Senator Foraker Nominates McKin ley and Governor Roosevelt Seconds-Young of Iowa Withdraws Dolliver and Names the Rough Rider-Depew and Others Second, The Convention Adjourns.

PHILADELPHIA, June 22.-Presi ident McKinley was unanimously renom inated for president of the United States by the Republican national convention as 1:48 o'clock yesterday, and an hour and ten minutes later Governor Theodors Roosevelt of New York was unanimou. ly selected to stand beside him in th coming battle.

The scenes attending the selection were tumultuous. Such unanimous dem onstrations in honor of the nominees of a national convention have never beer equaled perhaps in the history of politic. in this country. It was a love feast, & jubilee, a ratification meeting.

A flutter of handkerchiefs filled the air and a cheer went up from the delegates in the pit as Senator Foraker of Ohio the ideal of militant Republicanism strode toward the platform. Foraker is a grand looking man, with something o the imperiousness of Blaine and th dash of a Rupert about him. The ai was surcharged with electricity as h mounted the steps, and when he turned ut, standing there with gray eye calmly sweeping the cheering thousands the magnetic orator must have been con scious of his power to call up a storn that would sweep through the amphithe ster. Below him, about him on either side, were banked men and women al most frantically waving hats, handker chiefs and pampas plumes.

In full view of the convention he stood erect, his face as inflexible as though chiseled in marble, waiting for the ap plause to cease. When quiet was restored, he spoke in part as follows:

"Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Convention-Alabama yields to Ohio, and I thank her, but Alabama has yielded by reason of a fact that would seem unim portant and superfluous, for she has yielded because our candidate has in fact already been nominated. He was named by Senator Wolcott in his able speech of Tuesday. He was nominated by Senator Lodge in his address of yesterday and by the senator from Indiana when he read the platform, and not only has he beer sominated by them, but by the whole American people

"From one end of our land to the other but one man is thought of for the honor that we are here to confer. He is the first choice of every man who wishes for Republican success next fall. So it is not necessary for me or any one else to speak for him. He has already spoken for him self and to all the world. He has a rec ord replete with brilliant achievements one that speaks at once his promises for the future and one that is his highest eulogy. It constitutes an example of trium phant success in the discharge of public duty. Four years ago we confided to him. a most sacred trust. Behold what results Our industries were prostrated. He quick ened them with a new life and brought to our country unprecedented prosperity When everywhere in this great land labor men have employment. When we chose blin, he found the mills and the mines of chairman of that committee. this great country closed everywhere. To day they are open, and while we are here deliberating we are sending their products to every corner of the world in a great commercial conquest. Under his placed above reproach.

'In all the nation there is no man se ftted as the great leader who has con ducted national affairs in the last four trying years. "He has courage and experience, He has a stainless reputation and a blame less life that have endeared him to his country and won him the love and re spect of the whole people. He is an idea man. He is an ideal candidate. For al these considerations, not alone in behalf down on the curb and put a second bul-of Ohio, but in behalf of every state in let through his head, dropping dead. the Union and of Republicans every where, I nominate William McKinley. At the utterance of McKinley's name the audience began to cheer. The sight was a grand and inspiring one. In the pit delegates and alternates were cheer ing enthusiastically. Over the acres or spectators bedlam reigned. The hall was an angry sea of tossing color. Flags, red white and blue plumes shot up as if by thing of the old formation. lifted aloft on canes. Umbrellas were hoisted and twisted until they resembles in the other, was spurring the vast as semblage to new endeavors. The ragins storm did not seem to satisfy him. He seized a plume and whirled it about his head like a general leading his men to the charge. All at once a delegate bearing the standard of Kentucky rushed for ward to the stage. The effect was mag

Standards of the states were torn loose and yelling delegates climbed upon the With state guidons pointed to a com mon center they made a canopy over the head of the Warwick of the Republicar party. Ohio interlocked her staff with New York, Maine figuratively kissed her hand to California, and Minnesota sa luted Texas. Then higher still climber Hanna. THEODORE ROOSEVELT. At this sight the cheers redoubled. Th music of the orchestra was drowned i. the awful din.

At 12:40 o'clock Chairman Lodge or dered a call of the roll of states for bal loting for president.

The roll call was concluded at 12:50 o'clock, Hawaii casting the last two votes for McKinley. A minute later Chairman Lodge an nounced, "There have been cast 92t votes, all for William McKinley, and I announce his unanimous nomination for president for the term beginning March 4, 1901. The band struck up "The Battle Cry of Freedom," the delegates joined in the chorus, and there was an outburst of ap

Then an immense imitation elephant walked majestically down the center aisle, causing much amusement.

