J. B. Mayes & Son, of Houserville and

Howard granite and marble works, have lately erected three very fine large granite monuments in the Presbyterian cemetery. Quite a number of people have been to the cemetery to see the monuments, as they are something entirely new in our section, and are certainly a great credit to the firm.

Some of our neighboring towns are constantly talking about their location for business. What is the matter with our town, with its beautiful never failing Penns Creek flowing through it. There is no better place in Penns Valley for a location for any kind of a factory. Some of our monied men should throw out some inducement for parties to locate here.

Henry Yearick, one of our aged and respected citizens, was able to attend church on Sunday morning. Mr. Yearick has been afflicted with rheumatism for a number of years which has made him helpless. Within the past year another sad affliction has been added to him in the loss of his eyesight. When he is able to be out he is always carried to and from church by his children whose every act of kindness and devotion shows the love and respect which they have for their father.

Mrs. Mattie Brown, better known as Grandma Brown, departed on Wednesday of last week for Portage Co., Ohio, to visit friends. Mrs. Brown was 83 years old the 4th of last August and is a very bright and active lady. She was down in Clinton county to visit friends some time ago and walked a distance of 12 miles without the least fatigue, which is an indication of the good health she enjoys, as she is seldom ever sick. While staying in Centre county she has her home with her granddaughter, Mrs. John Yearick, of near Jacksonville. We wish her a safe and pleasant journey and that she may enjoy many more years of good health.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm Cures Others. Why Not You?

My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying, which we did with the best of satisfaction. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well.—ADOLPH L. MILLERTY, Manchester, N. H. For sale by P. Potts Green, druggist, Bellefonte.
