Coburn.

HIGH VALLEY.

Ira Snyder is hauling lumber for a new barn.

The Ingley scribe has commenced writing again.

Samuel Alters finished the peach orchard and it looks very nice.

John Frankhouser, one of H. C. Kaip's men, of Milroy, is visiting at Eisenhuth's home.

Jess. Snyder took a fishing trip the other night, and the result was sixty eels—Sell wore gait.

Highvalley was blessed with a good rain on Sunday night, but it was too late for the corn and potatoes.

The Ingley scribe stated that two Highvalley ladies were left. Wonder what that scribe calls it when a lady comes to a hut with two children and takes a job cooking—she is not left; they have three such women who evidently like to live in a hut. Our Highvalley lady don't need to do that—won ich recht bin.

I noticed in the papers recently that Wm. Harter, of Hartleton, killed a snake that measured 5 feet 5 inches and had a young turkey in it. Highvalley can beat that. Recently four of us went down to Rupp's Hollow, often called Cherry Hollow, and there we saw some cows pasturing. A noise in the bushes attracted our attention and to our surprise we saw something that will beat the Union county story. There was an immense blacksnake trying to get away but it was so terribly distended that it could hardly move. The monster was easily killed, as it could neither defend itself or get away. In its mouth there was something protruding and we pulled it out and were horrified in finding it to be a young calf. This was on the dividing line between Centre and Union counties, and we imagined the snake was heading for home, as the fall campaign is coming on, and they roll up such immense republican majorities down in Union county.

GEORGETOWN.

The farmers are mostly all done with their plowing.

The corn is ready to cut off, and the crop is about a half one.

The teacher of the night school was in a pretty bad fix. The other evening he kept up his school a little late, and his horse got tired waiting and he slipped the halter and went for his oats, and left the buggy behind. But the teacher was not outdone; he hitched himself into the shafts and away he went at the rate of 20 miles an hour, for home.

The Coburn communication, to the Gazette, has it that Daniel Hosterman and R. F. Vonada are going to start up a printing office in the house formerly called "Stover's Still House," at Drum station. The above named party will start, as soon as the house is ready. This building will be in three different departments. One for the printing office and the other for the night school, and the third for a hall for the Drum Station Debating Society. The topic they had for the first night was "fire, water and character." The speakers were a carpenter, a merchant, a postmaster and an ex-preacher. The paper that will be started at Drum station will be called the "Drum Station Journal." J. F. Gardhoff will be printer's devil.

Rebersburg.

Hon. Henry Meyer, as a juror, is attending court this week.

Cow-drover, Walter, of Union county, was at our burg on Tuesday.

Elias Breon, of near this place, is attending court in Bellefonte, this week.

Prof. Harry Conser, of Sunbury, was the pleasant guest of Dr. Bright, over Sunday.

Mark Brungard, of Lock Haven, has been visiting friends at our burg, during the last week.

Willis Bierly, who had been seriously ill a few weeks ago, is visiting his old Bellefonte friends.

Thomas Ocker is repairing his house, where it was damaged by fire when Henry Brungard's house burned.

Mrs. Amanda Greeb, who died on last Friday morning, was buried on Monday morning in the Lutheran and Reformed cemetery. The exercises were conducted by Rev. Salem.

HOOD'S PILLS cure Liver Ills, Biliousness, Indigestion, Headache. Easy to take, easy to operate. 25c.

Linden Hall.

We have been favored with a good rain.

David Boozer, of Centre Hall, was through this section buying apples.

J. A. Gettys was a pleasant caller at the home of Chas. Schreffler, Sunday evening.

Miss Lydia Veihderfer, of Pine Glenn, is visiting her sister Mrs. Schieffler, for a few weeks.

Anna Cori and Maggie Weaver, of Pleasant Gap, visited Day Brooks a few days last week.

Will Zeigler was instrumental in getting a crowd to go to Penns Cave, Saturday, which was composed of himself and lady, Bruce Loneberger and Hattie Reitz. Where were the rest?

The Walnut Grove scratch has again awakened from his comatose state and, as before, had a three item column. Last spring we ran him out by advertising his news stand for sale. Now he comes out with "Wonder where the Linden Hall correspondent is sleeping I presume." Any old time he catches us sleeping, we will make it good. We mean any other time, than at night.

ALL THE FACTS. EDITOR DEMOCRAT—The Linden Hall correspondent must have a love for man, far greater than for justice and right. Anyone who things it justice for a brother to neglect to build his own line fence, between him and his sister on an adjoining farm, and let his stock trespass on their land, killing a yearling of theirs, and refuses to pay any damage done by his stock, or turn his 4-year-old bull out at large which wandered over sisters farm, smashing gates and fences time and time repeatedly, must have little respect for justice or woman either. If your correspondent sympathize's so deeply for this brother, he might come forward and pay the damages, and no doubt please the brother very much. Again, this is the first time we ever heard it was disrespectful for a lady to entrust her business to the management of her husband. "YANKEE" Stormstown.

