What Has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of Our People—What the Local Scribe Saw Worthy of Mention—A Week's Local News in a Few Words.

'A Man of Affairs' at the opera house on Friday evening. Tylersville hunters killed three deer in the 'Scout' region recently. A valuable mare belonging to liveryman James McCully died Friday afternoon. David, the seven year old son of H. H. Harshberger, is very ill with lung trouble. A. F. Rote, of Centre Hall, called on Monday and had his name on our subscription list. DuBois' big glass plant will begin operations in a few days. Employment will be given to 200 men. Kane is bragging over the fact that no new houses have been built in that place during the past year. Revenue officials are on the hunt of a 'moonshine still,' said to be located in the mountains near Patton. A number of hunting dogs have disappeared from Sugar Valley and the owners think they met death in the woods from poison. Mrs. J. D. Scravendyke left for Ebensburg after spending the summer very pleasantly at the home of Thomas A. Shoemaker in this place. The ladies of the Catholic church will hold a sociable this Thursday evening at the residence of Capt. Hugh S. Taylor on Howard street. The Undine Fire Compay are making preparations for their annual Thanksgiving ball. This always proves a delightful event and is carefully managed. Mrs. Abram Baum left Wednesday of last week for Princeton, Evansville and Rockport, Indiana, where she will spend the next two months visiting her children. Mrs. D. W. McCloskey, of Romola, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. John T. Welsh, of Bellefonte, and her daughter, Mrs. Fisher, will stay on the old homestead. The Misses Julia and Margaret McDermott, of East Bishop street, left last Thursday afternoon, for Charleston, West Va., to visit their brother, Chas. K. McDermott, for several months. The announcement has been made in the Catholic church at this place of the coming marriage of Miss Mary Ryan, of Fairview street, Lock Haven to William Beezer of this place. Large quantities of iron ore are being hauled down the Bellefonte Central R. R., since that road has extended its line to Scotia and other points. They haul the ore now for the two furnace and it keeps them quite busy. Our Boalsburg correspondent this week has some good news items for the hunters in that section. The hunters who have been in the Seven Mountains this season seem to have been having all the good luck that is going. The prothonotary's office is being repaired this week and will likely be refurbished. That department has a lot of old antiquated desks that are fit to be put on the scrap pile, and something more modern and convenient put in its place. Last week a white deer was killed by hunters out in the vicinity of Snow Shoe. The animal was almost pure white, there were a few brown marks about the neck. White deer are a rare article, yet there are some killed each season. Amos Garbrick, of Coleville, returned this week from a trip to Michigan and other parts of the West where he visited his sister and relatives. He reports the wheat crop in that section much damaged by the fly, so much so that the farmers have given up having a good yield next season. Last Friday the State College football team tackled the University of Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia, and were defeated by a score of 47 to 0. While they did not expect to win they did not think that the score would be so one-sided. The College boys don't seem to have the right combination this season. Editor Harter was made happy the other day when the expressman landed two fine bird dogs at his office, the present of Hon. David Martin, of Philadelphia. You can bet that he appreciates the same, for he always had a weakness for a good hunting dog, and they say that the Hon. David keeps the best bred animals in his kennels. Sheriff-elect Cyrus Brumgart, wife and daughter Sallie, made a trip to Bellefonte, on Tuesday, to take a view of their prospective home on the hill for the next three years. They no doubt are now safe to take measure of the rooms and order all the necessary carpets and furnishings that will be required. The result of the election seems to have little effect on the big man from Millheim.

