George Elders, son and daughter, of Lewistown, are spending sometime at the home of Mr. John A. Hunters.

Dr. Frank Burket, of Columbus, Ohio, spent a few days with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Burket. He came east to attend the Republican convention, at Philadelphia.

Mrs. James Peters and son, of Tyrone, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hicks.

Benner Wilson and Calvin Rambler were in Bellefonte Saturday, on business.
Some of the farmers are making hay. There will be a very light crop this year in this part of the country.

Childrens Day exercises were held at Port Matilda, on Sunday morning, in the Presbyterian church. Quite a number from here were there. The children are to be complimented for their work, as are also the other persons who had them in charge. The decorations were simple but very nice.

A. C. Thompson and wife, of Snow Shoe, were in town over Sunday.

Mrs. Wigton is spending a few days with Mrs. Dr. Thompson.

Highvalley.

The festival at Coburn, Saturday evening, was largely attended.

Gold mining is all the talk in High valley. William Aiter is the chief miner. Henry Snyder, of Woodward, or near there, will start in a few days. One fool makes two; and four make a dozen.

On Saturday noon a fight took place in Highvalley. Buggy whips and store wood was in demand. Uncle Abe was on his way to Coburn and when he saw the fight he made for the woods, and is still at large; but Jess says he will make his appearance today.

Prophet Dan Braucht and A. J. Storer climbed up Jacob's Ladder one day last week, to have a taste of fresh air.

It is rumored that a whipping post will be erected in High valley. A suitable place will be selected. A good location would be between Jess and Uncle Abe.

If Sam. Alter's gold mine will turn out like the High valley hay crop, he can count on nothing.
The scribe would advise the people of High valley to build an asylum instead of a whipping post.

Moshannon.

Mrs. Nannie Bowes, of Jersey Shore, is spending a few weeks with her parents at this place.

Miss Mary Adams, of Mt. Carmel, is the guest of Miss Minnie McGowan of this place.

S. W. Butler spent Sunday with friends here.

Orry Butler moved to this place from Philipsburg.

Eugene Smoke made a trip to Pittsburg, last week, to accompany his little brother home. He has been attending a music school there.

Our town was visited by a very amusing show last Friday and Saturday evenings. Many flocked to hear and see it, but have said little about it since.

Earl Bowes fell from a cherry tree one day last week and hurt his arm badly.

Snow Shoe.

Signs of the times—politics and war. The hot season is with us again, but we have no ice man.

H. E. Twelvedozens, who ran away from here last Thursday, was found near Tyrone and returned Monday.

Martin McLaughlin, the P. R. R. clerk, was absent last week on an eastern trip.

Martin Reese, conductor of the Snow Shoe combination mail, express and charcoal, has been enjoying a two weeks vacation. H. R. Hicks, of Tyrone, was in command of the combination during Mr. Reeses absence.

Miss Edie Lucas visited friends in Lock Haven last week.

J. H. Gross and Joseph Lose, of Bellefonte, made a bicycle trip over the mountains to this place on Sunday.

Clarence Lucas, of Snow Shoe, returned from an extended tour of Centre county, Saturday.

A Fourth of July celebration will be inaugurated at the Haynes building, this season.

Runville scribe, where art thou? Hast the grasshoppers carried thee away or did the Yarnell scribe scare thee to hide in the hay?

C. P. Reese is making a very attractive spot, at the Walker farm, at Rhoads. The natural beauty of the surrounding scenery and artificial lake in the orchard give a serene complacency to the location.

Anyone wishing to argue in politics, call on Coxy Gilliland. It makes no difference which side you prefer.

Miss Maud Watson, of Pine Glenn, is visiting at Snow Shoe.

At present Snow Shoe is fairly well fitted out with the so-called sports. He's necessary to complete the general make-up of a town and, of course, we have them. If we didn't we'd import some from China or the Philippine Islands. They wouldn't cost much, as a matter of expense, as the population being as great would put a discount on their face value, which would not be much to start with.

Lawrence Redding, of the Mountain House, who has been seriously ill, is recovering rapidly and it is hoped will soon be able to be around again.

A party of young people from Bellefonte enjoyed a visit to this place, Sunday.

A festival will be given, at Clarence, on Friday and Saturday evenings, June 29 and 30. All go and enjoy a good time in the open air where all of the seasons' delicacies will be served. The object of the festival is to raise funds for the church, which is to be erected at Clarence in the near future.

In speaking of the greatest ledge in the world we would say knowledge and a complete knowledge of the construction of "safe tax" is considered, by the Snow Shoe scribe, as well worth the trip to Mt. Eagle to say nothing of a trained nurse who can give explicit directions so as it will not soon be forgotten. That is, very impressive, as it were, so to speak, moreover, therefore, subsequently, to go on the greatest ledge the Snow Shoe scribe found in climbing the Mount of Eagles, was the knowledge and stimulating properties of B. F. T.

Fairbrook.

Both stone crushers are laid up for repairs.

Our forenoon farmers are done making hay.

Jesse Piper and family visited their friends at Alexandria.

Frank Bailey has graduated in dentistry at the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, with honors; and he has opened his dental office at Milton. We congratulate Mr. Bailey on his success in college.

E. church will be the officiating clergyman.

LEGAL STATUS OF THE DOG.

In the Bucks county court, last week, there was developed points on the status of dogs before the law. Emanuel G. Rosenberger was prosecuted by Miss Mary Douglass for killing her shepherd dog, which she claimed was a protector of her home. The defense admitted the charge, but alleged that the animal had trespassed upon his premises and provoked annoying. In charging the court said there had been much contention over the status of a dog in law, and that this faithful animal had a hard time to gain his place in relation to man. It has certainly been established that a dog is a domestic animal. The act of May 15, 1899—the sheep law—makes dogs personal property. The supreme court, in a recent decision, held that all dogs are personal property and the subject of larceny, whether registered or not. With a domestic animal as trespasser, however, and the owner permits the trespass, the person aggrieved may kill the animal, but he must do it in such way that is not wanton or malicious. No man has a right, under the law, to inflict cruelty upon any animal. In view of the evidence in the Bucks county case, that Mr. Rosenberger had first shot and then clubbed the animal to death (the use of the club being, as the defendant said, to end the animal's misery) Rosenberger was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and undergo imprisonment in jail for one day.
