HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What Our Army of Alert Correspondents See and Observe Worthy of Note-- The Local Happenings of Every Community.

Fairbrook.

Horace Peham took his annual spin on his wheel, from his home in Cambria county to State College, to attend the commencement.

Mrs. Rev. A. A. Black is visiting her many friends in Tyrone. Baileysville had an elopement some time ago. Upton Haines and his sister-in-law, Annie Walizer, left the country for parts unknown.

Our census enumerators are out in the field of old Ferguson again taking the census.

Children's service was well attended last Sunday evening at Gatesburg.

Mrs. Marion Illingsworth, of Erie, is at home on her summer vacation. She has with her three charming little children.

Wm. Port, of Windbur, is now at home for medical attention. He has received internal injuries in the shops where he works.

Children's services will be held in St. John's Reformed church at Pine Hall next Sunday evening; a full house is expected.

Miss Alice McWilliams attended the Alumni dinner at Pennsylvania State College last Tuesday.

J. W. Kepler, our widely known nominee for assembly, will get a big majority this fall sure.

Will Keller, of Pittsburg, is at home now and his name appears on the sick list.

Prof. S. P. McWilliams, of Snow Shoe, stopped over night at his home on his way back from the Mountain city, seeing his sister, who is ill at this writing but we hope for her recovery.

Robert Gardner, the manager of the Columbia Cigar Works of Pittsburg, returned home on Monday.

Peter Keichline's estate will be offered at public sale on June 23rd. The selling of the farm will be at 10 o'clock a. m. on the farm, which is situated about 2 1/2 miles northwest of Pine Grove. It is one of our nice farms and good land, well adapted to all the cereals, and will make a lovely home for the one who purchases it. At 2 o'clock a fine mansion and two lots will be offered to the public; it is one of the finest situated homes in the town of Pine Grove and all modern improvements are attached.

BLOOM'S REUNION:--On June 21st the second reunion of the Bloom family will be held in the beautiful little grove at Bloomsdorf now owned by W. Harrison Bloom, and it is going to be an enjoyable event. The committee are the following: D. L. Dennis, Pres.; W. A. Bloom, vice Pres.; B. F. Homan, secretary; Mr. Peters, treasurer. The Bloom family came from Germany in 1760 and located first in Buffalo valley. About a century ago they moved to Earleystown and some years later Henry Bloom settled on the farm where Harrison now lives. Every one is invited to attend this grand reunion. Frank Homan will read the history of the family.

A PRETTY WEDDING:--On last Wednesday, the 6th of June, a very pretty wedding ceremony took place. The occasion was the marriage of Thomas M. Gates and Miss Mary, the only daughter of Mrs. Sarah Gardner of Rock Springs. At the appointed hour about sixty intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties assembled at the bride's home. The front of the mansion was beautifully decorated with palms and evergreens while the corner of the parlor was a mound of tastefully arranged ferns and flowers. Chas. Mattern, a graduate of Penna. State College, escorted Miss Sadie Keichline to the piano where she rendered a beautiful wedding march. Promptly at 8 o'clock the attendants, Robert Gardner, of Pittsburg, and Miss Mary Gardner, of Paper city, advanced through the hall and took their position waiting for the bride and groom who followed. Rev. Mr. Love pronounced the marriage ceremony. The bride was attired in a lovely white satin gown, and she carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid was attired in pink satin and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums. After the ceremony the newly married couple received the congratulations of the guests. The wedding supper was now ready, and the tables were fairly loaded with turkey, sweet meats and fruits and beautifully decorated with orange blossoms. The evening was an enjoyable one to each one who was in attendance. Mr. Gates for some years past was engaged in farming for his father, and we wish to congratulate him upon securing for his helpmate one of our fine and accomplished young ladies.

Snow Shoe.

A bean bake, which is a popular form of outing at Snow Shoe, was given by the Epworth League here, Wednesday evening. The party, chaperoned by Mrs. Gilliland, repaired to a quiet spot by a spring in the wildwood. The boys built a bon-fire then the party ate boston baked beans and ham sandwiches, till further orders. The Children's Day exercises, at the Presbyterian church, were well attended and very entertaining. Children never fail to entertain. Miss Anna Lucas, who had been attending school at Spring Mills, Pa., returned to Snow Shoe Thursday for Teacher's examination, which was held here Friday. Nearly all of a class of ten received certificates. LOST:--An umbrella, between Curtis and Snow Shoe. The finder will please return to H. F. Lucas, who will place it with the proper party. The invigorating, stimulating, resuscitating qualities of beef tea are only partly known by most people. But anyone should know how to make it; anyone who asks questions on this subject doesn't know any more than he ought to.

Stormstown.

