HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What Our Army of Alert Correspondents See and Observe Worthy of Note—The Local Happenings of Every Community Will be Published if Sent in Early.

Linden Hall.

Wanted—A girl willing to receive a gold watch in exchange for her company. Address Chas. Roads.

It is stated, by good authority, that two of our sports owe each of our three merchants a large bill—and now steer clear of the stores. Boys, we will not give you away this time, but this is poor principle—something like the Editors of our county papers speak of.

W. S. Brooks and daughter returned from Lewistown on Saturday. They report having had a pleasant visit, especially Miss Cora who enjoyed skating on the river.

Clyde Bradford, of the Fort, was a pleasant visitor to our Hall a few days last week. There is a history connected with his visit, but we won't tell.

Wonder why our two "Johns" didn't go to "Loupe" Saturday night.

Would be far more fitting for some of our married people to attend strictly to their own business, than that of the single folks of this place. Trust the right party will take a glance at this, and profit thereby. We are about tired of this meddling—anyone wanting to know the particulars, ask the Scribe.

Rev. Warden, the noted Evangelist, is holding a series of meetings in Boalsburg which is being regularly attended by some of our people.

We just bet the blacksmiths horse wishes his driver would get married, so he might have a change from posts to field oats.

The Linden Hall Lumber Company, whose mill burned Saturday last week, are erecting a portable mill which they had shipped from Vintondale, Cambria, Co. The Company will build a large one in the spring.

Russell Fortney, who had been staying with Samuel Ripka, has been taken to the Orphanus Home.

Giving a ring is supposed to indicate the eternity of the Friendship, seeing that circle is endless. Don't know what it would indicate to offer a girl a "watch" and she not accept it.

Venerable and Mrs. Hess gave a turkey roast to their many friends on Saturday.

Miss Freddie Hess, who spent her vacation at her home, left for Bethlehem on Tuesday. Miss Hess is a very pleasing lady and we are always glad to note her being in our midst.

Lemont.

Frank Whithill has broken ground for a new house on Quay avenue, and expects to have it ready to occupy by spring.

Mrs. Sallie Schreck, who has been sick for some time, we are glad to learn is recovering slowly.

G. R. Roan has been on the sick list since last Saturday. He has an attack of the grip.

John Glenn, one of our newly married men, has gone to Altoona where he is looking for a position. We wish him success.

Charley Whithills were the recipients of a young son, who arrived recently. Charley seems to be prospering since he moved out of town.

Asberry and Ed. made a flying trip to Bellefonte last Saturday evening, but stayed quite awhile. We don't know what their business was, but we have some idea.

It seems one of our young men here has taken a young girl to raise in Pleasant Gap. Some say she will soon be sweet sixteen. How about it Buckey?

Mrs. Sallie Long has not been able to be about for a week as she has been troubled with her stomach and heart.

Miss Ellen Roan, of Buffalo Run, has visited at the home of her brother, G. R. Roan for almost a week.

The United Evangelical Sunday School elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Supt., W. E. Grove; Asst., Harry Long; Sec., George Ralston; Asst., Nathan Grove; Treas., James Lenker; Librarian, J. S. Herman; Asst., Oran Grove.

The house, recently purchased by G. W. R. Williams, was nearly destroyed by fire on Saturday last. The house was occupied by Grant Holderman, and during their absence from home it caught in the sitting room, but it seems a mystery as there was no fire in the room for quite a while. It burned out the partition and a large part of the floor, but they succeeded in extinguishing the flames. Holderman sustained a slight loss; the damage done was about $160, covered by insurance.

Yarnell.

N. A. Confer visited at Pine Glenn last week.

Mrs. Alfred Poorman is ill at this writing.

E. I. Walker anticipates taking a ten day treatment, for his hand, at the Phillipsburg hospital, in the near future.

The new settlement, on top of the mountain, has been given the appropriate name of Beeburg.

Our teachers have already begun to prepare for Curtin Memorial Day.

The U. B. church at present is undergoing repairs, will be ready for reopening services on the 21st inst. One of the best preachers of the conference will be present. Everybody is invited to come and bring along their pocket books. About seventy dollars will be needed to clear it of all indebtedness.

ON EVERY BOTTLE

Of Shiloh's Consumption Cure is this guarantee: "All we ask of you is to use two thirds of the contents of this bottle faithfully, then if you can say you are not benefited return the bottle to your Druggist and he may refund the price paid." Several of the citizens attended the funeral of Dr. L. R. Hensly, at Howard.

Quite a number of our young folks witnessed the immersion at Mt. Eagle on Sunday afternoon.

R. B. Schreffler, our school teacher, went to Mill Hall to visit his parents on Saturday morning. He took sick on Sunday morning and was not able to begin school on Monday.

James Bilger, of Pleasant Gap, visited at Mr. Wasson's over Sunday.

Two young ladies of Kennedy went over to Fairview to spoon.

Quite a number of our young people are attending the religious meetings at Mt. Eagle.

Miss Velta Williams is at present visiting friends at Bellefonte.

Clarence Bathurst thinks he knows every stone in the road, between the iron bridge and Jas. Lingie's.

Miss Julia Bidwell, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with friends at this place.

Quite an improvement has been made on the interior of the M. E. church, in the way of new paper, carpets and lamps with which the people seemed very well pleased.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Glenn spent Sunday with their son Jerry, at Howard.

