

WANTED.

WANTED.

WANTED.

WANTED every person in Centre county to know how good a Clothing Store we have this season.

WE want you to know that our stock and assortment of Men's Clothing is the largest in central Pennsylvania.

WE want you to know that our stock and assortment of Boy's Clothing is the largest in Central Pennsylvania.

WE want you to know that our stock of Childrens' Clothing is the largest in Central Pennsylvania.

WE want you to know that you can be suited here.

WE want you to know that we are showing the Highest Grade Clothing made.

WE want you to know that our Clothing is the Best Fitting Goods made in America.

WE want you to know that we are selling goods for Less Money than any other concern in Central Pennsylvania.

WE want you to know that you can have Your Money Back for the asking.

WE want you to know that our Clothing superiority extends through every branch of our business.

WE want you to know. You should know that it is to your interest in every way to trade with us.

Give us a Call, we Will Need no Other Argument.

Brockerhoff Block, Bellefonte, Pa.

M. FAUBLE & SON.

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT

The News Gathered From Various Sections

HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What Our Army of Alert Correspondents See and Observe Worthy of Note—The Local Happenings of Every Community Will be Gladly Published.

Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Barbara Sankey, of Millinburg, is the guest of the Kline sisters in town. Jacob Behm and family, of Spring Mills, were visitors in the town one day last week.

Mrs. Robert Boob has just returned from a week's visit to her mother in Millinburg.

The mountains on either side of town present a magnificent appearance in their fall dress.

Noah Leitzel and wife visited among friends and relatives in Lock Haven, several days this week.

Miss Kate Wise left for Bellefonte last week to spend a week at the residence of her uncle, C. M. Bower.

T. Kreamer, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday in our burg, being the guest of his brother-in-law, Al. S. Stover.

Mrs. Kate Keller and son, of Lock Haven, are the guests of the lady's parents, Fred Limberts, in town.

Miss Hettie Small has gone to Rebersburg where she expects to spend a few months with her grandmother.

Foster Bower's new house at the eastern end of town is nearing completion and about ready for the plasterers.

Communion services will be held in the Reformed church of this place, on next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Geo. E. Stover recently treated his horse to a coat of paint, which greatly improves the appearance of the same.

Harry Bell, of Huntingdon, spent a few days last week at the residence of his grand father, H. H. Weaver, in our town.

Quite a few of our hunters were out on Monday for squirrels, but we have not learned how many they succeeded in bagging.

Miss Hattie Weber, of Rebersburg, is spending a few weeks with her brother, Stewart Weber, in this place, principal of the grammar school.

Mrs. D. H. Lenker and daughter, after spending a week at Lemont and Boalsburg, returned home last week. They report having an enjoyable visit.

Mrs. Young, of Boalsburg, and Mrs. Waite, of Renovo, visited their aged mother, Mrs. Lona Leitzel, residing a short distance east of town, for several days last week.

Mrs. S. R. Charles, of North Second street, was at Loganston, Union county, on Monday to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Matilda Rote, who died at Colyer, this county, one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Philips returned from Philadelphia last week with a large stock of fall and winter goods, which they purchased while there and which is now shelved and for sale at their store.

Mrs. Theodora Acker, who for the past six months has been staying at Hollisopple, Pa., arrived home on Saturday evening and was warmly welcomed by her many friends.

Miss May Wykoff, of Bellefonte, passed through here on Monday.

Miss Emma Miller made a business trip to Lock Haven, one day last week.

Miss Nora Clark, of Blanchard, visited in this place a few days last week.

Eva Meyers is spending a few days in our town, as the guest of Verna Brickley.

Mrs. Thos McCloskey and daughter Hazel, visited at Eagleville, on Thursday.

Miss Sarah Brickley, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her mother in this place.

John Brickley, who has been employed at Austin, is spending a few weeks at home.

Chas Heverly and Al. Clark, of Beech Creek, made a business trip here on Monday.

Omer DeHaas and Hersey Robb, of Blanchard, were callers in this place, on Sunday p. m.

William Gardner and daughter Gertrude, of Pine Glenn, passed through here on Monday.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Robb, of Instanter, was brought here for burial on Tuesday.

Mrs. Fannie Roraugh, of Beech Creek, is spending a few days at the home of David Confer.

Misses Annie and Maud Confer attended the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. David, of Hunter Run.

Mrs. Mary Poorman and children visited at Eagleville, on Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mann.

Ferd Meyers, of Blanchard, who has been employed at Cross Fork, was again seen on our streets on Saturday eve.

Quite a number of people from our town have been attending the Indian show, at the Eagleville opera house.

