—The party of silk mill men, who were here some time ago to locate an enterprise in our town, have abandoned the project. Negotiations are still in progress with another firm who look upon Bellefonte with much favor. Nothing definite has been reached in regard to the latter.

—A large plate glass window in Joseph & Co's store was broken on Saturday by the window blind and roll falling from its support. The end struck near the sash and broke through the glass. This is the second large glass broken in these windows, but they are fortunate in having them insured.

—The Robert Valentine house on Allegheny and Curtin streets will be occupied by Mrs. Merriman, of Yonkers, N. Y., for three years. In forsaking their home here for Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Valentine are not leaving Bellefonte for good, but simply for a change and to be with their daughter, Mrs. Bond, where Emily has spent most of her time for several years. Mrs. Merriman is an aunt of Mrs. H. C. Quigley and the widow of a prominent navy officer and with her family, will take possession of the house at once.

—Very little attention was paid in our town to Dewey Day. Several merchants having out flags, but the average citizen paid no attention to the holiday. The fact is we are getting too many holidays that they lose their force and meaning. Dewey is all right, but his holiday is hardly a success.

—Monday morning, of last week, Pack Cowdrick, of Niagara Falls, fell from a scaffold sixteen feet high and crushed his skull at the base of the brain and burst the trumpet of his left ear. He was unconscious for several days and his recovery is doubtful. He is the son of Morris Cowdrick, formerly of Bellefonte but now of Niagara Falls, and a brother of Mrs. A. S. Garman, of Tyrone.

—Prof. A. Reist Rutt, principal of the Bellefonte High School, was elected superintendent of the public schools of Milton, Pa., on Tuesday, and will accept the same. His term begins June 1st when he will remove to that place. The salary is $1200. —Adams & Cronister's Consolidated International Menagerie and Hippedrome circus will give their first exhibition in the Bellefonte jail yard, on June 14th. It will require about 50 yards of muslin to construct their mammoth tents. The price of admission has not been determined but the press, no doubt, will be extended the usual courtesies. The proprietors of this enterprise are Messrs Lee Adams and Chester Cronister, two experienced showmen of this place.

No Light for Tyrone's Streets. Tyrone's council having refused to accept the contract of the Home Electric Light company for illuminating the streets of that place, the current has been shut off and the streets are now in darkness at night, the thoroughfares will, in all probability, remain in darkness until council either secures its own plant or contracts with some firm. Tyrone has been paying seventy-five dollars per light per year in the past and they offered a compromise of seventy dollars per light to the company, which was flatly refused. The general sentiment is in favor of the council's action and also in favor of the municipal ownership.

The Lock Factory. The Houser Springless Lock Company have the new factory building completed and all the machinery is here but not in place yet. The foreman, an experienced lock maker, will be here likely next Monday to commence putting everything in working order. It will not be long anymore until the plant will be in full blast turning out the new locks. They anticipate a ready market for their product and a gradual enlargement of their plant. They have every assurance of having a good invention.

Telephone News. This week the Commercial Telephone line was extended from Centre Hall to Potters Mills, Tusseyville and Colyer. At Centre Hall only four phones are working as the company was disappointed and delayed in the shipment of their switch board for Centre Hall exchange, at which point they will control about forty instruments.

Peach Crop a Failure. Nittany Valley peach growers state that the crop in that section is a complete failure this year. There are no blossoms appearing on the trees in any of the orchards and some of the growers say they will not have a peach.

Critical Conditions. Reuben Frantz, the young man indicted for barn burning, who shot himself last week, at his home near Port Matilda, is still in a very critical condition and his recovery is considered doubtful.

I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have used all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found one remedy that has been a success as a cure, and that is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.—P. E. GRISHAM, Gaars Mills, La. For sale by F. POTTS GREEN, Druggist, Bellefonte, Pa.

BELLEFONTE ROBBERS.

During the past month numerous house robberies have occurred in this community and no one thus far has been apprehended. On Thursday morning of last week a burglar entered the house of Mr. Bert Hogue on East Bishop street. Mrs. Hogue was awakened during the night by a man reaching under her pillow and seizing her purse. Her husband was out that night running a special train on C. R. R. of Pa., on account of the Odd Fellows and she was alone. She gave a scream and the man quickly ran away taking his plunder with him amounting to $20. All the silverware down stairs had been packed up, but in his haste to escape it was left behind. He went out the front door.

