After fighting for some time they succeeded in driving it back. The fire divided, part going over toward Mr. Smoke's house where the men made a brave fight against it, keeping it under control with difficulty until the rain came to their relief. We really believe if the men had not turned out and worked so bravely it would have been driven into the town by the wind which was blowing this way.
 On Monday afternoon Hugh Ward's house was on fire. Do not know particulars at this writing.

PIE PARTY:—The Misses Hartsock, who have been spending the winter in Williamsport with friends, returned to their home in Stormstown a short time ago. Everybody was glad to welcome them back again, even if their coming was a surprise at the time, the young ladies of the farming community concluded they would give them a surprise in return. Wednesday evening, May 9th, quite a number walked quietly in and took possession. They were heartily welcomed and invited to relieve themselves of their burdens, which they did by passing on to the dining room and depositing them on the table. Those present were: Mrs. Sarah Way and daughter Lydia, Mrs. Dr. Thompson, Misses Mary and Alice Wilson, Miss Hannah Way, Miss Lizzie Hartsock, Miss Maud Williams, Miss Martha Ann Way, Misses Frank and Etta Thompson, Miss Cleaver, from Unionville, who is visiting friends in that vicinity, and William Wilson, who kindly looked after the ladies. After enjoying themselves for a time part of the girls repaired to the dining room and after being out only a short time, returned, inviting the company out for refreshments, which consisted of pie, nothing but pie, and coffee. The table was handsomely decorated with flowers, the work of Miss Mary Wilson, and fairly groaning under the weight of delicious pies, and such a variety. Each person was served with a plate containing a small piece of each kind, even if the pieces were small. The plates were about full, only a few succeeded in eating all that was on their plates. After spending an hour very pleasantly in the dining room they returned to the parlor where, after chattering for a short time, as girls will, they decided to "come again" next year.

Consumption
 is robbed of its terrors by the fact that the best medical authorities state that it is a curable disease; and one of the happy things about it is, that its victims rarely ever lose hope.
 You know there are all sorts of secret nostrums advertised to cure consumption. Some make absurd claims. We only say that if taken in time and the laws of health are properly observed, will heal the inflammation of the throat and lungs and nourish and strengthen the body so that it can throw off the disease.
SCOTT'S EMULSION
 We have thousands of testimonials where people claim they have been permanently cured of this malady.
