

WELCOMING THE HEROES

Pittsburg's Great Demonstration in Honor of the Fighting Tenth.

PRESIDENT M'KINLEY'S TRIBUTE.

He Will Urge Medals of Honor For Each of the Brave Men Who Remained at the Front After Their Term of Enlistment Had Expired.

Pittsburg, Aug. 29.—President McKinley left Pittsburg last night at 9 o'clock for East Liverpool, O., a very weary man. The entire day had been spent under the most trying circumstances, and the president was almost worn out. By the original program the regiment should have arrived at 19 o'clock in the forenoon, but there were numerous delays en route.

When the president finally headed the procession that escorted the Tenth regiment from Allegheny to Schenley Park it was 3 o'clock. Along the five-mile march the president received an ovation that was practically continuous from the thousands of persons along the route.

The reception tendered the returning soldiers will always be remembered in this city as one of the greatest demonstrations of patriotism that has ever taken place in this country. A fund of $55,000, donated by the generous citizens of Pittsburg and the surrounding towns permitted the committee who had the affair in charge to make lavish preparations for the homecoming, and nothing was left undone that would show the "fighting" Tenth how well their services for their country in a foreign land were appreciated by the residents of their native state. The only thing lacking to make the day one of supreme happiness was the absence of the brave and well beloved Colonel Hawkins.

The decorations of the streets and buildings were overwhelmingly rich and gorgeous and the five miles over which the parade took place was practically an unbroken line of flags, flowers, festoons and bunting.

The reviewing stand of President McKinley and his staff of notables in Schenley park was a magnificent work of art, composed of silk plush and damask, all blended tastefully in the colors of the national emblem.

Upon reaching Schenley park the column was reviewed by President McKinley, after which he proceeded to the music pavilion, where the exercises were held. Seats had been provided for 25,000 friends and relatives of the members of the Tenth in front of the music pavilion, but these were filled long before the exercises began, and thousands were unable to secure standing room within hearing distance.

An unlooked for incident occurred when the Tenth regiment filed in front of the reviewing stand in Schenley park. Shortly after the column began marching past the president the crowd on the hillside, which was immense, and contained many of the friends and relatives of the Tenth, commenced to surge forward and in a few moments the ropes and policemen were swept away and soldiers and friends mingled, passing the stand en masse. The movement had no ugliness about it, but was just a spontaneous dash of friends for long absent loved ones.

After music by the Economy band Major Lee S. Smith called the meeting to order and Rev. T. N. Boyle, D. D., delivered the invocation.

Governor William A. Stone was then introduced as chairman of the meeting and delivered an address of welcome in behalf of the state, concluding by introducing President McKinley, who delivered a speech warmly expressing the thanks of the people to the men who had remained on the firing line long after the legal date of their enlistment had expired, and rebuking the anti-expansionists "who would have rejoiced to see them have laid down their arms in the presence of an enemy whom they had just emancipated from Spanish rule and who should have been our firmest friends." He concluded by declaring that he would recommend to congress an especial medal of honor for each one of the brave men.

The president's speech was received with tumultuous applause, especially every reference to the gallant Tenth. When the speaker enumerated the several regiments entitled to special honors the boys of the Tenth took a hand in the cheering. As each regiment was mentioned the soldiers showed their delight in prolonged applause. The Twentieth Kansas (Colonel Funston's regiment) came in for an ovation. When the Nebraska regiment was mentioned the boys could with difficulty be stopped, but the Utah battery's name literally set the men wild. Cheer after cheer went up, and the regiment in chorus gave the Philippine yell several times. The Utah battery and the Tenth regiment were chums in the Philippines, and several times the Utah men shelled the jungles, driving the insurgents back while the Tenth slept after a battle.

Congressman John Dalzell followed in an eloquent address, and on behalf of the citizens of western Pennsylvania presented each of the commissioned officers with a sword, the chaplain a loving cup and every man in the regiment a beautiful medal. The presents were received by Colonel Barnett on behalf of the officers and men.

General Wesley Merritt was then introduced and made an address on behalf of the army.

After benediction by Dr. A. H. Lucas the regiment was marched to the park race track, where a sumptuous repast was served, and then they were finally dismissed.

After the soldiers had eaten their late dinner at the race track the several companies were taken in hand by committees from their several home towns and escorted to special trains to carry them home.

The Alabama a Success.

Lewis, Del., Aug. 30.—The builders' trial trip of the battleship Alabama yesterday resulted in the development of a maximum speed of 17 1/4 knots. The trial was satisfactory in every respect, and Edwin S. Cramp said the builders were delighted with the showing made. Several officers of the Alabama navy who were aboard expressed favorable opinions of the Alabama's seagoing qualities.

TWO TERRIBLE FATALITIES.

