

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT

The News Gathered From Various Sections

HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What Our Army of Alert Correspondents See and Observe Worthy of Note—The Local Happenings of Every Community Will be Gladly Published—Send the News, We will Publish It.

Port Matilda.

Miss Gertrude Bennett is visiting friends at Bald Eagle. Joseph Coughlin is around again after a shaking up with chills and a severe cold. Port Matilda has a drum corps in addition to a cornet band. Our town always is up to date with any paying enterprise. James T. Marks and A. J. Johnson, are working on the construction of A. W. Reese's new Racket Store room at Mill Hill.

S. R. Pringle, at the corner store, says he will sell a No. 1 pair of shoes for socks. Try him next Saturday; you will get them all right.

The many friends of Miles Hoover extend their condolence and sympathy in the bereavement of their child who died a few days since.

Mrs. James Patton has returned home from a Philadelphia hospital. Although yet weak, she was greatly benefited by being operated on for a tumorous growth.

Miss Grace Reese, lady manager of the millinery department of A. W. Reese's Racket store will on next Saturday sell hats at 20c. each. Our merchants mean business and that's no joke.

The lady members of the U. B. church will give a supper in Port Matilda on Decoration Day. The proceeds are for parsonage improvements. A festival and supper will be held both afternoon and evening.

Opposition is the life of trade. Charley Crain, of the Willow Tree store, sold on last Saturday three papers of 8ct size corn starch for 20c., and next Saturday he will sell three cans of 9ct size corn for 20c., and look out for bargains on Decoration Day.

The fishing season has opened up lively along the Bald Eagle creek. The banks are often filled with lady anglers with rod and line in hand. Some meet with poor success, as did the young lady clerk from the corner store one; small speckled beauty was her share for one day's patient fishing.

PORT MATILDA CROP REPORT:—The wheat crop in this section of county looks promising at present, also the apple crop bids fair to be large, but the smaller fruits will be a light crop. From all appearance corn planting is about finished. The oats look well.

DOES THIS STRIKE YOU? Muddy complexion, nauseating breath come from chronic constipation. Karl's Clover Root Tea is an absolute cure and has been sold for fifty years on an absolute guarantee. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Walker.

William Aley, of Kane, is in our vicinity. Miss Kate Condo is suffering from a very sore hand.

Earnest Stine, of Pleasant Gap, was in our vicinity on Sunday.

Sam'l Kling, one of our highly esteemed young men, is at home again.

Calvin Kling has returned from Johnstown where he had been working.

Mrs. C. M. Fox and Miss Alice Harter made a business trip to Bellefonte on Friday.

Mrs. Peter Butler, of Flemington, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wasson.

W. P. Lucas and family, of Howard, spent Wednesday afternoon of last week, at the home of Calvin Harter.

Your correspondent is able to enjoy fresh air after having been confined to the house with grip, since January.

Mrs. David Meyers and son, of Brush Valley, were shaking hands with their many friends at this place. They were former residents of this place.

SOCIAL GATHERING:—On Thursday evening of last week a number of young ladies and gentlemen were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lutz, to spend the evening in social intercourse. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, etc., were served. They report having spent a pleasant evening.

DIED:—On Wednesday morning, May 10th, at 2 o'clock, Mrs. Maria Glossner, aged 71 years, 7 months and 15 days, at the home of her son Reuben Glossner, of near Jacksonville. She was an invalid for a number of years and had been confined to her bed for several months. The funeral took place on Friday morning; she was a member of the Disciple church. Services were held in the United Evangelical church at Jacksonville by Rev. Bair. Interment was made in the United Evangelical cemetery. Three children survive to mourn her loss—two sons and a daughter; her husband and one son having died a number of years ago.

TELL YOUR SISTER A beautiful complexion is an impossibility without good pure blood, the sort that only exists in connection with good digestion, a healthy liver and bowels. Karl's Clover Root Tea acts directly on the bowels, liver and kidneys keeping them in perfect health. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Linden Hall.

Our early farmers are through planting corn. Samuel Ripka entertained George Mowery, of Centre Hall, over Sunday.

W. S. Brooks, wife and little daughter, made a business trip to Bellefonte Friday last.

J. Andrew Gettig and sister Lizzy spent Monday with their sister, Valiria at State College.

Squire Meyers, of the branch, Sundayed at the Wind house. Squire is a master hand at giving comic recitations.

Ed. Kerlin, one of Centre Hall's young sports, was seen riding through town on Saturday evening on his wheel. Ed. can make'er go.