Order was soon restored, because ev ery one was eager for the nomination of Roosevelt to begin. Chairman Lodge ap pealed for quiet. He said it would be impossible to go on without order in the galleries. He called the attention of the delegates to the fact that there wa. much work for the convention to do after the nominations were completed.

As the name of Alabama was called on the roll of states for the nomination of candidates for vice president the an nouncement was made by the chairman of the delegation that Alabama would yield to Iowa to present a candidate.

Chairman Lodge then recognized Colo nel Lafe Young, one of the lowa dele gates at large. Robust and vigorous it his physique and in his mentality, Cole nel Young swung down the main aisle t the platform to do that which a single orator never before did in a Republicar national convention-withdraw one strong and magnetic man as a candidate and present the name of another for the sec ond office in the gift of the Americas people. He withdrew the name of Dolli ver and offered that of Roosevelt.

Colonel Young was in Cuba at the time Roosevelt led his gallant rough riders up San Juan hill, and his reference to the governor's campaign was eloquent and

The demonstration which followed the announcement by Colonel Young of Governor Roosevelt as the candidate of the young men of the country, who repre sented their desires and their ambitions and embodied their patriotism and Americanism, was not second to that accorded the president's name.

When quiet was restored, the chair recognized Mr. Murray of Massachuseth to second the nomination.

The names of other candidates for vice president were withdrawn, and the roll of states was called. At the conclusion of the call Chairman Lodge announced that Governor Roosevelt had received 929 votes, one delegate in the convention not voting. This delegate was Governor Roosevelt himself, who refrained from voting with the New York delegation.

Resolutions of thanks to Mr. Lodge and to Mr. Wolcott for their able serv ices as presiding officers were unani-mously adopted; also thanks to Mayor Ashbridge of Philadelphia for the hospitality of the city and to all officials of the convention. This closed the work, and motion of Sereno E. Payne of New York the Republican national convention of 1900 adjourned sine die.

The national committee met after the convention and re-elected M. A. Hanna

The Lourenco Marques correspondent of The Times, telegraphing yesterday,

"The Boers are losing a large number of horses from the cold and from lack of food, and the survivors are in miserable condition. The inadequacy of the Boet ommissariat is telling on the burghers."

The Times editorially adopts the suggestion of a correspondent that Johannesburg should be the capital of the Transvaal colony, "because the traditions of Pretoria are corrupt."

His stay in this city was devoid of pleasure. He accepted but one invitation and denied himself to everybody who called upon him at the hotel where he made his headquarters.

CANCER Cannot be Cut Out or Removed with Plasters

Surgical operations and flesh destroying plasters are useless, painful and dangerous, and besides, never cure Cancer. No matter how often a cancerous sore is removed, another comes at or near the same point, and always in a worse form. Does not this prove conclusively that Cancer is a blood disease, and that it is folly to attempt to cure this deep-seated, dangerous blood trouble by cutting or burning out the sore, which, after all, is only an outward sign of the disease-a place of exit for Cancer runs in families through many generations, and those whose ancestors have been afflicted with it are liable at any time to be stricken with the deadly malady.

Only Blood Diseases can be Transmitted from One Generation to Another

-further proof that Cancer is a disease of the blood. To cure a blood disease like this you must cure the entire blood system—remove every trace of the poison. Nothing cures Cancer effectually and permanently but S. S. S.

S. S. S. enters the circulation, searches out and removes all taint, and stops the formation of cancerous cells. No mere tonic S. S. S. enters the circulation, searches out and removes an taint, and stops the formation of cancerous cents. No mere tonic or ordinary blood medicine can do this. S. S. goes down to the very roots of the disease, and forces out the deadly poison, allowing the sore to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. at the same time purifies the blood and builds up the general health.

A little pimple, a harmless looking wart or mole, a lump in the breast, a cut or bruise that refuses to heal under ordinary treatment, should all be looked upon with suspicion, as this is often the beginning of a bad form of cancer. Mrs. Sarah M. Keesling, 941 Windsor Ave.. Bristol, Tenn., writes: "I am 41 years old, and for three years had suffered with a severe form of Cancer on my jaw, which the doctors in this city said was incurable, and that I could not live more than six months. I accepted their statement as true, and had given up all hope of ever being well again, when my druggist, knowing of my condition, recommended S. S. After taking a few bottles the sore began to heal, much to the surprise of the physicians, and in a short time made a complete cure. I have gained in fiesh, my appetite is splendid, sleep is refreshing—in fact, am enjoying perfect health."
