HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines.

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS

What Has Transpired During the Past Week -Movements of Our People-What the Local Scribe Saw Worthy of Mention-A Week's Local News in a Few Words.

-Several severe frosts have given the vegetation a nipping that has turned it brown.

-Miss Anna Confer one of Bellefonte's pleasant young ladies, is attending the fair at Milton this week.

-Dr. J. B. Krebs, of Pine Grove Mills, and a recent graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, will locate at Northumberland, Pa.

-Frank Wallace and sons, of Milesburg, have the contract of putting up Jesse Cox's new stable in Bellefonte and furnishing the brick.

-Major Harvey H. Benner, formerly an old resident of Bellefonte, now a citizen of Atlantic City, arrived in town last week to pay friends a short visit. Mr. Benner has not been well the past few months.

-J. H. Tebbs, of Howard, this year brought to the Bellefonte market and sold 140 bushels of tomatoes and over 25,-000 pickles. These pickles were raised in one-fourth acre of land and the tomatoes on less than one-half acre.

-It has been announced that the 47th Reg. U. S. Vols., will move from Camp Meade in about thirty days and proceed to the Philippines by way of New York and the Suez canal. The Centre county boys expect to be home for a few days before the start is made.

-William McCalmont, formerly an efficient clerk in Green's drug store, left for Philadelphia Thursday, where he entered the Medico-Chirurgical College, and will pursue the regular course. Senator Heinle was successful in securing a free scholarship for him.

-C. H. Murray, Esq., has decided to settle permanently in Denver, Col., to in Bellefonte. Mr. Beck comes here as practice in his law profession. He had an employe of the Standard Scale combeen located in Philadelphia for several | pany. years past until last spring, when, owing to throat trouble, he was compelled to day afternoon defeated Gettsyburg by abandon his practice and that climate.

-Solomon Peck, Esq., who for several years was superintendent of the Nittany came anyways near scoring. Rod & Gun Club's property, at Hecla, ! has resigned his position and returned to for Niagara Falls where he has secured his former home at Nittany. Mr. Peck employment in one of the large factories. proved an elegant host at the club house | For a number of years he was employed and his hospitality always made the by Gerberich & Hale, the millers at this place inviting to the members.

well known clothing dealers, have taken | Daniel Dreibelbis, of State College, drops considerable space in our issue this week in to see the editor with a bit of coin to to tell you of their complete line of cloth- make him happy, and to know that he ing for this season. They are anxious is reading his own paper. That was to have you know what they are doing part of his business in town on Tuesday. in the clothing trade, and employ the advertising columns to do it. They are election district to another, between this up to date in everything they do.

He lives in the famous Kansas corn belt | dence. and says they can beat any section of the late war. Frosperity seems to be smiling upon him in his western home.

-Messrs Harvey Bowersox and Martin Dreibelbis, two prosperous young farmers of near State College, called to see us on Saturday and advance the date of their labels, and say an encouraging word to Morris, met with quite a serious accident the editor in his efforts to furnish them with a good paper. Both are staunch demoarats and as clever a set of gentlemen as you will find in a day's travel.

-On Saturday we had a pleasant call and sprained. from A. G. Heckman, of Seville, Medina county, Ohio, who is visiting friends in this section. Mr. Heckman is a brother of our present County Commissioner, Daniel Heckman, and left this county in 1853, yet he remembers many of the older citizens. Like his brother he is an enthusiastic democrat and has great confidence in McLean carrying Ohio this

-The hunting season does not open until Oct. 15, rather the 16th, as the 15th comes on Sunday, and you are liable to a heavy fine if you go hunting on that day. Already we hear of parties being in the woods shooting small game. It is the duty of anyone who knows of game law yiolations to report the same to a constable and have a return made. Every fellow caught in the woods, out of election will be held in the armory of to a separation. Bower thought that Mr. Hall was a brother of Mrs. Prison general principles; if he is not shootany game it is because it don't come in fill any other vacancy which may occur.

-On Saturday G. M. Neff, of Johnsonburg, Pa., was in town and called to see us. He is a son of Joseph Neff, the auctioneer, and everybody knows who that Mr. Neff has been located at Johnsonburg for several years and holds a good position in the large paper mills at paper mills at that place represents an outlay of $8,000,000 and employs a great many skilled workmen. But a few years of flourishing industries.