The services in Boalsburg last week, relative to the Classis, were interesting and were well attended. Some excellent sermons were preached.

Calvin Thomas, of Centre Hall enjoys riding a wheel. On Saturday afternoon he rode to this village and called to see his cousins, the Feilding boys.

Misses Annie Corl and Alice Meese, of Pleasant Gap, visited the Brooks ladies over Sunday. They are both pleasant ladies and in for a good time, which they had while here.

A party in this place is always kicking about the items gotten up from here and calling the scribe a liar and almost everything else, when the article written was the truth. There are some people who do not like to hear the truth spoken unless it is something to elevate them in the sight of others. Look out sonny, you might blow up and bust.

FOR SALE: W. H. Fielding is offering his horse, buggy and harness for sale. Will sell as a whole or in part—terms to suit the buyer. Horse is six years old—Woodlawn-dappled-bay bred and raised by J. I. Thompson of Lemont. An excellent driver and safe. The horse weighs 1050. H. A. Taylor buggy, made to order in '97, Corning body, hung low, good as new. New single strap harness. Call and see or address him at this office.

HOW IS YOUR WIFE? Has she lost her beauty? If so, Constipation, Indigestion, Sick Headache are the principal causes. Karl's Clover Root Tea has cured these ills for half a century. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. Money refunded if results are not satisfactory. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Wolfs Store.

Some of our young men are running race for girls.

Mr. Fred Hartman and wife spent last Sunday in Sugarvalley.

Ambrose Douting and wife spent last Sunday visiting in Sugarvalley.

Mr. Jeremiah Brungart was to Millheim on business, last Saturday.

Mr. Daniel Delcamp and wife were to Millburg over Sunday visiting.

Mr. D. B. Meyer and wife, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting in Nittany.

Mr. Geo. Weaver and wife, from Feidler, were callers at O. H. Wolfe's, last Sunday.

Mr. Jerome Burmgart, our medicine man, declares he saw a fox and cat fight last Saturday.

Mr. Cyrus Zeigler and family and I. E. Zeigler and wife visited in Sugarvalley, last week.

Dr. Hosterman and family, from Rebersburg, were guests at C. D. Weavers, at this place, last Sunday.

Mr. Caphas Sheets and Mr. Bradford, from Aaronsburg, were guests at the home of Jonathan Sheets, last Sunday.

Rev. Reamer, P. E., will preach in the United Evangelical church at this place, Saturday evening, June 10th, at 7:30 o'clock.

Our road supervisor is busy with a gang of men repairing the public roads which are at some places in a very bad condition.

Stormstown.

Miss Edith Harlachner is visiting friends in Tyrone.

Mrs. Dr. Bigelow is visiting her daughter at DuBois.

John Sellers, of Tyrone, visited his mother several days last week.

Prof. Tudor and Prof. J. A. Hunter, of State College, spent Sunday at the latter's home.

Miss Ethel Runyan left on Tuesday for Salona where she will visit her uncle Rev. Runyan.

George Elder, a well known lawyer of Lewistown, spent several days with his sister, Mrs. John A. Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Wav, of State College, spent Sunday with Mrs. Way's mother, Mrs. Simon Sellers.

Rev. Runyan will hold communion services in the M. E. Church, at this place, next Sabbath morning.

Irvin Gray left for Cleveland, Ohio, with one of his fast horses which he intends to sell at public sale. He also expects to bring a blue blood home with him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lever left last week on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Geo. Wilson, of Fort Carrol, Colorado. They were accompanied by their daughter Mrs. Baer and husband, of Philadelphia.

I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have used all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found one remedy that has been a success as a cure, and that is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.—P. E. GRISHAM, Gaats Mills, La. For sale by F. POTTS GREEN, Druggist, Bellefonte, Pa.

Spring Mills.

Many candidates and only few will get there, but all feel confident.

Bill posters for the great Wallace show passed through here last Saturday.

Smith Bros. are hustling the couch and rocker trade, and will not be undersold.

Rev. Reacker held communion services last Sunday; the choir rendered some choice music.

J. C. Harper, of Bellefonte, passed through this section, shaking hands with his many friends.

M. L. Smith, of Johnstown, the installment hustler, spent a day with his brothers and looking up our business.

Samuel Wiser and William Tobias, of Millheim, paid Centre Castle of K. G. E. a visit last Saturday evening. Come again.

