Aaronsburg.

Miss Mollie Gettig, of Spring Bank, is circulating among her Aaronsburg friends this week.

Miss Sarah Kline, who for the last few weeks has been housed up with rheumatism, is slowly convalescing.

The much needed rain finally made its appearance Saturday and Sunday and was hailed with delight by everybody.

Miss Elsie Murray, of Centre Hall, visited her aged grandmother, Mrs. Hunter, who makes her home at Lewis Mehsch's, on Sunday last.

Forster VanValzah, of Spring Mills, came down on Sunday and spent the day at the residence of his aunt, Mrs. F. J. Forster, on Main street.

A few of our citizens will attend the Reformed Reunion at Island Park, near Sunbury, to-day (Thursday) providing there is no inclement weather.

Mrs. Carrie Geary, of Coburn, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Joanna Meyer, of Boalsburg, spent Sunday in town at the residence of E. J. Mingle on Main street.

Mrs. Rebecca Charles, of North and 2nd streets, was summoned to Colyer on Saturday by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Adam Rote, who is confined to her bed with dropsy.

Miss Annie Leitzell, who has been making her home at Clearfield during the past few years, returned to this place last week, where she expects to remain. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Leitzell.

Earn Stover and his crew of threshers started on the road last week and are now kept very busy threshing for the farmers in this vicinity. Mr. Stover always gives satisfaction to his patrons and, besides, is a first-rate, all-round fellow.

William Bair, of Rebersburg, opened a meat market at this place Monday morning at the old stand of F. J. Weaver. This will prove quite a convenience to our citizens and fills a long felt want. Hope Mr. Bair will be successful in his new venture.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.—Grandmother Brown, aged 85 years, residing on North 2nd street, was stricken with paralysis on Saturday last and is now lying very low at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Caroline Maize. The aged lady was found lying on the floor, by her daughter, on her return from a neighbor's house. Medical aid was at once summoned and the mother placed in bed, but on account of her advanced age her chances for recovery are doubtful.

A FUNERAL.—The funeral services of William Bright, a former citizen of this place, but whose sudden death occurred in the state of Ohio, were held in the Lutheran church of this place last Saturday forenoon, and were largely attended. The remains were taken to Millheim for interment where they were laid in Fairview cemetery beside those of his first wife who died about ten years ago. Rev. A. G. Wolf conducted the services. Two sons of the deceased accompanied the corpse from Ohio, namely John and Milton. The former left for home on Monday morning, while the latter, whose home is in the state of Iowa, will remain east for about a month to renew old acquaintances and to roam over play grounds of his boyhood days. Both the young men speak in highest terms of the west, where they have resided for a number of years.

Runville. To the joy of Runville that long looked for rain has come at last. The home of E. R. Hancock was gladened by the arrival of a young son. Miss Ella Lucas, of Bellefonte, spent a few days at home, and also took in the wedding. James Resides, who for a few weeks had been unable to be about, is up and around again. Joseph Rodgers and family, from Osceola, spent Sunday and Monday at Henry Withertites. Charles Smoyer, Jr., who for the last year worked near Pittsburg, is circulating among his many friends. Train wrecks seem quite numerous on the Snow Shoe road of late, two having occurred within the last two weeks. The farmers are about through housing their grain, and the voice of the steam thresher will soon be heard again. The three Shank brothers, Arthur, Raymond and Oscar, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. James Lucas. Martin Daley and Michael Withertite have made some improvements on their homes in the way of repairing some of their buildings. John Gamble, who, fifty years ago was a resident of Milesburg but now resides at Lansing, Kansas, paid his three uncles, James Charles and Morgan Lucas, a short visit on Sunday. Our daily mails seem to be loaded with the "Press" and many a man wonders who can be so liberal as all that. Surely there must be some politician who is looking into the future. Trout fishing closed on Saturday but it seems some of the boys are determined to continue fishing, and in order to save trouble they have concluded to fish for turtle, frogs and chubs. Mrs. Annie E. Lucas and Mrs. John Hall, both of Bellefonte, and James Ling, Jasper Kanarr and Samuel Campbell, of Milesburg, visited at the home of Chas. Lucas on Sunday. The kissing bug later known as the Hobson bug, has become very familiar in our community and many a young man and woman have ventured the same scheme; it has even effected the bloom of manhood beyond the upward course of the millennium. WEDDING.—The wedding bells have again been ringing in our community and have gladdened the hearts of Mr. Obediah Bumbarger and Sarah Furr. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, at 2 p. m. Tuesday. After the ceremonies were over all partook of the enjoyable feast of good things. Then the parties, pronounced man and wife, departed for their honeymoon trip and will likely not return for a few days. TELL YOUR SISTER A beautiful complexion is an impossibility without good pure blood, the sort that only exists in connection with good digestion, a healthy liver and bowels. Karl's Clover Root Tea acts directly on the bowels, liver and kidneys, keeping them in perfect health. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Kelley Bros. are having a new house built at their mines near Giltintown. The carpenter work is being done by Henry Botger and James Lucas, two first class mechanics.

A "Poverty Party" was given by the Epworth League on Saturday evening. Notwithstanding the inclement weather quite a number attended and took part in the many amusements furnished by a well selected committee. The refreshments consisted of ginger-bread and molasses pie with a plentiful supply of coffee and water. The proceeds were for the benefit of the M. E. church.

Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth, and all that we could do for him did not seem to give more than temporary relief, until we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that remedy he has not been troubled. We want to give you this testimonial as an evidence of our gratitude, not that you need it to advertise your meritorious remedy.—G. M. LAW, Keokuk, Iowa. For sale by P. Potts Green, druggist, Bellefonte, Pa.

Pain Unnecessary in Childbirth. Pain is no longer necessary in childbirth. Its causes, being understood, are easily overcome, the labor being made short, easy and free from danger, morning sickness, swelled limbs, and like evils readily controlled, and all female diseases speedily cured. Cut this out; it may save your life, suffer not a day longer, but send us 2 cent stamp, and receive in sealed envelope full particulars, testimonials, confidential letter, &c. A Perfect Cathartic. Is one which does not wrench the system or leave it weak and exhausted. A perfect cathartic is found in Hood's Pills. They are praised everywhere, and after once being tried they soon permanently take the place of the old fashioned drastic pill, such as "our grandfathers used." Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla and they greatly aid that medicine in its cleansing and purifying work.

Are You Ever Depressed?

And is it not due to nervous exhaustion? Things always look so much brighter when we are in good health. How can you have courage when suffering with headache, nervous prostration and great physical weakness? Would you not like to be rid of this depression of spirits? How? By removing the cause. By taking

It gives activity to all parts that carry away useless and poisonous materials from your body. It removes the cause of your suffering, because it removes all impurities from your blood. Send for our book on Nervousness. To keep in good health you must have perfect action of the bowels. Ayer's Pills cure constipation and biliousness.

Write to our Doctors. Perhaps you would like to consult some eminent physicians about your condition. Then write us freely all the particulars in your case. You will receive a prompt reply, without cost. Address: DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.