Falling Chicago Building Kills Ten. Four Dead in Convent Fire.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—Twelve steel arches, each weighing 33 tons, which were to have supported the superstructure of the Coliseum building in course of erection on Wabash avenue, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets, fell to the ground late yesterday afternoon and ten men were killed, while seven others were seriously injured, one of whom will probably die.

All of the 12 arches were standing, the twelfth and last having been completed yesterday, when suddenly and without the slightest warning the arch last put up suddenly fell over against the one next to it. The weight was too much for this, and it gave way, crashed against the third, and then one by one the great steel span fell over to the south, precisely in the same manner as a number of cards would fall.

Nearly all the men who were killed were at work on top of the arches, 40 feet above the ground. Some of them made futile attempts to slide down the side of the arches, but before they could save themselves they were hurled to the ground. Most of them were killed outright by the awful nature of their injuries. The skulls of the unfortunate men were crushed into shapeless masses, their limbs were cut off as if by a monster knife, and they were mangled beyond recognition.

Sparkhill, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Fire broke out at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, destroying nine of the ten buildings of St. Agnes' convent and orphanage, entailing a loss of $150,000, and caused the death of four persons. The dead are: Helen Brown, aged 6; Emma Mackin, aged 7; "Jane," a pensioner, aged 70; Kate McCarthy, aged 28. Jane was the only one who perished in the fire. The other died from convulsions and shock after being rescued.

GENERAL WHEELER'S ASSIGNMENT.

The Southern Fighter to Command General Funston's Brigade.

Manila, Aug. 30.—General Wheeler has been ordered to report to General MacArthur. He will be given command of General Funston's brigade, which Colonel Liscum has commanded temporarily. General Wheeler proceeded to San Fernando today, after having spent a week in energetically visiting the lines.

General Wheeler said to a press representative: "I am much pleased with the situation. I think that when Major General Otis gets more troops here he will make rapid progress. The country is more favorable for military operations than I supposed. The impression that the country is unhealthy is wrong."

The Cuban Census.

Washington, Aug. 30.—It is expected that the president's proclamation relating to the taking of the census in Cuba will be made at Havana very soon. Although it is well known that the taking of the census is intended as a preliminary step to the establishment of a republican form of government in Cuba, it is positively stated at the war department that there is nothing in the census proclamation to justify the assertion that the United States intends to give immediate independence to Cuba. The taking of the census will be followed by municipal elections and the inauguration of autonomy in localities where it is demonstrated that it is practicable and expedient.

The Demand For Commissioners.

Washington, Aug. 30.—With about 100 commissioned places yet to fill in the new regiments under organization Secretary Root finds himself overwhelmed with applications, even greater in number than the sum total of those received at the beginning of the Spanish-American war. The large majority of the men who held commissions in the volunteer army in that war are again applicants for service in the Philippines, reinforced by nearly all of those who held non-commissioned places. This same willingness to re-enter the service is said to be observable among the enlisted men.

Deroulede's Demand.

Paris, Aug. 30.—Paul Deroulede, founder and president of the League of Patriots and member of the chamber of deputies, who was arrested on Aug. 12 on his estate at Croissy, near Paris, and incarcerated in prison, charged with being involved in a conspiracy to accomplish a change in the form of government, has written a letter to President Loubet violently protesting against the "gross calumny involved in sending me for trial as a royalist conspirator," and demanding to be tried without further delay.

Commander Johnson's Ambition.

Cincinnati, Aug. 30.—Acting Commander-in-Chief W. C. Johnson, of the Grand Army of the Republic, will leave Cincinnati, accompanied by members of a number of posts, on Sunday next on the Pennsylvania road. His friends here appreciate the statement recently made that he will be satisfied with the honor of an election as commander-in-chief for the vacancy caused by Sexton's death. He will be a candidate for the full term.

Congressman Bland's Successor.

Jefferson City, Mo., Aug. 30.—Incomplete returns received last night from the Eighth Missouri district, in which an election was held yesterday to fill the unexpired term in congress of Richard P. Bland, deceased, show that Dorsey W. Shackelford (Democrat) has been elected over W. J. Voshell (Republican) by 2,200 plurality.

More Rioting in Cleveland.

Cleveland, Aug. 30.—Rioting and disorder broke out last night in connection with the strike on the lines of the Big Consolidated Street railway and four cars were nearly demolished, while the crews were compelled to flee for their lives. It was only after determined efforts on the part of 30 police that order was finally restored.

England and Russia to Arbitrate.

Pekin, Aug. 30.—It has been arranged between the Russian minister here, M. De Giers, and the British charge d'affaires, Mr. Bax Tronside, to submit the Hankow incident to arbitration.

THE TRIAL IN FRANCE.

