

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS

What has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe Saw Worthy of Mention—A Week's Local News in a Few Words.

—Miss Lulu Harper is spending a few days in Phillipsburg visiting friends. —Weddings have been creating a stir about town the past week. The thing seems to be contagious.

—FOR SALE—A Robinson Thermal bath, sold at $7.50, can be had at a reduced price. Inquire at this office.

—Miss Annie Curtin leaves this week for Philadelphia where she will be connected with Mrs. Gilmour's millinery.

—Mrs. Al. S. Garman spent the past week in town visiting friends. She has just recovered from a prolonged illness.

—J. D. Lawrence, the insurance man, has rented the room in Crider's Exchange, formerly occupied by Hon. John B. Linn.

—Mayor Nagney has impressed one thing on our town council: he is going to attend to his position of business without their direction.

—The man who can tell the biggest fish story next Saturday evening is requested to call around and see us. We are in need of a good liar.

—The foundation for the new Houser Springless Lock factory was completed last week and the carpenters are at work on the frame work for the new building.

—Ed. Chamber's recent appointment will not necessarily interfere with his law practice at this place, as the duties of the office will not require his absence from home.

—J. C. Meyer and W. G. Runkle will soon occupy their new law offices in Crider's Exchange, where they will be nicely quartered with more ample and convenient quarters.

—F. H. Cota, former secretary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., spent Monday evening in Bellefonte. He was on his way to Pittsburg where he has secured a position in a machine shop.

—This afternoon the Gentile-Beezer horse sale is in progress at the Haag Hotel stables. The lot of horses are as fine specimens as were ever brought to this town and there are plenty of anxious buyers on hand.

—Last Saturday Mallory & Taylor stopped making penny photos, but the demand still continues; so they have arranged to make another run, beginning Saturday, May 6th. 25 for 25c. will be the price. They will give a larger, new style mount and better picture.

—Joseph Ard of Pine Grove Mills, did some shopping in town on Tuesday. As Mr. Ard was not as sprightly on his feet and used a cane, curiosity induced us to inquire whether it was rheumatism or gout, and learned that he was just recovering from a badly sprained ankle.

—John Nighthart, the barber, now occupies his new rooms on the first floor of Crider's stone building. New paper, elegant new furniture, in fact everything new but the proprietor and his assistant, Lloyd Smith. They have one of the handsomest tontorial apartments in the town. It is worth the price of a shave to step in and look around.

—While working in one of the stacks at the Valentine furnaces Lewis Miller met with a painful accident. In order to clean the flues a brush was drawn up through. This dislodged a brick which dropped about thirty feet and struck him on the head rendering him unconscious. At first it was thought that his skull was fractured, but such is not the case and he is slowly recovering from a painful injury.

—Thomas Dorris, of Cumberland, Md., attended the funeral of Mrs. David Wagner. Years ago Mr. Dorris was a resident of this place and when a young man was employed by David Wagner in the store and at the grain house, and is remembered by many of the older citizens of the community. He has been engaged in the jewelry business for a number of years and has prospered. His daughter Alvira accompanied him here.

—Evangelist Weaver's meetings in the court house on last Thursday were largely attended. In the evening a great many were unable to gain admittance to the building. He remained in Bellefonte but that one day. For some time his entire attention will be devoted to evangelistic work in the suburbs of London, England, where he will have several tabernacles erected for gathering in the multitudes who never attend the regular houses of worship.

—An organ and song recital will be given in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, April 18, 1899, at 8 o'clock, by Miss Winifred Mazze Newbaker, organist, and Miss Harriet Rockefeller Woods, soprano soloist of the Church of the Messiah, of New York City. Miss Woods has a highly cultivated voice, and has gained a wide reputation for her musical talent. This recital will be a treat to all lovers of music who may be fortunate enough to be present. The church will open promptly at 7:30 p. m.

—The "Late Mr. Early" at the opera house to-night. A good show.

—Early this morning a hack load, all the way from Rebersburg, came into town to attend the horse sale.

—James Dolan and two daughters, Ellie and Gertrude, left on Tuesday evening for Buffalo, N. Y., where they will make their future home.

—George W. Young, the liveryman, of Jersey Shore, moved his family back to Bellefonte to-day. Mr. Young will still occupy his position in that place.

