

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT

The News Gathered From Various Sections.

HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What Our Army of Alert Correspondents See and Observe Worthy of Note—The Local Happenings of Every Community Will be Published if Sent in Early.

Romola.

Philip Crider, of Bellefonte, passed through our valley on Saturday.
Charles Bowers, wife and family, of Philadelphia, are visiting at the home of Charles Heickel's, at Big Run.
Frank Packer, of Newberry, is at present overseeing the repairs about his property, in this place.
Mrs. Curtin Fox, of Walker, called on friends in this place last week.
Miss Mamie DeLong has gone to Howard to attend school under the tutelage of Ira N. McCloskey.
H. S. DeLong arrived home from his employment, at Renovo, on Friday.
William Robb and David DeLong transacted business in Bellefonte last week.

Mrs. John Rayhorn, of Osceola, is visiting her relatives here.
Miss Crissie Bungardner, of Blanchard, is visiting her grand-parents Mr. and Mrs. David McCloskey.
Miss Alice Miller spent Sunday in Blanchard.

The mountains, back of here, are now having their usual spring fires and the young timber that survived last years fires is now being burnt. Much game has been killed. The smoke in the valleys is so dense that you can only see a short distance.

On Friday George Mann, of Blanchard, buried his year old child in the Christian cemetery at this place.

Several persons from here attended the Old Fellow's celebration at Renovo, on Thursday and report a pleasant outing.

James Boone and Benjamin Singer left for the lumber woods last week.

Sherwood Welsh who is employed at Davis, W. Va., was home a few days last week.

Thomas McCloskey left in search of employment on Monday.

On Wednesday night the calithumpians took a blow-out and serenaded a supposed married couple. After chasing the couple all through the house one hid on the attic and the other behind the wash-stand. It however resulted in giving Sherwood the courage to propose and of course Sudie accepted him. We think that this was all arranged by Sudie to embolden her faint-hearted lover. It is said that Sherwood was looking every place the next day for the leader of the gang to give him twenty dollars.

DOES THIS STRIKE YOU.

Muddy complexion, Nauseating breath come from chronic constipation. Karl's Clover Root Tea is an absolute cure and has been sold for fifty years on an absolute guarantee. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Aaronsburg.

Cort Karner and Miss Regina Hubler, of Hublersburg, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Charles, on N. 2nd street.

Miss Mary Wyle has gone to spend a few months with friends in Bellefonte.

The Misses Theodora Acker and Nellie Mingle were both seen on the street on Sunday, they having been confined to their rooms with sickness for the last few weeks.

Miss Mary Meyers and Miss Catharine Smull, of Rebersburg, Sundayed with Catharine's parents, on Main street.

Station agent W. S. Musser and family, of Spring Mills, were seen at Postmaster M. M. Musser's.

Dr. A. S. Musser has purchased five thousand cabbage plants from a man at Northumberland. He expects to plant the same on their farm near town.

Miss Nellie Smith, the expert hat trimmer, favored the Lutheran Young People's Meeting with a beautiful sacred solo. It was very much appreciated by all who had the pleasure of hearing it.

William Stover returned home, after having spent a week with his son Charles, who lives in Altoona.

A memorial service will be held on Sunday forenoon, in the Reformed church, for Miss Bessie Grenoble, who died with diphtheria some time ago.

Prof. S. M. Weber and family spent Saturday with Mrs. Weber's parents, at Rebersburg.

Catharine Frank has been doing a rushing business in her millinery shop, for the last week. They have been almost too busy to eat.

TELL YOUR SISTER.

A beautiful complexion is an impossibility with dull, red pure blood, the sort that only exists in connection with good digestion, a healthy liver and bowels. Karl's Clover Root Tea acts directly on the bowels, liver and kidneys keeping them in perfect health. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

Linden Hall.

Miss Lillian Ross has returned home from Altoona where she had been visiting for some time.

Mrs. Cole visited at Bellefonte over Sunday.

Miss Annie Long is visiting at Robert McClellans, this week.
Mrs. Keller's mother is with her and will remain several weeks.

The Ladies Aid Society, of this place, will hold a social on the 12th of May, on the green at Mrs. Keller's store. There will be ice cream and cake. Everyone is invited to come.

Bruce Lonberger met with an accident coming out of the mountains, where he had been fighting fire. The truck wrecked and threw him on the rocks bruising his face up badly and spraining his ankle.

F. Wielands have a young daughter. Frank traded horses last week and got the worst of the bargain, for when he had the horse at home he could not manage him, so he sold him at once.

Nittany.

Frank Minich spent Sunday at home with his wife; he is working in Snow Shoe carpentering. He reports lots of work out there.

John Shields moved to Milesburg.

