

The Racket.

No. 7 and 11 Crider's Exchange, Bellefonte, Pa.

Santa Claus

Has taken possession of this store and is running it to suit himself. He says he is onto "The Racket," and to hear him talk U would think that what he doesn't know about keeping a Holiday Store isn't worth knowing. I guess he is about right--at any rate I am glad to resign, and let him have his own way 'till the trouble's over.

Don't stop at the "Side Shows" when U can get the whole circus for the same price.

G. R. SPIGELMYER.

Kreamerville.

Harry Fehl was home over Sunday. Joseph Solt will move into Thos. Brungrat's house soon.

James Miller has improved his house by putting on a new roof.

Luther Miller will move in the house vacated by Winkleblech.

People are living on top-of-the-pile here now--sausages are all the go.

Mrs. Chas. Eddy, of Salona, is at present visiting under the parental roof.

Israel Haugh has returned home from the west, where he has spent the summer.

Henry Winkleblech left for Renovo, Monday. His family will follow in a week. They will move there.

There have been some flies on the correspondent for quite a while. We will try to do better in the future.

The path leading from T. D. Stover's picnic grounds, west, is being traveled quite a bit lately, especially on Saturday evening. It is all right, we just wanted to make it known, so no one would be afraid.

A preacher named Adam Lohr preached in the M. E. church a few days ago. He handed down the gospel in its fullest force, making some mad and others glad. He seems to be very positive in his sayings and a believer, as some term it, in faith cure.

This town is becoming more business-like again, since the opening of the store by H. J. Miller and the erection of the Commercial Telephone Co.'s poles. A few more industries should be here, and that which we are entitled to would soon also appear, if we had men of courage to stand up and plead their cause namely: a post office.

Our hunters not finding game very plenty this year, especially when bringing it home is concerned, are soothing their feelings by making hogs their sport. T. D. Stover has the best record; he is an old soldier, and we believe was a brave one too, but when he goes to shoot he is a little off. Ask Joe and Scott how they enjoyed themselves.

A year old boy, from Texas, near Millheim, was arrested at the barn of J. F. Wate here, Saturday evening about 8 o'clock by Constable G. B. Winters, for stealing a horse. It seems this boy was living with a man named Shroyer at the east end of this valley, and was going to school from that place. Not liking the place he left on Monday Nov. 27th, for his home in Texas, coming to Kreamerville with the correspondent. On Friday he again appeared in this village, he asked at different places for a rig to fetch his clothes; not securing any he went to a house in Sugar valley owned by a Brungart and finding no one at home took from the stable a horse 7 years old and crossed the mountain, got his clothes, came in the valley, stayed at Jerome Moyer's over night and on Saturday morning rode to the home of J. F. Wate and asked to put his horse in the stable and warm himself. When in the act of tying the horse he was nabbed by Loyd Walker, who was set to watch him. He was taken to Sugar valley and on Monday was conveyed to Lock Haven to jail to await trial in January.

Why Some Kreamerville People Go to Church.

Some go to church to weep.
While some others go there to sleep.
Some go to say their prayers,
Others go to put on airs.
Some go their wives to please,
Their consciences others try to ease,
Some go to tell their woes,
Others go to show their clothes.
Some go to hear the preacher,
Others like the singing screecher,
Boys go to reconnoitre,
Girls go because they ought-er.
Some go to hear the sonnets,
Others go to show their bonnets,
Many go for sage reflections,
But precious few to help collections.

Pine Grove Mills.

Butchering is in full blast this week in our town. Some fine porkers are being killed.

By all appearances winter has come at last. Hope all are ready for the grim old visitor.

Miss Minnie Martz, with her best fellow, were down from Tyrone, for a short visit to her parents this week.

About a week ago while the boards were icy Mrs. Shiffer slipped and fell, causing her to keep to her room ever since.

Mrs. John Musser accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Laura Krebs, spent Tuesday shopping in Bellefonte. Glad to say they did not get on the wrong train this time.

We are sorry to note the death of Mrs. Newton Neidigh of White Hall. She was buried on the 4th inst. She leaves a husband and five small children, the youngest a day or so old.

