

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS

What Has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of Our People—What the Local Scribe Saw Worthy of Mention—A Week's Local News in a Few Words.

A shipment of 150 car loads of lake ore arrived on Sunday at the Empire furnace this place.

Fred Casey the mail agent on the Central railroad of Pennsylvania, began his runs last week.

Mrs. Edward Powers and her three children have gone to visit relatives at Minton Falls, N. Y.

Bruce Garman came back on Tuesday from a week's trip to Philadelphia where he attended the horse show.

Mrs. J. V. Thomas and daughter Mary arrived home last Friday, after spending the winter in Philadelphia.

The St. John's parochial school entertainment will be given at Garman's opera house on the night of June 27th.

The banquet of the State College Alumni association will be held at the University Inn, Saturday evening, June 10th.

There are plenty of applicants for the vacancies existing in the Bellefonte schools. Thus far no selection has been made.

The flower beds at the Penna. railroad station were fixed up on Saturday by the gardener, W. R. McCrea, of Altoona.

Last week Prof. Leete, of State College, coasted on his bicycle and was thrown off, breaking one of his arms and bruising his head.

Charles Longacre, formerly of this place, has secured an excellent position in the grocery department of Kauffman's store at Pittsburg, Pa.

At council meeting on Monday evening considerable minor business was transacted. Nothing of any special importance was considered.

Mrs. William Jenkins and little daughter, Dorothy, departed Thursday for Reading, Pa., where they will visit Mrs. Jenkins father, James Stott.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the entertainment of St. John's parochial schools, that will be given in Garman's opera house on the evening of June 27th.

Owing to a scarcity of steel the axe factory at Mill Hill will be compelled to shut down for a few weeks. As soon as the required supply of steel is received the factories will re-open.

Some fine large trout were caught in Spring Creek, in the boro limits this week. John Wagner caught five beauties whose combined length was 63 inches. They were nice to look at indeed.

The residence occupied by Geo. Eberhart, on Lamb street, was struck by lightning on Monday night and considerably damaged. No one was injured although the flash came close.

The Sunday train agitation has aroused our local theologians, who now have new topics for their discourses. There were some lively discourses in the different churches last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey York, of Warrior's Mark, spent Sunday with friends in town. Mr. York is the proprietor of the famous Malena remedies manufactured at that place from which he has realized handsomely.

Mrs. Robert H. Woodring, wife of letter carrier Woodring, of this place, returned home Saturday evening from an extended visit to her old home in Sweden. They have gone to housekeeping in rooms in Crider's exchange.

We are in receipt of an invitation to attend the 9th annual commencement of the Chester Springs Soldier's Orphan School, June 12 and 13, '99. This came from our friend Austin Curtin who has been superintendent of that institution for several years past.

The other day Mr. Vint Beckwith, who by the way holds the position of Justice of the Peace, at Hannah, was in town and paid us a short call. He had a bad mouth on him, which was caused by not holding a shot gun securely while shooting at a crow. From all appearance it was a question who got hurt the most, Mr. Beckwith or the crow.

Wilbur Tibbens, son of William H. Tibbens, a sturdy young democratic yeoman of College township, rode over two thousand miles on his "bike" last season, "between showers." He says he will break the record this year, as it will be a democratic year all round. If you know of any young farmer in Centre county that can beat this record, trot him out.

On Saturday morning Mr. D. W. McCloskey, one of Curtin township's well known and respected citizens, was an early caller at our office. He incidentally showed us several "Merit Cards" which he received over fifty years ago while attending school in that vicinity, also an old drawing of a white bear which is quite a novel piece of penmanship. Mr. McCloskey is just out from a protracted spell of illness.

Tyrone is making an effort to hold a band tournament at that place on June 28th and 29th.

Mrs. Joseph Ceaders is at present in Philadelphia visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Gilmour.

An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Harrison died on Tuesday evening. Funeral at 4 p. m., to-day.