Rev. Runyan and J. H. Lever were sent as delegates to the Epworth League convention, which was held in Clearfield, during the past week. They returned Friday night and were highly pleased with their entertainment.

Jacob Gates, formerly of Snow Shoe, but now with the railroad company near Pittsburg, spent one night last week with his uncle Wm. R. Way, on his way to Unionville to attend the funeral of Mrs. Stella Way. He says he is coming back on a visit soon.

Willis Walker and cousin, Miss Bessie Walker, of near Pine Grove Mills, spent a short time here a week ago, the guests of Miss Lulu Way.

Mrs. Mattern, Mrs. Foster and Miss Lydia Way, spent Thursday afternoon at William Wilsons.

John Sellars, wife and family, of Tyrone, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Simon Sellars.

Quite a number of our people went to Tyrone, Friday, to attend the show. I suppose some of them had important business to look after.

Dr. Thompson's wife and nephew, Mr. Thompson Henry, of Martha, spent Sunday at State College, also some of Mr. John A. Hunter's family.

Some of our young people were at Port Matilda Sunday night to attend children's exercises, which were held in the Methodist church and others were at Gatesburg to the Lutheran church, but they have not compared notes yet, so I am unable to tell you which was the better entertainment.

Ira Burket and wife spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Lytle, at Baileysville. Mrs. Lytle and Mrs. Burket are sisters.

Dr. Thompson was on the sick list for a few days, but we are glad to see that he is able to be out again as usual.

Mrs. John I. Gray is having ice cream for sale at her home, every Saturday evening, during the summer, for the benefit of the new Presbyterian church, which is to be built in the near future, at Port Matilda. Our people ought to patronize them, as it is for a good cause.

Irvin Gray is having an addition built to his barn. I suppose it is for the use of his horses. Irvin does drive some magnificent horses. We will likely hear more about them before the summer is over. Harry Toner is the contractor and Harry Burket has been helping him.

Calvin Randle took a ride on his bicycle Saturday night, but he got no farther than Mr. Wrights. How does it come he could get no farther? Wonder what the girl in Tow Hill will think of it?

Miss Anna Way spent Sunday afternoon at Port Matilda, with her friend, Miss Minnie Pringle.

William Toner, wife and family, spent Sunday at Waddies, with his wife's parents.

The Old Soldiers of our town, who attended the reunion at Gettysburg last week, report having had a very pleasant time. What sad memories it must have brought back to them too, and a little sadness would dim their pleasure.

We had quite an exciting time in our town Saturday. The cause of the trouble was an innocent looking line fence. The party had been notified to pull down the fence, but did not do it, for the simple reason that the fence was in the right place. The parties interested were H. M. Demming and Mr. John Biddle; it is hard to tell which got the worst. H. M. had his face pretty badly spoiled and Mr. Biddle had some bruised places too. H. M. had Mr. Biddle arrested and they gave bail to appear in Bellefonte at the August court.

Julian.

Martin Fleck, spent a few days at Osceola visiting his daughter, Mrs. Maffet.

Mrs. John Talhelm spent a few days in Bellefonte, last week.

Miss Wise, of Fillmore, visited her friend, Mrs. M. Harbridge, last week.

Some of our young men went to Tyrone on Saturday, to take in the show.

Mrs. John Bowers returned home after a pleasant visit with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Bowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Resides, of Osceola, returned home on Monday, after a pleasant visit with relatives at this place, accompanied by their niece, Miss Ida Turner.

Mrs. George Murray and children, of Richmond, Ind., is spending the summer with her father, Mr. John Campbell.

George Campbell, agent for the Grand Union Tea Co., received a large stock of goods last week.

A bosc carriage was very much needed up street on Saturday, but happily the fire was extinguished before it ascended the pole.

I. F. Davis is digging a new well. We hope he will get a good supply of water.

Mrs. Fry, who has been visiting here, has returned home.

Vincent Harbridge has left for Osceola this week, where he is employed in the machine shops.

Spring Mills.

Strawberry short cake is in season. Jacob McLeon, Jr., is in a very critical condition.

J. B. Bitner left one of his horses out grazing and it got too near an embankment and fell down and broke its neck.

P. B. Jordan and wife, of Colyer, spent Sunday at Smith Bro's. Mr. Jordan is one of those whole-soul fellows who likes to crack a joke.

William Finkel and wife, of Patterson, were visiting their many friends and relatives. Mr. Finkel had been boss miller in Allison Bro. mill. From here he moved to the place mentioned, where he has charge of a roller flour mill.

Frequently two boys--dare not call them young men--from Millheim drove to this place with a livery rig, and they will be looked after the very next time they come. Last Saturday evening they drove against Mrs. Edward Ruhl. Such conduct should not and will not be tolerated. They take two young damsels with them. A buggy was built for two and not for four. You had better come in a spring wagon the next time, and bring pap and mam along to take care of you. Take warning.