-J. B. Swartz, of Beech Creek, paid us a pleasant visit on Saturday.

-J. T. Carner, of Kansas, was in town ast week greeting the old friends he remembers here.

burg, is visiting her brother, f. D. Shu- scription another year. gert on West Linn street.

-Miss Sadie Boalick, of this place, departed Wednesday for Philadelphia and serious illness. where she will visit friends.

-Mrs. Mary E. Warfield, of Pasadena, Warfield, of West Linn street.

-Miss Elizabeth Blanchard departed she will remain for the winter.

-Prof. A. Reist Rutt, principal of the Milton High School, arrived in Bellefonte Saturday afternoon and remained

-Letter Carrier Robert Woodring is confined to his home by illness. His Charles Wetzel.

-Miss Edith Otto returned home Saturday morning from an extended visit to Cowdrick, of Niagara Falls.

-Miss Louise G. Harper, who had been visiting friends at Radford, Virginia, p. m. Washington, Lewisburg and Williamsport, returned home Saturday.

move back to State College from Centre Hall and Dr. Juo. F. Alexander will re- the house. sume his practice in the latter place.

Thursday for Philadelphia, where she will begin a winter's work as an instructor in the DeLancy school in that city. -Miss Sara Malin left last week for Washington, D. C., where she will at the home of Major R. C. Cheesman.

-Miss Bertha Atwood left for Snow Shoe Monday, where she will take charge of a milinery establishment in connection with T. B. Buddinger's store.

-Prof. G. F. W. Mark, formerly of Gregg township, is at Harvard University as a graduate student, instead of an instructor, as was stated in our last issue.

-J. W. Beck and family, of St. Johnsbury, Vt., have taken up their residence

-State College foot ball team Saturthe score of 40 to o. Gettysburg played a loose game all through, and at no time

-This Thursday J. M. Garbrick left place.

-You will notice that Faubles, the | -As regular as the year comes around thrilling experiences to relate of fighting

-A change of residence from one time and November 6th, will disqualify -J. I. Jones, of Hiawatha, Kansas, a one from voting this year. Don't forget former resident of Miles township, is this, and also impress it upon those who visiting friends in this section at present. propose changing their place of resi-

-Tuesday morning about a quarter of country in that line. Mr. Jones was a an inch of ice was found in the pools at for the courtesy of an invitation, on that rived Mr. Page was dead. member of the 148th regiment during the the fountains, in the court house yard. occasion. In their way, newspaper men It was the coolest morning we have had. The frosts have opened the chestnut burrs'and the crop is being harvested by young and old.

-J. C. McCloskey, who is employed at the Buffalo Run Lime Kilns of A. G. last Thursday afternoon. While break- Hardly a day passes but we come across ing on the shifting engine he was accidentally thrown off and his left foot was friends in this county, where he was ment occurred Monday morning. caught by the wheels and badly crushed born and raised. Many of them say it is

-William Musser, of Jewell City, Kansas, is visiting Centre county relatives to say about their wonderful corn crop this year but could not endorse all we said in that line in our last issue.

-A farewell party was held at the residence of A.M. Greninger and family, on East Howard street, last Friday evening, in honor of Misses Bessie and Minnie Greninger, by their young friends in town. The family expect to move to Philadelphia soon where they will make their future home. About sixty young people were present and all enjoyed themselves.

-On Friday evening at 8 o'clock an season with a gun, should be prosecuted Co. B, to choose a first lieutenant to sucthis constituted a divorce and that he cilla Bell, of East Howard street and a ceed Lieut. George L. Jackson, and to It will be conducted by Capt. W. Fred liamsport. Reynolds, Adjutant of the 5th Regiment. Chas. Taylor is prominently mentioned for this position and Philip Garbrick for Second Lieutenant.

week is that of A. C. Mingle, the popular | the Danville Asylum, was brought back shoe dealer on Allegheny street, who for trial, at Lock Haven last week. By that place. He tells us that one of the has something to say to all shoe purchas- an agreement of all the attorneys con- Stormstown. The funeral took place Mingle is one of the oldest shoe dealers rendered: "Guilty in manner and form in the county and has established a large as indicted, but now insane." The renago the town of Johnsonburg was a small trade as well as an enviable reputation dering of the verdict in this form means affair, but now it is one of the liveliest for square dealing and reliable goods. that the defendant will not be sentenced for the present season.