Mrs. Amelia Koch has decided that it is not well to dwell alone and was married on the 6th inst., to James Dreese, of Adamsburg, Snyder Co., Pa. We wish them a long and pleasant as well as a prosperous life.

And now the young Americans of our town must watch the truant officer, as our directors have decided to fulfill the school law to the letter. It is one of the best moves made in several years by the board of directors.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Goss had a reception on the 6th inst. for their sister and new brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Dreese. Quite a number of guests were present. The most important of all were the calithumpian band, led by a certain disappointed bachelor.

Anyone desiring a good butcher can apply to Lowell Smith, who has been in the business for several weeks now. All he wants is lots of ammunition and a good man to do the work, and he will do the rest. He says he can kill a hog every shot if it is sleeping; but if not, it will require quite a number of shots to bring it down.

Word came on Friday evening announcing the death of O. M. Whipple, of McAlfordsfort. At one time he was a resident of this place, and had a host of friends who were sorry to hear of his death. He was engaged in the lumber business up to his death, which was caused by diabetes. He was buried in the Steffy cemetery near his home on the 3rd inst.

Runville.

The mountains were white with snow on Monday.

Thanksgiving is past, next on the program is Xmas.

Mollie McClincy and son Wallace left for Flemington on Saturday.

Samuel Lucas and wife visited his parental home at this place over Sunday.

Some of our young men attended "Uncle Tom's Cabin", in Bellefonte, on Monday night.

This week will finish butchering. Chas. Smoyer killed the largest porker, which weighed 450 pounds.

Mrs. D. J. Freeze and family spent Thanksgiving at Coleville with her mother, Mrs. Shilling.

Sam, did you ever get left? Well, I guess yes, on last Monday when you went to eat your dinner. Ha! ha!

As the old adage is, "A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men," S. T. relished the butchering dinner, but when he discovered that the color of his face had turned to a deep shade of black, he started for the creek on a hop, step and jump. I imagine what effect cold creek water would have on a face that was covered with grease and soot. Yes, Sam was mad, but he didn't say much.

Sober.

Mrs. Della Waitzer is on a fair way to recovery.

W. B. Musser is a happy man since the boy came.

C. K. Sober was transacting business at this place last week one day.

J. P. Miller spent a week in Millin county hunting and looking up other affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Zerby were the guests of Solomon Lingie's, of this place, on Sunday.

Miss Alice Lingel, of this place, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Eisenhuth, of Poe Mills.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wolf, of this place, was circulating among her friends of this place, accompanied by her better half, Dick Keller.

The biggest porker thus far reported weighed 409 pounds, killed by A. P. Zerby. The next best by O. A. Jamison weighed 396 pounds; let's hear from others.

Fillmore.

Furnce McAlarney, wife and children, of Altoona, have been visiting among friends at this place the past week.

We are sorry to say the little daughter of Elsworth Waite is laid up with typhoid fever. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Joseph Norris, of Altoona, visited his brother Henry, of this place, a few days ago. He reports everything booming in Altoona.

John B. Rockey will carry the belt this fall for big hogs, he killed one that weighed 454 pounds and another 495. Who can beat that?

At present William Ducey and H. C. Heey are comforting themselves with lame backs. They look a little bent on something--what is it Willie?

On the 16th of this month there will be a shooting match at John Meckley's for turkeys and ducks. All marksmen are invited to join in for a share of the game.

Walker.

John Lohr and family spent Sunday at Nittany.

Some one had the kindness to help themselves to six of John Lohr's chickens on Sunday evening. C. M. Fox also had one of his fine large Bramah roosters stolen last week.

The Women's Missionary Society of the United Evangelical church will meet at the home of Mrs. Jacob Orndorf on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 14th. All the members of the society are invited to attend.

The United Evangelical church, of Jacksonville, will treat their Sunday School, on Christmas evening, to ice cream and cake. They will also have ice cream to sell during the evening. All are cordially invited to attend.

An Apple Twenty-One Years Old.