There were quite a few of our boys started to peeling bark for Mr. Orwig, in Lees Gap, on Monday morning.

There is no excuse for anybody being idle that is able to work now, for there is more work than men.

Mrs. Frank Bartly, of Flemington, was the guest of her father, Mr. John Minich and daughter, over Sunday.

Mrs. Hettie Tate spent part of last week in Milesburg, visiting her daughter, Thomas Shope and family.

The following visited here on Sunday: Miss Clara Robb and her friend, Miss Kate Robb and Miss Orpa Pletcher, all of Bellefonte. Come again, girls.

The smoke has been so intense through here the past three days, that the mosquitoes can't see to bite.

Will Minich and family, of Hublersburg, were the guests of Mr. Minich and daughter, on Sunday afternoon.

Some of the farmers have their oats sowed, while others are not done plowing yet.

Miss Mittie Winkleman has returned home and reports her sister, Mrs. Dorman, much better.

We were all glad to have A. A. Pletcher among us on Sunday. All, has been away from home big part of his time of late.

Prospects of a large fruit crop are good. We are in need of a good rain.

ON EVERY BOTTLE

Of Shiloh's Consumption Cure is this guarantee: "All we ask of you is to use two-thirds of the contents of this bottle faithfully, then if you can say you are not benefited return the bottle to your Druggist and he may refund the price paid." Price 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa. 2

Moshannon.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Zindle, and Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bidell, of Snow Shoe, visited friends here on Sunday.

James St. Clair, of Karthaus, was in town one day, last week.

Elmer Conaway and wife, of Winburn, spent a few days with her parents, at this place.

Mrs. Eckley, of Snow Shoe, made a visit to our town last week.

Lida Viehdorfer, of Pine Glen, was here a few days recently.

Ben Brown made a short visit with friends here.

MOVE MOVINGS:—John Borger moved to Pine Glen. J. A. B. Miller, who taught school near here during the winter, moved to Milesburg. Rush Quick moved into the house vacated by Mr. Miller. Charley Lucas moved into the house vacated by Rush Quick.

The schools of this place closed last week, and the teachers returned to their homes. They all seem to have had a very successful winter.

PARTY:—On Tuesday evening of last week a crowd of the young folks gathered at the home of John Confer, and had a very pleasant time. Those present were: Mollie Flanigan, Ella Rankin, Mollie Bicketts, Jennie Lucas, Lottie Miller, Lida and Gerue Viehdorfer, Effie and Mary Lomison, Harry Cramer, Dan Flanigan, Charley Yeager, George Loy, S. W. Butler, Frank Loy, Edward Rupp, and Frank Holt.

Rev. McDowell preached in the Presbyterian church, on Sunday morning.

Fillmore.

The old saying is "where there is so much smoke, there is some fire." There is no fire here, but we have to shovel smoke off the township roads to let teams through.

At present our sick list is: Mrs. Noah Rockey, Mrs. Maud Benner, Ellis Huey and William Heaton. The two former ladies have been sick for a long time, but are improving at this writing.

The grain and grass is spotted. If we do not get rain soon, there will be a short harvest.

Now come Carrie, put on your glasses so you can see better. You were mistaken in the race you made mention of in that letter.

E. H. Marshall passed through our town on Sunday, looking as jolly as ever. Dorsey, when you get another girl, try and keep her.

Miss Tammy Stover, of Aaronsburg, is visiting at the home of L. H. Musser at present.

Prof. George Johnsonbaugh, of Bethlehem, Pa., is visiting at H. T. Norris'.

Mrs. Thos. Bloom, of Osceola, is visiting among old acquaintances at this place.

Tommy, you had better put a bell on your horse next Saturday night, to keep you awake. A party met you on the road and said you were sound asleep. You might run off the bridge and get hurt. Better take someone along to drive.

Howard.

R. P. Long disposed of all his merchandise and household goods and with his family went to Chicago on Sunday, at which place they expect to make their future home.

The mountains surrounding our town are all ablaze. A large crowd from town has been out guarding it for more than a week and the fire is pretty well driven back. The fire was coming from all directions.

T. A. Pletcher, our saddler, transacted business in Williamsport the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meyer, of Tusseyville, were visitors, at E. C. Dietz's, over Sunday.

The social, in Lucas' Hall, on last Saturday evening, was well attended and they sold everything.

The members of the M. E. church will hold a social at the residence of Mrs. Baker, on next Saturday evening. Everybody is invited to attend.

Miss Josie Dietz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dietz, went to Tusseyville on Sunday to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. Clark Meyer.

Our town is full of students, attending normal, which is well attended, and conducted by Prof. Robb, of Beech Creek.