Evidence Favorable to Dreyfus Being Introduced Daily.

M. DE FREYCHINET'S TESTIMONY.

Former Premier Opposes the Report of Foreign Money Being Sent into France to Aid Dreyfus Cause—Expert Bertillon's Testimony Riddled.

Rennes, Aug. 30.—Neither side was pleased with the outcome of yesterday's proceedings before the court martial that is trying Captain Dreyfus. The Dreyfusards expected that Colonel Cordier, who was deputy chief of the intelligence department under the late Lieutenant Colonel Henry, would testify that the bordereau was received directly by the late Colonel Sandherr. Colonel Cordier, however, testified that he was absent from the intelligence department when the bordereau arrived, but that he believed it was received by Henry. Naturally this statement elated the anti-Dreyfusards, but they had no good reason to congratulate themselves upon the remainder of Cordier's testimony, as it was wholly in favor of Dreyfus.

On the other hand the procession of generals and officers of the general staff who demanded an opportunity to confront Colonel Cordier was a good piece of tactics from the point of view of the anti-Dreyfusards. All the points they contested were not of the first importance, but their very appearance on the stage and the contradictions of some of Cordier's statements left a disagreeable impression.

The appearance of General Mercier to question Colonel Cordier came as a surprise to many in the audience, who had supposed that after last Saturday's scene, when Mercier was confronted with Captain Freystaetter, he would remain quiet. But Mercier is game to the death.

His action is interpreted as intended to show that he is not going to throw up the sponge. The part he played in

EXPERT BERTILLON.

1894 lays him open to arrest, and this is a constant topic of discussion in the cafes and at other meeting places in Rennes. There appears, however, to be a good reason why the government will not take any such serious step until the trial is over.

Yesterday's attendance was the largest since the opening of the trial. Everybody was on the qui vive to hear the testimony of Charles De Freychinet, former premier, former minister of foreign affairs and former minister of war. M. De Freychinet's expression of a fear that the Dreyfus agitation would injure the discipline of the army greatly annoyed the Dreyfusards, as calculated to influence the judges against the accused. But he followed it with an eulogy of the pioneer of the Dreyfus campaign, M. Scheurer-Kestner, former vice president of the senate, whose character he said he held in the highest esteem.

M. Labori then secured another concession favorable to Dreyfus by getting M. De Freychinet to admit that he could not recall a single fact going to prove that money had been sent into France from abroad to promote a campaign in favor of Dreyfus. The general feeling, however, is that his appearance on the witness stand has not materially helped the accused.

The sessions of the court last week were extremely sensational. On Thursday Colonel Maurel, who was president of the 1894 court martial, admitted reading one of the secret documents which had not been seen by the defense. He protested that only one document was looked at, alleging that this sufficed to enable him to form a conviction that could not be shaken. General Mercier, the ex-war minister, was frequently made to contradict himself by the adroit questioning of Mr. Labori. Whenever General Mercier was cornered he declined to answer, and Colonel Jouaust invariably supported him. M. Labori protested most energetically. His words and manner breathed the deepest indignation, but the president of the court martial was inflexible.

On Saturday Captain Freystaetter, who was a member of the 1894 court martial, testified that he was influenced in voting for Dreyfus' conviction on the evidence of Colonels Du Paty de Clam and Henry. He declared that both Generals Mercier and Colonel Maurel had sworn to lies. Mercier, in turn, declared that Freystaetter had sworn to a lie. The attitude of the captain, however, was convincing, and the Dreyfus cause won a great victory, despite the unfair discrimination of Colonel Jouaust.

On Monday last five witnesses appeared for Dreyfus and two against him. Handwriting expert Charvay declared Esterhazy the author of the bordereau, asserting that he had entirely changed his opinion since the conviction of Dreyfus. Faray-Juval, expert draughtsman, demonstrated the fallacy of Expert Bertillon's deductions. It was decided to appoint a commission to take the deposition of Paty du Clam, who is seriously ill.

PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICANS.

Nominations Made by a Remarkably Quiet Convention.

Harrisburg, Aug. 25.—The following ticket was nominated yesterday by the Republican state convention: Supreme court judge, J. Hay Brown of Lancaster; superior court judge, Josiah R. Adams of Philadelphia; state treasurer, Lieutenant Colonel James E. Barnett, of the Tenth Pennsylvania regiment.

The only discordant note in the convention was sounded by Senator William Flinn, of Pittsburg, chairman of the anti-Quay organization in the last legislature. Mr. Flinn opposed the plank in the platform endorsing the appointment of United States Senator Quay by Governor Stone. A roll call was taken on the adoption of the platform as a whole and it was adopted by a large majority.

