Modern Woodmen Banquet.

On Monday evening, of this week, Bellefonte Camp of the Modern Woodmen of America gave a banquet to the State College Camp, at Harrison's Bakery. Dr. M. J. Locke acted as toastmaster, and after a few appropriate remarks introduced the following named gentlemen, who, in a witty and eloquent manner, kept the banqueters in a continuous uproar of laughter and merriment: "Progress of Woodcraft," District Deputy Hunter, Howard; "Extracting teeth without Payin," Dr. Harter, State College; "Secret Orders," M. R. Johnson, Bellefonte; "A Good Appetiser," Henry Grimm, State College; "A Treat," Prof. Irving L. Foster, State College; "The Goat," Prof. Emerick, State College; "Woodcraft," Mr. Woomer, State College; "Meeting the Enemy," Capt. Hugh S. Taylor, Bellefonte; "Assessments," J. K. Johnson, Bellefonte; "How to put a No. 7 shoe on a No. 9 foot," A. C. Mingle, Bellefonte; "Beneficiaries," W. Harrison Walker, Bellefonte; "Dress Uniform," Mr. Glenn, State College; "Printers," Mr. Burns, State College; "Banqueting," J. Will Conley, Bellefonte; "Cheap Goats, etc.," Sidney Krumrine, Bellefonte.

Pumpkin Contest.

Saturday afternoon there was quite a bit of interest centered about Montgomery & Co's store. The occasion for the admiring multitude was the Pumpkin Exhibition. There were all kinds of pumpkins on display, big ones and little ones, and some that did not grow on stalks, which could not enter the contest. The pumpkins were raised from seed furnished by Montgomery & Co. The first prize was a $10.00 suit of clothes and the second a $5.00 suit. The Judges were William G. Runkle and John C. Miller of Bellefonte and W. A. Alexander, of Union township. There were fifteen pumpkins entered in the contest. The first prize was awarded to Joseph Baird, of Milesburg, whose pumpkin weighed 66 1/2 lbs. The second prize was given to H. C. Woodring of Port Matilda, the weight of his pumpkin being 64 1/2 lbs. The other thirteen contestants were each awarded a valuable egg carrier as a prize.

Foot Ball Fight.

Last Friday afternoon a special train was run from this place to the College to see the game of foot ball between the teams of Washington and Jefferson, from the western part of the state, and the home team. The game had only proceeded a short time when a big rumpus followed. The playing of the two teams was evenly matched apparently, but the visitors had the heavier men. It is claimed that when one of State's men dropped with the ball one of W. & J's. men deliberately jumped upon him with his knees and thus put the player out, injuring him severely. This is considered dirty football playing and some knockdowns followed in consequence. The game was called off, as State did not calculate upon playing with a set of brutes. The large crowd was disappointed in not seeing the game, but they did not censure the course of the home team.

Match Factory.

Frank Wallace, of Milesburg, has the contract for putting up the brick wall for the Match Factory. The outside brick will come from Mill Hall and the others from Milesburg. The floor of the building will be filled in by the furnace company ransing the furnace slag into it, as well as filling up the surroundings to a height of several feet. The location is on a swampy strip of ground and this will put it in good shape. The roof trussing for the main building will likely be entirely of steel and iron, thus making the building perfectly fireproof. The main building will be about 300 feet in length and divided by several fire walls as a special precaution.

Fun Galore.

Well founded anticipation of fun galore may be safely indulged in at the coming of "The Irish Alderman," Monday Oct. 23, a genuine and most ingenious farce comedy full of sharp shits, sensational satire, witty dialogue and tickling situations. It is far above the ordinary production, in which Irish character is invariably clumsily burlesqued. The many well-drawn character parts are entrusted to such popular players as J. P. Sullivan, Chas. F. McCarthy, Chas. Heywood, Carl Lick, Tom Repley, Jossie Sisson, Laure Stone and Maud McCarthy.

Remarkable Fish Caught.

Mr. Thomas Donachy caught a strange fish in the dam across Spring creek Thursday morning of last week. Its body measured 30 inches, and its snout was as long as its body, but shaped like a needle. Its entire weight was 17 pounds. He baited it with a leg of a chicken on a pot hook. It was a great curiosity and attracted a great deal of attention. Harry Jackson, our naturalist, pronounced it a "gar fish" and it was the largest of the kind ever caught in the waters of Spring creek. -Grit.

Hunting Season Finds Game Scarce. On Monday morning our nimrods took to the woods in all directions. Everybody who could scare up a gun seemed to be in it. Many went down through Nittanyvalley to hunt on the game preserve or on the outskirts for quail. Not a great many quail were killed. Squirrel hunters came in very much disappointed with the day's sport, only a very few gray squirrels were brought home.

Several parties were fortunate enough to bring home some wild turkeys and quite a number of pheasants were shot. Generally speaking game is very scarce.

Joke on a Name. Good Templar Hunting Club of Bellefonte, with the following named members: John and Linn McGinley, Mitch Cunningham, R. S. Brouse, George Weaver, Fred Smith, George R. Meek, J. Linn Harris, Robert Montgomery, John Kinsley and George Pasik as cook, are spending the week in Stone valley, in quest of game. That is a congenial party but what is there in a name?

We Are Not Expansionists...

We do not believe in spreading out the prices until the cost of shoes for the family well-nigh bankrupts the head of the house. We do not join in the raids made on the pocketbooks of the public every time there is a bit of prosperity in sight. We never ask more than an honest share of the price of a shoe for the profit. Just as good shoes here this Fall at $1.50, at $2, at $3, at $5 as ever there were.

Let them yell higher prices at the top of their voices. That doesn't frighten old-time shoemakers like us. We've passed through wars, panics and prosperity before. After awhile these enthusiasts will shut off their shooters and settle down. Then maybe they will adjust their prices to meet ours.

"Necessity is the Mother of Invention."

It was the necessity for an honest, reliable blood purifier and tonic that brought into existence Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is a highly concentrated extract prepared by a combination, proportion and process peculiar to itself and giving to Hood's Sarsaparilla unequalled curative power.

Its wonderful record of cures has made it America's Greatest Medicine.
