CASTELLANE'S TITLE

Is Declared to Be Bogus by the Prince of Monaco.

PRINCE WILL NOT FIGHT A DUEL.

Says That Castellane Is Beneath His Station, and That the Latter Has Assumed the Title of Count Without Being Entitled to It.

Paris, July 11.-The Prince of Monaco has declined to fight a duel with Count Boni de Castellane on account of the Dreyfus case. In his reply to Castellane's challenge the Prince of Monaco openly gives as his reason for the declination the fact that Castellane is beneath his station.

He says that he has reason to be lieve that Castellane has assumed the title of count when he is not entitled to it. Monaco says that under the circumstances the challenge from Castellane is an impertinence and is not entitled to notice.

The challenge grew out of the active sympathy for Dreyfus and Mme. Dreyfus on the part of the Prince of Monaco, which greatly incensed Castellane. After Monaco had written Mme. Dreyfus and invited her husband to visit his palace the Royalist husband of Anna Gould sent an insulting open letter to the prince. This being snubbed he sent a challenge, with the above result.

The Siecle, one of the leading Dreyfus organs, has taken the matter up and is conducting a severe personal campaign against the count, whom it accuses of being a bogus count. It has announced its intention of soon publishing a biography of Jay Gould, father of the countess. The Gazette de France publishes the report which the prefect of police presented to the government March 29 on the Orleanist party. It says the League of Patriots and the Anti-Semite League were in close relations with the Duke of Orleans, who sent 5,000 francs to M. Deroulede and large sums to M. Guerin. Altogether the Royalists are said to have expended 300,000 francs in getting up the Neuilly barracks flasco. According to the same authority Count de Castellane also subsidized the move-

MAYOR JONES' OFFER.

His Plan For Municipal Gas Plant Ownership Will Probably Succeed. Toledo, July 12 .- Bids were opened last night by the committee on public offices and properties for the sale or lease of the city natural gas plant. Five bids were received. Interest centered in the offer of Mayor Jones, whose proposition is as follows: He agrees to take possession of the plant at once and at the end of six months guarantees to have fully equipped and running an artificial gas plant capable of furnishing 3,000,000 cubic feet of gas per day. The receipts of the concern are to be handled by him, retaining enough to pay the cost of the im provements made. When the plant is fully paid for he agrees to turn it over to the city without cost, and surrender title to the same. He also agrees to surrender the plant, upon notice, by the city paying for the improvements made. If he constructs the plant, after it is fully paid for the profits are to go to the city. The bids were all referred to the committee for final action.

Colonel Cooper Dies in Prison. Trenton, July 12 .- Colonel Ezekiel T. Cooper, of Dover, Del., who was serving an 18 months' sentence in the New Jersey state prison for connection with the abstration of funds from the First national bank, of Dover, Del., died in the institution last night. Cooper's death was the result of cramps and hiccoughs. He was taken sick on Sunday, but his case did not seem serious until Monday. Yesterday the prison physician became alarmed and sent word to some of Cooper's friends in Dover. Cooper had no immediate family.

It is believed that Mayor Jones' proposition will be accepted.

Returning Congresamen Discuss the Boundary Dispute.

Congressman Steele Says "We Are Too Big to Go to War Over the Alaskan Boundary"-Congressman Hull Opposes Yielding a Foot of the Territory

Seattle, Wash., July 12.-Congressmen Payne, Steele, Hull, Dalzell and Heatwole, who arrived here yesterday from Alaska, are very much impressed with their trip. Congressman Payne, who is a member of the joint high commission, refused to discuss the boundary question or the proposed modus vivendi. He anticipates no were injured, two fatally, by an explo- trouble over a settlement of the dis-

Congressman Steele said: "We are too big to ever go to war over the Alaskan boundary. The subject will in time shape itself and become settled. At this time the interest centers plosion was due to a defective lamp, in the proposed shifting of the boundary, as proposed in the modus vivendi, which would throw the Porcupine see just how this incidental question tion of all, but I do believe it will be adjusted so as not to disrupt the amicable settlement of the entire boundary controversy, which is now in the hands of the joint high commission. I am interested as a congressman and American citizen should be. I realize we have a great country in Alaska, and I feel pretty sure the present congress is not going to fritter away any of it.' Congressman Hull is aginst giving a foot of northern territory, and does not hesitate to say that it would certainly result in great commercial loss were a port given Great Britain on Lynn canal. It would affect in a way the whole country and coast.