On Monday about 30 head of sheep were killed on the farm of Samuel Slack, near Potters Mills, during a storm.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson died on Monday, aged about three years. Funeral Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. Bickle, of the Reformed church, is attending the commencement exercises of Franklin & Marshall college, at Lancaster, this week.

The ladies of the Reformed church will hold a strawberry ice cream social on the stone school house commons, this Thursday evening.

The warm weather apparently was too much for mailcarrier John Bair. Earl Tuten took his place on Wednesday until he recuperates.

Dr. Samuel A. Woods, a student at the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, was a pleasant caller on many of his friends in Bellefonte Monday.

Mrs. Margaret Brockerhoff who has been quite ill at the Brockerhoff House for several weeks past, improved sufficiently to be moved to her residence, where she will be more comfortable.

The Young People's Christian Union, of the U. B. church, will hold a lawn festival, Saturday evening June 10th, on the lawn opposite Gerberich's grist mill, on Thomas street. The Coleville band will be present to furnish music for the occasion. The public is cordially invited.

The Academy Tea and Assembly will take place on Tuesday evening, June 20th. Lettan and Chappel's full orchestra of twelve pieces from Williamsport will give a concert at the Academy during the serving of the tea and then later in the evening will furnish music for the assembly in the armory.

Miss Lou Harper expects to leave for West Virginia where she will visit her friend Mrs. Lydia Galway (nee Harris). Miss Rose Fox expects to spend her summer vacation among relatives at Newton, Kansas. Miss Mamie Butts contemplates going to Winber, Somerset Co., where her brother, Walter Butts, is about to open a new hotel.

The party who have a large silk mill at Sunbury and were considering Bellefonte for the location of another similar industry have dropped that idea and now are erecting a large addition to their plant in Sunbury 140x400 that will give employment to 400 additional people, making a total of 800 in all. The Sunbury plant was started in 1896 and has been increasing its capacity right along.

Miss Adaline Lyon, youngest daughter of W. A. Lyon, of this place, was taken to the Methodist hospital in Philadelphia last week supposed to be suffering with spasmodic neuralgia. On Tuesday Mrs. Lyon returned home as her little daughter's condition was much improved and no unfavorable turn was anticipated by the physicians. No operation was found necessary.

On Wednesday Sheriff Cronister returned from Philadelphia with his little nephew Morris, a son of Dallas Cronister, who had been in the hospital for several months past. The little boy drank lye which resulted in the tube to the stomach becoming contracted. Treatment in the hospital gave him little relief, but he is hearty and well but must subsist entirely on liquid nourishment. He will remain at home during the summer months, to return again in the fall.

Col. W. Fred Reynolds' chestnut sorrel stallion "Pride of the North" took the yellow ribbon, third prize, in class 14, at the Philadelphia horse show last week. The black gelding "Sunset" and his chestnut gelding "Sunrise" entered in class 29, for horses in harness over 15 1/2 hands shown before a T cart or phaeton, were entitled to third place. After the show the horse sale followed and all of his horses, nine in number, excepting "Pride of the North" were sold. This included the donkey, harness and cart.

The new school board held their first session on Monday evening. The following members were present: R. S. Brouse, H. P. Harris, John P. Harris, H. C. Quigley, G. W. Reese, David Haines, D. F. Fortney, A. C. Mingle and W. C. Heinle. David F. Fortney was elected president and John P. Harris treasurer. The vote for secretary resulted in a tie between H. C. Quigley and R. S. Brouse. Several ballots were taken without further result. The election of school teachers will be considered later.

The Wonders of Surgery. Lorain Hays, a private, who lost his nose in the battle of San Juan Hill, has had a new nose of gutta percha fixed in place, the layers of skin folded over it, and where they did not meet a graft from Hays' arm pieced them out. This miracle of surgery was performed at Bellevue hospital ten days ago, and the most remarkable thing about it is that the sense of smell has been restored to the wounded man.

Be sure and read the editorials on page four of this issue. It is important.

AN EPIDEMIC.

