, and one of our boss fishermen; but Tom and Shorty are here yet.

It is custom among the Indians the chiefs do the sporting and the squaws do the work. It is a little what way in Georgetown—the chiefs are playing ball, and the squaws must chop the wood.

Blanchard.

The good people at Eagleville are cheerfully thanking the Honorable Judge for refusing to grant liquor license in our town.

M. S. Blair preached his farewell sermon last Sunday evening. He is going to Big Run. Rev. M. S. Frick will take his place and will move here this week and preach his first sermon on Sunday morning at the Christian church.

Irvin Spangler spent a few days at home with his family, last week. He returned to Berwick on Monday, where he has been employed for some time. His family expect to have sale the last of this week and will make Berwick their future home.

Mrs. Catharine Haagen died at Beech Creek Monday evening from a complication of diseases. She was aged 66 years. She is survived by two sons and four daughters. Funeral Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Disciple church. Rev. M. S. Blair will conduct the services.

Christian Kunes died Monday afternoon after a long sickness. Mr. Kunes was a highly respected citizen and good Christian. He was deacon in the Christian church for many years. His funeral took place Wednesday afternoon. He was nearly 80 years old; buried his wife two years ago. He leaves five sons and four daughters, all grown.

The drama, given on last Saturday evening, "The Limit of the Law," at Kunes opera house, by the Christian C. E. Society, although a very stormy evening, was well attended and highly appreciated. By request they have consented to repeat it on Saturday evening, April 8th. Admission 5 and 10 cents. Those wishing to spend a pleasant evening should attend.

Fillmore.

On Saturday and Sunday the ground was covered with wit again.

O. W. McEntire, wife and little daughter, attended McEntire's sale on Saturday.

A young man got off the evening train on Saturday; the last seen of him, was at E. H. Marshall's.

A jolly crowd came home after Geo. Taylor's moving. Young and old all took part in the fun.

Harvy Bowersox bought a fine driving horse at McEntire's sale. It can go a mile in 65 minutes.

Post Young has purchased a fine cow. He is looking well since he has been drinking so much milk.

When you see a man pass a box of cigars around at a public sale, you may be sure he is a candidate. Very liberal indeed, but many got cigars that will not vote for him.

Lost, mislaid or stolen—A pair of gold-framed glasses in a case, with Dr. H. K. Hoy's name on. Any party returning same to Mrs. B. F. Blair will be liberally rewarded.

Our former postmaster left here, after 22 years of continuous business at one place, and through all that time, performed his every duty in a very pleasing and obliging manner.

Our new postmaster, A. C. Kelly, takes charge of the office to-day, also of the mercantile business. He cannot help but do a good business, as he is a pleasant fellow and a hustler, and should be patronized. It is the customers that make the store. Now, let us do our part, and try him—he will do his part.

School Report.

Report of Franklin school for the term ending March 21, 1899. Number enrolled, males 25 females 22, total 50; percentage of attendance for the term, 94. The following were present every day during the term: Charles Shaffer, Herbert Shaffer, Edwin Shaffer, Robert Allison, Eleanor Shaffer, Helen Robb, Bertha Yearick, Vernie Allison, Mary Allison, Amanda Dormer, Budd Allison and Blanche Snavely, missed one day, and Virgie Robb one-half day. The following were present at every session of the last three terms: Vernie Allison, Robert Allison, Eleanor Shaffer, Bertha Yearick and Helen Robb. W. H. MARKLE, teacher.

Pleasant Gap.

Look out for another wedding soon. A. V. Millers are again occupying their home here.

Lots of our people attended Mr. George Miller's sale on Friday.

Subscribe for the Centre Democrat if you want all the news.

Rev. White, the newly appointed Methodist minister, will occupy the parsonage.

Rev. Stewart moved to Abram Armstrong's house, in what is commonly called Hornstown.

There seems to be some great attraction at Lemont, as most of our Pleasant Gap boys go there very frequently.

Ralph L. Mallory, the young photographer, makes frequent calls at Mrs. Baumgardners. Wonder what's the attraction.

Boyd Spicher spent Sunday at his home in this place; he is attending the Lock Haven Normal. He is a genial young man and we are always glad to see him.