-George T. Bush attended the Dewey celebration in Washington, this week.

-Clement Dale, E-q., is attending to legal business in Toledo, Ohio, this week. -Wm. Reber, of Colver, stopped in -Mrs. W. E. Burchfield, of Philips- on Wednesday and advanced his sub-

> Mrs. Isabella Richard, of East Linn street, is much improved from her long | William C. Breon, and serious illness | Ada V. Wian, -

-Miss Lea Daggett departed Monday for Baltimore, Md., where she will spend Cal., is a guest of her son, Mr. Frank the winter as a student at the Nortre Dame school in that city.

-Ren T. Clayton, of New York City, Friday morning for Philadelphia, where has been made superintendent of the Nit- Mann, March 10, 1899; for 37 acres and Soloman Peck, who resigned.

> -Frank T. Beers, chemist at the Bellefonte Furnace, will be united in marriage to Miss Clara Olmstead, at Emporium, Pa., this Thursday noon.

-Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Williams, John place is being filled by Substitute Carrier L. Kurtz, John Sourbeck were some of the Bellefonters who took in the Dewey celebration, at New York last week.

-Rev. Dr. Holloway will preach the her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. first of the series of sermons on "Repre-Sunday evening. Services begin a 7 road Company, who has been ill with possible. -Dr. John Robinson has decided to stomach trouble for several weeks past is somewhat better but is still confined to W. Crider and W. Fred Reynolds, two Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Miller, of 1385 N.

-The Pension Department recently -Miss Rebekah Blanchard left last granted an original pension of $6 per month to Jacob Rhone, of State College, and an increase from $6 to $10 per month to William Taylor of Loveville.

-The Bellefonte foot ball team was defeated by the Philipsburg eleven at spend the next couple of weeks visiting that place Saturday, by a score of 11 to The boys say they had an enjoyable trip, even if they did not win the game.

> -A birthday entertainment will be given by the Mission Band of the Bellefonte United Evangelical church. Thursrefreshments will be served. All are in-laved for a short time.

for him in the shape of a surprise party cheaper here than most anywhere else. at his home on North Penn street. Eighoccasion. The evening passed very match maker who will bring enough

Pa., a member of Co. A 10th Regiment, machinery and other supplies. Pennsylvania Volunteers, entered as a sophmore, at State College. He was one of the Manila heroes and has many years has had the effect of bringing his widow. many of the early settlers east on a visit. seemed to be against them.

-Tuesday evening David F. Kelly and Miss Jean Stewart Shugert, both of this place, were married at the Catholic parsonage by Rev. Patrick McArdle. The bride and groom were accompanied by Wm. T. Kelly a brother of the groom and Miss Susie Collins, of Philadelphia.

"Second Annual Farmer's Day" are farmers too.

Western Visitors.

Was Captured.

of George Beezer, was arrested Friday the house of Joseph Gunsalus. noon and lodged in jail charged with peace and there signed a paper agreeing | sided in Bellefonte for many years. was free to marry again. All parties cousin of the venerable John Fury, of concerned were originally from Wil- Pleasant Gap and Mrs. Barbara Rankin,

Brumgard Insane.

George C. Brumgard, of Lamar, who burned his farm buildings and then at--Among the new advertisements this tempted suicide, and later was sent to and the following children:-Abednego, sent to an asylum instead.

IN THE COURT HOUSE.

Legal Intelligence Gathered From Various W. Snyder Miller, Postmaster of Rebersburg against the grain. Offices.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. Geo. P. Clune, Franklin, Pa. Julia E. Brown, Jacob T. McCool, Spring Mills Rosie S. Ungart, -Bellefonte Thos. A. Bennage, - Kelley X Roads Kate Long, David J. Kelly, - Bellefonte Jean S. Shugert, tany Rod and Gun Club, in place of Mr. 61/2 perches of land in Curtin Twp., for $30. Mary A. Barr's adm's to Roland Rich-

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS. Roland C. Mann et ux to Harry E.