Quite a good many of our people went to Beech Creek, on Sunday, to witness the fire at that place.
Everybody is busy at this time of the year making garden.

West Baileyville.

Mrs. R. T. Gates is improving, but very slowly.

Forest fires are raging through the barrens and over the mountain side.

Wednesday of last week Wm. Cech received a severe shock and badly scorched face by a puff of gas out of the furnace at J. P. Lyon's home, at Penna. Furnace.

Mrs. McClintic, of Tyrone, is visiting at the home of her parents, on Main street.

Miss Nan Glenn, of East Baileyville, is having her farm house, near Rock Springs, improved with a new roof and weather boarding.

Between W. H. Irvin, A. M. Brown and Doc Houser there won't be as much grass left outside fences as a cat can eat.

W. S. Scuders is on the sick list, with heart trouble.

ACCIDENT:—Last Friday morning, just as Samuel Harpster, a young man of Gatesburg, was in the act of getting into his milk wagon at the creamery, to return home, the bridle in some unaccountable way dropped off the horse which took fright and ran away, getting tangled up and fell. Mr. Harpster jumped on it and held it down till assistance came. Harpster in some way got his foot cut, so as to require four stitches which Dr. Houser did; then the young man started for home driving the same horse.

Axemann.

Miss Blanche B. Kaup, of Oak Hill, Sundayed with her parents in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Grerer visited at the home of the former's parents, at Centre Hall, on Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Harry Kaup and son Earl, of Altoona, spent several days at the home of R. M. Kaup, prior to their departure for their new home at Pittsburg.

Mrs. Cora Glenn paid a visit at the home of her sister Mrs. Jennie Sbarer, of Centre Hall, last week.

DEATH:—On Thursday evening, about 11 o'clock, James, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boop, of near this place, died, aged 15 months. Funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Rev. Womelsdorf officiating. Interment at Shiloh.

Mrs. Mollie Wilson and children, of Yocums, visited at the home of Wm. Hunter's on Sunday.

Harry E. Harter, spent Sunday at the home of his father, Andrew Harter, of Oak Grove.

James Mackey, Sr., of Oak Grove, was seen on our streets on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Crotty and son Philip, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gross a day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Fleck and children, of Bellefonte visited at the home of J. A. Haefl's on Saturday and Sunday.

Snow Shoe.

W. G. Kesling and H. Sutton were out trout fishing Saturday. Nothing was caught worth mentioning.

H. P. Lucas, operator, has been changed in location, from Forks office to Panther Run.

A new barn is building on J. I. Lucas' farm. This will be a material improvement on the face value of the farm.

A base ball team is being organized, by Arthur B. Baddinger, for this season.

Miss Anna F. Lucas, our successful teacher, who taught the primary grade here last winter, has closed her school and left Snow Shoe for a term of school at Spring Mills, Pa.

Miss Edna Holt returned to her home at Bigler Wednesday, after teaching a term of school here.

Miss Mae Yethers, who has been a pleasant and entertaining resident of Snow Shoe since last spring, returned to her home in Lock Haven Saturday. Jimmie looks a little lonely.

Mt. Eagle.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Leathers are ill with the grip.

John Leathers has returned home from his mine bank.

Wm. Leathers has improved his home by laying a brick walk in front.

Mrs. James Bathurst, who has been ill for some time, is better.

Mrs. Wm. Leathers and two children and Mrs. Long and daughter Nannie, of Jacksonville, were visitors at the home of Jacob Shank on Sunday.

Earnest Stine was visiting at the home of Jacob Shank, on Sunday.

Earl Archey was a pleasant caller in our village, on Sunday.

We wonder what made George B. look so sad on Sunday evening; just ask Myrtle, she can tell.

U. M. Brown moved to Howard, on Tuesday.

It is reported that Henry Van Gorden has peritonitis.

Hannah.

John Marks has moved from the property known as the D. H. Bean farm, to his own farm.

Wm. Stiner has moved to the farm vacated by John Marks.

Plowing and house cleaning are all the go at present.

Mrs. S. Hoover has returned to her home, after a visit of several weeks to her daughter Mrs. Linnie Downing, of Vail.

Quite a number of men from Tyrone spent last Sunday at the home of Christian Sharrer.

Ira went home last Sunday morning, looking rather sleepy.

Mrs. Jennie Mathias visited J. T. Fowers, one day last week. She still looks natural.

The Railroad Co. have begun to fix a place for shipping, at the siding; something that has been badly needed at this place.

DO YOU KNOW.

Consumption is preventable. Science has proven that, and also that neglect is suicidal. The worst cold or cough can be secured with Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure. Sold on positive guarantee for over fifty years. For sale by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa. 2

Madisonburg.

Forest fire. Well I guess.