Miss Juliet Gray left on Monday for Millersville State Normal.

Mrs. Stewart, of Pittsburg, is visiting her father, Rev. Harrison Mattern.

Miss Bessie Walker, of Pine Grove, visited her friend Miss Alice Mattern.

Mr. W. S. Gray and wife have returned from Newton Hamilton camp meeting.

Mrs. Clark Mattern and family, of Braddock, are visiting her father, Green Gray.

Mrs. Nicks and son of near Philadelphia are visiting at the home of J. H. Lever.

John Shu-y and family visited his mother, in Blair Co., the latter part of the week.

Benner Wilson left last week for Ocean Grove, Atlantic City, and other places of interest.

Miss Frye, of Tyrone, and Miss Chronister, of Bellefonte, are visiting at the home of G. W. Loner.

Miss Sophia Thompson, of State College, spent part of last week with her friend Miss Edith Harlacher.

The Quakers will hold their yearly meeting Sunday Sept. 4th, at the Meeting House several miles below town.

Mr. Horace Elder and daughter Verna, of Tyrone, visited his sister Mrs. Fannie Gray, several days last week.

"The Milk Maid's Convention," which was given last Thursday evening, by the young ladies of this place, under the direction of the Literary department of Epworth League, was quite a success, and first class in every respect.

Everybody (perhaps we should except the Hunter's Park picnickers) was glad to see the rain on Saturday evening, as it was very much needed. Quite a number of wells in town were dry and some farmers have had to haul water for some time.

Axemann.

Here we are again. Some of our farmers are cutting corn fodder.

New floors were put in the school house, in this town, last week.

Lots of rain on Saturday and Sunday which was needed very badly.

Frank Beck, of Houserville, spent Sunday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Beck of this town.

Jacob Kaup, of Lewistown, spent one day last week at the home of his brother Reuben Kaup, of this town.

Perry Steele, Sr., one of our oldest citizens, has been on the sick list for the last few days, but is better at this writing.

Some of our people expect to attend the Business Men's picnic, at Hecla Park, on Thursday, if the weather is favorable.

Bush Meeting.

The United Evangelical church of Loganton, Pa., will hold a bush meeting in the grove of Joseph H. Long, north of Rosecrans, beginning Friday evening, Sept. 1st, to continue over Sunday. All are heartily invited to attend. Preaching on Sunday at a. m., 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. Sacrament of the Lord's supper Sunday forenoon. C. F. Garrett, pastor.

Good Enough to Take.

The finest quality of loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to that of maple syrup, making it very pleasant to take. As a medicine for the cure of coughs, colds, la grippe, croup and whooping cough it is unequalled by any other. It always cures, and cures quickly. For sale by P. Potts Green, Druggist, Bellefonte, Pa.

Cutting School.

Miss Snook, of Allegheny street, will open a cutting school, September 4th, teaching the "Scientific lady taylor system of cutting" from the diamateur of arms-eye; taught separately or in classes. Instructions on ladies' coat cutting, a specialty. x36

—THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT will be sent to any new address until January 1, 1900, for 20 cents.

HAMILTON'S ANSWER.

for reason of their own, and which are purely selfish, personal dislike.

You call in question, also the right of the Secretary to employ from time to time such additional clerical assistance in the department as his exigencies may require. He certainly has his right. His predecessor paid for extra service, and for this he had full authority of law. The Secretary, also, has authority to secure such help for securing cleanliness and order in the rooms of the department as he may see fit to employ, and such experts to make special investigation as in his judgment may be found necessary. Your criticism, therefore, is based upon a misapprehension of the law regulating the department in these respects.

I hope that these facts may correct any misapprehension, if misapprehension existed, as to the attitude of the Secretary toward the Grange, and I close this letter, already too long, with my expression of the highest respect for the purpose of your order, and an earnest desire for its cordial co-operation in the great work of elevating the farming industry in both the State and nation. I remain,

Very truly yours,
JOHN HAMILTON.

SUGAR VALLEY R. R.

Railroad news from Sugar Valley has been a standing joke for years. The latest story is from the Lock Haven Express on Friday, which we hope is true:

The people of Sugar Valley after many years of waiting for a railroad to be built in that section of the state, are likely in the near future to have their hopes realized and to see two railroads constructed. Work on the extension of the Kulp railroad to Loganton it is stated has already been commenced.

