CAPT. DREYFUS' ORDEAL Mexican Troops Will Precipitate

Famous French Prisoner Again Faces His Accusers.

HE PROTESTS HIS INNOCENCE.

Colonel Jonanst, the Presiding Offcial, Seems More Like a Prosecuting Counsel Than a Judge-Reanes Is Perfectly Peaceful.

Rennes, Aug. 8 .- The second trial of Captain Dreyfus on a charge of reason opened in the concert room of he Lycee here yesterday. Three hundred newspaper men, representing papers in all parts of the globe, were up at 5 o'clock in the morning to witness the transfer of the captain from the military prison to the court room, which took place at 6 o'clock in the morning. There was a strong force of military on hand to prevent disorder, but not the slightest demonstration was made, and Dreyfusites and anti-Dreyfusites seem to be in perfect harmony. The captain was taken to a private room to await the opening of ourt, and then the witnesses were admitted. M. Cavagnac's cheerfulness eemed forced, but former President 'ssimir-Perier was blithe as a boy. Lieutenant Colonel Picquart was in plain clothes and was cold shouldered by the army people. But aparently he did not mind. He had played the winning eard and could afford to be indifferent. No members of the Dreyfus family were anywhere visible, but most of the leading partisans of Dreyfus had come.

At 7 o'clock the coming of the court was announced in military fashion, the soldiers plesenting arms. The judges entered from the wings, and were in full dress uniform. Colonel Jouaust, the presiding officer, is a man of dignified appearance, not unintellectual, and has an upright, martial

Colonel Jouaust, in a stentorian voice, declared the trial begun, and ordered the accused to be brought in. All eyes were turned on Dreyfus. His fresh complexion astonished all. The figure remains clean built. He entered with measured step. His mode of saluting the court was jerky and very composed, but his fingers betrayed nervousness. His voice is not good, but it was out of practice for five years.

The first incident was the declaration of the president-colonel that he had unlimited power to call witnesses. He then ordered the bill of indictment of M. Quesnay de Beaurepaire to be cited. The indictment is that of 1894.

Colonel Jouaust submitted Dreyfus to a rigorous examination, more in the style of a prosecuting counsel than a judge, and made gestures of impatience at some direct denials which Dreyfus gave repeatedly to the judge's questions. The prisoner's voice resounded frequently through the court room as he energetically replied: "No, my colonel," or "Never! Never!" to questions put to him.

When Colonel Jouaust handed the prisoner a long slip of cardboard, upon which the bordereau was pasted, he asked "Do you recollect this document?"

Dreyfus replied with a passionate outburst:

THE VAQUIS SURROUNDED

Big Battle With the Indians. Guayamas, Mex., Aug. 9 .--- General

Torres has almost completely surrounded Bicam, a Yaqui stronghold, where nearly 2,000 savages are massed. On the arrival of the artillery and the machine guns the Mexican general will close on the Indians and precipitate the biggest battle ever fought between the government and the Yaquis. The reports from General Torres regarding the killing of Remley and Miller say their bodies were found hanging from a tree, with the hands and feet cut off.

The uprising reaches down the Yaqui river to the sea, and it is not expected to extend further north than the Sahuaripa district. The government now has nearly 5,000 men in the field

A fight is expected on the Yaqui river with a large band of savages that last week attacked and burned three sloops, A. Eares, a well known Mexican at Hermosillo, losing his life in the encounter.

Peter B. Chisem, a prominent American merchant in Guagmas and one of the signers of the treaty made by the Mexican government with the Yaquis in 1897, declares the Indians have been spoiled through kindness. The government has given them the very choicest strip of land in the valley, containing 250,000 acres, encroachments on which have never been made and would not be tolerated by the government.

THE PEERLESS COLUMBIA.

Again the Fleet New Yacht Shows Her Superlority.

Greenport, L. I., Aug. 9.-The first run of the New York Yacht club yesterday, from New London out into the sound as far as Watch Hill and back to Gardiners bay, was one of the most successful in the club's history. Not only was the day an ideal one, with a great wholesale breeze from the west. which held through from the start to finish, but the club watched with pride the magnificent run of the new queen of the fleet, Columbia, which fairly distanced every other yacht with the exception of Defender, and she, too, was defeated by 4 minutes and 19 seconds in a 30 mile race.

The old cup defender Vigilant was beaten by the two flyers nearly an hour, but much of this was no doubt due to the fortunate run of Columbia and Defender along the Fisher's Island shore, while the rest of the fleet kept over on the other side of the sound

Astor Cannot Become a Peer.

