CAPTURED BY FILIPINOS.

Fifteen of the Yorktown's Crew in the Hands of the Rebels.

WENT TO RESCUE SPANIARDS

And Were Ambushed by the Insurgents-The Fate of the Prisoners Unknown, as the Captors Refuse to Communicate With Our Officers.

Washington, April 19.-The navy department has given out the following dispatch from Admiral Dewey:

"The Yorktown visited Baler, Luzon, east coast of Luzon, P. I., April 12 for the purpose of rescuing and bringing away the Spanish forces, consisting of 80 soldiers, three officers and two priests, which were surrounded by 400 insurgents. Some of the insurgents armed with Mauser rifles * * by natives. Lieutenant J. C. Gilmore, while making * * * ambushed were fired upon and captured. Fate unknown, as insurgents refused to communicate afterward. The following are missing: Lieutenant Gilmore, Chief Quartermaster W. Walton, Coxswain J. Ellsworth, Gunner's Mate H. J. Hygard, Sailmakers' Mate Vengit, Seamen W. H. Rynders and C. W. Woodbury, Apprentices D. W. A. Venville and A. J. Peterson, Ordinary Seamen F. Brisolese and O. B. McDonald, Landsmen L. T. Edwards, F. Andersen, J. Dillon and C. A. Morrissey.'

The dispatch from Admiral Dewey caused much excitement in naval circles as soon as its contents became known. It was received late in the day, and considerable delay was occasioned by the blindness of some of the cipher words. It was impossible to completely decipher it, and the asterisks indicate the unintelligible words. Lieutenant J. C. Gilmore, the officer referred to as captured, is well known in Washington, having been stationed here for some time and his wife and family living here. He was born in Philadelphia July 10, 1854, and was appointed a naval cadet from Arizona in September, 1871. He reached his present grade of lieutenant in the year 1891. His main service has been on the Monongahela, Marion, Bancroft, Vesuvius, and Machias, besides considerable service on boards. Just a year ago he reported to the St. Paul, then commissioned as an auxiliary cruiser, and served on that vessel, under Captain Sigsbee, throughout the war. On Jan. 14 last he was orto the hospital ship Solace, which was about to sail for Manila, and on arrival there was assigned by Admiral Dewey to the Yorktown. The capture of the Yorktown's men was discussed with much feeling in naval circles. The misfortune was felt with added keenness, as the navy has prided itself thus far on immunity from reverses. The admiral's dispatch was the first knowledge the department had that the Yorktown had gone on this special mission to relieve the Spanish garrison at Baler. That the capture should have been effected while the American forces were on a mission of mercy toward the Spaniards, rather than in the prosecution of the campaign, led to the belief that Spain would have no further ground for questioning the good faith with which the Americans were seeking to relieve the condition of the Spanish prisoners. Although the dispatch gave no indication that Lieutenant Gilmore and his men had lost their lives, yet great anxiety was aroused by the mystery surrounding their fate while in the hands of an uncivilized enemy. This is the first capture of any Americans, military or naval, so that it is unknown how the insurgents will treat our men. If civilized methods were pursued an exchange could be quickly effected, as General Otis has a large number of Filipino prisoners, but the insurgents have been averse thus far to exchanging Spanish prisoners, and this raises a question as to what they will do with the Yorktown's men. The purpose of officials here is to spare no effort to secure the speedy release of

PEACEFUL FILIPINOS.

Endeavoring to Secure an Understanding Between Rebels and Americans. Manila, April 19.-A number of prominent and wealthy Filipinos are organizing a committee to take steps to bring about, if possible, an understanding between the rebels and the Americans. One branch of this committee intends to ask the United States Philippine commission to make a statement as to what terms will be offered the rebels if the latter will surrender. Another branch of the committee will approach Aguinaldo with the terms and will endeavor to persuade him to accept them. considered doubtful, however, if any members of the committee will dare to personally confer with the rebel leader. The committee includes several recently condemned to death by Aguinaldo for petitioning him to cease fighting.

Major General Otis has appointed a board, headed with Colonel Crowder, to deal with war claims. Many such claims have been filed, aggregating millions of dollars, particularly as a result of the Iloilo fire. General Otis, who has hitherto handled these claims, is unable to devote any of his time to them now.

General Lawton has ordered Colonel Whalley, of the Washington regiment, who is a lieutenant in the regular army, to command General King's brigade during the latter's illness. Major General Lawton's expedition to the Laguna de Bay district returned to Manila Sunday morning, having been ordered to return by General Otis. The expedition brought back the captured insurgent boats.

Ravages of the Bubonic Plague. Bombay, April 19 .- According to statistics gathered regarding the bubonic plague, it is established that there have been 250,000 deaths recorded in India since its beginning. These Lgures, however, are undoubtedly far below the actual total, as the natives are known to have concealed quite a number of deaths.

INVESTIGATORS REPORT.

oth Majority and Minority Charge Corrupt Solicitation.

