Quite Poetical.

The following significant poem is from last week's Centre Hall Reporter :

"Tuesday morning a robbin came right to our office window and looked in, as if to say "Spring is here an' so am I."

Oh, dear robbin friend, Why thus to condescend? And violate the edict all, "Must not on the Reporter call." By so many 'tis disobeyed. (As scores to us have said.)

Benjamin Johnsonbaugh, formerly of this place but now of Bradock, visited friends here last week, going back to his home Saturday evening.

"Molly" Shaffer has been getting very restless and discontented of late so be decided to take a little blowout. He mounted one of his sleek trotting ponies and started for Tyrone to get a little "John Barleycorn" to raise his spirits and enable him to see the bright side of life for a while, but when he reached his destination, some very reckless and dissipated men "popped" a bottle on him which so completely bewildered his senses that he imagined himself to be riding au elephant instead of a pony. After drink-ing a bottle of condensed milk to gather his scattered intellect, he was so benefitted as to be able to wend his way homeward brooding on the ills of life and counting the number of good resolutions that could be crowded into a "big head."

Runville.

Don't think because there were no items last week that the scribe had dyspepsia, for such was not the case;

he was put in the churn and came out as big as ever, not little like a wort. S. T. Williams visited his parental home, at Port Matilda, on last Saturday.

John Furl, who has been working at Grampian during the winter, returned home last Wednesday.

John Bathurst and wife, of Coleville, visited relatives at this place, a few days last week.

Mrs. W. T. Shirk visited friends at Bush Hollow, over Sunday.

THE SICK LIST:- Two of Runville's old soldiers, George Harris and Joseph Iddings are suffering from wounds received on the battle field. Harris was shot through the langs at Fort Stedmanand Iddings was shot in the right shoulder at Petersburg. It won't be long until the old veterans will only be known by the pages of history.

The telephone poles were set through Runville last week, on the way to Snow Shoe. Runville is completed now, everything to make it an up-to-date town. WARNING :- Lord Nelson, Jr., has vowed vengeance on a certain scribe In June a ripe ox-heart cherry. Come again, birdie, there's excellent at Yarnell. It may be some people are dyspeptic as you describe them and some may get foxy, but we don't get scared lar vote, with coupons, as follows : and transfer the scribeship when the fox fire begins to raise, but Wilbur did. In answer to the Snow Shoe scribe about our girls. we will say we never use self praise, for it is poor recommendation and concerning the poultry we don't think you want any of them, and especially Jack, since one of the old hens gave Wales was made at the Brussels railway him such a flogging. ## Rebersburg.

Our public schools will close the middle part of next week.

There seems to be something wanting when schools almost as good as die for the lack of attendance before the proper time has come to close, even when there is no unavoidability, such as a contagious disease which often is the case at some places, and which naturally keeps the scholars away. But at present there seems to be no obstacle which would prevent a good attendance ; on former years the attendance has been better. This is a matter which should be well considered.

On Tuesday Emanuel Harter, an old and well known farmer, about two miles west of our burg, sold his stock and farm. ing implements to Ralph Stover, of Aaronsburg. Mr. Harter will at once begin to move into his beautiful town home

Titus Gramley, of Spring Mills, was in business style with his little satchel and gave a pleasant handshake among his old friends of our burg, on Tuesday.

Jeremiah Howard, the converted drunkard, spoke in the United Evangelical church on Friday and Saturday evenings. Miss Iva Kidder, of State College, is visiting friends and relatives in this place.

Jared Kreamer greatly improved the appearance of his old house by having new windows put into it and other minor repairings

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Stover left for Williamsport last week to visit their daughter, Mrs. Blanche Smull, who is seriously ill.

Rev. Brown, in his eloquent way, delivered an interesting discourse to his old parishoners in the Reformed church, Rev. Rearick, of Centre Hall, will preach to the Lutheran congregation on Sunday evening. The Rev. is not a stranger to us.

Miss Robie Musser, of Williamsport, is visiting her old friends in our burg.

Will Run the Paper.

The editor of the Western Spirit, published at Paola, Kansas, has tendered his paper for a month to Brigham H. Roberts, who was elected to Congress from Utah but not allowed to take his seat, "to be edited as a Mormon would run it." It is said Mr. Roberts will ikely accept, and that he will rip the United States Congress up the back in a way to make the ghosts of Brigham Young and Joseph Smith crack a smile that can be heard a mile.