London, Aug. 9 .- Henry Labouchere says in Truth: "The rumor that Mr. William Waldorf Astor will soon be raised to the peerage assumes what is impossible. A law passed during the reign of William III deprives the crown of the power of conferring the rank of peer upon naturalized aliens. It was enacted because the king was converting too many Dutch Republicans into British peers." A baronet or a knight Mr. Astor could be, and if he is ready to pay there is no doubt that he will find no difficulty in negotiating the matter."

Aguinaldo's Appeal For Recognition. Manila, Aug. 9 .- Aguinaldo has appealed to the powers for recognition of "Filipino independence," in a document dated from Tarlac, July 27, and signed at Buencamino. It has been received by all the foreign consuls in Manila, with the request that they forward it to their respective governments, Filipinos use their old argument that they had conquered the sovereignty of these islands from Spain before the signing of the treaty of Paris, Murderous Soldier Promptly Executed Salt Lake City, Aug. 9 .- First Sergeant John Jackson was shot and killed at Fort Douglas last night by Private W. H. Carter, and the latter was then shot and instantly killed while resisting arrest. Both were colored, and belonged to the Ninth United States cavalry. Jackson had ordered Alsatians were happier as Germans Carter taken to the guard house for than as Frenchmen, declared that the his inattention to duty. EECRETARY ROOT'S WAR POLICY.

"The War in the Philippines From Now On Will Be Prosecuted With All Possible Energy"-The Secretary Non-Commital as to Otis' Recall.

Plattsburg, N. Y., Aug. 9 .-- The war in the Philippines is to be prosecuted with a vigor that ought to result in speedy cessation of hostilities there. Your correspondent saw Secretary of War Root last night in the office of the Hotel Champlain, just after he had said goodby to the president and was preparing to take the train for Washington. The secretary referred to his visit to Plattsburg barracks in the afternoon, where he witnessed a regi-mental drill of the Twenty-sixth regiment under command of Colonel Rice. This regiment has been recruited and organized in a little over three weeks, and they drilled yesterday like old veterans.

"The progress which the officers and men of the Twenty-sixth regiment have made in drilling in so short a time is simply marvelous,' said Mr. Root. "It shows the wonderful power of the United States when ten regiments of volunteer soldiers can be recruited, organized, drilled and equipped for active service in the field in so short a time.

Will the war in the Philippines be prosecuted vigorously from now on?" asked the correspondent.

Mr. Root turned on his heel and replied quick as a flash: "Yes, sir, the war in the Philippines from now on will be prosecuted with all possible energy. All the men, all the arms and all the supplies necessary to end the trouble in the islands will be furnished at the earliest possible moment.'

"How large a force will be at the disposal of the commanding general there?" was asked.

"There will be 50,000 men there ready for active service at the close of the rainy season, about the last of October, and more will be sent there if necessary.

As to the rumor published in some of the papers that President McKinley and he were not agreeable upon the policy to be pursued in the Philippines, Mr. Root said:

"Of course that is all nonsense. When asked whether General Otls would be relieved of the command of he American forces in the Philippines Mr. Root replied that he had nothing o say on this point at this time.

It would be impossible for any one to be more emphatic and determined than Secretary Root is in his avowed policy of ending the trouble in the Philippines. He seldom talks for publication, and the fact that he had just come from a two days' conference with President McKinley adds interest to his words ter Atlantic League club played their last game yesterday afternoon, when they defeated an amateur nine from Elizabethtown by a score of 10 to 0. The players were paid in full last night and the club will be disbanded in a day or two. The Atlantic League is now a thing of the past.

Shamokin, Pa., Aug. 5 .- N. C. Taylor, of New York, representing New York and Boston capitalists, yesterday arranged with a local iron manufacturer to have the breaker machinery of the Natalue colliery overhauled at once. He said the colliery would resume operations within ten days. It has been idle since July, 1897. Work will be given to 1,200 men and boys.

Philadelphia, Aug. 9 .- Two sisters, Annie and Mary Crozier, aged respec-tively 55 and 48 years, were found dead in their home yesterday. An investigation by the coroner is said to have proved that the elder sister's death was due to natural causes, and that Mary committed suicide by inhaling illuminating gas, grief doubt-less prompting the act. The women were the only occupants of the house. which had been closed since last Friday.

Connellsville, Pa., Aug. 8 .- Jacob Shank, a farmer of Pennsville, and a member of the Pennsville school board, was killed Sunday by a vicious bull. He had gone into a field, and there the bull, owned by Lewis Miller, attacked him, hurled him to the ground, tossed him into the air, jabbed its horns into the prostrate body several times, and then then hurled it over a high fence into an adjoining field. Shank was dead when friends came to him. He was 67 years old, and leaves a wife and several grown children.