Miss Nora Miller, of Renovo, is enjoying a few days visit at the home of her relatives, Mrs. C. C. Barger of this place.

Owing to the sickness of Mr. Schreffler, there was no school on Monday, of this week.

Mrs. W. Barnhart has been suffering intensely with neuralgia, in the face.

The S. S., members of the M. E. church being contestants for the Cornish organ given by the Centre Democrat, hope that some of the members will become more interested, and do not try to get the coupons for some other church.

Laird Curtin returned from Lebanon on Friday, where he had a very pleasant visit at the home of his friend C. Weimer.

All the world is a stage and the men and women are merely players, and many play the part of a fool, especially some of the people here at home. When a person comes to think that much of themselves that they imagine they stand above all of their fellow beings, it is time for them to move off the earth and make room for more respectable people. So say we all of us.

Aaronsburg.

Co. Supt. Gramley put up at the Bower house on Monday and visited our three schools.

Miss Mazie Foster attended Miss Hannah Foster's funeral at Millburg, on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Nora Haffley Sundayed with her parents and other friends in the burg.

Woodward.

Bicycle riding on ice goes very smoothly. There are no ups, but numerous downs.

The United Evangelicals completed their shed and are now ready to accommodate the people who come to services from a distance. A shed is something a church needs very badly. Horses are protected from snow and cold in winter, and from flies, heat and rain in summer.

Chas. Hosterman, Sr., and Elmer Smith purchased a tract of timber near Madisonburg. They expect to go to lumbering as soon as they can get a mill.

The ice on the dam was over 13 inches thick and very clear. Nearly everybody filled their ice-houses and it was none too soon for the warm weather is making it somewhat slushy.

A most stringent curfew ordinance rigidly observed would be a great blessing to this town. There are many boys from six to sixteen years old, who should be at home and are loafing around in the stores from dark to a late hour. Such boys usually grow up worthless, loafing vagabonds.

The unhealthy weather causes a great deal of sickness. A daughter of Andrew Shawver's is ill with scarlet fever, and Israel Runkle phoned for the doctor for his daughter. Have not learned what ails the latter.

Fillmore.

Noah Rockey is laid up with a sore jaw, at present.

On last Monday W. J. Sowers, while cutting sawlogs, lodged a tree, and in letting it down cut a sapling which split and hit him on the jaw, making an ugly wound, but no bones were broken.

George Taylor and son Ed, of Stormstown, were in our town on Monday on business.

We have some very fine skaters in our town, and some not so fine. Some skate for the sport, others skate for chewing gum. Go whiz, it was cold.

Mr. Rhoads, of Bellefonte, has purchased Joseph Tressler's engine and chop mill, and has taken it to Waddle, to put it up where he has a skimming station.

As the song goes, some come on Saturday night, some come on Sunday; but we have a young man that went on Saturday night and did not get home until Monday.

Misses Mable Norris, Eva and Mary Meckley, of this place, were to Bellefonte last Saturday.

John Spayd has returned home and is making the boards fly and the sawing. John is the man who can make fine lumber. He understands his business, in a saw mill.

Our blacksmith expects to build a new shop this spring, and still continue at the old place, Fillmore.

John Frank Houser has returned and is ready to attend to business.

Henry Eisenhut has for sale a fresh Alderney cow, which he will sell cheap; also a colt 8 months old.

The Georgetown correspondent was mistaken—the good old Major must have seen his own shadow, as Coxey was not in Centre county on Christmas, and not here. I think that Drum Station and Georgetown had their jubilee the next day, that Drum Station, was captured and did not know where Drum Station was until a few days ago. A gentleman told me that Drum Station is where the iron bridge crosses Penns Creek. The first shot was fired there 20 years ago. Now, my good neighbor, let me know whether I am correct.

Moshannon.

The weather has moderated considerably during the past week, thus spoiling the fine sleighing in our locality.

Snow Shoe.

Revival meetings are being held at M. E. Church.

Our elocutionist has left us for the West, after giving us several enjoyable entertainments. We were surprised to note that she did not take a certain young gentleman with her. He seemed very much attached to her during her stay with us. How about it, Frank?

Arthur has a fine crop of hair. Have you noticed it?

Our young people are enjoying the skating on Buddinger's dam, at Clarence, these moonlight evenings. They seem to have forgotten "Old John" and his tent-lake.

The select dance, given by the "Cotillion Club," of this place, on New Year's evening, was a very enjoyable entertainment for all who attended. The committees did all they could to give everyone present a good time.

A wreck occurred on the N. Y. C. & H. R. R. at Clarence station Sunday morning. A car in an east bound coal train became derailed on the fill above the station and before the train could be stopped a number of other cars were thrown from the track and jammed into the cut near the station. No one was hurt in the accident.

Our teachers are busy with renewed vigor inculcating new ideas received at County Institute. Of all that is going in education our boys and girls will get their share. There are no "Patagonian" schools here. Snow Shoe may well boast of its efficient corps of instructors.

Sure Cure for Colds

When the children get their feet wet and take cold give them a hot foot bath, a bowl of hot drink, a dose of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and put them to bed. The chances are they will be all right in the morning. Continue the Cherry Pectoral a few days, until all cough has disappeared.

Old coughs are also cured; we mean the coughs of bronchitis, weak throats
