

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS

What has Transpired During the Past Week

Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe Saw Worthy of Mention—A Week's Local News in a Few Words.

State College citizens are figuring on organizing a water company at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Irvin, formerly of Tyrono, will probably make their permanent home here.

Rev. Womelsdorf, the new pastor of the Evangelical church of Bellefonte, was tendered a reception by the members of his church on Thursday evening.

On Saturday the State College baseball team played at Philadelphia with the University of Penn'a team and were defeated by a score of 11 to 8.

The air of activity about the Valentine furnace continues as workmen are busily engaged in making necessary repairs.

County Chairman J. K. Johnston and Hugh S. Taylor, Esq., left on Tuesday noon, for Harrisburg, to attend the meeting of the Democratic State Committee.

On Friday evening a small fire was discovered in the basement or cellar underneath the Adams Express Company office.

Last Saturday Mallory & Taylor stopped making penny photos, but the demand still continues.

Captain Harry Simler, of Philipsburg, brought Blanche Twohey, of that place, to jail here last Thursday.

Mrs. John Johnsonbaugh, and little daughter Helen, of State College, are visiting at the home of her mother.

Last Friday evening the Bellefonte fire department made a quick response to the alarm from the Bush House.

The farm houses of Henry and Benjamin Gentzel, in Spring township, were entered by burglars last Saturday and Sunday nights.

On Saturday evening General Hastings and Editor Harter returned from Snow Shoe with over a hundred trout, and all nice large ones.

On Odd Fellows' Day, next Wednesday, Company B are going to sell ham sandwiches and coffee at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms.

Joe McSully, the painter, is putting a fresh coat of paint on the fountains and the railings about the court house yard.

Constans Commandery No. 33 Knights Templar Friday night held the following elected officers for the next year.

The March pay day on the Beech Creek railroad was one of the largest in the history of the road.

The Children's Aid Society have concluded to change the date of holding their fair to Wednesday, April 26th.

On page 6 will be found a complete list of the patrons of the Commercial Telephone company, at this writing.

Col. W. R. Teller, the hotel man, from Washington, is visiting friends in town.

Miss Josephine Joseph has gone to Philadelphia for treatment for throat trouble.

WANTED—A good home for a six months-old girl baby.

Court meets next week and some important cases will be on trial.

W. C. Cassidy, after spending several weeks in Bellefonte, returned to his home in Canton, Ohio.

Gen. Hastings took time last Saturday to go up to Snow Shoe and catch some trout.

The Undine Band, of Bellefonte, with twenty-three men, has been engaged by a Philadelphia Commandery.

The members of the United Brethren church will serve meals and lunch, also ice cream.

Reuben Comley, of Flemington, and one of the prominent republican leaders in that section.

On Sunday afternoon an experience and testimonial meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A.

Robert Hoy, of Houserville, called on Wednesday evening and saw our press running.

In this issue will be found a page supplement in which the well known clothing firm of M. Faubie & Son make their spring announcement.

Advertisers should not forget that in order to insure an insertion in this paper copy must be filed in this office not later than Monday.

Last Friday evening the Bellefonte fire department made a quick response to the alarm from the Bush House.

The farm houses of Henry and Benjamin Gentzel, in Spring township, were entered by burglars last Saturday and Sunday nights.

On Saturday evening General Hastings and Editor Harter returned from Snow Shoe with over a hundred trout.

On Odd Fellows' Day, next Wednesday, Company B are going to sell ham sandwiches and coffee.

The order known as "Woodmen" held a reception on Monday evening in their rooms, in the Eagle Block.

There will be no trouble for visitors who attend the Odd Fellows convention here next Wednesday.

The March pay day on the Beech Creek railroad was one of the largest in the history of the road.

The Children's Aid Society have concluded to change the date of holding their fair to Wednesday.

On page 6 will be found a complete list of the patrons of the Commercial Telephone company.

The individual property owners of our town should not forget that next Wednesday, the 26th, there will be several thousand Odd Fellows.

IN THE COURT HOUSE.

Legal Intelligence Gathered from Various Offices.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

- C. E. Hackenbush - Spring Mills
Jennie M. Shaffer - "
Wilbur B. Brown - Philipsburg
Sarah E. Tyson - "
Robert Condo - Boalsburg
Mary Brown - "
Harry Heverly - Blanchard
Nettie Lindsey - Beech Creek
James M. Keller - Pine Grove Mills
Sarah Allanda Markle - Tyrono
John D. Toot - Bellefonte
Hattie W. Greger - "
REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Geo. Y. Meek et ux to Joseph F. Myers, April 1, 1899; 134 acres 39 perches in Ferguson twp. $6092.10.

