

WILL FIGHT TO BITTER END

Thus Cables President Kruger from Machadodorp.

10,000 BOERS SO SWEAR

General Botha Makes an Impassioned Appeal to Monster Mass Meeting of the Burghers in Pretoria's Public Square—Urges Them to Fight On.

London, June 5.—"Pretoria occupied" was the bulletin posted at the War Office to-day.

The Official dispatch announcing the victory was as follows:

"Pretoria, June 5.—We are now in possession of Pretoria. The official entry will be made at 2 o'clock this afternoon. ROBERTS."

Hard fighting preceded the taking of the Boer capital, but no report of the casualties has as yet been received, though they are described as "few."

New York, June 5.—The following cable was received here yesterday: "The Transvaal burghers are full of courage. We will fight to the bitter end. KRUGER, President."

(Oom Paul Kruger.)

Lorenzo Marquez, June 5.—The Boers are determined to fight, even if they have to abandon Pretoria. A desperate stand will probably be made at Lydenburg.

The latest news from Pretoria is that 10,000 burghers met in the Public Square to listen to General Botha, who addressed them from the balcony of the Government building. In an impassioned speech he declared that they should not give in without a struggle.

He roused the feelings of all to such a pitch that all swore unanimously to go on to the bitter end.

Lucas Meyer and others also spoke. Fifteen trains daily are being sent to Machadodorp with supplies for Lydenburg.

Pretoria is full of excitement. The ordinary Government work is suspended. The city is under martial law, with General Botha in command. The seat of government is now at Middleburg.

Pretoria is pictured by the refugees as in a state of indescribable confusion and chaos. The British are expected hourly.

Some foreign attaches have arrived at Lorenzo Marquez. They consider that organized war on the Transvaal side is at an end.

Flying among the Boers are reports that the British have been beaten back at Lindley, with heavy loss, that the main attack on Elandsfontein failed and Lord Roberts was forced to retire to Klipsriverberg, that the railway has been cut behind him south of Verening, and that a provision train has been captured.

The revival of the Boer fighting power east of Lord Roberts's advance, although fruitless, is a symptom that the Boers are not yet crushed.

In General Rundle's attack on the entrenched Boers, seven miles east of Senekal the British did not see a Boer all day, so completely were they screened. The 182 losses were by Lord Roberts were suffered by the Grenadiers and Scots Guards while advancing.

The scene during the battle was wonderfully picturesque, rolling billows of smoke, higher than the highest kopje, obscuring the combatants. The roar of artillery and the crackle of musketry, under the light of the flames of the burning veldt, combined to produce a picture of appalling grandeur, but terrible for those engaged within its field.

In the advance of the Grenadiers, Colonel Lloyd led in the face of a deadly fire. He was hit, but struggled on, only to be disabled by another bullet.

Lieutenant Murray, falling, cried "Forward, Grenadiers!" The blinding smoke of the burning veldt hampered the operations.

Lieutenant Lord Seymour, on offering to go back to direct the artillery, was wounded. The order to retire was given and executed under a screen of smoke. The Boer fire was kept up until dusk.

General Rundle withdrew his whole force at sundown to Senekal. The Boers sent to the British for medical help, saying that Commander De Villiers was seriously wounded. General Rundle sent a doctor with a bottle of champagne and his compliments.

The Boers have now withdrawn from Lindley, and Colonel Spragg has been able to extricate the Duke of Cambridge's Yeomanry from their difficulties.

The whole army of Free Staters is now between Senekal, Lindley and Ficksburg. It is reported to be composed chiefly of desperate men who would not go to the Transvaal to fight and who are too proud to surrender. Their total number is believed to be from 3,000 to 4,000.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Events, Interesting or Otherwise, at the Capitol.

Representative Levy, of New York, to-day introduced a resolution in the House declaring that "the Republican party has failed in its duty and promises in not repealing the war revenue tax when peace was restored, thus relieving the people of onerous and unnecessary taxation."

Father Louis Lambert Conrady, the missionary Roman Catholic priest, who is going to China to devote his life to the care of the lepers, is in Washington to confer with Mgr. Martignelli, the papal delegate to the United States, and to obtain letters to the Cardinal Prefect at Rome, whom he hopes to interest in his mission.