—"The Late Mr. Early" will be at the opera house to-night. A good laugh and lots of fun will constitute the evening's enjoyment. The company come well recommended.

—Candidate Geo. F. Weaver, for register, called on Wednesday evening to impress us with the fact that he was after that nomination and had much encouragement.

—July 29th, Gen. Hastings will deliver the commencement address before the graduating class at the State Normal, Stroudsburg, Pa., of which Prof. Geo. P. Bible is the principal.

—Last evening a delightful assembly was held in the armory by the young people of the town and was attended by most of the out of town guests to the Shugert Harris wedding.

—Wm. Noll, the merchant, of Pleasant Gap, was in our office on Tuesday. He reports that place up to date, now has two telephone lines in the town. The Commercial placed their phones there this week.

—The W. C. T. U., of this place, held their first services in their new rooms, in the Allison building, on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. Some excellent and appropriate music was rendered on this occasion.

—Tuesday night a flock of wild geese became bewildered and were attracted by the electric lights of the town. They kept circling round and round for a long time. The next day quite a number were killed on the streams in this vicinity.

—On Monday Col. E. J. Pruner met with a painful accident, at Tyrone, by slipping on a defective culvert, and he had a fall that resulted in breaking his leg below the knee and spraining his ankle. On Tuesday he was brought to Bellefonte by Dr. R. G. Hayes, who will give him the proper attention.

—Only one appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court from this county, that of Rose Sternberg Lyon vs. Gustave Lyon, in which a judgment was awarded against Gustave Lyon for inflicting his brother Moyer Lyon to desert his wife. Ellis L. Orvis, Esq., will appear for the plaintiff, Rose Sternberg Lyon, and A. O. Furst, Esq., for the defendant.

—A gospel service will be held in the A. M. E. church on Friday evening. The speaker will be Mr. Roderrick L. Scotland, of the West Indies. The lecture will treat on the life and customs of the people of the West Indies and the agricultural resources of the islands. There will also be shown a fine collection of the curiosities of the island.

—"We don't do job printing for nothing, or at starvation prices. We only charge a reasonable living price and give you good service. Some of you chaps who send out of town for your printing don't deserve the patronage of the community, and by this we mean some of the leading merchants on Allegheny and High streets who growl at other people for sending away for merchandise.

—The Children's Aid Society will hold a fair in the W. C. T. U. rooms, Thursday afternoon and evening, April 20th. There will be on sale aprons, fancy articles of all kinds, candies and cake in abundance. This society earnestly asks the patronage of the community, and as this is their first appearance in soliciting aid in this manner, we sincerely hope a goodly sum may be realized for this most worthy cause.

SHUGERT-HARRIS.

One of the prettiest, as well as most prominent, weddings that has taken place in Bellefonte this long time occurred here Wednesday in the marriage of Miss Katharine Curtin Harris, eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris, and granddaughter of the late Ex-Governor Andrew G. Curtin, to John McCoy Shugert, son of J. Dunlop Shugert, cashier of the Centre County Bank. The wedding ceremony was performed in St. John's Episcopal church at 11:30 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. George H. Brown.

The church was handsomely decorated with potted plants and cut flowers, and was crowded to the utmost limit by the invited guests. Promptly at the appointed hour Choirmaster W. B. Reeves began the rendition of the prelude to Mendelssohn's wedding march, which was the signal for the approach of the groom, accompanied by John Blanchard, Esq. Immediately following came the wedding party down the main aisle, the bride leaning on the arm of her father, with her maid of honor, Miss Adeline Harris, sister of the bride, in attendance. Then came the bridesmaids, Misses Mary M. Blanchard, Rebekah G. Blanchard, Elizabeth C. Breese, Blanche M. Hayes, Louisa M. Valentine, Caroline A. Orvis, Jean M. Shugert and Catherine Dale, of Lemont, the party escorted by the ushers, as follows: Edmund Blanchard, Jr., Edgar T. Burnside, J. Malcolm Laurie, Frank M. Shugert, of Bellefonte; J. Norris Bogle, Howard; and Vance McCormick, Harrisburg. At the altar the party was joined by the groom and best man and the officiating clergyman, and with the dying away of the last strains of the wedding march the marriage ceremony was performed. The bride was attired in white satin, with large veil and orange flowers. The bridesmaids were dressed in white with Gainsborough hats, and carried small bouquets.

