MEN MADE INSANE IN THE PHIL-IPPINES.

News and Notes From the War in the Philippine Islands, Classified and Condensed for Busy Newspaper Readers.

Lieutenant Gilmore and nineteen other American prisoners, rescued from the rebels arrived at Manila on Saturday night from Vigan. They were found on December 18 near the head waters of the Abalet River, after they had been abandoned by the Filipinos. Although tanned and ruddy from exposure, Lieut. Gilmore is weak and nervous, showing the results of long hardships. He speaks warmly of Aguinaldo and very bitterly of Gen. Tino, declaring that while in the former's jurisdiction he was treated splendidly, but that after he fell into the latter's hands he suffered everything.

After the party were captured they were all taken to San Isidro, where Lieut. Gilmore, who had been wounded in the knee, recovered from the effects of his injury. They were then marched to Vigan, where, under Aguinaldo's orders, they received excellent treatment. When Gen. Tino arrived at Vigan, however, they were thrown into jail and were held incommunicado for three months. Gen. Tino, who appeared to have been a bloodthirsty individual, issued orders condemning to death any natives who were friendly to the Americans. Lieut. Gilmore wrote five letters to the General asking for food and blankets, and requesting that the prisoners be allowed to take exercise. No attention was paid to these requests for some time, but eventually Gen. Tino visited the prison and promised that the Americans should have what had been asked for. Needless to say the promise was never fulfilled. The lieutenant in command of the party told Lieut. Gilmore that he had received orders from Gen. Tino to kill all the American prisoners, but he said that his conscience forbade him to commit murder, and he therefore intended to abandon them to look out for themselves.

The following soldiers, declared to be insane, have been sent to Washington, D C., from the Presidio Military Reservation: Sergeant Thomas F. Collins, Company G, Eixth Infantry; Sergeant Owen H. Wissman, Hospital Corps; Privates Thomas F. Barry, Hospital Corps; Anton Barber, Company E, Fourth Infantry; Michael Gallagher, Company C. Twenty-third Infantry; Geo. M. Barton, Troop C. The danger of the bubonic plague reaching the shores of the United States from the Orient on the Pacific side of the continent is pronounced to be even less than on the Atlantic side by the Marine Hospital Service officials. They have studied the appearance and progress of the plague from the start, and declare that it can be stamped out as easily as scarlet fever or similar contagious diseases. The alarm at present is not so much for the United as for the Philippines. Our transports have been stopping at Hong Kong all the past summer and fall without any danger of contact with the plague districts.

Every twelfth man who enlisted in the recent war with Spain, according to official statements, has applied for a pension. Already there are 25,000 applications on file in the Pension Bureau, and there will necesarily be a considerable addition to this. These 25,000 applications, strange as it may seem, have been made through Wash ington attorneys. As there were 342, 000 enlistments and 40,000 re-enlist ments, it is easy to estimate the proportion of men who were disabled in the short campaign in Cuba.

The testimony in the case of Mr. Roberts, of Utah, is about closed, and it is probable the report of the committee will be presented to the house soon after the reassembling of Congress. It is proposed to call as a witness Marshal Letcher, of Salt Lake City, and with Letcher's testimony the case against Roberts is likely to close. It is expected to prove by the Marshal that the third Mrs. Roberts was married prior to the issuance of the amnesty proclamation under which Roberts claims immunity from prosecution. Mr. Taylor says he is satisfied that the report will be unanimous.

BRITISH SEEM TO HAVE BETTER FORTUNE.

A Full Summary of the Transvaal War News-Progress of the Conflict From Day to Day-The British Encouraged.

The great battle at Ladysmith the other day raged fiercely for seventeen hours. Points were captured again and again by the attacking Boers and retaken by Gen. White's forces, who finally repulsed the burghers. The situation of the garrison is still, however, regarded as perilous, and, weak ened by disease among the troops and shortness of supplies. White may be compelled to capitulate. The relief expected from the army of Gen. Buller has not been realized, and the latter's attack on Colenso on the advance toward Ladysmith appears to have been little more than a demonstration, according to London cabigrams.

A private of the Irish Rifles, who fought at Stormberg, says that when Gen. Gatacre saw the trap the guide had led the troops into he shot the guide dead.

Gen. French reports that four companies of the First Suffolk Regiment attacked a Boer position in Cape Colony. Lieut.-Col. Watson, in command, was wounded, and a retreat was ordered. Three-fourths of the British forces reached the camp, but seventy were compelled to surrender, including seven officers.

There are rumors in London that Gen. Buller has already begun his advance toward the relief of Ladysmith. Preliminary skirmishing is going on along the Tugela River, and the great battle there will probably soon be fought if it has not already practically

There have been military successes scored by the British forces under Generals Gatacre and French in Cape Colony, although the town of Douglas. which had been captured, has been evacuated. Moltena, which the Boers occupied, was abandoned after a hot skirmish, and the outlook is reported brighter for the British arms. General Buller's advance, near Colenso, has been replying warmly to the Boer at tack on Ladysmith, but the opposing forces have not yet engaged in a regular battle.

A vigorous shelling of the Boer trenches on the plain, near Frere Camp in Natal, forced the burghers to shift their position after their horses had stampeded.

Since Boer Commandant General Joubert's return to the front the cannonade of Ladysmith by the Boers has been much livelier. Between December 18 and December 29 four shells killed one officer and thirteen men and wounded thirteen officers and eleven men.

FOR ALL URINARY DISORDERS. The most FATAL and PREVALENT of all diseases are those of the KIDNEYS, LIVER AND BLADDER

The Kidneys are two tittle sieves through which all the blood in the body must pass once in every three minutes. In a flealthy condition they filter all impurities into the Biadder, thence out of the body. If diseased they clog and swell, depositing Urical Acid and other poisons into the system, causing Dull Pain in the back, Biliousness, Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Gravel, Painful and Frequent Urination, Loss of Albumen (the life essence), and finally
