Yarnell.

Don't forget the re-opening of the U. B. Church Sunday at two o'clock.

N. A. Confer is at present undergoing treatment for obesity, at Boak's job, near Karthaus.

The Roland scribe was off his eggs when he said that two of Kennedy's fair ladies were on a spooning expedition, to Fairview, last week.

Some men with their wives and some their housekeepers, while some women whip their husbands. We have all kinds at this place.

James Heaton left on Monday, for Leidy, where his wife is lying critically ill.

Harry Miller is walking on one foot now. It all comes from taking his knee for a piece of coal and acting accordingly.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Poorman and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Lucy Resides, a sister of Mrs. Brown, who is seriously ill.

Seymour Confer and wife, of Milesburg, spent Sunday at the home of his father, Corrie has a good trotter and he isn't afraid to show him off.

Spring Mills.

Professor Foot's show, of Millheim, is a fake.

Snow came at last, to make good sleighing.

The ice crop was a big one.

W. R. From, of Millflinburg, spent a few days at this place, shaking hands with his many friends and looking up some business.

Victor Royer spent a few days at the county seat attending to legal business; I rather think it was to see "Little Trixie."

Floyd Bowersox, our blacksmith, is overcrowded with work; he is compelled to work till midnight.

Daniel Gentzel, the veterinary surgeon, has been busy attending to sick horses.

Solomon Lingle has rented the farm of Samuel Ertle, where he will move in the spring.

D. P. Heckman, the boss butcher, has slaughtered a great many hogs; it is all over for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Harter spent a few days in Altoona.

J. J. Finkle, agent for the Delaval Cream Separator, is bustling out a great many machines.

Quite a number of Millheim Castle K. G. E., namely: Messrs. Weiser, Stover, Koarr, Hartman, Houseman, Amman, Keen, Reifensnyder and Breons were here to install officers of Centre Castle, as follows:—Wm. Alexander, Noble Chief; W. H. Smith, Past Chief; J. A. Grenobie, Vice Chief; Henry Emerick, High Priest; P. W. Leitze, Master of Record; J. H. Zerby, V. Hermit; R. U. Bitner, Clerk of Exchequer; J. I. Condo, Keeper of Exchequer. After installation Prof. Breon, assisted by stage manager Weiser, gave a fine entertainment with a gramophone.

After the entertainment, Captain John Smith headed the procession for Edward Rhuale's restaurant, where an oyster supper was prepared for the sister Lodge, K.G.E. It is useless to say that justice was done to the supper, except Samuel Weiser did not feel well and did not care to eat, but this is what he demolished: A big stew, a plate of raw, one-half pound of cheese, one can of salmon, and two pounds of crackers. He did fairly well for a half-hungry man. C. P. Long invited all to have a smoke on him. A hearty hand shaking followed with "good night." Come again.

Snow Shoe.

This place has been favored with good sleighing since the holidays, but our snow is now vanishing in a rain.

H. M. Gates, of Pittsburg, is now employed with T. B. Buldinger.

Railroad business was somewhat hindered by a wreck in the yard here Saturday.

The new undertaker who has set up at our town, reports business dull.

We wonder when the Dr. is going to pull his bear in. Its time he were skinned—the bear.

The amount of coal shipped from here still increases. Four engines are used and about sixty or seventy cars of coal are mined and shipped per day from the Lehigh, Kelly Bros., and Holt's mines of this place.

Aaronsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther West and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wolfe, were to Boalsburg on Monday to attend a funeral of a Mr. Condo's.

Miss Lea Acker, of Spring Mills, was home to attend Mrs. H. E. Crouse's funeral, and on Sunday evening she favored the Reformed missionary with a beautiful solo. Her many friends are always glad to hear her in their midst.

Mrs. Daniel Wolfe, who has been lying low with dropsy for the last few weeks, is not improving at this writing.

Merchant W. H. Phillips and Miss Dillie Wertz, spent Sunday with Mrs. W. H. Phillips in Freeburg, Pa.