John Grove, a near townsman, is always supplied with samples of coal. They are not hard to get, Long's coal yard is handy.

Mockel Snyder bought a half interest of John Runkle's meat market. They buy nothing but the best of beef cattle. They should have all the patronage. Fresh beef brought to your door every morning.

WHO IS TO BLAME? Women as well as men are made miserable by kidney and bladder trouble. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root the great kidney remedy promptly cures. At druggists in fifty cent and dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Aaronsburg.

James Wert, of Tusseyville, was the guest of his father, Jerre Wert, in this place on Sunday.

Rev. Schoch spent several days in town last week as the guest of his brother-in-law, M. Musser.

Mrs. Bentes Kremer, of Rebersburg, spent a day last week at the residence of Mr. H. H. Weaver, on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolfe, of Clintondale, visited the lady's parents, Alfred Keener's, in this place over Sunday.

Among those from our town who spent Ascension Day in fishing we noticed J. Warren Beaver and Miss Mabel Weaver.

A Mr. Rossman and his two sisters, of Penn Hill, spent Saturday in this place, being the guests of their sister, Mrs. Wert.

William Boob and family, of Centre Hall, were down on Sunday to visit the gentleman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boob.

Rev. Brown and Thos. Harper returned on Monday from classis held at Boalsburg last week in the Reformed church.

Communion services were held in the Lutheran church of this place on Sunday morning and evening, which were largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meyer and little daughter, of Centre Mills, spent Sunday at the residence of Mrs. J. G. Meyer on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Boob and baby left for Freeburg, Snyder county, last week, where they are the guests of the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glass.

Mr. Philips, an aged gentleman of Akron, Ohio, is visiting his son in this place, merchant W. H. Phillips. He has not been here for many years.

Gross Yearick, of Philadelphia, and his mother of Centre Hall, Mrs. Thos. Yearick, are the guests of Mrs. F. J. Foster on Main street at present.

Station agent Will Musser and family, of Spring Mills, were the guests of the gentleman's father, Postmaster Mr. and Mrs. Musser, in this place on Sunday.

Teachers examination was held in the grammar school room of this place last Friday by Supt. Gramley and the seven applicants all passed a creditable examination.

William Bright, of Mansfield, Ohio, a former citizen of our village, arrived in town recently and is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Ed. Brown. The gentleman is looking well and hearty and undoubtedly the West agrees with him.

At a meeting of the Reform Sunday school, held recently, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Superintendent—Stewart Weber; Asst. Supt.—Clymer H. Stover; Secretary—John Detwiler; Treasurer—Mrs. W. H. Phillips; Librarian—Wm. Keister; Asst. Librarian—W. C. Mingle.

Twenty-one little girls gave Beulah, the 4-year old daughter of Henry Beaver, an agreeable birthday surprise party on last Friday evening. She was the recipient of many pretty and useful presents, and the little folks all had an enjoyable time. During the latter part of the evening refreshments were served, to which the little folks did ample justice.

ON EVERY BOTTLE Of Shiloh's Consumption Cure is this guarantee:—All we ask of you is to use two-thirds of the contents of this bottle faithfully, then if you say you are not benefited return the bottle to your Druggist and he may return the price paid. Price 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

CONSUMPTION IS PREVENTABLE. Science has proven that, and also that neglect is suicidal. The worst cold or cough can be secured with Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure. Sold on positive guarantee for over fifty years. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

DO YOU KNOW? Consumption is preventable. Science has proven that, and also that neglect is suicidal. The worst cold or cough can be secured with Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure. Sold on positive guarantee for over fifty years. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

BOYD VONADA, left for Jersey Shore on Friday.

There will not be much fruit in this section.

James E. Harter and wife, spent Sunday in Brushvalley.

Peter Kiser and wife spent Sunday with friends at this place.

Jacob Wagner and wife, of Boalsburg, visited their son a few days.

Mr. Kulp and family, of Milroy, visited friends at this place on Sunday.

Messrs Fisher and Reifsnnyder started on Tuesday morning, in a boat, for Harrisburg.

The new creamery firm, at this place, started in business on Monday. Success to them.

Benton Boyer, of Colyer, was spending a day at this place last week on business.

A car load of horses was shipped on Tuesday morning, from Coburn to Trenton, N. J.

Jacob Kersteter and R. F. Vonada, made a visit at Feidler and Aaronsburg on Sunday.

Our young folks are taking advantage of the fine weather and good roads on their bicycles.