After the ceremony at the church a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, the residence of Mrs. A. G. Curtin, where upwards of one hundred friends assembled to mingle their congratulations and best wishes for the newly wedded couple. Mr. and Mrs. Shugert departed at 1:05 for a brief trip and on their return will be "at home" to their friends in their own residence on East Linn street. The presents received by Mrs. Shugert were extremely valuable and beautiful as well as serviceable, including a full service of silverware, a service of blue and white china, silver plate and linen.

Among the guests present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. William Curtin and daughter Marion; Mr. Frank Worrell, the Misses Wilson and Mr. Allan Sheldon, of Philadelphia; John Roberts, West Chester; Mr. Henry Sage and two sons, of Ithaca, N. Y.; while Bellefonte was represented with a full attendance of the most prominent society people.

Moved to Tyrone.

TAYLOR-HOWLEY.—Wednesday morning a pretty wedding was celebrated in St. John's Catholic church, the contracting parties being Harry C. Taylor, of Tyrone, formerly of Bellefonte, and Miss Jennie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Howley, of Bellefonte.

Frank McCann, of Tyrone, acted as best man, while Miss Ellie Howley, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The bride was attired in a traveling dress of self brown. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor took the morning train for Tyrone, where they expect to go to housekeeping immediately, where he holds the responsible position of express messenger between Lock Haven and Tyrone. Mr. Taylor has one of Bellefonte's most charming young ladies and we hope that happiness may ever attend them.

Walt-McMahon.

Tuesday morning at St. John's Catholic church, Mr. Frank Walz and Miss Celia McMahon were united in marriage by father McArdle, in the presence of many friends and acquaintances of the young people. The bride was attired in a tasty tailor-made dress of blue broadcloth and hat to match. They were attended by Joseph and Margery McMahon, brother and sister of the bride.

The young couple occupy a newly furnished home on Bishop street.

DUFFIN-MILLS.—Wednesday evening Mr. A. H. Duffin, of Harrisburg, and Miss Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Mills, were married in the A. M. E. church, this place, by Rev. Woodson. A reception was held at the home of the brides parents after which they departed for Harrisburg, at which place they will make their future home.

What the Mother Got.

A lady teacher in a nearby township school was recently drilling a primary class in arithmetic. It was a simple question in addition as follows: "If your father gave your mother $7 to-day and $8 tomorrow, what would she have?" A little fellow at the foot of the class replied without hesitation, "She would have a fit."

—Go to Ishler & Woodring, next door to Schofield's saddler shop, for garden seeds, Johnston binders and mowers, horse rakes, Buckeye cultivators, drills, pumps, gasoline and traction engines, and threshers, Acme wagons—steel and wood frame, harrows, lawn mowers, buggies, spring wagons, sections for all kinds of binders and mowers and binder twine.

HOLIDAYS GALORE.

The new legal holiday to be known as Dewey day, which falls on May 1st, has brought to mind the large and increasing number of holidays on the calendar. The observance of Dewey day, however grows out of the natural admiration for the deeds of a great sea dog, and must in that regard be respected. Still, on the other hand, it will be seen that we have already more holidays than are kept by the public, and of such number as to interfere with business, for the banks alone are the only institutions which observe days set apart. In a measure people forget what holiday we have, so many are they, especially in the month of February. At the present time the state recognizes the following legal holidays:

Fifty-two Saturday afternoons which equals twenty-six whole days.

- New Year's Day. Election day in February. Lincoln's birthday. Washington's birthday. Good Friday. Dewey Day. Decoration Day. Fourth of July. Labor Day. Election day in November. Thanksgiving Day. Christmas.

Add to these holidays fifty two Sundays and we have a total of eighty-nine days, leaving but 276 of the 365 days of the year which the law recognizes as legal business days.

ROBBED THE CHURCH.

Monday morning when Father McArdle, of St. Johns Catholic church of this place, entered the building to say mass he found that some one had gained an entrance to the edifice during the night by a rear window. A chisel was lying on the outside which had been used to remove a pane of glass, and then by reaching in the fatch was released to raise it. The chalice, a gold communion cup valued at $200, was missing and the collection box for the poor was broken open and contents, amount not known, was taken.