J. F. Duncan & Company who have extensive lumbering operations in the fourteen mile narrow, east of Carroll, have constructed a railroad from Watstown to a point half way through the narrows. Engineers are now at work it is said locating a route for an extension of the road to Loganton. It is further reported that this road will eventually be extended to Lamar where it will connect with the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania.

Big Contract Secured.

The Tyrone Shoe company have been declared the successful bidders for the contract to manufacture 30,000 pairs of calfskin shoes to be delivered at the National Home for Disabled Volunteers at Dayton, Ohio. The government asked for bids, as is the custom each year, and there was sharp competition among factories of the country to secure the heavy and desirable order.

The Tyrone Shoe factory has been steadily busy upon its usual trade, and its present capacity is about 400 pairs of shoes per day. This capacity will be at once increased. There will be a number of new employes given positions, and it is possible that the business prosperity may soon warrant the operation of the factory during the night as well as during the day.

Flourishing.

The citizens of Madera naturally feel elated over the boom their town is likely to experience as a result of the industry now being established there, known as the Carman Manufacturing company, composed chiefly of local capitalists, for the purpose of manufacturing a new invention known as the Carman combination couch and bath tub. A three-story building, 50x100, feet is now in course of erection. It is expected the plant will be ready for operation about six weeks hence, when perhaps over 200 hands will be employed.

An Innocent Lamb.

Nineteen witnesses were called at Clearfield, to testify in the case of Mrs. Sarah Kline vs. George W. Mattern. The price of a scrubby lamb was all that was between the litigants, but the three prominent attorneys smiled serenely as they received their retainers, and 19 witnesses filed bills of costs, while three arbitrators each earned $1. The case was quite complicated and compared very closely with the Western calf case, which cost two neighbors four valuable farms while seeking vindication.

New Style Money Order.

The postoffice department has adopted a new form of domestic money order which will be introduced gradually after September 4. It is the size of an ordinary bank draft and has two new features, the use of carbon manifold paper for reproducing the order instead of writing it twice as at present, and also a receipt. It is expected the charge for orders will be materially reduced about January 1.

Going to Nebraska.

It is reported on good authority that Rev. Samuel Blair, of Altoona, formerly of Morrisdale Mines, has concluded to locate in Nebraska, exchanging pulpits with a Methodist minister desirous of coming east. It is expected that he and his family will leave for their new field in October.

GARBRICK-SMELTZER.

A pleasant event occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Garbrick, near Bellefonte, Wednesday, August 23, in the marriage of their only daughter, Miss Sallie Garbrick to William C. Smeltzer, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smeltzer of Pleasant Gap. Miss Minnie Smeltzer, a sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Clarence Garbrick, a brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Prof. J. Ellery Johnson, of Rote, Pa., played the wedding march which began at 11:25 a. m., and five minutes later the bride, handsomely gowned in batiste satin with spangled netting, and groom preceded by the bridesmaid and best man, marched out of the house and stationed themselves on the spacious and appropriately decorated porch, taking their place before the officiating minister, Rev. Leisher, of the Lutheran church at Boalsburg and Pleasant Gap, who with the usual solemn and impressive ceremony pronounced the contracting parties husband and wife.

After the knot was tied Mr. Leisher introduced Mr. and Mrs. Smeltzer to their many friends who in turn extended congratulations. The wedding party adjourned to the dining room to partake of a sumptuous repast that had been prepared. Nearly two hundred invited guests and friends enjoyed the great hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Garbrick. The young couple received many valuable, beautiful and useful presents.

On Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. Smeltzer left over the Central railroad, for Philadelphia, Atlantic City, Baltimore, Washington and other eastern cities. They will be gone about two weeks.

The bride is an accomplished young lady in every sense of the word, and the groom is a school teacher by profession; is an energetic, trust-worthy and ambitious young man. They have the best wishes of their many friends and acquaintances for a bright, prosperous and happy life.

Among those present were the following: Bellefonte—Joseph Garbrick and family, Edward Jodon and family, Foster Jodon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Holloway Hoy, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hazel, John Ishler and family, Mrs. Ella Garbrick and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kaup, Miss Annie Kline, Clark Carson, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Royer, Harry Gentzel, Miss Clara Gentzel, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Gentzel, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rothrock, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Keller, W. A GENTLE REMINDER.

EDITOR CENTRE DEMOCRAT:

When the present proprietor of the Daily News and Republican took charge of these papers, he came out with a glowing salutory pledge that the Daily News would be devoted entirely to the latest news. Any reader of the Daily News knows how well he has kept that pledge. I am sure it is not pleasant for the many democratic subscribers of that small sheet to have those insulting and distasteful political flings cast at them, daily, at a cost of four dollars per year, payable quarterly.

Should the editor persist in devoting so much of the space to politics, we can assure him that his subscription list to the Daily News will "grow smaller by degrees and beautifully less."
