RIOTS IN PARIS STREETS THOMAS B. REED RESIGNS.

Churches Entered and Pillaged by a Sacrilegious Mob.

ALTARS AND STATUES SMASHED.

The Figures of the Savior and the Virgin Torn Down, Broken and Thrown Into a Bonfire Built From Articles Taken From the Edifice.

Paris, Aug. 21 .- Paris was yesterday the scene of most serious disturbances, recalling some aspects of the commune. The rioters were mostly anarchists. They were repeatedly charged by the police. The police broke through the column and a struggle for the mastery followed. Shots were fired and M. Goullier, commissary of police was twice stabbed with a knife

This threw the police into momentary confusion. The mob reassembled and ran toward the Place de la Nation. The police, reinforced by a squad that had been held in reserve, made another attempt to stem the current, and fresh fierce fighting occurred, three constables being wounded.

In the meantime the anarchist mob retraced its course to the Place de la Republique, smashing the windows of religious edifices on the way. Suddenly, either at the word of command or in obedience to impulse, the column made a loop and curved toward the Church of St. Ambroise, where the rioters smashed the windows.

Proceeding thence toward the Fauborg du Temple, which they reached, they formed up into a compact body. Hatchets were suddenly produced, with long knives stolen from the counters of shops, and a concerted rush was made upon the Church of St. Joseph. The aged sacristan, seeing the mob hastily closed the outer gates, but these were soon forced with hatchets and bars of iron. The massive oaken doors were then attacked.

The wild borde burst into the church, which instantly became a scene of pillage and sacrilege. Altars and statues were hurled to the floor and smashed, pictures were rent, candlesticks, ornaments and hosts from high altars were thrown down and trampled under foot. The crucifix above was made the target for missiles and the figure of the Saviour was fractured in several places. Then, while raucous voices sang the "Carmagnole,' the chairs were carried outside, piled up and set on fire in the center of the square fronting the church.

When this stage was reached the crucifix was pulled down and thrown into the flames. Suddenly the cry was raised that the statue of the Virgin had been forgotten and the crowd returned and tore this down also.

At length the officers began to gain the mastery. A score of anarchists took refuge in an adjacent house. Others entrenched themselves in the belfry and fiercely defended themselves by showering missiles on the republican guards, but finally these were dislodged. . Twenty anarchists were arrested, taken to the police station, searched and found to be carrying revolvers, loaded sticks and knives

When the police entered the church the anarchists had just set fire to the pulpit. The interior of the edifice was a complete wreck. Several valuable old pictures that, can never be replaced were ruined. After the mob had been driven away. Abbe Lacour, the incumbent, collected the fragments of the sacrament and replaced them in the ciborium. The people living in the houses nearby extinguished the bonfire. An attempt was made to fire the choir of St. Joseph's with petroleum and the firemen were called to quench the flames. Several parishioners were severely mauled in their efforts to defend the church from sacrilege. A lamentable feature of the affair is that it will be regarded as a pro-Drevfus demonstration and react greatly to the detriment of the chances of acquital. It is much to be feared that yesterday's scenes were due to the weakness the government has displayed over the Guerin affair. The government's toleration and desire to avoid bloodshed has been misinterpreted with the worst results. The prefecture of police gives the following statistics of yesterday'sriots: Three hundred and eighty persons were injured. Three hundred and sixty were taken to the hospitals. Fifty-nine police agents were wounded besides Commiassaires Goulier and Domsimone. One hundred and fifty persons were arrested, of whom eighty are detained in custody. Soldiers in Conflict With Police. San Francisco, Aug. 23 .- The steamer Dorie arrived from Hong Kong and Yokohama, via Honolulu yesterday The Doric brings the following news from Honolulu under date of Aug. 15: The transport Indiana arrived from San Francisco Aug. 10 and sailed for Manila Aug. 11. Soldiers were allowed to land and they came in conflict with the Honolulu police. A drunken soldier was arrested by the police and other soldiers attempted to rescue him. There was a lively fight in which some heads were broken, let the man was finally landed in jail. He was given to his commanding officer on condition that he be taken from the streets. Philadelphia Republican Nominations Philadelphia, Aug. 23 .- The conventions of the Republican party in this city were held yesterday, and without friction nominated candidates for the county offices to be filled next November as follows: Sheriff, Wencel Hart man; common pleas judges, Samuel W. Pennypacker, Henry J. McCarthy; city commissioners, Hugh Black, Jacob Wildemore; coroner, Thomas Dugan,

The Maine Congressman Has Tendered His Resignation to Take Effect Sept. 4.