Wm. T. Irvin et ux to Wm. H. Green, March 21, 1899; 32 acres 151 perches in Union twp. $468.

Geo. I. Cornelius et ux to Mary S. Thomas July 28, 1899; for 1 acre and 72 perches in Half Moon twp. $330.

David W. Miller adm'ts to Anna Olive Roush, April 1, 1899; for lot of ground in Pine Grove Mills. $550.

Jasper A. Brumgart et ux to John Wolf, April 1, 1899; lot No. 1 and 4 in West Rebersburg, Miles twp. $1500.

Elizabeth Myers et al to Emanuel B. Peters, April 7, 1899; house and lot at Oak Hall Station. $340.

Elizabeth Lingle to Emma R. Decker, March 9, 1898; 40 perches in Potter twp. $50.

Jos. B. Ard, surviving trustee to Wilson Potter Ard, April 11, 1899; 172 acres in Ferguson twp. $1.

Emma R. Decker et al to Samuel Bruss, March 28, 1899; 40 perches in Potter twp. $57.

Fernando P. Hoy et ux to S. P. Hockman, March 25, 1899; 110 acres and 85 perches in Walker twp. $3850.

Geo. W. Kreamer et ux to W. E. Bair, March 31, 1899; 17 acres and 139 perches in Miles twp. $1800.

Tyrone Mining and Manufacturing Co. to P. B. Crider et al, April 14, 1899; 579 acres and 55 perches in Halfmoon and Ferguson twps. $5250.

Amos Oberdorff et ux to J. W. Lee, March 25, 1899; 77 acres and 14 perches in Walker twp. $4150.

Blanch L. Neese et al to Roland Zettle, March 25, 1899; 21 acres and 12 perches in Gregg twp. $400.

J. L. Spangler et ux et al to William Colyer, April 3, 1899; 133 acres in Harris twp. $450.

Catharine W. Curtin to Henry J. Tibbens, April 18, 1899; lots in Bellefonte boro. $1 etc.

Samuel H. Guisewhite et ux to Hammond Sechler, April 14, 1899; lot of ground in Potter twp. $300.

H. W. Kreamer et ux et al to Mrs. Sarah Wolf, 1899; 1 acre and 16 perches in Miles twp. $120.

LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION. To Mary M. Holt upon the estate of Mary Ann Duey late of College Twp., deceased.

To J. Albert Walton upon the estate of W. E. Burchfield late of Philipsburg, deceased.

To Ephraim Bartholomew, upon the estate of Joseph Shaffer, late of Penn Twp., deceased.

To John J. Kelley and Mrs. Elizabeth Daley, upon the estate of Catharine Strong, late of Boggs Twp., deceased.

A Young Artist. William Potter, the young sculptor, is now home on a vacation and has rented a room in Milesburg where he will do some excellent work.

Growth Removed. Charles Grieb, aged 18 years, son of Daniel Grieb, of Nittany valley, submitted to a delicate operation in the Lock Haven hospital.

Miss Emma J. Aikens is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

The fishermen have not been catching many trout the past few days.

Samuel McWilliams died at his home at McVeytown last Thursday night.

A WONDERFUL COW.

Our legal friend, Clement Dale, Esq., a short time ago purchased a new cow from some farmer, residing in upper Bald Eagle. Her cowship at first seemed to be dissatisfied with her new surroundings, but in a few days was apparently reconciled to the situation.

HANDSOME QUARTERS.

The other day while strolling about town hunting items the writer dropped into the new offices of J. C. Meyer, Esq., and Wm. G. Runkle, Esq., on the second floor of Crider's Exchange.

RECENT DEATHS.

HUGH T. HARPHAM—Died Thursday afternoon at Altoona, of Bright's disease after an illness of about a week.

On September 22, 1847, he was married at Boalsburg to Miss Emma Speece, who survives him, together with the following children: George and Mrs. William Weld, of Altoona; Mrs. Frederick Halswit, of Haarlem, Holland, and A. C. Harpham, of New York.