—There are 473 inmates in the Huntingdon reformatory. —The Centre Hall hunting party captured a fine doe in the Seven Mountains last week. —The public schools of Karthaus have been closed for two weeks on account of diphtheria. —The wheat fields over the county have a promising appearance. If the crops would only bring better prices the farmers would feel more like smiling. —Bruce Garbrick has accepted the position of chief mixologist at the Garman House, where he is doing the graceful with all the accomplishments of a professional. —'Other People's Money' at the opera house, on next Wednesday evening, November 29th. This is said to be a jolly production with a good laugh from start to finish. —Miss Marion Petriken has been seriously ill at her home in this place the past week and her condition is so serious that her friends are alarmed as to the outcome. —Union Thanksgiving services will be held on Thanksgiving day at 10 a. m. in the Lutheran church. Sermon will be delivered by Dr. W. A. Stephens, of the Methodist church. —'Other People's Money' drew a big house last Friday evening, and all who heard it pronounced the play one of the cleanest, funniest farces that ever graced the boards.—Phillipsburg Ledger. —Alvin C. Musser, of Altoona, paid his old home in Ferguson township a visit the past week. He has been in Altoona the past few years where he holds a good position with a large lumber company. —Register-elect Archey, of Ferguson township, was in town on Wednesday with his overalls on and looked like a busy farmer. He says it is quite a relief to get back to that kind of work, since the campaign is over. —The machinery for the new shirt factory will be here some time this week and will be set in place on the second floor of the McCalmont building at the depot. The manager with his family will also move this week. —Saturday afternoon the Academy boys will have a game of football on the Glass Works meadow with the High School team of Williamsport. They will have a strong team to face, but feel confident that they will come out victorious. —Col. Wilbur P. Reeder appeared before the Board of Pardons at Harrisburg Wednesday on behalf of Nathaniel Stark of Snow Shoe who was committed in January last by Judge Love to the Huntingdon Reformatory for assault on John G. Uzzie. —Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Shaffer, of Howard street, arrived home on Tuesday evening from a Philadelphia hospital where they both underwent an operation. Mr. Shaffer had an operation performed on his eye, while Mrs. had a large tumor removed. They are both very weak, but are getting along nicely. —Miss Sue Holter, a nurse in the Altoona hospital, was summoned to her home in this place, Saturday, by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Joseph Holter. Mrs. Holter was taken to Lock Haven on the 143 train Tuesday where she will be placed in the hospital for treatment. Her daughter accompanied her. —Maurice Otto, who is one of the crack football players of the Academy team, was disabled in the game at State College on last Saturday afternoon by having his leg broken above the ankle. This will lay him up for about six weeks. During the play he felt his leg giving away and upon examination the bone was found to have been broken. —One of the best farce comedies seen in the opera house for a long time was the rendition of the 'Battle-Scarred Hero' Monday evening. The audience was kept in a constant uproar by the ridiculous complications of the play, in which Bert Coote distinguished himself as the most accomplished liar on record. He is a clever man and, with the assistance of a good cast, gave the audience a genuine treat. —Frank Johnsonbaugh, formerly of State College, but now of Pitscairn, Pa., arrived in Bellefonte on Tuesday evening on a short visit among his friends. Frank came home to move his mother and sister Florence, to Braddock, Pa., where they will make their future home. They will leave on Saturday for that place. He is employed in one of the large car works at that place, where there are many hundred men working and reports that work is plenty and times are booming. —There was a high time about the old Academy building on Saturday. The boys began celebrating in the afternoon and kept it up until late in the evening. Bells were rung, tin horns were blown and bonfires illuminated the skies in the evening. The cause for all this excitement was the celebration of a victory on the gridiron that day at State College. The Academy football team had gone up there and defeated the Sub-Freshman team in a hotly contested game by a score of 6-0. To the Academy boys this meant much indeed and they could not think of allowing the event to go by without due recognition, and they did it full justice.

'A FEAST OF COMEDY.' A rare farce-comedy treat is promised on Friday evening Nov. 24th, when the Cox's Comedians present the funniest of all farce comedies 'A Man of Affairs.' This play is the exclusive property of this company for the present season, which has been secured by a liberal outlay of money, expended for the purpose of giving the theatrically inclined public an opportunity of seeing the best play on the road at a very small expenditure of money. Prices are only 25, 35 and 50 cents. A Fox Story. J. W. Reeder, of Woodward township, heard his dogs barking in the woods near his home Monday afternoon and on going out found the dogs had a fox treed, an unusual circumstance. A small tree had fallen and leaned against another tree, about ten feet from the ground where the branches forked at the fox, having, no doubt, run upon the leaning tree. Mr. Reeder picked up a stone and threw it at the fox, striking the animal just back of the ear. The blow killed the fox as quickly as a shot from a gun would have done.—Lock Haven Express.

Bellefonte Central Extension. During the past week the three-mile extension of the Bellefonte Central Railroad from Waddle to Benore was completed, and now the ore from the Scotia mines is delivered to the furnaces at Bellefonte in a haul of only about 20 miles, instead of over 50, as heretofore, when shipment was made around by Tyrone, over the Lewisburg & Tyrone branch of the Pennsylvania. As soon as the extension just completed can be put in good shape it will be opened for passenger traffic to the western end of the county. Silver Wedding. Mr. and Mrs. H. T. McDowell, of Abdera, have issued invitations to their friends to join with them in the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, at 12 o'clock, noon, on Thursday, November 30th.

LANDING NET IS LEGAL.

Judge Craig Decides That it can be Used in Fishing for Trout. A landing net can be legally used in catching trout, according to an opinion handed down recently by Judge Craig at Stroudsburg in the famous Wetherill-Elliott cases. The opinion reverses the judgment of Justice Graver, and the defendants are relieved from the fines of $100 imposed upon them by the justice for landing with a net trout they had caught on a line. Judge Craig's opinion is lengthy, and contains nearly 4,000 words. Among other things he said: "We cannot believe that the legislature, in using the phrase 'rod, hook and line,' intended so narrow and unreasonable a construction as is urged by the commonwealth. So common and universal is the use of reels, fly hooks, bait, bobs, sinkers and squids in fishing with rod, hook and line that we may take them to be included in the phrase, 'rod, hook and line,' in ordinary and popular use. Therefore, if we construe the legislative language according to its popular acceptation we are bound to hold that the appliances of things just named were understood and intended by the legislature to be included in the phrase, 'rod, hook and line.'"