Augusta, Me., Aug. 23 .- The resignation of Thomas B. Reed as congressman in the First Maine district, was received by Governor Powers yesterday. Mr. Reed's letter was as follows: "I hereby resign the position of member of congress from the First district of Maine, to take effect on this date, Sept. 4." The resignation has been accepted by Governor Powers.

MANY SHIPS WRECKED.

The Storm Dealt Death and Destruction on the Atlantic Coast.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 23 .- The recent hurricane which dealt death and destruction in Porto Rico apparently lost but little of its fury when it struck the Atlantic coast. No such damaging result has attended a storm in the past quarter of a century in this section and the stretch of beach from Kinnakea to Hatteras, N. C., a distance of about 18 miles, bears evidence of the force of the gale. Spars, masts and general wreckage of five schooners are strewn about, while now and then a body washed ashore. The story was long in reaching Norfolk, but it lost none of its dramatic interest by reason of the delay.

Thirty-five shipwrecked seamen, who had nothing in the world but the few tattered and torn clothes on their back. some sick and all miserable, arrived here yesterday from Hatteras by way of the Norfolk and Southern railway from Elizabeth City. It is from them that the story was learned. They report no less than 11 vessels ashore on the coast between Hatteras and New River Inlet, and estimate that 30 lives were lost.

A POSTMASTER WHITECAPPED.

He Appointed a Negroas an Assistant and Is Badly Beaten. Tampa, Fla., Aug. 23.-Editor W. C. Crum, of the Florida Republican, was beaten by whitecaps at Peck Monday night. He is postmaster at that place. and has been going there at night and returning to the city in the morning. Some weeks ago he appointed Dan Morrison, a colored man, his assistant in order that the office should have a man in charge all the time. A committee of unknown citizens compelled Mr. Morrison to give up his office and Mr. Crum had to attend to the business himself

Monday night, after he had completed his work, he started for his sleeping quarters, a short distance away. When near there he was held up by a mob of masked men armed with guns and made to dismount. He was tied hand and foot and given a beating. He was also kicked severely about the head and shilders. The mob then cut off the whiskers from one side of his face and applied carbolic acid to the gashes made by the whipping. Mr. Crum does not know who attacked him. The mob threatened to kill him if he ever appointed another negro assistant. He has closed the office and his resignation has been accepted at Washington.

Farmer's Horrible Death.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 23.-Henry Laning, aged 23, son of Augustus Laning, a well known farmer of Ross tions respectfully tendered by the detownship, this county, met a horrible | fense be answered by him. The court death Monday evening. He had been martial, unlike the court of casa-working in a field and about 6 o'clock tion, has to deal with the whole range Winters for several years, while in a took his horses to the barn. He had of the affair, and it is necessary that just got inside and was unharnessing the horses, when lightning struck the barn, setting it on fire and killing the horses. One of the horses fell over on Laning, pinning him to the ground. His cries attracted the attention of the other farm hands, but by the time they reached the barn it was completely enveloped in flames and they were powerless to render assistance. The structure was in ashes in a short time, and when Laning's body was found it was burned almost to a crisp.

DREYFUS' DEFENSE.

Return of M. Labori as Counsel For the Accused.

HOT EHOT FOR GEN. MERCIER.

In a Vigorous Speech the Prisoner Declared His Love For the Army and His Country-Laborl's Presence in Court Favorable to the Prisoner.

Rennes, Aug. 23 .- Maitre Labori was the central figure of the scene yesterday at the Lycee, where Captain Dreyfus is standing trial on a charge of treason. As the Dreyfus drama unrolled before a crowded court his tall, Viking-like form draped in a long black gown, bordered with ermine, sitting in front of the lights, was the prime magnet from the moment the curtain was rung up until it fell. His mere presence brought brightness into the court room and fresh light into the proceedings.

He opened with an eloquent speech. and the audience could have listened for an hour to his rich melodious voice, modulated tones and then impassioned outbursts, accompanied by energetic and speaking gestures, Generals Roget, Billot, Mercier and Boisdeffre, with the other military witnesses, gave one another anxious glances and put their heads together to exchange obviously disagreeable impressions as Labori plied the smaller military fry, who occupied the witness stand successively, with disconcerting questions.

Labori cornered General Mercier on the Schneider letter, which the latter had used in evidence, and which Colonel Schneider had repudiated as a forgery. The general was surprised when Labori suddenly demanded that Mercier be recalled. He insisted that Mercier should give some explanation. Then, after hesitating, Mercier declared that he would assume all the responsibility attaching to his possession of the document. When Labori had attained his object and forced a confession of grave violation of law on the part of General Mercier, he gave a smile of grim satisfaction and then added significantly: "I shall have other questions to put to General Mercier."