Misses Mabel and Alma Packer, of Howard, visited at the home of Frederick Robb on Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mabel Singer, who has been visiting her brother, W. J. Singer, of Bellefonte, returned home last week.

Helen, the four year old child of Elia Thiel, which died at Peale on Tuesday, was brought here for interment on Friday.

Misses Hattie Shamp, Beulah and Edna Glosner, of Jacksonville, spent a few days at the home of Peter Robb, last week.

Mrs. Mary Glosner and Miss Effie Wensel attended the birthday party of Mrs. M. C. Frick, of Blanchard, on Saturday.

Mrs. William Miller and her two sons, Edward and Bertie, are spending a few days in Lock Haven, at the home of her son, Thos. Miller.

L. O. Packer and wife are spending a few days with Mr. Packer's parents in this place; the Calithumpians gave them a call Saturday night.

—THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT will be sent to any new address until January 1, 1900, for 15 cents.

Romola.

Henry Meyers was a caller in this place last week.

W. F. Hall, of Howard, called in this place on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Robb, of Howard, spent Sunday in this place.

Miss May Wykoff, of Bellefonte, visited in this place, on Wednesday.

Calvin Harper and wife, of Bellefonte, passed through here on Monday.

Miss Emma Miller made a business trip to Lock Haven, one day last week.

Miss Nora Clark, of Blanchard, visited in this place a few days last week.

Eva Meyers is spending a few days in our town, as the guest of Verna Brickley.

Mrs. Thos McCloskey and daughter Hazel, visited at Eagleville, on Thursday.

Miss Sarah Brickley, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her mother in this place.

John Brickley, who has been employed at Austin, is spending a few weeks at home.

Chas Heverly and Al. Clark, of Beech Creek, made a business trip here on Monday.

Omer DeHaas and Hersey Robb, of Blanchard, were callers in this place, on Sunday p. m.

William Gardner and daughter Gertrude, of Pine Glenn, passed through here on Monday.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Robb, of Instanter, was brought here for burial on Tuesday.

Mrs. Fannie Roraugh, of Beech Creek, is spending a few days at the home of David Confer.

Misses Annie and Maud Confer attended the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. David, of Hunter Run.

Mrs. Mary Poorman and children visited at Eagleville, on Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mann.

Ferd Meyers, of Blanchard, who has been employed at Cross Fork, was again seen on our streets on Saturday eve.

Quite a number of people from our town have been attending the Indian show, at the Eagleville opera house.

Misses Mabel and Alma Packer, of Howard, visited at the home of Frederick Robb on Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mabel Singer, who has been visiting her brother, W. J. Singer, of Bellefonte, returned home last week.

Helen, the four year old child of Elia Thiel, which died at Peale on Tuesday, was brought here for interment on Friday.

Misses Hattie Shamp, Beulah and Edna Glosner, of Jacksonville, spent a few days at the home of Peter Robb, last week.

Mrs. Mary Glosner and Miss Effie Wensel attended the birthday party of Mrs. M. C. Frick, of Blanchard, on Saturday.

Mrs. William Miller and her two sons, Edward and Bertie, are spending a few days in Lock Haven, at the home of her son, Thos. Miller.

L. O. Packer and wife are spending a few days with Mr. Packer's parents in this place; the Calithumpians gave them a call Saturday night.

Moshannon.

Corn husking is in season again.

N. B. Spangler, of Bellefonte, was in our town last week attending to legal business.

Toll Solt is improving his residence with a fresh coat of paint, which adds very much to its appearance.

County Chairman J. K. Johnston was in our vicinity last week shaking hands with his many friends, and advocating democracy.

Candidate for treasurer, Wm. T. Speer, was in our community last week looking up his political interests. Vote for Speer and you will make no mistake.

Monday being the first of the hunting season quite a number of our sportsmen were seen with guns on their shoulders, started for the woods, but on returning, reported game very scarce.

Quite an interesting party was held at the residence of Boston Viehdorfer last week, by some of the older people of our town. They report a very pleasant time, and look forward to a similar affair in the near future.

An accident occurred on the Moshannon mountains, this week, which might have proven more serious. While Mrs. Shadick and baby, and two little boys were driving down the mountain the horse became frightened and ran off, throwing Mrs. Chadwick and baby out, breaking the woman's arm and injuring the child slightly about the face. At a short distance the boys got the horse under control which prevented a further accident.

SICK HEADACHES.

The curse of overworked womanhood, are quickly and surely cured by Karl's Clover Root Tea, the great blood purifier and tissue builder. Money refunded if not satisfactory. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Walker.

R. K. Wilson was in our vicinity the past week.

Misses Kate Condo and Alice Harter visited at Rebersburg.

Miss King, of Curtin, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Luiz.