28 perches land in Huston Twp., for

MATCH FACTORY.

Another Large Industry For Bellefonte, That Will Soon be in Operation.

For some time it has been known here that Bellefonte was to have a large match sentative Young Men of the Bible," on factory. At the special request of F. W. Crider, one of the promoters, this paper made no mention of the same, as they -John J. Walsh, of the Central Rail- desired to have it kept quiet as long as

The enterprise will be operated by F. of our leading capitalists, and Mr. Crider assured the writer that it was a certainty. The factory will be located on the meadow below Reynolds' flouring mill. A large force of men have been at work the past few days draining the same and Altoona and was a caller at this office. laying out the foundations.

wide in the main building, with a boiler for him to do was to provide for his apand engine house and chemical building pearance at Scranton court. He is much separate. All will be brick, one and distressed over the accusations made two stories high, with slate roof. Archi- against him, and the consequent reflectect Robert Cole is working on the de- tion upon his character. He, as well as sign now. The company will get the some of the leading citizens of that comsite in shape and put up the foundations, munity who were here with him, characday evening, Oct. 5, at 8 o'clock. Choice but the structure above will be let to con- terize this prosecution as nothing but a

-Tuesday morning four freight cars ent of the Hanover and York match ing else. We have always heard Mr. loaded with crushed stone were derailed factories, who is the owner of valuable Miller spoken of in the highest terms, on the Bellefonte Central Railroad near patents in match making machinery, and are not ready to believe that he is the Glass works and the track was torn and come here with a proposition and guilty of this charge until so proven. up for a short distance. Traffic was de- the gentlemen took it up; preferring to For that reason we ask the public not to make the venture themselves to having pass judgment on him until such facts Tuesday evening the friends of Ellis | the factory go elsewhere. It is claimed | are proven. Should this turn out a case Hall planned a very pleasant surprise that matches can be made just a little of persecution, we would advise the citi-

The factory will be under the direc- and feathers for the accuser. teen couples were present to enjoy the tion of S. W. Donachy, an experienced skilled workmen with him to run it. Mr. -Frank C. Kunkel, of Homestead, Donachy is now in Baltimore purchasing

RECENT DEATHS.

W. H. PAGE:-W. H. Page, one of our respected citizens, expired shortly after dence on Allegheny street, of heart failure. His health had been impaired for the past year or more. He had been constantly at his post of duty in Sechler & Co's grocery store. Thursday evening he returned to his home at the usual hour and during the evening called with Mrs. Page to see his physician, Dr. Hibwill be observed at the Nittany Rod & Jer. About I o'clock the attention of his Gun Club's house, Hecla Park, Saturday, wife was attracted by the suffering at-October 14th. We hereby extend our tending his seizure. Mrs. Page hurried. Musser, 339 Monroe Avenue, Scranton, do. do., straight, $3.9093.70. Wheat firm; compliments to the committee in charge ly summoned Dr. Hibler but when he ar. on Thursday, October, 12th. The bride spot and the month, 14%@74%c.; Decemand was born in New York State. Some Samuel Sheffer, on Curtin street. twenty-three years ago he located in Bellefonte, and for the past seventeen The large crops that have prevailed in years he has been in the employ of Sech-

Funeral services took place Saturday

JOSEPH QUAY :-- An aged and well their first visit to the east in years, and known citizen of Beech Creek died sudthe reason is that they seem to have the denly on Tuesday of heart failure. Mr. spare money now to make the trip. For Quay was at work getting out timber for just now. He left this section about several years they had abundant crops a new house which he intended to build thirty years ago. Mr. Musser has much at fair prices and that means they have and James Falls was helping him. The a bit more money to spend. The western men had just finished eating their dinner farmers have certainly been fortunate, when Mr. Quay fell suddenly over and for there were times when everything died. He was aged 70 years, and is survived by two sons Charles and James, and three daughters, Mis. Joseph Gunsalus, Mrs. John Earon and Mrs. Albert Frank Bower, a hostler in the employ Smith. The funeral will be held from

JOHN F. HALL:-A former citizen of bigamy. The prosecutor was his first Bellefonte but for many years a resident wife Ophelia Bower, of Williamsport. of Tyrone, died last Friday morning at Bower married his second wife last July the home of his daughter, Mrs. Carrie at Altoona. He claims that his first wife | Hardy, in that city. Mr. Hall was born accompanied him before a justice of the in Centre County 82 years ago and reof this place.

