The old saying is, "the early bird catches the worm," but we are afraid arriving home from seeing your best girl at 6:30 in the morning could not be classed among the early birds. But we must consider, Jack had a puncture in his tire.

WONDERINGS:—Wonder whether W. Harrison Walker, of Bellefonte, is contemplating opening a law office near the club house, or whether it is his object to win the heart of one of our fair sex, as his intentions either way apparently demand close attention. Wonder why Prof. Zeigler, who graduated at Bloomsburg lately did not stop longer at the park on the 4th, as we think there were some disappointed people. Don't you, Mart? Wonder whether Miss I— did try to make a mash on T. L., our merchant of Huhlersburg?

Miss Amanda Smith, of this place, aged about fifteen and Jacob Smith, of Sugar Valley, aged about twenty were married week before last. We can not tell you much about the wedding which took place in Sugar valley.

Grant Braugher was home to visit his family and to spend the Fourth at this place. Grant is a steady worker and does not vacate very often. He only sees his family a few times in a year, yet he properly provides for them.

The inhabitants of this place were badly disappointed last Tuesday evening, July 4th. Ambrose Hockenberry advertised an exhibition at this place but after he learned about the place he thought it not worth while to exhibit.

A POINT WORTH KNOWING:—If any person or persons shall, without the consent of the owner or owners thereof, daub, paint advertisements, or post placards upon, or otherwise deface any tree or trees, or shall cause the same to be done by others, such offender or offenders shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars and undergo an imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, or both, or either, at the discretion of the court.

A GOOD PAPER.—Must be first of all, reliable. What you read in it must be the actual experience of practical men. These men should be recognized authorities on the subject they write about. What they say should be the best information on the subject treated. The Centre Democrat gives you just this kind of information. It costs money to get the best informed men to tell you what they have learned in years of actual experience. The experience costs them more money than they charge you for telling it. How much less it costs you; about two cents a week. Test its value for yourself. Send one dollar for a year and receive all the news.

FOR SALE:—A fine driving mare, eight years old, 1100 pounds, sound and safe. E. A. Peters, Fleming, Pa.

Look at the date after the name on the yellow label. It tells how you stand with the printer.

Wolfs Store.

Last Sunday was a cool day. Allen Brungart lost two large hogs last week.

"Pat" Royer, from Millheim, is putting the finishing touch on D. B. Weaver's house by painting it.

Wallace Brungart, who had been staying in Kansas for the last two years, unexpectedly returned home last Friday.

BIG LOAD:—In the issue of the Democrat of June 29th we noticed that George W. Bridenbaugh, of near Union Furnace, hauled with four horses to Tyrone 5180 pounds of hay, or over two and a half tons. We can beat that record here in Brushvalley. Ira Brungart hauled to Coburn station, a distance of 15 miles, making over 8700 pounds of hay, plus the weight of his wagon 2400 pounds or 11,100 pounds. Also Jeremiah Brungart hauled to the same place a load of bark with two horses, from this place, weighing 5570 pounds. This record is correct and Messrs Brungart can furnish proof, if requested. Now talk again, if you can beat this.

Advertisement for Ayer's Hair Vigor. Only Thirty and Gray. How is this? Perhaps sleepless nights caused it, or grief, or sickness, or perhaps it was care. No matter what the cause, you cannot wish to look old at thirty. Gray hair is starved hair. The hair bulbs have been deprived of proper food or proper nerve force. Increases the circulation in the scalp, gives more power to the nerves, supplies missing elements to the hair bulbs. Used according to directions, gray hair begins to show color in a few days. Soon it has all the softness and richness of youth and the color of early life returns. Would you like our book on the Hair? We will gladly send it to you. Write us! If you do not obtain all the benefits you expected from the Vigor, write the doctor about it. He may be able to suggest something of value to you. Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