M. Labori announced that he intended to recall several witnesses who had made depositions during his absence. This means that Mercier, Roget and others will be put to the test of a severe cross-examination. To his friends M. Labori has expressed himself confident of being able to tear to pleces the evidence of these generals. General Mercier made a pitiable exhibition. M. Labori, in a passion, fairly thundered his questions.

'What can be the value of documents," said he, "which we cannot see and cannot discuss, documents for which it is impossible to know who takes the responsibility. I appeal to you, Mr. President, to be good enough to ask General Mercier how this document came into his possession. Mercier, driven to a corner, feebly evaded the question.

'Mr. President," continued Labori, "I insist that a reply be given. General Mercier has sworn to speak the whole truth. I must insist that ques-

MURDERER'S NOVEL PLAN.

Collected Money to Buy a Tombstone For His Grave.

Easton, Pa., Aug. 23 .- Llewellyn Stout was hanged in the jail yard yesterday morning for the murder of Night Operator Harvey H. Wurster, at the Bingen station, on the North Penn railroad, on Jan. 7 last. He retained his iron nerve up to the last moment, and never flinched, even when the noose was placed about his neck. The condemned man, during the short time necessary to adjust the noose, knee strap and black cap, gave one or two steady glances at the half hundred persons below him, and then suddenly went to his doom.

One of the most novel incidents connected with Stout's incarceration in jail was that he himself collected the money to buy a tombstone for his own grave. The money was collected in various ways-by selling photographs of himself, tidies made by a fellow prisoner, and from small sums of money contributed by persons who visited him in jail. He did not hestitate to tell of his plan to visitors at the jail.

ITEMS OF STATE NEWS.

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 21 .- Returning from a fishing trip William Hensel aged 15 years, boarded a freight train to ride to his home in this city. He fell off near town and his left arm and leg were cut off. He died at the county hospital.

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 22 .- While working on a pole, 40 feet above the ground, Frank Dewalt, aged 27, a Pennsylvania Télephone company lineman, received a shock, by his climbing spur touching a live wire, that threw him to the street. His skull was fractured. He died at St. Joseph's hospital without having regained consciousness.

Chester, Pa., Aug. 19 .- John Drains was arrested charged with setting fire to the barn of Joseph Laird, in Upland. He was caught in the act by William Terry, who happened to be sleeping in the barn and was awakened by the glare of the flames. Drains was recently released from jail for the theft of Laird's chickens and was heard to say that he would get even for the prosecution.

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 22 .- Martin Kreider, aged 74 years, on Saturday left his home in Lititz for a walk, taking his dog with him. Yesterday Kreider's dead body was found in a cornfield, near Lititz, and the dog was standing guard over it, evidently having watched over his dead master since Saturday, when the man died suddenly of apoplexy. Sunday boys saw what they thought was a man lying in the field, but the fury of the dog, when they appeared, scared them away.

Harrisburg, Aug. 22 .- The state Reublican convention will meet in the Harrisburg Opera House on Thursday to nominate candidates for state treasurer, judge of the supreme court and judge of the superior court. Colonel Quay and his friends will control the onvention, which means the nomination of Lieutenant Colonel James E. Barnett, of the Tenth Pennsylvania regiment, for state treasurer; J. Hay Brown, of Lancaster, for supreme judge, and Josiah R. Adams, of Philadelphia, for superior court judge.

