A couple of our young men went to Port Matilda one night to church, and, unfortunately having too much "steam on," they began to "boil over," and it became necessary for the church officials to put them out. This was accomplished after a desperate struggle. Later they repaired to one of the stores and purchased some new underclothing, the old being found next morning near the blacksmith shop.

Mr. Erhard will finish his school in a few weeks; he is a pleasant and agreeable young man, and is well liked as a teacher. The only objection is he was badly sprained in the right hind leg, but he has not felt any symptoms of it since he took Kendall's Spavin Cure; he is now singing the praises of this wonderful remedy. We would advise him to apply it externally next time.

A child, aged one month, of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Gardner's, of Gillettown, was interred in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery on Tuesday last.

Died:—At the home of John Frantz, in Worth township, on Monday, March 5th, Miss Lovina Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Weaver, of near Mt. Fillmore.

My sister scribe deserted me and went to the enemy, for the purpose of bushwhacking me. At one time she was No. 2 for the Centre Democrat, but she either has deserted or has been taken prisoner as she is with the enemy. We hope she will be well taken care of while rebelling.

Our sick list: Mrs. Noah Rockey and Mrs. J. W. Bodie; both are very poorly.

A certain young man who kept company with another man's wife, not long ago, had better stop.

The two young sports who took the trip out through the barrens, on Saturday night, ran against a snag. The mother did not go away as was expected. Did she, boys?

The citizens showed a helping hand towards Mr. Young, and the house is nearly completed. Our people are always ready to help the needy ones.

Dorsey, that must have been your cousin you was talking to on Saturday night, at the White church. Was it not?

On Friday afternoon John Garman's smoke house caught fire and burst down consuming his land and most of his meat. What little was saved, was badly damaged.

Last Thursday Wm. Ducey and Irvin Fishel moved their families and household goods to Phillipsburg where they expect to work in the brick yard.

Last Sunday Harry Marshall and the Misses Whitmer, Sunday with Dallas Marshall, at Rock View. Harry, when you want your fortune told, just call on the old crooked backed man.

J. Andrew Gettig, teacher of the grammar school at this place, resigned his position last week and left for Cambria county where he has a better paying position as weighmaster at the mines. His place is being filled by Prof. George Blair, of Fillmore.

AN EXAGGERATION:—A peculiar accident happened to Mrs. Stewart Heberling on Friday while cooking dinner. She had put beans on the stove to boil, in a covered pail, and on uncovering the pail to examine them, the steam, which was confined in the pail, forced the water and heated beans into her face scalding her terribly. Nevertheless the account as printed in the Sunday papers was highly imaginative.

Lester Ryder had the misfortune to have his foot run over by an ore car, on Friday, but was not seriously hurt.

Harry Lykens and John Baisor attended the show at Bellefonte on Thursday night and were highly pleased with their outfit.

Ask "Jack" if he was tired driving mules too?

MANY A LOVER.

Has turned with disgust from an otherwise lovable girl with an offensive breath. Kari's Clover Root Tea purifies the breath by its action on the bowels, etc., as nothing else will. Sold for years on absolute guarantee. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Highvalley.

Frank Barker was seen at the station. Last Friday business was booming at Ingleby—three cars on the siding for loading.

The Sober scribe stated that their liar club was reorganized. The Highvalley liars are selected by one man, and if selected, we must abide with decision.

A letter was sent or dropped at Coburn in my box. The letter contained 25 cents in stamps and was addressed to Coburn, Box No. 2. The sender is welcome to the 25 cents worth of stamps by telling me where to send it, as no one can make it out. I think the postmaster should not accept a letter unless the right name is on the envelope, and the sender should know better.

The red-breasted robins made their appearance last week.

Abraham Ulrich was seen going up Jacob's ladder the other day, with a load of provisions on his back.

Jess Snyder made a business trip to Bellefonte last week.

W. E. Smith, of Millmont, was seen at Ingleby last week.

The Beams sale was not so good, as the cows brought from 20 to 22 dollars a head.

Jerome Hubber, a Loganon gentleman, was in Highvalley selling prop timber, and by close examination he had none to sell. If that gentleman calls again, Highvalley will give him a new suit of tar and feathers.
