The Racket.

7, 9 and II Crider's Exchange, Bellefonte.

Centre County Centennial July 25 and 26. It's going to be the biggest Free Show ever seen in Central Pennsylvania

KOM IF YOU CAN.

Put the Racket on your list, it's one of the institutions of the town. Comfortable standing room for 5,000 people. A glance will show U that it's the store of Centre Co. and U will find that some others that do big advertising, are little shops in comparison.

Butterick's Delineator, Fashion Sheet, and Patterns for August, now ready.

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT

CONTINUED FROM 7TH PAGE

Rebersburg.

Mrs. Hannah Adams and Mrs. Ellen Rumberger, both of Lock Haven, have been visiting their relations in our burg and vicinity last week.

Rev. Harman, the new Lutheran preacher, left for his native home on Monday evening.

Ephriam Erhard, one of out aged citizens, was buried on last Thursday at the Lutheran and Reformed cemetery. The exercises were conducted by Rev. Wetzel, the new pastor who recently moved into our burg.

Cyrus Erhard had been visiting his brother Pierce, of Mifflinburg, first part of last week.

Willis Bierly is taking his vacation on the old farm with Wm. Franks. Probably Willis will again favor our people with Bryan speeches 16 to 1, because children from the same place, arrived in we know that our 16 to 1 people would town recently and expect to spend a be pleased to hear him during the coming campaign.

The talk is that our blacksmith, Jacob Heller, sold out to Howard Krape, on Saturday.

Since Ira Gramley does not help Wm. Bair butcher, Chas. Beck, we notice, is taking his place. Our farmers are busily engaged in bly the last act the wisest. The following are the school teachers Weber's in this place.

entertainment in the M. E. church at Penna Furnace, and the program was well rendered. Miss Sarah McWilliams, of Rock ed on both eyes and proved very successful. On account of her age few hopes Spring, is now ill with typhoid fever. were entertained for the recovery of her Misses Fortneys, of Tyrone, are on sight, but she is able to see fairly well. their annual summer trip to the hospitable home of James Fortney, on the Branch.

Aaronsburg.

Dr. A. S. Musseris busily engaged in truck farming and has as fine a lot of cabbage on the market as can be found anywhere. He is delivering nearly every day in town, and also ships large quantities to larger towns.

Chas. Stambach and children, of Red Lion, York county, are paying a visit to the gentleman's mother, Mrs. Rev. Chas. Stambach, on West Main street. His many friends here are glad to see him.

is now able to sit along side of a girl Most of the farmers in this immediate chewing gum. vicinity have finished making hay, while E. L. Williams, the young theological student, of Martha, visited his cousin, quite a number have also finished harvesting. Miss Velta Williams last week.

A Mr. Brandt, of near Coburn and Miss Annie Bohn, of Boalsburg, were married at the Reformed parsonage in this place on the 4th of July. After the the home of the bride's brother, William have "missed it." If not, you "Jim," I Bohn, who resides along the pike leading from Millheim to Coburn, where a sumptuous wedding supper was prepared returned to their home at this place on for them.

Squire D. H. Rote's condition, at this writing, shows no improvement.

Quite a number of our young people were to Millheim on Monday evening to take in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which was played there under canvas.

Mrs. Minnie Adams and baby, of Danville, are visiting at the home of the lady's parents, Emil Cronemillers, on East Main street.

The festival held by the U. Ev. congregation, on Saturday evening, on the lawn near Mrs. Rote's shop, was a de-cided success-financially at least-but owing to the inclemency of the weather the crowd was not as large as it would have been had it it been favorable. However a snug sum was realized.

Miss Mary Binley, of Tyrone, is the guest of Mrs. F. J. Foster this week.

Chas. Mensch, of Bellefonte, paid his parents a short visit on Sunday.

Mrs. A. A. Weaver and children, of Coburn, are spending several weeks in town with friends and relatives.

Miss Eliza Sommers, of Williamsport, is paying her yearly visit to her parents north of town, Squire Sommers.

Mrs. Bertha Lane and baby, after spending a few weeks with her parents, Noah Leitzells, returned to her home at Tyrone the other day.