Before the result of the ballot for supreme court was announced the friends of Judge Abbold and ex-Attorney General Palmer moved to make Mr. Brown's nomination unanimous. Superior Court Judge Dimmer Beeber, of Philadelphia, was named in opposition to Mr. Adams and received the votes of many anti-Quay delegates. The nomination of Colonel Barnett was made by acclamation.

The nomination of a supreme court judge is equivalent to an election by reason of two vacancies in the court and no elector being entitled to vote for more than one person.

ITEMS OF STATE NEWS.

Pittsburg, Aug. 26.—Notice has been given by the different producers of foundry coke that the price of their product will be advanced 25 cents per ton on Sept. 1. This will make the quoted price $2.75 per ton, for prompt delivery. The advance will add just $1 to the price that ruled at this time last year.

Philadelphia, Aug. 29.—Mrs. Hannah J. Wayne, wife of Major William Wayne, a prominent resident of Paoli, Chester county, Pa., near here, was burned to death yesterday. Her clothing took fire from a lighted candle which she was carrying. Mrs. Wayne was a direct descendant of "Mad" Anthony Wayne, as is her husband.

Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—The National Export Exposition association announces that two more governments, Peru and Guatemala, have appointed special envoys to the international commercial congress, which will assemble in this city on Oct. 10. This makes a total of 32 countries which have officially taken cognizance of the congress.

Scranton, Pa., Aug. 28.—Coroner Roberts yesterday prevented the interment of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reiber's 6-months-old daughter until he can have a jury pass upon the question of whether or not the parents of the child are guilty of criminal neglect in not calling a physician to minister to the little one during its prolonged illness of cholera infantum. The parents are Christian scientists.

Stroudsburg, Pa., Aug. 28.—A disease that is puzzling the farmers of this county has broken out near the western border of the county on C. A. Dorney's dairy farm at Hickory Run. Nearly 50 cattle have died during the past few weeks. At Albrightville the cattle are similarly affected, and a number have died. Dr. J. T. Rothrock, commissioner of forestry, has made an investigation, and his report will be made later.

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 28.—A severe storm that swept over this county Saturday night resulted in the loss of the life of Dr. Andrew Martin, aged 66 years, residing near Mount Joy. Dr. Martin was standing in the cellar of his house holding a brass lamp when lightning struck the building. The bolt, following the stovepipe, passed through the house and entered Dr. Martin's left side, causing death instantly. His sister, standing three feet away, escaped unhurt.

Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—Two clipper ships, the Tillie E. Starbuck, built of iron, and the St. Frances, a wooden vessel, both owned in New York, left this port yesterday to race to San Francisco, for stakes aggregating $10,000, put up by prominent shipping men. Their time will be counted from the moment they reach Cape Henlopen light. Picked crews are aboard each ship, and the race is expected to determine the mooted question as to whether the old wooden or the modern or steel ships are the most speedy.

Chester, Pa., Aug. 26.—A rear-end collision and disastrous wreck of two freight trains occurred at the Walnut street crossing of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad yesterday. No lives were lost, but the engineers, firemen and several of the brakemen had narrow escapes by jumping. The accident was caused by a through freight train coming around a sharp curve and crashing into the rear end of the other train. The trains collided with terrific force, and the wrecked cars were piled upon the tracks as high as the telegraph poles.

Franklin, Pa., Aug. 26.—Edith Dunn, 17 years old, of Sandy Creek township, was fatally shot at an early hour in the morning by Tyne Grove, a neighbor, who mistook the girl for a burglar. The girl came home from a church entertainment at 2 o'clock, and being unable to gain admission to her home, went to the house of Grove and knocked. Grove had drawn some money from the bank that day, and fearing burglars had not retired. He asked who was at the door several times, and receiving no reply he fired through the door. The bullet took effect in the girl's groin, and she cannot recover.

Philadelphia, Aug. 29.—A committee of three, representing the four local lodges of the International Association of Machinists, yesterday presented to the Cramp Shipbuilding company a set of resolutions embodying a demand for a nine hour workday at the yard and asking that the recently discharged men be re-employed. Charles H. Cramp declined to receive the committee and the demands were left in the hands of the secretary. Later a committee of blacksmiths sought an interview with Mr. Cramp, and failing to see him left a copy of their demands. The firm is given until next Friday to reply, and if the answer is not satisfactory the men say they will strike.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

OF COD-LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES

should always be kept in the house for the following reasons:

FIRST—Because, if any member of the family has a hard cold, it will cure it.

SECOND—Because, if the children are delicate and sickly, it will make them strong and well.

THIRD—Because, if the father or mother is losing flesh and becoming thin and emaciated, it will build them up and give them flesh and strength.

FOURTH—Because it is the standard remedy in all throat and lung affections.

No household should be without it. It can be taken in summer as well as in winter.