Mrs. Henry Stevens :- died Monday evening of dysentery, at her home in Stormstown. She was aged about 75 years. She is survived by her husband Blair and Lloyd, of Clearfield county; George, of Martha; Vinton, of Julian; Mrs. Charles Blake and James, of ers, and that means the public. Mr. cerned, this verdict was ordered to be this Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. NANCY KECKLER: Daughter of the late Henry Keckler, who was an old and respected citizen of Bellefonte, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Franklin inland towns in the state, with a variety His store is stocked up fuller than ever to the penitentiary, but that he will be morning, aged 55 years. Interment in Shuey, on Upper Rock road Monday Union cemetery.

POSTMASTER ARRESTED.

Charged with Tampering with Mails.

A sensation was created in Rebersburg dead than alive. by the arrest of Postmaster Miller on - Philipsburg | Monday, who was taken to Altoona for a hearing. The tollowing appeared in the Altoona Tribune on Wednesday morn-

"William S. Miller, postmaster at Rebersburg, Centre county, was arrested Monday afternoon by United States Deputy Marshal John Roe, of this city, on the charge of opening, reading and examining mail matter passing through his hands, preferred by Harley T. Gregory, United States postoffice inspector. Miller was brought to this city yesterday. He was arraigned before United States Commissioner McLeod for a hearing. The accused postmaster was represented by ex-Congressman Hicks, while Inspector ards, May 5, 1898; for 65 acres and Gregory looked after the interests of the government.

Inspector Gregory testified that numerous complaints have been received in regard to mail matter having been tamered with at the Rebersburg postoffice. He also testified as to the manner in which he had entrapped Postmaster Miller, by apprehending a letter at Centre Mills, the next postoffice. The letter had been delayed a day after having been posted, and when it came into the hands of the inspector it bore fresh mu cilage. Inspector Gregory was handicapped in his work of investigating the case by the defendant learning of his presence in the vicinity of Rebersburg and so was on his guard. Postmaster George W. Diehl, of Centre Mills, and Nineteenth street, Philadelphia, testified. Commissioner McLeod held the defendant in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the March term of United States court at Scranton.

Wednesday Mr. Miller returned from He says that at the hearing no testimony, The factory will be 260 ft. long by 60 ft. on his part, was asked for and that all malicious persecution by well known S. A. Donachy, formerly superintend- individuals-petty spitework, and nothzens of that community to prepare tar

Tumor Removed.

September the 14th, Mr. John T. Stewart, of Munson Station, accompanied his wife to Philadelphia where she Medical Hospital for the removal of a large tumor. The operation was performed on Tuesday of last week, and I o'clock Friday morning at his resi- proved successful, and she is improving as rapidly as could be expected. Mrs. Steward's numerous friends in this section will be pleased to hear of her encouraging condition.

Invitations Sent.

Miss Marion Edith Musser, to Paul D. Sheffer, of this place, at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. elect is well known here having visited Mr. Page was about 58 years of age quite frequently at the home of Mr.

Weighing the Mails.

In accordance with orders from the the western states the past two or three | ler & Co. Mr Page is survived only by | postmaster general, the weighing of all | Rye steady; No. 2 nearby, 580,580; No. 2 mail matter passing through the postoffice was begun Tuesday morning at 7 $12.59@14. Grain freights firmer; steam to at his late residence. The remains were o'clock, and will continue for thirty-five Cork, for orders, per quarter, 2s. 74d.@ some western farmer who is visiting taken to Williamsport where the inter- days. The work falls on the regular 3s. 2d. October.

SS SHOES FOR FALL.

HOW sensible and service-able they look! Have you peeked into our show windows yet? There they

Styles without end-for both sexes and all ages-are now in stock and, despite all the "trust" and "high price" talk you've seen in the papers, we will be to the penny as low as we sold equal qualities last

MEN'S We have a line of SHOES. dignified, Stylish Shoes that are easy fitting and comfortable, and worth all the goodness of any $3.50 shoe in the market, though we are selling them at

Three Dollars a Pair. They are made in Vici,

Box Calf and Russia Calfheavy welted soles, either leather or drill lined. Splendid shoes at this popular price

Mingle's Shoe Store.