Mrs. John A. Robb, of Lock Haven, has a round apple and it is twenty-one years old. It has shrunken some, but its shape is retained. The cloves are wedged in so tightly that they can hardly be pulled out.

SECOND WEEK OF COURT.

Com. vs. Samuel S. Baker, charge keeping in possession quail out of season; prosecutor John Stonebraker. Bill ignored and the county to pay the costs.

On Saturday morning, on the application of the defendants the following cases were continued by the Court on the ground that they were not ready to go to trial at this term of court: Lehigh Valley Coal Company vs. Beaver Lumber Company, Mary I. Ardell, John Ardell, Jr., George Lucas, David Hoover, D. C. Shope, Isaac Lanning, Alfred Ammerman and Wilson Wolford; summoned in ejectment, plea not guilty, continued.

Lehigh Valley Coal Company vs. Geo. Lucas, Frank Lanning, Nelson Wolford, Isaac Lanning, David Hoover, Daniel C. Shope, Alfred Ammerman, Mary I. Ardell, John Ardell, Jr.; summoned in replevin, plea non. ceptit. and property, two cases, continued.

Lehigh Valley Coal Company vs. A. J. Griest, summons in replevin, plea non ceptit and property. Continued.

2ND WEEK--MONDAY MORNING.

Court continued on Monday morning, at nine o'clock, and the major portion of the morning session was consumed in hearing motions and petitions presented by the members of the bar.

S. B. Burrows, Esq., one of the official stenographers of the Northumberland county courts of Sunbury, Pa., is filling same position this week in the absence of Mr. Condon, who is obliged to be in Blair county court this week.

The first case called was, William B. Mingle vs. C. F. Herlach, summoned in opened judgment, plea non assumptis. This suit is on a judgment exemption note given as collateral security by the defendant to the plaintiff in the early part of the year 1876, and entered to No. 3 of April term 1876 and amicably revived by parties from time to time in order to maintain the lien. The plaintiff is the cashier of the Penns Valley Bank at Centre Hall and at about the time this note was given the Bank loaned the defendant $1436 75 at three months, which note was renewed from time to time mutually by the parties, payments made thereon and additional loans made by the bank. For sometime past the plaintiff, by the direction of the defendant, collected the rents on defendants property in Centre Hall to be applied on this debt. Early of the present year the defendant presented his petition to court asking that this judgment be opened and be let into a defence, which was so proceeded in that the court did open the judgment, the case to be tried by jury. After hearing the case and arguments made to the jury by counsel on both sides, the defendant on Tuesday morning confessed judgment in favor of the plaintiff for $2500.00 to be satisfied upon execution and delivery of a deed by the defendant to the plaintiff for house and lot, his real estate in Centre Hall, the same to be executed and delivered within sixty days free of encumbrance.

E. R. Jones vs. Worth township summoned in trespass, plea not guilty. Case settled and discontinued.

John F. Potter, administrator of etc., of George McClellan Potter, deceased, vs. The Union Central Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati, Ohio, summoned in assumpsit, plea non assumptis. This case was called and tried just one year ago, having been called for trial on the 5th day of December, A. D. 1898, at which time the proceedings were fully published in these columns at that time, and grows out of the disappearance of George Mc Potter from Cross Forks in Potter county in the latter part of May, 1894, having had his life insured in the defendant company in 1893 for $1500.00, and this suit is brought to recover the amount of this policy. At the former trial the jury found a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, whereupon the defendant company applied for a new trial which was so proceeded in that a new trial was granted.

Good Showing.

The sale of liquor has been almost wholly abolished during the six months' trial of prohibition, in Lowell, Mass. Under license 100,000 barrels used to be shipped into the city annually; at the present rate the annual amount will not exceed 1,000. The police reports show a marked decrease in crime during the six months.

Real Estate Sold.

The executors of the estate of the late Jonathan Tressler sold the farm east of Centre Hall, now occupied by M. B. Duck, for $3200. Mr. Duck was the purchaser.

An Interesting School Suit.