Appointments Made. Last Saturday Commissioners elect Heckman, Meyers and Riddle were in town and had a little conference, the object of which was to consider the matter of appointments for the coming term. The new board will have four positions to fill this time, namely: clerk, janitor, solicitor and physician for the jail. There are a great many aspirants for these various appointments and the new members were constantly in receipt of applications from all quarters. They wisely concluded to come to an understanding in the matter on Saturday. Before they left town Messrs. Heckman and Meyer informed the writer that they had decided on all four appointments and when they were duly installed in the office in January the same would be named. For reasons of their own, they will not announce their selections until next week. There is much speculation as to who the fortunate ones are, and many seem to have an idea; but the surest plan is to wait and see. These gentlemen have done the right thing in this matter, by disposing of the appointments as soon as possible, and not keep a lot of applicants waiting. It shows that the new board can get together, without any undue friction, and transact business promptly. We hope that they will carry this plan out in the future and dispatch all business promptly. Since the above was written there have been a number of articles in the city papers giving the list of appointments. The Daily News on Monday announced them also, but whether they are correct or not remains to be seen. The following is the list that appeared in the salaries:

J. C. Meyer Esq., will be county solicitor, and Dr. M. A. Kirk will be county physician. Boyd A. Musser the new commissioner's clerk, and Thomas Shaughnessy Jr., of East Howard street, will be the janitor. The salaries of the different appointees are as follows: County Solicitor $400.00 with contingent fees; county physician $100.00; clerk $300.00, draws an additional $200 for making returns to the State and has an opportunity to do extra work, which in all will run the salary up to about $1100.00. Janitor draws in salary and extras about $700.00. There were about thirty applicants for the last two named places.

No Meteors Here. Last week many of our people were anxious to see the promised meteoric shower. Preparations were made to ring the bells and blow whistles about town, if the display should occur at night, so that the people would not miss it. Heavy clouds prevailed most of the time and the result was that if any of the stray meteoric bodies came near our planet they were not visible to anybody in this section. There were some stray meteors seen in other parts of the country but nothing of the like that had been promised by the astronomers. In Europe they were more fortunate, and especially in parts of Russia there was a fine display and it caused much consternation among the ignorant and superstitious, who did not understand this strange visitation of fiery stars shooting through the heavens at night in great numbers. They imagined that it portended some great evil and that the earth was coming to an end.

Died While on a Visit. A telegram was received at Beech Creek Tuesday morning stating that Saul Haagan, a well-known farmer of Bald Eagle valley, had died while visiting his son in one of the western states where he had been for four or five months. No particulars have yet been received. He was one of the best known residents in Beech Creek township and owned a fine farm on the south side of the Bald Eagle, east of the P. R. station. The body will be brought home for interment, and is expected to arrive on Saturday. The interment will be made in the cemetery at Eagleville.

Upwards of sixteen car loads of limestone are shipped daily from the quarries, a portion of the stone going to the iron works at Bellefonte and the balance to the New York Central railroad to be used as ballast. The erection of a new chute was begun Monday, and after that is completed the shipments will be increased.

Other People's Money. No matter where you go, be it in city, town or village, the reigning craze in theatricals is comedy, and everybody wants and prefers to laugh to any other kind of amusement offered. Ask your neighbor who has seen Hennessy Leroyale in that laughing success, "Other People's Money," if it is funny. For when your friends advise you to go, then it is time to see the comedy that the world of playgoers are now numbering among one of the big hits of the season. At the opera house Wednesday evening, Nov. 29th.

Want a Postoffice. The citizens of Georges Valley are agitating the question of a postoffice. These people are so situated that they receive their mail at Spring Mills or Potters Mills, being distant about two and one-half miles from each point. Frank McCellan will likely receive the commission and, should he do so, he will open a general store near the church. Trying to Start a Lodge. M. M. Hunter, deputy head consul of the order of Modern Woodmen of America, is in Centre Hall interviewing some of our citizens on the feasibility of starting a camp there. The order is a fraternal and beneficial one, has great strength numerically through the western states.

Used by British Soldiers in Africa. Capt. C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as commander of the forces that captured the famous rebel Gaishe. Under date of Nov. 4, 1897, from Vryburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used myself when troubled with bowel complaint, and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial." For sale by F. Potts Green, druggist, Bellefonte.

A Bit of Sentiment.

Under the bill of an old box car run in for repairs at Pitscairn, the other day, a nest with three little pale blue eggs (robin eggs) was found. The foolish mother bird had found the car on some far away siding, and noticing that it was a dry place, built her nest upon it. One day when she returned to lay another egg she was astonished to find her home moving off behind a puffing monster. Naturally enough, she followed the car until she got wearied, and then returned to mourn for what she lost and build another nest.