The appeals from the decision of the Immigration officials at New York ordering the deportation of Fitzharris and Mullet, the "Invincibles," reached Commissioner-General Powderly to-day. A hearing has been granted for to-morrow, after which the law question involved will be sent to the Attorney-General.

The new Minister from Spain, Rafael Zaldívar, laid his credentials before President McKinley this morning.

C. F. W. Neely, the Chief of Finance of the Postal Service of Cuba, will be tried in that island under Spanish law on the charge of robbing the Government. Governor Roosevelt announced that he had granted the extradition demanded by Governor-General Wood through the War Department.

In every branch of official Washington the plan suggested of inviting the Boers to colonize in the United States meets with approval. All the Senators and Representatives who sympathize with "Oom Paul's" people in their war for liberty are enthusiastic over the idea, and it is favored by many of the Administration members, who recognize the excellence in character of the immigration proposed.

The Senate Sub-Committee on Judiciary will make a report to the full committee to-morrow on the nomination of John R. Hazel to be Federal Judge in the new Western New York district. The impression prevails that Hazel will be confirmed. It is not believed that the sub-committee will report against his confirmation, but that it will present a brief of the testimony submitted against him to the full committee without recommendation. If this is done Senator Platt has sufficient influence with the Republican members of the committee to obtain a favorable report.

Princess Arlbert, the grand-daughter of Queen Victoria, prefers to be received in Washington as the Countess of Munsterburg, the least of her many titles, rather than as Arlbert of Anhalt.

NEELY & UNITED STATES.

Partnership Formed in Havana Dissolved by U. S. Courts.

Havana, June 5.—Each day's investigation of the Neely shortages makes them worse, and his monthly average of plunder appears to have been $17,000. For May it was $31,312.95.

The Neely system of bookkeeping was simplicity itself. Apparently he merely divided the amounts received, taking one-half for himself and accounting for the other.

Mr. Bristow says he is almost sure that the extent of the thefts will amount to $80,000 or $100,000, but that this will not touch the item of surcharge stamps, which is $411,000.

The postal inspectors say it is astonishing that a system so rotten could have been concealed beyond the first month. Every day only adds to the surprises.

FOREIGN NEWS NOTES.

Mary H. Kingsley of London, author of many books of travel, died at Cape Town.

One new case of bubonic plague and one death are reported from Port Said.

The Berlin authorities have discovered that a large trade exists here in horse meat sausages made in that city.

Munka Pasha, who suddenly resigned his post as Turkish commissioner to Egypt, has gone to Paris to join Mahmud Pasha.

Austrian and German guards for their embassies have arrived at Peking. Emperor William to-day granted an audience to the delegation of the New York Deutsche Keiegerbund.

Mrs. Gladstone is in a semi-conscious condition at her home in Hawarden, and her strength is declining steadily. It is thought she can not recover.

Instructed for Bryan.

New York, June 5.—The Democratic State Convention met at 11 o'clock this morning at the Academy of Music and instructed New York's seventy-two delegates to vote for the renomination of William Jennings Bryan. Richard Croker and ex-Senators Hill and Murphy and Augustus Van Wyck were elected Delegates at Large to the Kansas City convention.

Gen. Otis Starts East.

San Francisco, June 5.—Major-General Elwell S. Otis came ashore from the transport Meade at noon to-day and left for Washington this evening. "I don't know anything of my future movements," the General said. "I am more anxious about my doctor than my orders. I am not well."

Oregon Goes Republican.

Portland, Ore., June 4.—Returns from the interior and the votes counted in this city indicate the election of Wolverton, (Rep.) for Supreme Judge and Moody and George (Reps.) for Congressmen. The Republican claim to have carried the State is now certain.

BENHAM WILL TESTIFY.

Counsel Decides to Put the Prisoner on the Stand.

Canandagua, N.Y., June 5.—The second week of the Howard Benham wife murder case began to-day. Dr. Lemuel L. Tozier related the conversation he had with Benham at the County Jail in Batavia just before the first autopsy.

The witness said that Benham asked if prussic acid had been found in the stomach. The witness replied "No," and then Benham wanted to know if prussic acid used as an injection would get to the stomach.