Wellsboro Gazette: An interesting case from Morris township recently occupied the attention of the court in chambers. From the evidence produced it appears that a school in the Love district, near Blackwells, was not largely patronized and the directors deemed it advisable to close it, in the meantime making arrangements to take the children to and from the Blackwell school, about two and a half miles distant. By this change the directors said it would be a saving to the township of about $140.

Several of the taxpayers in the Love district united in the petition to the court, asking that the directors be removed, alleging that they had not provided school accommodations as required by law, and that eleven children had been deprived of school privileges.

After hearing the evidence the court sustained the directors in their judgment of the matter and discharged the rule.

Entertainment at Boalsburg.

The ladies of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, of Boalsburg, will hold an entertainment in the Methodist church of that place on Saturday evening, Dec. 16th. The entertainment will consist of the popular play, "The Deestrick Skule of 50 Years Ago" and "The Exerbtion of the Deestrick Skule of 50 Years Ago." These two plays have given the public the purest fun, and made the most money for charity of any known entertainment. Don't miss it. It will be rich. Proceeds for mission cause. Admission fee: 15 cts. for adults, 10 cts. for children. Entertainment begins at 7:30 p. m.

"Necessity is the Mother of Invention."

It was the necessity for an honest, reliable blood purifier and tonic that brought into existence Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is a highly concentrated extract prepared by a combination, proportion and process peculiar to itself and giving to Hood's Sarsaparilla unequalled curative power.

Its wonderful record of cures has made it America's Greatest Medicine.

Rosy Cheeks -- "I have good health and rosy cheeks, thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla. It builds me up and saves doctor bills." Mary A. Burke, East Clair St., Indianapolis, Ind.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure liver, bile, the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

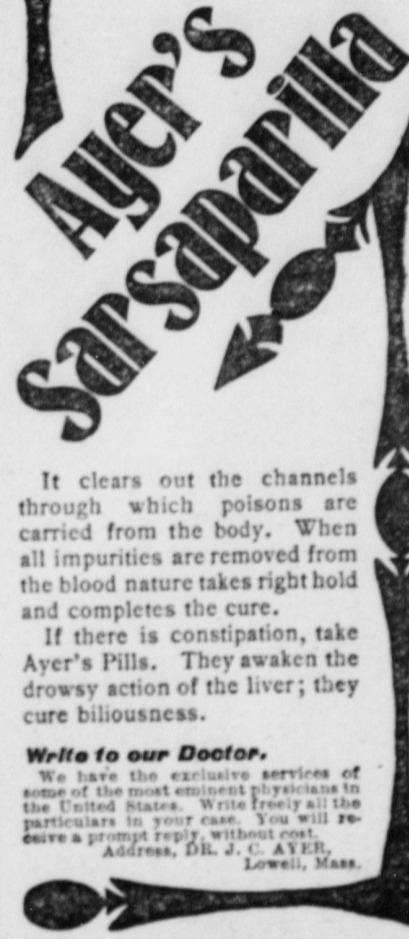

Pared a Corn.

Abner Edmondson, of Mill Hall, about a year ago pared a troublesome corn on his toe. Ever since that time he has suffered greatly with his foot, and a short time ago gangrene set in, making amputation necessary. He is 72 years old which made the operation all the more difficult.

Half Sick Half Well

Many persons have their good day and their bad day. Others are about half sick all the time. They have headache, backache, and are restless and nervous. Food does not taste good, and the digestion is poor; the skin is dry and fallow and disfigured with pimples or eruptions; sleep brings no rest and work is a burden.

What is the cause of all this? Impure blood. And the remedy?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

It clears out the channels through which poisons are carried from the body. When all impurities are removed from the blood nature takes right hold and completes the cure.

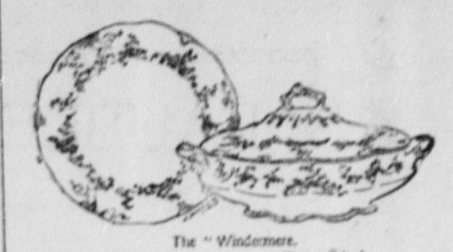

If there is constipation, take Ayer's Pills. They awaken the drowsy action of the liver; they cure biliousness.