Huntingdon, Pa., Aug. 21 .- A probable double murder was committed here last evening. Basil Bell, a licensed colored preacher, who has been living Winters for several years, while in a drunken frenzy, attacked the woman with an axe with which he knocked her down. He then kicked her in a brutal maner. Bell then called on John Rumsport, a neighbor, whom he ac cused of making love to Miss Winters, and cut him dangerously with the axe. Neither of the injured persons is expected to recover. Bell is in jail. Reading, Pa., Aug. 22 .- To spite her friend, with whom she had quarreled, Mrs. Sarah Machamer, a widow, aged 50 years, made a desperate attempt to end her life by throwing herself on the tracks before an east bound freight train, near the Third street crossing of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, in this city. Fortunately the engineer had slackened speed, and, having observed the woman's form on the track, was enabled to stop the train. When the engineer and crew attempted to remove her she made a stubborn resistance, but finally yielded to persuasion. Philadelphia, Aug. 21 .-- While driving with his family through Holmes cliffe was killed by a bullet fired by some unknown person about 7 o'clock last night. The ball struck him in the breast and he fell dead in his wife's arms. The occupants of the carriage heard no report, nor could they see anyone in the vicinity. Paul Spiel, of Holmesburg, was arrested on suspicion of having caused Radcliffe's death. Spiel had been firing a rifle in the vicinity about the time Radcliff was killed. Detective Geyer is of the opinion that the shooting was an accident. Pittsburg, Aug. 21 .-- Arrangements have been completed for the reception of the Tenth regiment, Pensylvania volunteers, upon its arrival from California next Monday. When the state line is reached a committee will meet the train and welcome the members home and upon the arrival of the regiment in Pittsburg there will be a monster military parade over the principal streets of the city to Schenley Park, where dinner will be served and swords and medals presented to the officers and men. Addresses will be made by President McKinley, Governor Stone, Congressman Dalzell and Lieutenant Colonel Barnett, and the regiment will then be finally dismissed. Harrisburg, Aug. 23 .- The state Republican convention will assemble tomorrow to nominate candidates for the state offices to be filled in November. J. Hay Brown, of Lancaster, is conceded to be the choice of the party leaders, and the indications are that he will be nominated on the first ballot for supreme court judge. Colonel James E. Barnett, of the Tenth Pennsylvania regiment, has a clear field for state treasurer, and there is apparently no opposition to Josiah R. Adams, of Philadelphia, for 81 perior court judge. A meeting of the candidates and chairman of the convention will be held on Thursday evening to elect General Frank Reeder, of Easton, chairman of the state committee, to succeed Attorney General

Destitute Porto Ricans

Washington, Aug. 23 .- A cable dispatch has been received at the war department from Géneral Davis giving additional details of the conditions in Porto Rico. He places the number of killed at 1,000 and reiterates his statement of 100,000 destitute. The MacPherson arrived Saturday afternoon and unloading proceeded Sunday morning. The cargo of the MacPherson has been forwarded to distributing centers. In few.limited areas the coffee is half safe, and in remaining areas the crop is almost totally ruined and the trees so injured that next year's crop will not exceed 50 per cent. average. All the bananas, beans, rice and corn are destroyed and half the potatoes.

No Revenue Stamps on Pawn Tickets.

Washington, Aug. 23 .- The commissioner of internal revenue has reversed the ruling of his bureau concerning the affixing of stamps to pawn tickets which contain a clause charging for storage, except where the charge is bona fide in the case of cumbersome articles or articles requiring special care for their preservation. This charge for storage on all articles has been a custom of pawn brokers to evade the state laws against usury. The commissioner now holds that the 25 cent stamp must not be affixed unless there is a bona fide agreement for storage charges as in the case of safes, clothing, household goods, etc.

complete light be thrown upon it. I insist that General Mercier answer me, for it is my right."

After Mercier's shuffling collapse M. Labori sank back into his armchair. great beads of perspiration standing on his forehead, but his countenance was radiant at the impression he had made.

Captain Dreyfus yesterday pursued the attitude he took up Monday, and replied to the statements of hostile witnesses with arguments and the presentation of counter facts, only once giving way to his feelings and offering a cry of protest. This was at the conclusion of Colonel Bertin's deposition. when, with broken voice, the accused declared his love of France and the army.

'Yes," he cried, "I love France and I love my country, but it is with sentiments different from those animating them who come here today to testily against me."

Labori, if anything, was better after his exertions than before them. The burg, a suburb of this city, Frank Radexcitement under which he labored seemed to act as a stimulant, although many friends noticing his flushed face, feared there might be a relapse.

The scurrilous tactics of the anti-Dreyfusard newspapers may be illustrated by a paragraph appearing in their organ here last evening, declaring that the attack on Labori, which, it insinuates, did very little harm, and was made solely to arouse the pity of the people of Rennes for the lamentable lot of an escaped convict from Devil's Island.

The spy Lajoux, so prominent in yesterday's evidence, was one of the least reputable connected with the intelligence bureau. He was paid to leave France and is still paid 200 francs a month. He knows all about Cuers, who betrayed Germany's secrets to France. and among others, that a decorated colonel of the general staff supplied Germany with important mobilization plans and other secrets. This was two years after Dreyfus was condemned, and the traitorous colonel was Henry. When Picquart was investigating this affair, Henry got himself sent to Bale to take the statements of Cuers and to browbeat him into suppressing the truth. Hush money is still being paid. On one occasion Lajoux was thrust into a lunatic asylum to prevent awkward disclosures.

Esterhazy Hooted.