Harrisburg, April 18 .- Two reports were presented to the house yesterday afternoon from the committee appointed to investigate the charges of attempted bribery in connection with the United States senatorship and the consideration of the McCarrell jury bill in the house. One was presented by Chairman Fow, and is signed by himself and Messrs. Dixon, Koontz, Randall and Young. The minority report as presented by Mr. McClain is signed by McClain, Kreps, Tighe and Voorhees. By agreement between Messrs. Fow and McClain action on the reports was postponed until 4 o'clock this af-

The majority report declares that "in the opinion of those who have signed this report the evidence discloses that undue means were taken by many persons to corruptly solicit members of this house, both for the purpose of influencing their official action in reference to the McCarrell bill and also in reference to their official action as to the election of a United States senator. That said corrupt solicitation consisted of offers of money, position, advantage and political preferment.

"Your committee respectfully report that there is in their opinion sufficient evidence against Charles B. Spatz. John R. Byrne, Parker Titus, Frank B. Jones, Monroe H. Kulp, Thomas M Moyles, Robert Evans, John J. Coyle and M. J. Costello for this house to di rect that criminal proceedings be brought against them, and it is recommended that these proceedings be immediately commenced and vigorously prosecuted."

The minority report reaches substantially the same conclusion as the

ITEMS OF STATE NEWS.

Hazleton, Pa., April 19.-Two miners. Lorenza Tatrona, aged 29 years, and Joseph Larock, aged 44 years, were instantly killed by a fall of rock in No. 40 Lehigh Valley slope here yesterday afternoon.

Easton, Pa., April 15.-The jury in the case of Llewellyn Stout, on trial for the murder of Harvey Wuster, the Philadelphia and Reading railroad telegraph operator at Bingen Station, returned a verdict last night of murder in the first degree, after being out three hours. Sentence will be pronounced Monday. Stout is only 19 years old. The motive of the crime is supposed to have been robbery.

Harrisburg, April 18 .- In the house last night Mr. Nyce, of Philadelphia, introduced resolutions intended to authorize suits against ex-State Treasurers Quay, Haywood, McKee, Boyer, Morrison and Hart, or their estates "to recover interest appropriated to their own use by private individuals." The resolutions were ruled out of order on an objection, and a motion to introduce them under suspension of the rules failed.

Pittsburg, April 18.-Mrs. Mary Jane McAdams, aged 58 years, of Philadelphia, died yesterday at the residence of her son-in-law, Charles Herb, on Friendship avenue. The woman's death was the result of an accident that happened about two weeks ago, when she was badly burned by her clothes catching fire from an open grate. Mrs. McAdams, accompanied by her husband, came to Pittsburg about a month ago to visit her daughter, Mrs.

Harrisburg, April 18 .- At the meeting of the supporters of M. S. Quay for United States senator, held last night in the supreme court chamber, resolutions were adopted inviting the anti-Quayites to "yield to the will of the majority and elect the regular Republican nominee." During the debate Senator Magee expressed his opinion that the prosecution of Senator Quay was a political conspiracy, but urged the necessity of choosing a senator. Representative Hosack declared he would change his vote from Quay. After the meeting Mr. Magee declared that he and 20 others would do likewise.

Dubois, Pa., April 17.-John Reed's store building at Falls Creek, two miles from this city, was partially destroyed by fire early yesterday morning. Citizens saved the building from total destruction, and it was then discovered that the store had been robbed and set on fire. The loss on goods and building will reach nearly $10,000. An attempt was also made to burn the St. Elmo hotel, in this city, about midnight. Andrew Murray had previously been ejected from the hotel. He returned, and gaining entrance to a rear room emptied the contents of an oil can and set fire to the fluid. The blaze was discovered before much damage had been done. Murray was arrested.

Wilkesbarre, April 18.-Late Sunday afternoon Mrs. Jacob Lesoch, residing in Pittston township, put her three children, Mary, aged 6, Katarina, aged 4, and Apollo, aged 3, to bed and then went out to make a call on a neighbor about a mile distant. When she started to return she saw smoke issuing from the roof to her house. She gave the alarm and ran to the scene. Arriving there the dwelling was enveloped in flames. The frantic mother wanted to rush into the burning house but was restrained by two men. After the house had burned down the charred remains of the three children were found in the cellar. The supposition is that the house was set on fire by a spark from a passing locomotive.

Harrisburg, April 15.-Governor Stone returned to the house yesterday without approval a concurrent resolution authorizing the appointment of committee of two senators and three members to inquire into the alleged infraction of the law by the Susque hanna Canal company, which has sold the dam in the Susqueshanna river at Columbia to a company chartered to furnish motive power. The governor's reason for the veto is that the expense is not provided for, and may be excessive. The governor also vetoed the following bills: To enlarge the competency of the wife to testify against her husband; granting a pension of $8 a month to Evan Jones for injuries re ceived in a railroad collision while a private in the Twelfth Pennsylvania volunteer militia.