J. N. Kling, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his lady friend, Miss Emma Sayers.

Ed. Peck and wife and Mrs. Peck, Sr., spent Sunday at the home of Henry Yearick.

The farmers in this section are busy husking corn, which is about two-thirds of a crop.

John N. Wason raised two turnips, each weighing 6½ and 6¼ lbs. Who can beat this?

MARRIED.—On Thursday evening of last week, Ira Condo and Bertha Archer, both of this place.

John Rocky and family, of near Zion, spent Sunday at the home of our merchant, N. H. Yearick.

WHO IS TO BLAME. Women as well as men are made miserable by kidney and bladder trouble. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root the great kidney remedy promptly cures. At druggists in fifty cent and dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it. Address,

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Fiedler.

Some of our farmers are done husking corn and have their fodder hauled in.

E. M. Boone sold three calves, a little over a year old, for $90. Good, who can beat it?

Oliver Fiedler and Luther Bower were both made happy last week. Each was presented with a little girl.

While picking apples last week, Luther Stover had the misfortune to fall from the ladder and fractured several ribs.

Charlie Stover, formerly of this place, but now of Lancaster, was visiting friends in this place a few days this week.

Mrs. Henry Zerby has been sick for some time, and at times her condition is quite alarming. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Fiedler can boast of one of the most trusted horses in the state; a horse that delivers milk at the separating station and returns without a driver.

Jas. A. Fiedler, of Williamsport, was the guest of W. J. Krape one day last week. He is said to be employed by the republicans to work in Pennsylvania for the benefit of the county ticket.

MANY A LOVER

Has turned with disgust from an otherwise lovely girl with an offensive breath. Karl's Clover Root Tea purifies the breath by its action on the bowels, etc., as nothing else will. Sold for years on absolute guarantee. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Zion.

J. W. Eby says its hard luck to tramp through the woods all day and not get a chance to see a chipmunk.

Samuel Dorman, holds the championship in our town for the first day of the season. He brought home nine grays and a woodcock.

The Holy communion will be administered on Sunday morning in the Lutheran church, and also in the evening at the United Evangelical church.

We are glad that one of our young ladies prefers summer, when autumn is here. Perhaps see has come to the conclusion to have summer mixed with autumn to check the chilling air in those sweet lowly hours of night.

DEATH.—Alfred Sheffer, formerly of this place. But of late years resided at Millhall, died at his home on Saturday the 14th. His remains were brought to Zion on Wednesday forenoon. He leaves a wife and two sons and one daughter to mourn his loss.

We are informed that a certain neighbor had purchased a Winchester the other day. Now, Willie, you know what that means, as he has proven himself a man by word, if not as a neighbor. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you, is the motto which should be our guide.

YOUNG MOTHERS.

Cramp is the terror of thousands of young mothers because its outbreak is so agonizing and frequently fatal. Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure acts like magic in cases of Cramp. It has never been known to fail. The worst cases relieved immediately. Price 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

—THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT will be sent to any new address until January 1, 1900, for 15 cents.

Wolfs Store.

Earl Meyer, and wife, from Loganston, spent Sunday in our midst.

Cyrus Rote, from Salona, was a guest at D. B. Meyers last Saturday.

William Minnick and family, from Hubbersburg, were guests at John Y. Stovers last Sunday.

Mr. Meyers and wife, from State College, spent last Sunday with the lady's parents at this place, O. H. Wolf's.

Our farmers are done husking corn, and about the time the Democrat reaches its many readers all will be done hauling fodder.

News is as scarce as hens-teeth, and if our people don't soon get into mischief of some kind your scribe will be obliged to stop corresponding for want of news. Harry Wate, can't you give us a good starter again.

Coburn.

The farmers are busy husking corn. The Coburn band is in full bloom now. James Harter made a business trip to Bellefonte on Tuesday.

Sheriff W. M. Cronister, of Bellefonte, was seen in our town on Monday.

Mrs. Dr. Ard, of New Columbia, was seen in our town and made a visit at Samuel Ard.

F. H. Bartges new house is under roof and expects to finish the same this fall so that it will be ready for occupancy next spring.

Consumption

is robbed of its terrors by the fact that the best medical authorities state that it is a curable disease; and one of the happy things about it is, that its victims rarely ever lose hope.

You know there are all sorts of secret nostrums advertised to cure consumption. Some make absurd claims. We only say that if taken in time and the laws of health are properly observed.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

will heal the inflammation of the throat and lungs and nourish and strengthen the body so that it can throw off the disease.

We have thousands of testimonials where people claim they have been permanently cured of this malady.

—THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT will be sent to any new address until January 1, 1900, for 15 cents.