Quite a bit of uneasiness prevails among the farmers in the upper portion of Pennsylvania over a threatened epidemic among their cattle. Owing to the large area of pasturage in the seven mountains in what is known as the Bear Meadows, the farmers are accustomed to send in several hundred head of cattle during the summer months where the entire flock is herded by a man for that purpose. During the past season a herd of about three hundred cattle, mostly from Harris township, were in these meadows and recently an epidemic broke out among them. The cattle become feverish, run about in a wild manner and then drop over and die.

During the last two weeks no less than thirty-five head have perished. The owners are alarmed and have taken their cattle home so as to avoid further loss. On Monday the State Veterinary Surgeon was notified and he sent his deputy Dr. Cawley, from Milton, who with Dr. Rider, of Centre Hall, went to the meadows on Saturday and examined some of the carcasses from which they took some of the organs and sent same to Harrisburg for inspection.

Various theories are advanced. Some think the cattle may have died from eating laurel, others attribute it to poisoned salt, while some fear is entertained that the "Texas fever" broke out in the herd and may necessitate the killing of the entire lot. As much of the stock has been driven home, in such an event, there would be still greater danger.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

The Empire Furnace company turned out a fine quality of metal during the past week and the plant is now in full blast. As the iron market is improving there is every indication for a continuous operation.

The Central R. R. of Pa., is pushing things along rapidly. Most of the piers are finished for the long bridge across Spring creek and to span the Pa. R. R. tracks. On Tuesday Thomas Madden, Frank T. Davis and Chas. G. Bath, of the Phoenix Bridge Company arrived and are at work putting up trussing for the erection of the iron girders. Part of the new bridge arrived this week and shipments will come right along and will rapidly be put in place.

Another Robbery.

On Monday night Mrs. Charles Harrison, who lives over the bakery on Bishop street, had a startling experience. She was awakened from her sleep and saw a man in the room whom she thought was her husband. But when he reached under her pillow where she had placed a bag containing money she spoke to him and not receiving a reply grasped his arm. She clung to it for a moment and screamed for help but the intruder wrenched loose from her grip, and with the sack made a dash out the room and down stairs. He evidently caught the money sack by the bottom as all the coins dropped out on the floor and the stairway, about $20 in all, and when gathered up none was missing. John Harrison and family, who live in the same building heard the alarm and responded but no trace of the thief could be found. He left the back door open, by which way he made his departure.

The democratic candidates are on the round up of their canvass.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

The commencement exercises of the class of '99, of the Bellefonte High School, took place last Thursday after our paper had been printed, for that reason only a small notice could be given, and a week after only a brief synopsis may be in place. The afternoon and evening sessions were largely attended and everything connected therewith was a success. The graduating class consisted of Helen D. Musser, Elizabeth D. Hart, Mary E. McGarvey, Helen A. Williams, Katharyn Irvin, Effie Snyder, Mildred Barnhart, Ella C. Musser, M. Eulalie C. Williams, and Messrs W. Harris Cook, C. Jasper Stover, J. Henry Thomas, C. Frank Shroyer, M. Ward Fleming, Oran A. Kline, and Jerry E. Stine—Miss Helen D. Musser salutatorian, and Jerry E. Stine valedictorian.

In the evening an immense audience assembled to see and hear the venerable Alexander K. McClure, editor of the Philadelphia Times, who made the principal address to the members of the class. Col. McClure now past 80, and as he remarked, in the "mellow twilight of evening's life," is erect, stately and commanding in appearance, with a countenance that is ruddy and an eye that is bright, only betrays the traces of advancing years in a halting step and weak voice. The same master mind that has assisted in shaping the course of public affairs in both state and nation and in words of wisdom has attracted wide attention through the press, is as active as ever. His address to the graduating class was elegant, eloquent and appropriate.