Next Mrs. Louisa Bush's residence on Spring street was entered at night and in going through the room of her granddaughter, Louise Callaway, she was awakened and screamed. The burglar escaped by a window over a porch.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to gain an entrance to Howard Lingle's residence.

Everybody should retire at night by placing a loaded revolver of large calibre beside their beds. There are some noted sneak thieves in this town who, for some time, have been suspected. It would not be a mistake to puncture such chaps caught stealing. No matter if you would knock a leg off, perforate a lung or spatter their brains out against a wall. Killing is what a house breaker deserves, and the sooner he gets his medicine the better for this community. Such a carcass would not deserve even a Christian burial—throw it in a sink hole for crows and rats to eat.

BUFFALO BILL.

Everybody who can possibly do so will doubtless take a holiday when "Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders of the World" exhibits at Tyrone Pa., May 17th, for which important event the railroads have made special preparations to accommodate their patrons, and will offer low round-trip rates. Differing, as it does, from all other exhibitions, Buffalo Bill's Wild West stands as a living monument of historic and educational magnificence. The Queen's own Lancers, Mexicans, South American Gauchos, and last, but not least, our own fearless cowboys. Buffalo Bill (Col. Cody) positively appears at every performance.

Council Meeting.

At council meeting, on Monday, little important business was transacted. The following report of the finance committee was made:

Table with financial data: Bal. due Treas. March 6, 1899, $1,890.93; Boro orders paid, 998.22; Water, 352.44; Interest, 666.66; Total, $3,908.25; Rec'd from water committee, $5.20; High constable, 4.00; Bal. due Treas., $3,899.05.

A boardwalk from Curtin street to John Wagner's residence on North Spring street was ordered. Fire plug in front of the Hale property was ordered repaired. Bills to the amount of $646.40 were approved.

Knights of Pythias.

The seventh annual reunion of the Knights of Pythias of the First District of Pa., will meet at Curwensville, Pa., on Thursday, June 8, 1899, under the auspices of Curwensville Lodge No. 489, K. of P.

The object of this association is to bring the various lodges of this district into closer fraternal relations, and to promote the welfare of the order at large. Speakers of national prominence will be present at the public afternoon meeting. A complete program will be issued about May 10th, 1899.

Illegal Fishing.

One day last week three men from the glass works caught ten large trout in the bottom of the old canal near the C. R. R. of Pa. Station, with their hands. A small spring and shallow water enabled them to do this. County Detective Joseph Rightmour was informed by different parties of this violation of the fish law and he at once notified the offenders, who admitted to the charge and paid a fine of $18. It was perfectly right. Now we hope that some of the chaps who catch trout with nets will be pulled in likewise.

Permanent Examination.

There was an examination for permanent certificates held in the arbitration room in the court house, Friday and Saturday, April 27th and 28th. Five were in the class, viz.—Misses M. Ella Ward, Florence Temple Long and Nancy Holt, of Phillipsburg; C. V. DeLong, of Romola; and W. G. Woomer, of Fleming. The committee consisted of Jas. Gregg, chairman, Miss Ella Levy and J. O. Harpster. They reported pretty favorably toward all the applicants.

The Modest Candidate.

"Gentlemen!" shouted the candidate for the post of constable, when it came his turn to talk, "I'm no hand to brag. Some of my enemies has charged me with favorin' my friends and makin' mistakes in the servin' of papers while I held the office I'm seekin' to fill another term. All I got to say is that I done the best I could and that I kin do better now I've got my hand in."

Gentlemen, I'm ready to stand or fall by my record. Look what this here grand and glorious country has done since you made me your constable, two years back. You've had the biggest crop you've had for years, and you know it. The weather has been the best the oldest inhabitant ever saw. We've bluffed England in that Venezuela matter since I became constable; we've h'isted the American flag in Cubey and the Philippine Islands; we've got business off the sick list and things is beginnin' to hum; we've been layin' up money; farmers is gittin' rid of their mortgages and even fish and game is gittin' aplentier, because we protect 'em. I'm not blowin', for facts is things that speak for themselves. "Do you want these here conditions to continue in our country or not? Are you for prosperity or agin it? If you are for it, vote for me. If you are agin it, vote for my reptile opponent."

Important Decision.

His Honor Judge Love has given an opinion to the county commissioners regarding the payment of bounty on scalps of foxes and minks, as provided for in act of assembly of July 1897, and makes the county liable for payment of the same. This act was amended April 11, 1899, and the judge's opinion, therefore, applies only to the interim between the passage of the original act in 1897 and its recent amendment.
