Port Matilda.

June 23rd was an eventful day at the home of Christian Sharer, three miles west of Hannah station, at the raising of his large barn, the frame of which was 75 by 75 feet in size, and when finished will be one among the finest barns in the county. Jerre, Sharer, the designer and framer, deserves praise for the display of mechanical skill, as not a single mistake or misfit happened in the four large frames erected that day. The wall on which the barn is being erected contains over 150 perches of dressed stone, and was built by Wesley Wilson, who exercised good judgment in erecting a No. 1 wall. Representatives from Tyrone, Philipsburg, Osceola, Sandy Ridge, Loveville and Port Matilda with the near surroundings were present, 150 in number, everyone of whom rendered good service at the work, and in return for the same was amply provided for with both dinner and supper of both substantial and delicacies which were prepared by Mrs. Eve Sharer and daughters, Miss Fannie Cowher, Mrs. Dot Cowher, Mrs. Maggie Reese and others assisted during the day providing meals for over 250 people. The best of order prevailed during the day, an appreciation of which was shown by the kind attention given by Christian Sharer to his many friends who came to assist him.

We initiated our new merchant, W. S. Crain, on Saturday. He was to deliver some groceries back of Mt. Eagle to a place they call Swabtown. Mr. Crain got lost and did not get home until Sunday morning. This is his story, but the scribe thinks perhaps he found a damsel out in that country.

Spring Mills.

Not much sickness, doctors are idle. Hay making is at hand—a good crop. The new cream station got a coat of paint.

Fred Siegal, of Wolfs Store, was here looking up business.

Mr. and Mrs. Hadley, of Aaronsburg, visited at John Honer's.

Some of the boys were out for a time, last Saturday evening. They made use of some bad language that was not becoming for young men—too much tangle-foot.

C. P. Long and Samuel Crape while in Georgesvalley looking up business, met with another accident near David Lingles, which might have proven serious. Some parties were overhauling the bridge; noon came, and the planks were laid back, with only the middle sleeper in, nothing to support the end of the planks. Not thinking that some one might come along and be dumped down into the creek, they left it and went to dinner. Messrs. Long and Crape came along and when the horse set his feet on the plank they tumbled up and down went horse, buggy and men. C.P. was the only one to meet with misfortune, he had his right hand broken. There is a lesson to be learned here, by some one.

Three young ladies were seen out driving Tuesday evening in a cart, not in a go-cart, but a dog-cart, and a donkey hitched to it. They report having a grand drive.

A surprise birthday party was given to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bathurst, Tuesday the 20th, who were 50 and 59. Quite a number of our people attended and all report having a fine time.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who, knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me, I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for twenty years. Respectfully, Mrs. MARY A. BEARD, Clarence, Ark. Sold by F. PORTS GREEN, Druggist, Bellefonte, Pa.

Fillmore.

Harvest hands are very scarce here. Some cannot get any at all.

D. B. Stine left on Monday evening for Half Moon, to harvest for Mr. Stevens.

We have been favored with some rain, the past week, which was badly needed.

The hay crop in our section, is pretty good. It has been selling for $7 and $8 per ton out of the field.

Saturday is the day our directors will elect our teachers, and there are two schools without applicants.

Our implement agent, L. H. Musser and wife and little girl, spent Saturday and Sunday at Bellefonte among friends.

Quite a number of our young men spent Saturday at Penns Cave. All report a fine time, with the exception of a shower bath.

There was quite a crowd of our people attended the Children's services at Waddles on Sunday. The program was rendered in fine style.

James Huey is the owner of a calf with only three legs. The calf is perfectly formed, one leg from the body is minus. The little fellow is doing well.

When a hiring goes away from his place pretending to get his teeth pulled, because he hasn't enough sand to say he is going to quit, he should have his neck pulled when he came for his trunk.

We are glad to say our neighbor, Mrs. Samuel Kline, is home again from the Williamsport hospital, where Dr. S. S. Kozer performed an operation on her eyes for cataract. Her site was restored.

If you want to find out the rottenness of the republican party, just let a candidate of that party talk to you for a half hour, not knowing you are a democrat. He can tell a big lot of things you never knew.

W. D. Zerby, of the Central Penna. College, of New Berlin, is home on a vacation from June until September, after which he will go to Bucknell University at Lewisburg, Pa.

Quite an excitement at this place last Sunday, when the report came that J. B. Musser, of Sugar Valley, was visiting relatives at this place. It was supposed that he would never come to the wilderness any more; but he must have been badly in want of something or he would not have come at such a busy time. He says he would not move to Pennsvalley any more for $50, and he does not need to think that anybody would be so foolish as to give him that amount to come back. Johnny, um doo widda cumsh't, bring de organ mit.