He was followed by Gov. Hastings and D. F. Fortney, president of the School Board, whose remarks were appreciated and applauded. At the conclusion Mr. Fortney presented the class with the diplomas and then awarded the following prizes:

W. Fred Reynolds—Prize of $10 to the pupil of the graduating class ranking best for general excellence in whole course of study (4 years) in High School considering conduct and progress. Taken by Jerry E. Stine. 2 Prizes of $5 each offered by the Daughters of the Revolution to the boy and the girl who shall excel in the preparation of an essay on some topic relating to the Revolutionary war. Taken by Cameron McJarvey, boy; Laura Faxon, girl.

After the exercises a public reception was tendered to Col. McClure at Gov. Hastings' residence which was just completed and this was an appropriate time for a "house warming." Over a thousand people, rich and poor alike, accepted the invitation to meet Col. McClure and get a glimpse of the Gov's palatial new home.

CLOSING EXERCISES.

The following program was observed at the Stone Building, primary rooms, of our boro schools on Tuesday morning, by the departments under the instruction of Misses Bessie H. Dorworth, Francis Elmore and Mildred Smith:

March, "When Johnny comes marching home again." Psalm and prayer, school. "Beautiful hands," school. Song, "Welcome," school. Welcome address, David Harshberger. "The birds," class of girls. "Columbines," by class of girls. Recitation, Chas. Stewart. Song, "Come away," by school. "Rock a bye baby," by class. Recitation, Ivan Walker. "In far Manila bay," by class of girls. Recitation, by Elsie Altenderfer. "Spring flowers," class. Flag drill, ten boys. Recitation, Oscar Rishel. Hoop drill, by 14 boys and girls. Recitation, Jacob Levi. Civil Service Reform, by 5 boys. Recitation, Marge Jackson. Recitation Mable Gingham. "Flowers," class of girls. Recitation, Gaylor Rightnour. "Tea party," class. Recitation, Henry Mensinger. Song—"America," school. March—"Bring the good old bugle boys."

State Teachers' Meeting.

The Pennsylvania State Teachers' association will meet this year at Gettysburg from July 4 to 7 inclusive. The sessions of Tuesday, July 4, will be devoted to patriotic addresses, Hon. Marriott Brosious, of Lancaster, speaking in the afternoon, and Dr. John H. Harris, of Bucknell University, in the evening. The address of welcome will be delivered by Dr. H. W. McKnight, of Pennsylvania college, and State Superintendent Shaffer will respond. Superintendent E. Mackey, of Reading, president of the association, will deliver his inaugural address in the evening.

College Commencement.

Next week the annual commencement exercises at Pennsylvania State College take place, and promises to be largely attended. The opening event will be the Baccalaureate Sermon by Dr. L. M. Col'felt, of Philadelphia, at 10:30 a. m. Sunday. The graduating exercises will be on Wednesday morning; the commencement address to be delivered by Hon. Henry K. Carroll, U. S. Commissioner to Porto Rico.

RECENT DEATHS.

WILLIAM STAMM:—The woodsman who was brought to the Lock Haven hospital Tuesday evening, 30th, from North Bend, died Thursday morning. He had been very unfortunate during the last few years. About five weeks ago, while peeling rock oak bark in Brush Valley, he cut a deep gash in his foot with an axe. After the wound healed he went, about two weeks ago, to Young-woman's creek, where he secured employment on Blackwell's job.

Tuesday about noon the men had felled a hemlock tree, which fell on a maple near by. A heavy limb of the maple crashed to the earth, striking Mr. Stamm on the head and knocking him senseless to the ground. He was placed on a stretcher and carried to the camp. While on the way to the camp, the men stopped at a spring and bathed the injured man's wrists. He opened his eyes and with a great effort said, "Don't boys." Those were the last words, so far as is known, that he spoke.

Trepanning was resorted to, but the patient did not show any signs of improvement. He lingered in an unconscious state until he expired.

Mr. Stamm was 34 years old. His wife and five young children survive. His mother resides in Sevens, Kan. The following named brothers also survive: Howard, of Loganton; Eugene, of Kansas; and Andrew, of Missouri. The undertaker from Millheim arrived and took charge of the body.