This chisel had been obtained from Crider's planing mill where Mr. Thad. Hamilton's tool chest had been broken open and this chisel was his property.

Father McArdle informed the authorities at once, but up to this time no clue has been found of the guilty parties. There are various forms of stealing, but when it comes to robbing sacred shrines and appropriating charity contributions, the perpetrators must be a hard hearted class of humanity. The devil certainly must be in the man who will desecrate the House of the Lord.

IN BAD FORM.

An exchange aptly remarks: Cards of thanks to neighbors and friends for courtesies received on occasions of death and bereavement, printed in a public newspaper, are in very bad form. There is no necessity for them. We are not living in a barbaric community. We are living among civilized people where our neighbors and friends gladly and cheerfully render all the kindness they can at times of bereavement. They don't expect a card of public thanks and it's bad form to make one.

A Successful Day.

The Lutheran congregation, of Bellefonte, had a very delightful and successful day on the 9th inst., in the effort made to liquidate their church debt. For some months they had been getting ready for this day, and the general Secretary of the Board of Church Extension, Rev. H. H. Weber, was to have been in the theme, but was prevented on account of illness. He sent, however, a most excellent substitute in Rev. F. P. Manhart, of Baltimore, who preached splendid sermons to crowded houses, and did good work besides. The results of the day were very gratifying. By the talent system, operated by the Sunday school, and the safe plan, they had $400 to start with in the morning, and during the day raised over $1200 additional, making a total of over $1600. This reduces their debt over one-half. Some of the sister churches closed their places of worship in the evening and came to the Lutheran church. This was showing a beautiful spirit, and was recognized by the pastor, Rev. Holloway, in appropriate remarks. The Dr. has great reason for encouragement in his work.

Recital.

An organ and song recital will be given in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, April 18th, 1899, at 8 o'clock, by Miss Winifred Maize Newbaker, organist, and Miss Harriet Rockefeller Woods, soprano soloist of the church of the Messiah, of New York City. This recital will be a treat to all lovers of music who may be fortunate enough to be present. The church will open promptly at 7:30 p. m.

Hood's Pills

Are prepared from Nature's mild laxatives, and while gentle are reliable and efficient. They

Rouse the Liver

Cure Sick Headache, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, and Constipation. Sold everywhere, 25c. per box. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

"Every Path Hath a Puddle."

The puddle in the pathway of most lives is a defective circulation due to a blood supply that instead of growing clear and strong like a mountain brook, is stagnant and impure. Puddles may be purified, however, and become limpid streams. That is what Hood's Sarsaparilla does with human blood.

It clarifies, purifies and strengthens the blood, and when this is accomplished, the vital organs, liver, lungs, kidneys, bowels, are all braced and invigorated. It never disappoints.

Dyspepsia—"Suffered everything but death for years with dyspepsia. Nothing relieved me until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it made and kept me well. Can eat anything I wish." Mrs. EGGERS MURPHY, Hill's Mill, Danbury, Conn.

Impure Blood—"Five years I suffered with pimples on face and body. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me permanently. It also cured my father's carbuncles." ALBERT E. CHAST, Tustin City, Cal.

Erysipelas—"My little girl is now fat and healthy on account of Hood's Sarsaparilla curing her of erysipelas and eczema. It is our family medicine, as we all take it." Mrs. H. O. WHEATLEY, Port Chester, N. Y.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Founded in 1870. FAIR INVESTMENT FINE GOODS. All the Spring goods in and they are a neat and good lot of Oxfords and other shoes at very moderate prices. Give us a trial it will ask. The oldest shoe house in Centre County. POWERS SHOE CO., BUSH ARCADE, BELLEFONTE, PENN'A.

Are Your Nerves Weak? If they are your Blood is out of order. You need a nerve remedy and blood cleanser. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives the best results and has more real cures to its credit than any remedy known. Dyspepsia, indigestion and Constipation will wreck the nervous system if left alone long enough. Try this great remedy and get cured. Samples free. Large packages 25c. Sold only by C. M. Parish, Bellefonte; Wm. H. Noll, Pottsville; J. C. P. Mott, Woodward; W. H. Miller, Attemann; J. P. Griffin, Stroudsburg; L. R. McIntire, Fillmore.