It doesn't help the farmer any to get mad every time the least thing goes

The undertaker's business is more

Perhaps you have had the grippe or a hard cold. You may be recovering from malaria or a slow fever; or possibly some of the children are just getting over the measles or whooping cough.

Are you recovering as fast as you should? Has not your old trouble left your blood full of impurities? And isn't this the reason you keep so poorly? Don't

THE PRODUCE MARKETS.

Philadelphia, Oct. 2.-Flour quiet: winter superfine, $2.25@2.40; Pennsylvania clear, $3.10@2.20; city mills, extra $2.50@2.70. Rye flour firm at $3.30 per bar No. 2 red, spot, in elevator, 73% @74%c. forn firm; No. 2 mixed, spot, in elevator underwent an operation in the Jefferson 28146 38%c.; No. 2 yellow, for local trade Oats firm: No. 2 white, clipped 114c.; lower grades, 28629c. steamed, $5.87%. Butter firm: western creamery, 17@24c.; do. factory, 14@16c. ery, 141/6181/c.; New York dairy, 15622c do. creamery, 17@24c.; fancy Pennsylva nia prints jobbing at 25@28c.; do. whole sale, 24c. Cheese firmer; large, white, 117 12c.; small do., 11%c.; large, colored, 11 small do., 12c. Eggs strong; New York Invitations are out for the wedding of and Pennsylvania, 201/6/21c.; western, un graded, 14018c Baltimore, Oct. 2 .- Flour firmer; western superfine, $2.35@2.45; do. extra, : do, family, $2,4002,50; winter wheat patent, $3,85@4.05; spring do. do., $4@4.25; 70%c.; southern, by sample, 68675%c.; do on grade, 714,675c. Corn quiet; mixed, spot, 29224c.; the month, 2846284c.; November or December, new or old, 269 25%c.; January and February, 25% @36c.; steamer mixed, 274,6274c.; southern, white, 416 t2c.; do. yellow, 42c. Oats firm; No. 2 white, 256/30c.; No. 2 mixed, 271/6/28c Butter firm: fancy creamery, 24@25c.; fancy imitation, 18@ clerks who will have a busy time of it at 19c.; fancy ladle, 16@17c.; good ladle, 15@ 16c.; store packed, 14@15c.; rolls, 14@16c. 121/012%c.; medium, 12%@12%c.; small, 12%@18c.

> Lock Haven Markets. Prices of produce at the Lock Haven curb market Wednesday morning were as follows:

Butter, 20 to 22c; eggs, 20c; chickens, per pair 50 to 60c; ducks, per pair 50 to oc; potatoes, 40 to 50c; cabbage, per head 3 to 6c; onions, per bushel 60 to 8oc; beets, per bunch 5c; carrotts, per bunch 5c; Radishes, per bunch 5c; lima beans, per quart 100; sweet corn, per dozen 102; apples, peck 10c; mangoes, per dozen 8 to 10c; squashes, 3 to 10c; egg plants, 5 to 7c; omatoes, per peck 15 to 18c; celery, per stalk 2 to 5c; cider, per gallon 10c; turnips, per peck 10c; quinces, per dozen 15 to 25c; honey, per pound 15c; lard, per pound 8 to 9c; corn, per bu., in ear 40 to 5oc; oats, per bu. 30 to 35c; pears, will sell shoes at prices that per peck 40 to 50c; chestnuts, per quart

Bellefonte Markets.

æ	The following prices are paid by SECHLER &
7
4	Potatoes per bushel
•	Eggs per dozen
4	Lard, per pound
,	Rutter, per pound
6	Side, per pound
	Shoulder, per pound 06
億
	(GRAIN corrected weekly by Gerberich, Hale & Co., Bellefonte, Fa.) Red wheat per bushel, old 68 Red wheat per bushel, new 66 Rye, per bushel 30 Corn, ears per bushele 35 Barley per bushel 35 Barley per bushel 35 Coburn Markets.

the dealers at Cobur Wheat (old) per bushel. Wheat (new) per bushe Oats, nice white.....