PATRICK MURPHY:—Died at his home in Gaysport Sunday afternoon, after an illness of eighteen days of rheumatism and pneumonia, aged 47 years. By industry and perseverance he advanced from an ordinary laborer to a furnace founder, and in that capacity he had charge of Rodman McKee's Gap furnace for a number of years, and later had charge of the Collins Bros.' furnaces at Bellefonte.

CHARLES LEATHERS:—Died Monday evening at his home in McKeesport, Pa, with muscular rheumatism of the stomach. Deceased was 30 years of age and was born at Mt. Eagle, Centre county. He went to McKeesport several years ago. He was a member of the First Christian church. A widow and one little son, Allison survive him. Interment in McKeesport on Wednesday afternoon.

MRS. SUSAN DUNCAN:—Died at Washington, D. C., last Friday; buried at Phillipsburg on Monday morning. She was the mother of Wm. P. Duncan, of Lewisburg; sister-in-law of Mrs. W. W. Potter and an aunt of George L., John I. and James H. Potter of this place.

HAROLD SMITH:—Harold Guy, only child of Lloyd and Minnie Smith of this place, died on Saturday evening at a quarter of ten. The cause of death was a disease similar to spinal meningitis.

A UNION PICNIC

Of Reformed Congregations At Hecla Park On July 13th.

Rev. T. L. Bickle and Messrs A. Lukenbach and T. C. Bell, of Bellefonte, met representatives of St. Luke's Reformed church of Lock Haven Monday morning and made arrangements for the holding of a union picnic, the Sunday schools of Lock Haven and Nittany valley having voted in favor of such an excursion. It was decided to hold the picnic at Hecla on Thursday, July 13th, and that in addition to the congregations in Nittany valley, all the Reformed congregations in Centre and Clinton counties be invited. Upon arriving at the grounds, a short program of addresses by the ministers and singing will be rendered.

A Big Catch.

On Tuesday two tired, sunburned fishermen drove through town and had a big story. They had been up Wallace's run, in Boggs township, after trout. The result of their catch was remarkable, Linn Harris and John Trafford were the sports. Trafford admits that Harris caught three times more fish than he did, while the sum of all amounted to four and the length of the catch when laid out aggregated a trifle over twelve inches. It may sound cruel to give this away, but nevertheless these are the facts.

With the Farmers.

A number of farmers in the County are replanting their corn or have already done so. The cold, wet weather in May caused the first planting to rot, hence replanting was necessary.

Don't Stop taking Scott's Emulsion because it's warm weather. Keep taking it until you are cured. It will heal your lungs and give you rich blood in summer as in winter. It's cod liver oil made easy.

Peculiar Items.

This is not the year for locusts, but several "bands" will visit Pennsylvania all the same; and a new vegetable microbe will attack the clover and grass fields that were sowed at low ebb time.

The best days to fish will be the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 7th, 10, 20th, 26th and 29th. Fish caught at any other time will not be in proper condition to be eaten by man. Fishermen should profit by this.

Small pieces of aluminum glass placed under the legs of an incubator will protect the unhatched "chicks" from sudden death by thunder vibrations.

"Potato blight" is a blood disease, and all outward applications do no good; each potato must be treated with an injection of sulphur and polen and planted only at high flood time.

Don't kill the mosquito with permanganate of potash or any other drug, for they are your friends. They take from your blood the malarial microbes. If the mosquitoes were all killed along the low lands there would spring up a terrible scourge of malarial fever in this country.

Street Incident.

"My Dear Sir," exclaimed Lawyer Bartholomew Livingston, meeting the Rev. Dr. Archibald Windham on the village street, "What does this mean? I thought you were laid up with all sorts of bad diseases!"

"And so I was," replied the reverend gentleman, "I had an attack of indigestion and from that time on my whole system has been in a disordered condition until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla which has put me on my feet and cured all my stomach troubles." "I don't doubt it," said the lawyer. "This same medicine cured my wife of rheumatism and my little girl of scrofula. When they say it's the best medicine money can buy, they only tell the truth." "Yes, yes, so they do," replied the minister, and the two passed on.