Harrisburg, Aug. 7 .- Judge Weiss, in the mandamus case to compel Secretary of the Commonwealth Griest to advertise the constitutional amendments passed by the legislature, argument on which was made Saturday, discharged the rule, refused the mandamus and gave judgment for Secretary Griest, on the ground that the governor had a right to take action on resolutions proposing constitutional amendments, and the legislature could not order Secretary Griest to advertise without making an appropriation to pay for the same.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 9 .- The Glen Lyon miners of the Susquehanna Coal company, 1.200 in number, yesterday joined the Nanticoke strikers, and now all the employes of the company in this region, a total of 3,800, are out, and the mines are closed. An official of the Susquehanna Coal company says the strike will not interfere with the company's collieries in the Schuylkill region and at Shamokin, except to give more work to the men at these places. The men at the Exeter, Babylon and tone colleries are still

'No, my colonel. I am innocent. declare it here; I declared it in 1894; I am a victim." His voice here was choked with sobs, which must have stirred every spectator in court. The voice of the prisoner did not seem human. It resembled the cry of a wounded animal.

As he ended his reply, with the words: "Five years in the galleys. My wife! My children! My God! I am innocent; innocent," Colonel Jouaust said:

"Then you deny it?"

Dreyfus replied: "Yes, my colonel." Dreyfus denied that he had ever said had note written about him by a "certain general" was on account of his hill. religion, admitted relations with certain women, but asserted that he committed no indiscretion, and insisted vehemently that he had never gambled.

When Colonel Jouaust spoke of the interview with Du Paty de Ciam Dreyfus replied:

"I never confessed anything to Du Paty de Clam."

Here occurred one of the most dramatic scenes in the examination. Dreyfus, tremendously excited, swayed to and fro for a moment and then all his pent up emotion and indignation burst forth, and he cried in a piercing voice, heard throughout the court and even by those standing outside:

"It is iniquitous to condemn an innocent man. I never confessed anything, Never."

Dreyfus, as he uttered these words, raised his white gloved hand and held it aloft as if appealing to Heaven to vindicate him.

The judge was fair throughout, but evidently not friendly. He showed himself, however, sensible and sober minded and impressed every one favorably. There are many persons who were present at the trial now under the impression that the harshness of the presiding judge was assumed and was intended to disarm the enemies of Drevfus, who are only anxious to interpret ordinary courtesy into the grossest partiality toward the prisoner, If this be the case, and such an explanation is quite plausible, Dreyfus is naturally unaware of it, and the effect upon his highly strung nerves must be very severe.

Madame Dreyfus visited her husband yesterday afternoon and found him hopeful, although much unnerved, as the rigorous examination, and especfally the unfeeling demeanor displayed toward him by Colonel Jouaust, proved a tremendous strain upon him.

Today the court martial is considering the secret dossier, and newspaper men will be rigorously excluded until of him on this account. Saturday.

Carnegie Not a Justice.

London, Aug. 9 .- Andrew Carnegie telegraphs to the press from Skibo castle, saying: "I have no intention to perform the duties of justice of the peace or of the deputy lieutenantship. understand these offices are usually held by the owner of the Skibo estates. In my case they are only honorary, I being an American citizen."

Death Sentence For Robbery.

Pulaski, Va., Aug. 9 .- Noah Finley, the negro who robbed and attempted to kill Major Darst at Dublin a few days ago, was sentenced yesterday to be hanged Sept. 14. The jury was out 15 hours. It was reported they could not reach an agreement, and a party of citizens notified them that if a verdict was not reached by 10 o'clock yesterday the negro would be lynched. The verdict was brought in at the specified time.

Norfolk's Shotgun Quarantine.

Newport News, Va., Aug. 9 .- There has been no change in the yellow fever situation at the Hampton Soldiers' Home since Monday afternoon, and it is quite probable that the quarantine will be raised this week. A feature of the shotgun quarantine here was the presence on the line last night of nearly every minister in the city, each preacher standing guard in the alloted section for a period of six hours.

Statistics of Fire Losses.

New York, Aug. 9 .- The Journal of Commerce announces that the fire loss of the United States and Canada for the month of July, as compiled from its daily records, aggregate $11,426,000. The paper's aggregate of losses for the first seven months of 1897, 1898 and 1899 are respectively $64,566,750, $67,-166,850 and $77,126,150. During July there were 204 fires of a greater destructiveness than $10,000 each.

Indiana Whitecaps Busy.