The reason why some men don't get married is because they know they couldn't be brutal enough to make successful husbands.

Port Matilda.

Quite a number of our people took in the Pawnee Bill Wild West Show at Tyrone, on the 9th inst.

Mrs. Susie Moore, accompanied by Mrs. Eva Fink, paid a recent visit to Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sharer, at Retort.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Sharer visited Mr. and Mrs. Con. Sullivan at East Tyrone, a few days since.

W. G. L. Crain & Son will soon occupy their new store room which is near completion and a masterpiece of workmanship.

Henry Gault and A. J. Johnson went fishing a few evenings since and caught a bag full of fish. We don't mean a 3-bushel bag, not by any means.

The stone work on the iron bridge under construction over Laurel Run on Plank Road street has been commenced.

Sammy Homan and wife visited the former's sister, residing in Phillipsburg.

Messrs. Robert F. Hunter and John Bower, two of Bellefonte's tip top citizens, visited Port Matilda and Flat Rock a few days since. While at the latter place they enjoyed themselves fishing for trout.

James McMonigal and Milton Peters are operating a barrel stave mill at the foot of the Allegheny mountain, near the residence of Henry Melcher.

Our enterprising implement man, W. T. Hoover, has been quite active in the past few days in getting orders for mowers and binders; he has also on hand a Superior grain cradle which he finds ready sale for.

Jacob Bigelow, the accommodating saddler and harness maker, employed in W. T. Hoover's hardware, finds no time for recreation.

Mrs. Joseph Cowher is seriously afflicted with numerous affections for which she finds no relief.

Nittany.

There will be no preaching in the Lutheran church for four weeks, as Rev. R. R. Deihl and family are having their vacation in this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Link Swartz were the guests of B. G. Shaffer and family last Wednesday.

Miss Bell Shaffer and Miss Helen Beck, returned from Lock Haven. Both young ladies are preparing to teach; we wish them success.

Mrs. Thomas Bartly and children, of Lamar, were the guests of her sister, Mrs. D. Dorman, on Tuesday of last week.

Miss Grace Beck has gone to State College where she expects to spend several weeks, also to be maid of honor at the wedding of her friend, Miss May Patterson, on the 19 of June.

Mrs. Thomas Shope and children, of Milesburg, were the guests of her mother, Mrs. H. Tate, the past week.

Mrs. B. G. Shaffer went to Nipenose last Wednesday to spend several weeks with friends.

George McCauley and wife were the guests of Mr. P. Weber and family, on Sunday.

The children's meeting, in the Lutheran church, on Sunday evening, was a success in every way. The singing was fine and the children certainly did credit to their instructors. There were some fine recitations and singing among the smaller classes.

Mrs. Frank Emerick, Jr., and little daughter, went to Curtins to visit her parents and friends.

Mrs. H. G. Rodgers and children, of Sugar Valley, were the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Crawford, over Sunday.

Walker.

Miss Bertha Nixon, of Parvin, was a pleasant guest of the Misses Lulu and Katie Vonada, on Sunday.

Claude Moore, Howard's popular young jeweler, was the guest of Miss Mollie Veerick, on Sunday.

Mrs. Ed. Leathers and son Doyle, of Renovo, visited relatives in this place.

Miss May Winkleman, of Nittany, visited the Misses Lulu and Katie Vonada.

The Children's service will be held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, June 17th. All are invited to come.

Will Vonada, of Parvin, spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Vonada.

C. M. Fox had the misfortune to lose one of his valuable young horses last Sunday. He and his wife were visiting his sister, Mrs. John Wasson, east of Jacksonville. He securely tied his horse to the corn crib near the barn. The animal became frightened and broke loose from his hitching place and started in the direction of Jacksonville. When near the residence of Geo. Ertley the excited animal fell striking a stone and breaking his leg near the ankle. The top was torn off from the buggy. The horse had to be shot.

The members of the Reformed church will hold a festival on Saturday evening, June 16, at Jacksonville.

Communion services will be held in the United Evangelical church on Sunday morning, June 24th.

The sale of Daniel Harter was well attended on Saturday. Walter Harter, of North Bend, came home to attend his father's sale.

Moshannon.

Clarence Lucas, of Howard, spent Sunday at his home, here.

Bianch Fleming, of Jersey Shore, visited his parents over Sunday.

Miss Millie Bickets made a trip to State College one day last week.

Charley Yeager and John P. Lucas drove to Phillipsburg on Saturday.

Children's Day services in the M. E. church next Sunday afternoon and in the Presbyterian church in the evening.