E. Braucht, A. Evert and C. Kersteter made a trip to McElhatten on their bicycles on Saturday.

GEORGETOWN NEWS.

There is also a new style for painting houses, they use machine oil and black-strap.

Our town is dull since all the works have stopped. The band don't play, and even the dogs don't bark any more.

The farmers are through planting corn. There will be about half a wheat crop around here, but the grass looks well.

A good many people wonder what has become of the Georgetown man. He is not dead and you shall hear once more from him.

People wonder why the Major wears his hat on one side so much. It is because he is getting a son-in-law in the near future.

Some of our boys have a new style of going to see their best girls. They take a lantern, a fiddle and a Bible along. How is that girls?

We had a fishery started, but it stopped; things don't go right here any more. They have a fishery at Drum Station as Billy and Tommy are fishing every Saturday evening. Billy, you are a dandy, you can fish four evenings in a week.

The Sober correspondent is waiting for the Georgetown man to tell the facts about the polecat den. Will say that the company is busted, and everything has gone up the spout and it is all because the scribe at Georgetown stopped writing for the paper, but I hope the boys will revive and start up again.

Includes the Barbers. The new mercantile license law which goes into force next year, embraces all those barbers who have for sale soaps, perfumeries, hair oil, cosmetics, etc. The license they will be called upon to pay amounts to two dollars a year.

Howard.

Dr. L. R. Hensyl purchased a new buggy.

J. L. DeHaas and son Charles drove to Bellefonte last Friday.

The new merchant, Mr. Crane, is doing a rushing business.

We are pleased to say that John McElwain seems somewhat better.

John Miles, wife and son, of Milesburg, were guests of Mrs. H. T. Lucas on Sunday.

M. S. Betz and his intended, Miss Alice, drove gayly through our town on Sunday.

Cline Q. Confer and family, of Beech Creek, visited his brother, W. E. Confer, last Sunday.

Misses Catharine and Minnie Confer are visiting their uncle, Cline Q. Confer, of Beech Creek.

The members of the Evangelical church expect to build a parsonage in the near future, beside the church.

Wm. Custard, the expert paperhanger and wife, of Lamar, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dietz last Sunday.

John Meese and wife and Miss Nellie Conley, of Bellefonte, were visiting at the home of Mrs. H. T. Lucas on Sunday.

Mrs. L. E. Snyder, of Blanchard, was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dietz on Wednesday of the past week.

Mr. Prick and wife, of Beech Creek, were in our town on Sunday. Rev. Prick preached in the Christian Chapel, on Sunday evening.

Our town is being built up slowly, two new houses are to be erected soon. The one house is being built by Christ Schenck, and the other by John Schenck.

Samuel Grenninger and his better half expect to start housekeeping and will occupy the Candy property, now owned by Lucas & Bro., in the near future.

Charles Lucas, while riding his wheel some few days ago, had the misfortune to take a tumble and severely hurt his arm. At this writing he is much better.

H. Wellington Fletcher is now working for the Pensy Co. at Milesburg. Any of his lady friends who may wish to correspond will just address him at the above place.

The Howard High School is now in a flourishing condition under the principalship of Prof. Ira McCloskey, of Lock Haven. We bespeak for the school a fair patronage.

The members of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church held their tenth anniversary last Sunday evening. The program and exercises were good and the house was crowded.

We were pleased to see John D. Thompson on our streets again, after being confined to the house for several months. He looks fairly well, better than one could expect, after so long a sickness.

The new wagon, built for Prof. Latshaw, is almost completed. It looks like a summer house on wheels. Just when the Prof. and his family expect to take their departure in their new house is not known.

Coburn.

Boyd Vonada, left for Jersey Shore on Friday.

There will not be much fruit in this section.

James E. Harter and wife, spent Sunday in Brushvalley.

Peter Kiser and wife spent Sunday with friends at this place.

Jacob Wagner and wife, of Boalsburg, visited their son a few days.

Mr. Kulp and family, of Milroy, visited friends at this place on Sunday.

Messrs Fisher and Reifsnnyder started on Tuesday morning, in a boat, for Harrisburg.

The new creamery firm, at this place, started in business on Monday. Success to them.

Benton Boyer, of Colyer, was spending a day at this place last week on business.

A car load of horses was shipped on Tuesday morning, from Coburn to Trenton, N. J.

Jacob Kersteter and R. F. Vonada, made a visit at Feidler and Aaronsburg on Sunday.