Bloomfield, Ind., Aug. 9 .- Monday night Joseph M. Britton was taken from his home in Newark, this county, and severely whipped by whitecaps. Mrs. Britton says she recognized several of the whitecaps and they are citizens of the village. Britton, it is alleged, has been making unlawful sales of intoxicating liquors, and the citizens have been trying to get rid Driven to Revolt by Starvation.

Vienna, Aug. 9 .- The Neue Freie Presse says the peasantry of portions of Bessarabia (a government of Russia bounded on the south by the Danube and the Black sea) have revolted, being driven desperate by famine. Troops, it is added, have been sent there and several encounters have taken place. A score of peasants have slready been killed and many wounded.

THE LATE GOVERNOR ATKINSON. ernor of the state. The end came at 9 o'clock, the bedside of the governor being surrounded by all the immediate members of the family. He had been slowly sinking for several days, and Monday afternoon his physicians announced that he could not recover. His sickness lasted about 15 days. The funeral takes places this afternoon.

Deperate Duel in Austria.

Vienna, Aug. 8 .- A sensational saber duel was fought yesterday between Herr Wolf, the notorious German Radical member of the reichsrath, and Herr Krzekep, a German Liberal deputy. It was a furious encounter. Herr Wolf received a wound in the head, severing an artery. The doctors declared him incapable of continuing the duel, but he persisted, though his face was bathed in blood. Ultimately he sustained a second wound in the head, and was carried home in a dangerous condition. The duel arose from Herr Krzekep accusing Herr Wolf of always answering political attacks by fighting duels against incapable antagonists.

Strengthening the Dominion.

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 7 .- The im-perial government and the dominion authorities have decided to increase both the regular military and militia forces on this station, the Pacific coast depot of the British army and navy. Coming at a time when the relations between Canada and the United States are acknowledged by Premier Laurier to be rather strained over the Alaskan boundary question, it looks as if Britain and Canada were determined to assert their claim to those portions of Alaska demanded by Canada by force of arms if necessary.

McArthurDefeats Six Thousand Rebels Manila, Aug. 9.-General MacArthur's force, consisting of 4,000 men, advanced five miles beyond San Fernando today, and encountered and de-feated a Filipino force of 6,000 men. The enemy retreated, leaving many dead and wounded. The American loss in killed and wounded was 20.

ing a total number of 5,500 miners on strike.

Susquehanna, Pa., Aug. 5 .- Charles Yager, aged 40 years, of Brandt, a small manufacturing village five miles south of here, murdered his three small children early yesterday morning by cutting their throats, and then committed suicide by the same means. There seems to be no doubt that the father had gone insane during the night through brooding over the loss of his wife and the motherless condition of his children. For years he was employed in the chair factory in the town, and was a steady, industrious man. Since his wife's death he had devoted himself to the three children. Their ages ranged from 5 to 12 years.

Williamsport, Pa., Aug. 9 .- The state Democratic nominees were formally notified this afternoon in the assembly room at the Park hotel. John C. Bane, of Washington, chairman of the notification committee, presided and made the speech of notification. Representative William T. Creasy, of Columbia, candidate for state treasurer, replied in behalf of himself and his colleagues, Judge S. Leslie Mestrezat of Uniontown and Charles J. Reilly, of Williamsport, nominees for supreme court judge and superior court judge. Addresses were also made by National Committeeman Guffey, of Pittsburg, State Chairman Rilling, of Erie, and other party leaders.

Philadelphia, Aug. 7 .--- Conductor J. M. Climinson, of the Seashore express, on the main line of the Penusylvania railroad, was fatally injured last Friday in a struggle with five intoxicated soldiers, said to be members of the new Twenty-eighth regiment of volunteers, now recruiting at Camp Meade. The soldiers were on the platform, and Climinson ordered them to go inside, but they refused, and when he seized one of them by the arm the soldiers attacked him. At the hospital here it was found that one side was completely paralyzed. The wounded man died at the hospital this morning. Edward Mulligan and James Relly, two of the alleged assailants, were arrested. The men under arrest served in the late war and fought in the battle of San Juan. Erie, Pa., Aug. 9 .--- Edwin Dewitt Heidler, the second murderer ever executed in the Erie county jail, paid the penalty for his crime yesterday. The execution went off quietly, and the predominating feature was the nerve with which Heidler walked to the gallows. The fall was insufficient to break the neck and he died from strangula-Heidler shot his brother-in-law, tion. Levi Kreider, in May, 1896. Kreider way the custodian of funds that had been left in his care by the mother of Mrs. Heidler, and he was at liberty to turn the money over under the provisions of the will whenever in his judgment he saw fit to do so. Heidler was pressed for money to settle a mortgage on his farm, and tried to force Kreider to sign a note for the amount. Failing, he killed him.