"Benham," the witness continued, "said if prussic acid were found and he should be convicted he never would go to the chair, and asked if I would bring him something to take. I told him not to give up, but to make a fight."

It was learned to-day that Benham will be put on the stand.

DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. John Sherman, wife of former Secretary of State, John Sherman, is dead at Mansfield, Ohio.

John Phillips Marquand, the banker, died at his residence, No. 311 Lexington avenue, New York City, yesterday of a complication of diseases. Mr. Marquand was a silent partner over twenty years in the banking house of Blake Brothers, No. 5 Nassau street.

He was born in Newburyport, Mass., in 1830. He received an education in the Boston public schools. He joined the firm of Blake Bros. & Co. in 1872. He was twice married, and left a widow, one son and four daughters.

Rev. F. P. Cleveland, one of the oldest members of the Methodist ministry, died yesterday in Chicago aged eighty-three. He performed valuable services during the civil war as a secret officer under Grant.

Charles St. Encken, editor of the Musical Times, and a well-known baritone singer, died yesterday at St. Luke's Hospital, Chicago, of appendicitis.

Silas Wright Hastings, late colonel second New York Volunteer Infantry and Brigadier-General United States Volunteers by brevet, is dead in Washington. He leaves a wife and four children.

Edwards A. Park, professor emeritus of sacred rhetoric at Andover Theological Seminary, and noted throughout the country as a theologian, is dead.

Rev. William Henry Harrison, an Episcopal clergyman, died at Ogdensburg, N. Y., aged seventy-five. He came to the diocese of Albany in 1882 from Newark, N. J. He was the last of the Harrison family, which was very prominently identified with the early settling of St. Lawrence County.

Lewis T. Howell, president of the National Bank of New Jersey, at New Brunswick, died in East Millstone, aged seventy-five. He was connected with the New Brunswick Gas Company and the New Brunswick Fire Insurance Company, and was very wealthy.

A FEW DON'TS.

Don't attempt to gain time by stealing it from sleep.

Don't think that pestilence kills more fools than cigarettes.

Don't think your sins won't call again if they find you out.

Don't try to get the last word when talking with a woman.

Don't think because a man is a poet he can't appreciate lobster salad.

Don't try to make a man eat his words. Some men would rather fight than eat.

Don't you believe it's hard to be poor. It's the easiest thing in the world.

Don't think because a man is a millionaire that he suffers less with the toothache than the poor man.

According to reports from Canada about seven hundred Icelanders are coming this spring to take up farming in British America in the neighborhood of the Doukhobor settlements.

BOILS AND CARBUNCLES

These unwelcome visitors usually appear in the spring or summer, when the blood is making an extra effort to free itself from the many impurities that have accumulated during the winter months.

Carbuncles, which are more painful and dangerous, come most frequently on the back of the neck, eating great holes in the flesh, exhaust the strength and often prove fatal. Boils are regarded by some people as blessings, and they patiently and uncomplainingly endure the pain and inconvenience under the mistaken idea that their health is being benefited, that their blood is too thick anyway, and this is Nature's plan of thinning it. The blood is not too rich or too thick, but is diseased—full of poison—and unless relieved the entire system will suffer. The boil or carbuncle gives warning of serious internal troubles, which are only waiting for a favorable opportunity to develop. Many an old sore, running ulcer, even cancer, is the result of a neglected boil.

Keep the blood pure, and it will keep the skin clear of all the irritating impurities that cause these painful, disfiguring diseases.

S. S. S. cures boils and carbuncles easily and permanently by reinforcing, purifying and building up the blood and ridding the system of all accumulated waste matter.

S. S. S. is made of roots and herbs which act directly on the blood, and all poisons, no matter how deep-seated, are soon overcome and driven out by this powerful purely vegetable medicine.

S. S. S. is not a new, untried remedy, but for fifty years has been curing all kinds of blood and skin diseases. It has cured thousands, and will cure you. It is a pleasant tonic as well as blood purifier—improves the appetite and digestion, builds up your general health and keeps your blood in order.

Our physicians have made blood and skin diseases a life study—write them fully about your case, and any information or advice wanted will be cheerfully given. We make no charge whatever for this service. Send for our book on Blood and Skin Diseases—free. Address, The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.