Mrs. Emeline Noll had her family horse shot last Wednesday. "Old Fan," as she was commonly known, had outlived her usefulness, she was over 29 years of age.

Two of Linden Hall's young sports attended Mrs. Koch's sale and stopped at Joseph Ross' Wednesday night. Guess the two Misses Ross, were the attraction. Come again boys.

Axemann.

Miss Jessie Beck visited friends at Lemont this week.

Miss Belle Fleck, of Julian, was seen on our streets, Sunday.

Miss Lila Shultz is at present visiting at the home of Henry Uhl, of near our town.

Miss Mary Rote spent a few days last week with relatives, at Lemont.

Will publish flittings next week, as most of the people will not move till then.

Frank Frye is all smiles since that little boy arrived at his home, last week.

Harvey Griffith had a new roof put on Stable, on Hollow street, last week.

Mrs. Reuben Kaup and two daughters, Blanche and Anna, spent Sunday with relatives at Buffalo Run.

Quite a number of our young people spent Monday evening at the home of John Tressler, of Rock View.

An Easter service will be held in the Axemann church, on Sunday evening. Everybody is invited to come.

Mrs. Koch left this town on Monday for Adamsburg, Snyder county, Pa., where she will make her future home.

Frederick Fishburn, of near Bellefonte, has secured employment for the coming summer, from D. M. Kline, on Mr. Kline's farm.

Fiedler.

Miss Jennie Rupp, of Aaronsburg, spent a few days visiting relatives at this place.

A Jew peddler was arrested here a few days ago, suspected of having stolen goods near Centre Hall.

Miss Elsie Krape, accompanied by her brother Henry, spent a few days visiting relatives at Centre Hall last week.

On Monday evening, while Warren Smith was helping Hasten Arney to saw wood, a log rolled and caught his leg, and broke it. Dr. Musser was hastily summoned who reduced the fracture.

On Tuesday Wm. J. Krape took his son Henry D. to New Berlin, where he will become a student in the college at that place. Henry has a bright future before him, and we wish him success.

J. D. Stover and A. W. Wetzel each hired a young man from Georges valley. We understand they are brothers by the name of Breon. There are a number of girls who are anxiously waiting to make their acquaintance.

Rebersburg.

Rev. Doestler, the Ev. Eber preacher, moved into John Ocker's home, of our burg, on last Wednesday.

Steward Weber and his family, of Aaronsburg, came to the old home, where they expect to remain a few weeks, and refresh old friendships.

The Lutheran people are this week, observing the Passion services, which will be conducted every evening of the week, by their pastor, Rev. Salem.

Rev. W. W. Sholl, who was stationed at Pinn and McElhattin, during the last conference year, and who was visiting his parents of our burg over Sunday, left on Monday for his new charge at Westport, Pa. Rev. Sholl is still on the ladder of success.

The public is now convinced of the fact, by taking lessons from past experience, that one of the merchant's secret principals to success is, that it is necessary for him to wear a snow-white vest every day of year, except on Sundays. Not so John?

Buffalo Run.

Mud and moving will be all the go, this week.

Rev. Runyon preached at Grays church on Sunday. Glad to see the Rev. back again.

James Jones, employed by Wilber Waite, while running a wheel-barrow, fell and broke several of his ribs.

New Commercial Places.

THE BEST OF THEM ALL!!

LIPPINCOTT'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE

Contains a complete novel in every number, in addition to a large quantity of useful and entertaining reading matter.

No continued stories, which are so objectionable to most readers.

It should be in every household. Subscription, $3.00 per year.

Agents wanted in every town, to whom the most liberal inducements will be offered.

J. B. LIPPINCOTT COMPANY, Publishers, PHILADELPHIA.

Wanted Only $25,000.

The late Major Oliver M. Irvine and Andrew Carnegie worked together at the same desk during the infancy of the Pennsylvania railroad at Duncans. One hot, stifling day in midsummer, Carnegie ceased his plodding task, and with a sigh, said, "If I only had $25,000 I would never work another day." A few years ago Major Irvine visited the multi-millionaire at his palatial home in Pittsburgh and reminded him of the commonplace wish of his early career. "Why don't you stop work?" asked the major. "I can't," was the mournful reply. "I am only a wheel within a wheel," and the donor of pipe organs and public libraries is still amassing his millions, with unbending energy.