"We have nothing to concede to Great Britain in the way of territory,' said Congressman Hull. "It is not that we have acquired something that does not belong to us and that was owned by the crown. We have nothing to do with that boundary. We stand simply upon the rights of possession acquired by the Russian purchase. There has been no new demarkation of boundary. England never questioned the boundary from 1825 to 1867, when Seward purchased the country from Russia for the United States. "We will not go behind the original treaty, by which we acquired all the rights of Russia, and therefore we will accept nothing other than the territory accorded us under that treaty." After spending a few days on Puget Sound the congressional party will re-

OUR SUFFERING SOLDIERS.

Terrors of the Rainy Season in the Philippine Islands.

Manila, July 10 .- It has been raining and storming almost constantly for two days, and the country along the American, south and bay lines is literally flooded. The soldiers are suffering great discomfort. The Thirteenth infantry regiment, at Pasay, is in the American, south and bay lines is litworst position, being practically surrounded by water. The bridges that were used for getting suplies have been washed away, and some of the companies are now separated by streams six feet deep. In many cases the men are sleeping with three feet of water beneath their bunks, which are elevated on cracker boxes. The company cooks, when preparing the meals, stand knee deep in water.

Some of the roads leading to Pasay are simply impassable, and the rice fields on all sides are one great lake. A high wind blew over several tents of the Second Reserve hospital.

Manila bay is impossible of navigation by either launches or canoes, and no vessels are leaving the harbor.

The United States transport Centennial is ready to sail for San Francisco with discharged soldiers, but the latter have to sit around the water front all day, drenched to the skin, waiting for a launch to take them to the an insurance agent living here, who was kidnapped when an infant, 25 years ago, and his mother were re united last night. The mother, Mrs. Emma Smith, came from Birmingham, Ala., where she was located after a long search, and was met at the train by her son. The meeting was an affecting one, the mother, who is 60 years of age, being accepted by the son without question. The story Mrs. Smith tells of the kidnapping is to the effect that the infant was taken by a relative to New Orleans, and there placed in an orphan asylum. The boy remained there until he was 15 years of age, when he came north, and after living in various places he came to this city. He is now married and has two small children.

Captain Watkins Admits His Error. New York, July 11 .- The report of Captain Watkins of the stranding of the American line steamship Paris was made public yesterday by the local board of steamboat inspectors. Captain Watkins make no attempt to evade responsibility for the accident, but says frankly that the stranding of the ship was the result of an unaccountable error on his part. The accident, he says, was not due to any want of thought or anxiety about his vessel, but resulted from a mietake he made in calculating the position of the ship. The local inspectors of steam vessels have suspended Captain Watkins' license as master of ocean steamers for Texas Flood Damage to Cotton Austin, July 12.-The Cotton Exchange in this city completed yesterday the work of carefully tabulating the losses on the cotton crop attendant upon the Brazos river floods. They find that the loss in the Brazos bottom will represent 200,000 bales of cotton, representing $5,000,000 loss. They also find that the heavy rains which produced the flood and ruined the crops in the bottom have benefited cotton growing on the upper lands proportionately, so that by far the best crop harvested in years will be produced from the uplands this seoson.

Wanted, a Klondiker's Heirs. Washington, July 11.-United States Consul McCook, at Dawson, under date of May 10, reports to the state department the death in the hospital at Forty Mile City, Yukon Territory, about Feb. 1 last, of W. H. Sutton from over exertion and exhaustion, during a "stampede." The man's home address is supposed to be New York, and as he left a great deal of valuable property at Dawson and Forty Mile City the consul suggests that his relatives come forward without delay.

Train Dispatcher Rourke Reinstated. Reading, Pa., July 12.-Train Dispatcher James J.