Our young folks are taking advantage of the fine weather and good roads on their bicycles.

E. Braucht, A. Evert and C. Kersteter made a trip to McElhatten on their bicycles on Saturday.

GEORGETOWN NEWS.

There is also a new style for painting houses, they use machine oil and black-strap.

Our town is dull since all the works have stopped. The band don't play, and even the dogs don't bark any more.

The farmers are through planting corn. There will be about half a wheat crop around here, but the grass looks well.

A good many people wonder what has become of the Georgetown man. He is not dead and you shall hear once more from him.

People wonder why the Major wears his hat on one side so much. It is because he is getting a son-in-law in the near future.

Some of our boys have a new style of going to see their best girls. They take a lantern, a fiddle and a Bible along. How is that girls?

We had a fishery started, but it stopped; things don't go right here any more. They have a fishery at Drum Station as Billy and Tommy are fishing every Saturday evening. Billy, you are a dandy, you can fish four evenings in a week.

The Sober correspondent is waiting for the Georgetown man to tell the facts about the polecat den. Will say that the company is busted, and everything has gone up the spout and it is all because the scribe at Georgetown stopped writing for the paper, but I hope the boys will revive and start up again.

Includes the Barbers. The new mercantile license law which goes into force next year, embraces all those barbers who have for sale soaps, perfumeries, hair oil, cosmetics, etc. The license they will be called upon to pay amounts to two dollars a year.

Rebersburg.

Mrs. Elvina Bierly is having a summer house built at the south end of her home.

Supt. C. L. Gramley is now busy conducting teachers' examinations over our county.

Frank Reed, of our burg, left for Lock Haven on Monday, where he expects to find employment until harvest.

There is nothing the matter with merchant Howard Miller's new house this far. Howard knows how to manage the silver eagle.

Hon. Henry Meyer left for Loganton on Saturday, near which place he attended the sale of his sister, Mrs. Polly Price, deceased, and spent the Sunday with his near relatives.

When the unpleasant news came to our burg about Grover Cleveland, on Monday, some of our gold bugs were almost ready to draw the curtain of mourning over their faces, but the following day it was learned that the report was false.

Geo. Krumrine, of Philadelphia, and who is merchant Geo. Kreamer's right hand man, was in our burg a few days at the beginning of the week. George looks real well. On Friday he will have another eye operation performed in a Philadelphia hospital.

Look at the date after the name on the yellow label. It tells how you stand with the printer.

Mrs. Tate is able to be up and around again.

Herbert Klingler is the owner of a new wheel this week.

A certain young man in our town is pushing it very strong since Sunday evening.

Rev. Noble, of the M. E. church at State College, was visiting in our town last week.

Mr. Cronmiller, Miss Neidigh, Mr. Neidigh and Mr. Snyder, of Pine Hill, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Waite Sunday.

Miller Hartman received a handsome gold watch from his parents, as a birthday present. Miller is a good diligent boy and knows how to appreciate this token of esteem from his parents.

Jacob Sunday says he likes to ride a wheel and that he enjoys riding it as much as people enjoy watching him. Those who saw him say it was as good as a circus to see him mount the animal. He was in front, behind and on both sides of the wheel. He rode sideways and crossways and finally landed in the gulley. Try again Jacob, you are not the only one of our boys who has been piled up.

The Epworth League, of this place, attended the tenth anniversary of the Kennedy E. L. Sunday evening.

A festival will be held on the green, near Parker's store, by the members of the Epworth League; proceeds for the roofing of the church.

Mrs. J. M. Parker, son Paul and daughter Mrs. Morrison, of Bellefonte, drove to Jersey Shore Tuesday, where they expect to spend some time with friends and relatives.

The Epworth League, of this place, attended the tenth anniversary of the Kennedy E. L. Sunday evening.

A festival will be held on the green, near Parker's store, by the members of the Epworth League; proceeds for the roofing of the church.

Mrs. J. M. Parker, son Paul and daughter Mrs. Morrison, of Bellefonte, drove to Jersey Shore Tuesday, where they expect to spend some time with friends and relatives.

The Epworth League, of this place, attended the tenth anniversary of the Kennedy E. L. Sunday evening.

A festival will be held on the green, near Parker's store, by the members of the Epworth League; proceeds for the roofing of the church.

Mrs. J. M. Parker, son Paul and daughter Mrs. Morrison, of Bellefonte, drove to Jersey Shore Tuesday, where they expect to spend some time with friends and relatives.

</