Maude Rankin, Minnie McGowan and Hannah Gleason have returned home after a few weeks schooling at Spring Mills. A few of the people of this town took in the Children's services, in the Presbyterian church, at Snow Shoe, last Sunday evening. They say it was good.

Miss Edith Lucas and brother, Albert, made a trip to Clearfield last week to attend the Epworth League Convention and also visit friends there. They had a very pleasant time.

Aaronsburg.

Charles Stamm and family, of Loganton, spent a few hours at the residence of H. H. Weaver's.

Prof. S. M. Weber and Miss Cordelia Acker will close their school on Friday and will have a picnic on Saturday, in the spruce, west of town.

Thomas Weaver, who has been engaged as an attendant, in the State Hospital at Morris-Plains, New Jersey, for the last five months, was home for a few days rest and on Monday he went to Windber to work at the plastering trade.

Grandmother Harter is spending a few days with her children at Millheim, this week. Hope she may have a pleasant visit.

The Citizens Band will hold a festival on Saturday evening. It is earnestly hoped that every person will come and help the boys along, and have a good time in general.

Messrs Harry Weaver and family, and Clark Weaver and family, of near Millheim, spent Sunday with their parents, James Weaver's.

Mrs. Blanche Whitmeyer, of Coburn, is tarrying at the Bower house, at present.

Wm. Mingle, of Centre Hall, was seen in our burg on Monday evening.

Miss Elsie Phillips, who is going to school at Allentown, is home on her summer vacation. We are always glad to see her come home.

Mrs. Henry Crouse and Miss Mary Crouse are visiting the former's son, in Holsopple, at present.

Miss Lizzie Edmunds is home again after having spent a few months as an attendant in the Harrisburg Insane Asylum.

Zion.

We think our scribe is trying to imitate Rip Van Winkle's long sleep of seven years as we don't hear from him anymore.

The surprise party, given by Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Dorman, in honor of their daughter Sadie, was a delightful affair; refreshments were served which consisted of ice cream, cake and fruit.

John Shaffer, who has been sick in bed for nearly seven months, is not improving any.

The Children's day service, held in the Lutheran church Sunday morning, was a success; the church was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Mrs. Calvin Garbrick and children, of Spring Mills, spent Sunday with Mr. Henry Garbrick and family.

Mr. Kauffman, of Northumberland, Pa., is visiting friends in this community at present.

Harvey your father thinks that three in the buggy are to many to drive such a long distance, probably Nell thinks so too.

Harry Bickle and his lady friend attended the children's day service at Snyderstown, on Sunday evening.

Clarence Garbrick, who has been going to Princeton College, is home for a vacation.

Hannah.

Next Sunday will be Children's Day at Mt Pleasant.

Mrs. Reese, of this place, has been quite ill for some time.

Ellsworth Vaughn is erecting a new barn on his farm.

A great many of our people attended Pawnee Bill's wild west show, at Tyrone, last Saturday.

Mrs. J. W. Beckwith returned from Johnston, where she was attending the funeral of her brother, Stephen Herdman.

The Death Angel has carried away the home of A. R. Rice and retired an affectionate wife and loving mother. Interment was made at Mt. Pleasant cemetery on Sunday, June 3.

We think the lynch law should be put in force through this part of the country. Last week all the buildings on the farm of J. W. Beckwith were burned to the ground, which consisted of a house, barn, spring house, hen house, pig pen and other out buildings. Loss about $1,000, only partially insured. This makes five buildings burned in this valley in a short time.

A very unexpected and surprising wedding occurred a few days ago. It was that of W. Fred Fink, of this place, and Miss Eva Cassidy, of Altoona. The bride being under age, and to avoid her parents' consent, they decided on going to the state of New York, and on May 25th they went to Elmira, N. Y., where they were united in holy matrimony. They are still in our locality, where they will reside for a short time yet.

Fillmore.

Miss Ethel Wolfherd is on the sick list. Miss Maud Haines, of Mill Hall, is visiting the Misses Kephart.

Miss Mabel Marshall, of Axemans, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Brennan.

A great many of our people attended Children's Day services, at Waddies, last Sunday.

H. Bruce Wasson has returned home from Spring Mills, where he has been going to school since Christmas.

Miss Edna Mingle, of State College, is spending a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Norris.

Children's Day exercises were held in the M. E. Church, on June ninth. The church was prettily decorated and there was a large and attentive audience. The program was ably carried out by the members of the Sunday school. Rev. Runyan made a very interesting address to the children but it was enjoyed by the older people also. He spoke of the importance of the collection and urged the people to give a liberal contribution.

Excursion To Philadelphia.

On account of the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia, June 19, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Philadelphia from all stations on its line at rate of one fare for the round trip (minimum rate 50 cents). Tickets will be sold and good going June 15 to 19, inclusive, and returning to June 26, inclusive.