CROKER'S TESTIMONY

Before the Committee Investigating New York's Politics.

HE IS IN TECHNICAL CONTEMPT.

Proceedings May Be Instituted Against the Tammany Leader and John F. Carroll Before the Adjournment of the State Legislature.

New York, April 18.—In the session of the Mazet Legislative Investigating committee yesterday Richard Croker was again the principal object of Mr. Moss' examination.

When the committee began yesterday's inquiry, about the first thing brought up was a resort known as the Broadway Garden, which had flourished in the upper Broadway district for some time. Simon Buttner, the former proprietor, testified that Police Captain Price had made him pay outrageously for protection. He said the first thing Price did was to threaten to close the place unless he (Price) received $150 at once and half of the robbery that was accomplished in it. Buttner declared he was also forced to patronize certain wholesalers.

An attempt by Assemblyman Hoffman to have subpoenaed the law firm of Tracy, Boardman & Platt, Elihu Root, the incorporators of the Astoria Heat, Light and Power company, Thomas F. Platt, Benjamin J. Odell, Lemuel Quigg and John D. Trimmins, was defeated, five Republicans opposing and two Democrats favoring it.

Richard Croker testified that the police did not contribute a cent to the Tammany campaign last year, but that the officeholders did. He could not tell the amount of money raised last year, nor did he know in what bank the funds were kept. He said he had never received a cent from Bourke Cockran. He also swore he was never caught short with Manhattan "L" stock, and did not lose $27,000, as reported.

When Mr. Moss said that Mr. Croker had found that in business matters, like that of Peter Meyer & Co., members of the organization could help each other, Mr. Croker said angrily: You are trying to make us out a pack of thieves in one combination together, and you can't do it."

After a further exchange of sharp words, Mr. Croker becoming enraged, Mr. Moss remarked that it was evident that Mr. Croker realized the "seriousness of the occasion." The Tammany leader retorted: "Not very serious. I am not going away. I am going to stay here until the circus is over. You can have me any day you want."

Later on Mr. Moss asked: "Have you not during the last year received large sums of money from individuals which were not your profit or earnings from any business?"

"No!" shouted Mr. Croker, and he repeated his answer.

Mr. Croker was first placed on the stand on Friday last, and his testimony has been intensely dramatic throughout. When he first went on the stand Mr. Moss conducted a line trust. of questioning which Mr. Croker evidently believed was a loss of time, for he suddenly leaned forward and said: "It is not nece

o bring up what everybody knows. There is no usa playing to the gallery; there is no use making speeches. I am the leader of the party, and I acknowledge it. All these people are my friends, and I am going to stick to them all the time." At another point Mr. Croker said imressively: "If you can show where I have taken a single dollar from this city, you can cut off that right arm.'

Mr. Croker admitted that he had considerable political influence, but not in every case were his wishes carried out. He had been a member of the auctioneering firm that conducted the majority of the judicial sales, and as a true Democrat he expected to be befriended in the way of legitimate profit in his legitimate business.

"Then you are working for your own pocket?" said Mr. Moss.

"All the time, the same as you are." 'To the boss belongs the lion's share of the plunder," sneered Mr. Moss. "No plunder, no," said Croker. "You can call it what you like. You can call the bill you sent to the legislature for the work you are now doing plunder, Mr. Croker refused to answer many questions affecting his private business, but he did say: "I've got nothing to conceal. If any one comes to me with a good stock to buy, I buy it, and so would you. I will not go into any details of my private business.'

Incidentally Mr. Croker praised Chief Devery and the police department. John F. Carroll, Mr. Croker's chief lieutenant, refused to answer questions as to his private business. developed during the examination that Mr. Carroll had given up a $7,500 position to accept his present position in Tammany Hall, which, theoretic-"You cannot ally, is without salary. frighten me," said Mr. Carroll. made the admission that "what Mr.

Croker says goes." Other witnesses on Friday were ex-Judge Daly and ex-Judge Pryor. The former said he had contributed $7,000 to the party fund for his two nominations, and Mr. Pryor said he voluntarily contributed $10,000. Mr. Daly said he was notified by Croker not to expect another nomination, and Daly said it was because he had refused to obey Mr. Croker. On Saturday Mr. Croker was again on the stand, and became somewhat excited. Said he: "You and this committee are down here to drive my boys out of business-that's what you are here for, and I'll tell you right now I'll keep you all summer doing it. Go on and examine Mr. Platt's firm and find out what his boys are in, if you want to be honest."

Speaking of ex-Senator Platt's firm he said: "There is more corruption in that firm today, and it is run by all or mostly all the corporations in this state—there is more corruption in that firm than anywhere else. "You need not throw out any bluffs at all, Mr. Croker," said Mr. Moss. You need not throw any bluffs at me," snapped Mr. Croker.