James Ettinger is at present at Lewisburg in the Journal office.

AN ESTIMABLE LADY:—On Monday morning, of last week, the spirit of Mrs. Lila Cassler Crouse took its flight to the spirit world at about 9:15. Mrs. Crouse had been an invalid for several years, suffering with tumors, and although she received temporary relief, death finally claimed her. She had two operations performed—the first one in the German hospital at Philadelphia, Mr. on July 18th 1897 and the second one Jan. 30th 1899, at the Episcopal hospital. During the past few weeks she had been confined to her bed, bearing her afflictions with Christian resignation and fortitude and when the final summons came she had the blessed assurance of knowing that she was going to a better world where cares and trials and suffering are unknown. Mrs. Crouse was a member of the United Evangelical church for many years, and was an earnest zealous worker in Christ's Vineyard. She also attended the Reformed Sunday school where she was teacher of eight young ladies, and when not prevented by sickness was always on hand giving kindly advice and spiritual consolation. Mrs. Crouse was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cassler, was born in Catawqua in March 1869, making her age at the time of her death 30 yrs. 9 mo. and 3 days. She was married to Harvey E. Crouse (son of Henry J. Crouse, dec'd) in the year 1888 in Camden, N. J., by Rev. Bagley. Their happy union was blessed with three children: Mable, 10 years old, still living; but the other two, dying in infancy. Before her death, Mrs. Crouse selected her own hymns to be sung at her funeral and also the text; "Where I am there ye may be also." St. John 14 chap. and the latter part of the 3rd verse. Her pall bearers were Steward Weber, Clymer Stover, Edwin Wolfe, William Guiseuite, Edgar Mingle and John W. Foster. The funeral services were held in the United Ev. church of this place, on Friday morning conducted by Rev. J. J. Lohr, of Berwick, assisted by Rev. Buck, her present pastor. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity and many people were unable to gain admittance. It was one of the largest funerals held here for some time. Rev. Lohr preached a very impressive sermon and was followed by a few remarks by Rev. Buck. The Reformed choir rendered appropriate music for the occasion and while the audience were taking the last view of the departed they rendered a very touching anthem, all present were touched by the solemnity of the hour. By special request of the dec'd she was buried in a white coffin lined with canary (a symbol of purity) and had on a white shroud and was covered with golden sheets. May we all follow her example, leading a true Christian life.

YOUNG MOTHERS.

Croup is the terror of thousands of young mothers because its outbreak is so agonizing and frequently fatal. Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure acts like magic in cases of Croup. Some of our nimrods have their eyes on the perfumed cat, since this snow is on the ground. Now, look out for perfume in Georgetown.

The Highvalley correspondent is calling on his neighbor to be corrected as to what happened on Christmas. Highvalley claims that Coxy was not at Coburn, on Christmas. Now neighbor, had you so much of "Santy's Best" that you could not see your general, and that the Major saw his own shadow, and took himself for Coxy? That can not be for the sun did not shine on that day. As to Drum Station being located at the iron bridge, is another mistake. Do you not know that a station must be along the railroad and not along the creek? Neighbor will you please give the boundaries of your own valley, half of the people do not know where it is, for it requires a Jacob's Ladder to climb up into Highvalley. They are all good democrats there anyhow.

Linden Hall.

The warm air and occasional sunshine is melting the snow, but we had two sleigh rides.

John Gettig and sister, Valeria, had a nice little scare on Saturday. The horse became uncoupled while driving down a hill which left the sleigh run onto the horse's heels. The horse not liking to play that way, kept out of the way; he was caught along Camp Meeting Hill. Nobody was hurt.

My. Weibly, wife and Miss Jennie, attended the burial of Mrs. Odenkirk, at Centre Hall, Monday afternoon.

It is a hard thing to get news enough to make interesting reading. Times are so good that everybody must work and not visit. If news don't soon get more plentiful the scribe will go on a strike. He is invited to a butcher dinner, on Wednesday, what do you think of that? Now, are you feller's hungry?