Our old town is booming at present. We are expecting extensive manufactures and may get a university in a short time, which would thrive like a palm tree.

H. C. Creps and lady friend, Miss Ida Shaffer, were to Nittany valley over Sunday.

"Hin Bigamy" added a fine lot of inhalers and stick pins to his general line of notions.

Geo. Y. Kern has recently made a great invention. It is a queer concern, and has no name yet, but at present he calls it a "mud boat." D. I. Fiedler will help Mr. Kern to get a patentright.

Mrs. Wm. Keller is in a critical condition at present, with a severe attack of bronchitis.

The hands of the "skunk mill" have struck for promotion.

Clarence R. Rossman, that jolly old friend of everybody, spent Sunday with friends in town. Of course Ida was glad to see him come again.

Winfield Creps is on the sick list.

Rev. Herman, of Selingsgrove University, preached in the Lutheran church on Sunday. He has accepted the call and will be the minister for the church in its future.

Edward Hazel says he has about finished "them god darn bed-bugs."

It is reported that on last Saturday evening some parties broke into the cellar of Elmer Miller and swiped a lot of custards and cakes; also a lot of beef. "Hobos," watch out.

Geo. Shaffer, a venerable citizen of Madisonburg and a staunch democrat, says he voted for sixteen candidates for president, and will vote for the seventeenth this fall, if he lives till then and will surely vote for Mr. Bryan. Can any body break that record?

Mrs. Calvin Zeigler visited her mother last week.

The Evangelical church is being repaired.

One of our most successful young men is Edwin D. Noll. Although suffering from a severe attack of indigestion which he contracted some time ago, he still attends to his business. He has recently bought out the Zeigler, Corman & Rachtow firm, dealers in holes and general produce. He has changed his place of business and will be found at J. Elmer Miller's establishments hereafter. Corman is no longer a member of the firm, but at present engaged in peeling bark for Mr. Noll. If all young men had the sense Mr. Noll has, the world would soon turn to a business place, instead of a loafing and dram shops.

Walker.

Wm. Long and wife will move to Winter on Tuesday.

Harvey Yearick and family moved to Winter.

Harry Strunk and family moved into the house vacated by Harvey Yearick.

John Rine and family moved into the house vacated by Geo. Gardner.

Several desirable house are vacated in Jacksonville.

Jacob Yearick is improving his tenant house, by building a new porch.

Paul Heverly, of Johnstown, visited his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Beck.

M. S. Betz and Miss Alice Harter made a trip to Bellefonte last week.

James Beck is on the sick list.

Clark McClintic is ill with pneumonia instead of Clark McEntire as printed in last week's issue.

Prof. S. W. Butler is home again, after spending the winter teaching in Moshannon.

The W. M. S. of the United Evangelical church will meet at the home of Mrs. G. Betz, at Jacksonville, Thursday P. M. May 10.

The mountain fires have been destroying the timber at this place and also some of the fences near the mountain the past week.

Rev. Crow was installed last week as pastor of the Reformed church. His first sermon at this place was delivered Sunday morning last to a large congregation.

Grandma Brown has returned home from Ohio, where she spent the winter with relatives.

Port Matilda.

Miss Ellen Gronendike, a recently returned missionary from Africa, will address the people at Mt. Pleasant U. B. church, May 6th, at 7:45 p. m. She is an ordained minister of the U. B. church.

Mrs. Latashaw, wife of Rev. Latashaw, pastor of the M. E. church, is ill at the hospital at Philadelphia.

The teachers' summer normal, under the able leadership of Prof. Muma, is prospering.

NO USE TRYING

I can't take plain cod-liver oil. Doctor says, try it. He might as well tell me to melt lard or butter and try to take them. It is too rich and will upset the stomach. But you can take milk or cream, so you can take

Scott's Emulsion

It is like cream; but will feed and nourish when cream will not. Babies and children will thrive and grow fat on it when their ordinary food does not nourish them.

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day when taking an ounce of Scott's Emulsion. It gets the digestive machinery in working order so that the ordinary food is properly digested and assimilated.

See and Buy, all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

FOR $7.50

We are showing fifty styles of Men's Suits, all colors--checks, stripes, neat mixtures, light and dark colors, blues and blacks,

Variety Large Enough to Please You All.

Every garment guaranteed strictly all wool and tailored in the best manner possible. These goods are exactly the same as you will find other stores asking from ten to fifteen dollars for.

Does The Saving

Of a five dollar bill interest you? If it does, then you cannot afford to miss this, thats all.

FAUBLES,

The Largest Clothing & Gents' Furnishing Goods Establishment in Central Pennsylvania.

Brockhoff House Block, Bellefonte, Pa.