MRS. MARY C. MILLER—Wife of Henry Miller, Sr., of Buffalo, N. Y., died at her home in that city Sunday morning at 3:00 o'clock, of cancer of the stomach.

MRS. MARY HASTINGS—Mrs. Mary Hastings, an aged widow lady residing on North Spring street this place, died Sunday night from old age, being in her 84th year.

MRS. MARY MASSEY—Died at Philadelphia, Friday, April 7, 1899, Elsie, wife of Joseph Massey, aged 26 years.

MRS. WM. KELLER—Died at Centre Hall on Saturday evening from pneumonia. Was buried at that place on Tuesday morning.

MICHAEL SWARTZ—Died at the home of his son, near Orangeville, Ill., on Friday morning, 7th inst. Michael Swartz was born near Millheim, Centre county, Pa., and was 77 years, 8 months and 16 days old.

REV. JAS. MCGARRAH—who for many years served different congregations in the Central Pennsylvania M. E. conference, and who at one time was presiding elder of the Altoona district died at Ennisville, Huntingdon county, Friday from the effect of a paralytic stroke.

MRS. KATE STRONG—A widow lady, died at her home in Boggs township, four miles from Milesburg, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, of cancer of the stomach.

MRS. JOSEPH MASSEY—Died at Philadelphia, Friday, April 7, 1899, Elsie, wife of Joseph Massey, aged 26 years.

JOHN DACEY—An aged Irishman, who lived by himself in a cabin at Coleville, died Thursday afternoon from old age.

MRS. WM. KELLER—Died at Centre Hall on Saturday evening from pneumonia. Was buried at that place on Tuesday morning.

MICHAEL SWARTZ—Died at the home of his son, near Orangeville, Ill., on Friday morning, 7th inst. Michael Swartz was born near Millheim, Centre county, Pa., and was 77 years, 8 months and 16 days old.

Another Robbery.

Saturday evening the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lonsberry, on South Spring, street was entered and about $25 in money taken.

Boys in Jail.

The young son of George Spangler, of Eagleville, who was admitted to the Lock Haven hospital Monday, with a fractured skull, caused by being hit by a stone, is improving.

Better Mail Service.

B. S. Fellows, chief clerk of the railway mail service at Williamsport, this week inspected with the purpose of giving an opinion on the propriety of establishing railway mail service over the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania between Mill Hill and Bellefonte.

Preserves advertisement with image of a jar and text describing the product's quality and availability.

Refined Paraffine Wax advertisement with image of a wax candle and text describing its uses.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Among the business matters attended to on Monday evening the following is most important:

As Mayor Naginey refused to administer the oath to the two policemen selected by council, they were directed to appear before a Justice of the Peace and be qualified.

A crusade was started by some of the council against allowing people to sod and put stones outside of the gutters.

An arc light was ordered to be placed in front of the A. M. E. church, also one east of Mallory's blacksmith shop.

Robert Kline and Harry T. Miller were elected substitute policemen for the ensuing year to act on all special occasions.

The organ recital in the Presbyterian church, on Tuesday evening, was largely attended. The program rendered by Miss Woods, soloist of New York, and Miss Newbaker, organist of Bellefonte, was highly appreciated by the audience.

"Courage and Strength in Times of Danger."

Read the warning between the lines. What is that warning? It is of the danger from the accumulation of badness in the blood, caused by the usual heavy living of the Winter months.

Follow the principle that Nature lays down. Start in at once and purify your blood with that great specific, Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Crip—"Sixteen weeks of grip made me weak, but after all else failed Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me. Later I overworked, and dyspepsia and canker in mouth and stomach bothered me.

Rheumatism—"Myself and a friend both suffered from severe attacks of rheumatism. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured both.

Head and Back—"For one year pains in my back and head prevented my household duties. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and am a well woman.

Hood's Sarsaparilla advertisement with logo and text 'Never Disappoints'.

Founded in 1870.

FAIR INVESTMENT FINE GOODS

All the Spring goods in and they are a neat and good lot of Oxfords and other shoes at very moderate prices.

Give us a trial is all we ask.

The oldest shoe house in Centre County.

POWERS SHOE CO., BUSH ARCADE, BELLEFONTE, PENNA. advertisement.

The Way to be Beautiful.

Every lady wishes to appear attractive. By using "Creary" Wafers you will become so.

Table listing market prices for various commodities like flour, sugar, and other goods.