Miss Margaret Keener, of State College, accompanied by three of her sister's month with the lady's parents, Alfred Keener's, on North and street.

Thos. Frank has opened a shoemaker shop at his residence on North and street, where he is prepared to do all kinds of work in that line. Give him a call.

Miss Mary Gettig, of Spring Bank, spent Sunday with her friend, Theo. Acher, in this place.

harvesting this week; each one, as it seems, wants to finish first, and proba- and Dubbs Stover, of Dushore, Sullivan Messrs. Harry Weber, of Lock Haven county, spent Sundav at Prof. Steward

P I Miller, laborer.....Penn of our burg and vicinity for the ensuing Miss Catharine Smull, of Rebersburg, year : Grammar, Wm. Morris; middle, spent Sunday with her parents in this spent Sunday with her parents in th Calvin Morris; primary, John Nevin place. Of course, it is unnecessary to Moyer; Thomas Auman will teach again add that she was missed very much by Bruce, who was left all by his "lonesome Mr. Heckman, of Loganton and Mr. Jamison and son, of Lock Haven, spent a few days last week with the Kline LO Mothersbaugh, farmer ... sisters, on East Main street.

THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT, BELLEFONTE, PA., JULY 12, 1900.

delphia, to which institution she was taken totally blind by Dr. S. T. McGhee

a month ago. Operations were perform.

Roland.

Mrs. H. M. Walker, of Philipsburg, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Curtin.

greatly benefited the grain through this

Samuel Bathurst who has been employed as clerk, at Johnsonburg, Pa.,

has been spending some time with his

Charles Shultz, we are sorry to say, is losing his hearing. We have received this intelligence through the fact that he

Quite a number of people from this

Have you ever heard Mr. Stoner recite

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and family,

A few of our young people, including

Misses Velta Williams, Kathryn Parker,

and Mr. E. L. Williams, W. S. Stoner

and Harry Curtin, chaperoned by Mrs.

V. E. Curtin, spent quite an enjoyable evening at the home of Col. and Mrs.

Austin Curtin. The next evening being the Fourth the same persons were very chaperon of the former evening.

pleasantly entertained to dinner by the

The Children services at the United

Evangelical church, on Sunday evening,

LIST OF JURORS

Drawn for August Term-Commencing

August 27th.

GRAND JURORS-laT WREE.

W F Peters, farmer......Boggs

W O Hobinson, laborer Philipsburg

Miles Morrison, laborer Philipsburg

Peter Smith, farmer Potter

Edward Johnson, farmer.....Boggs

P Bower, farmer......Haines

David Uhlrick, saddler Millt eine

TRAVERSE JUBORS-IST WEEK

H B Goheen, farmer......Ferguson

James B Strohm, farmer Potter

Lewis C Wetzel, machinist Beliefonte

James H Wearn, "

H I Taylor, moulder

Henry Rote, laborer

ames T. Lucas, farmer.

Ira Howe, machinist

Ed. Shannon, laborer.....

Martin Hogan, **

C M Muffley, gentleman

A L Shaffer, farmer

Frank McFarlane, farmer

T J Ocker, laborer

John Eisle, painter.....

L H Musser, agent ...

...Spring

.. Boggs

.. Patton

.. Boggs

.... Union

.Howard

... Walker

... Harris

Miles

Snow Shoe

.. Philipsburg

.....Snow shoe

who was visiting friends at Unionville, vicinity spent the "Fourth" at Hecla.

section.

parents at this place.

Thursday of last week.

was quite a success.

Daniel Wion, "

The rains during the past week have

REAL GAMENESS. Row Sentlemanly Jim Fielder Finised Off Bad Man Marshal

Clanton,

tation of being the nerviest set of men Thursday, July 26th. Tickets good go- rain in May, the clover remained short. of Silver City. The old man had shot ing on above named date or the day folsome dozen in his time, although to lowing, will be sold from all stations at winter protection of snow, and the crop a desperado. The first son, Idus, had a record almost as good, while Jim, the most gentlemanly man in the district, could walk over any sober man in the west. He was a tall man, with mild brown eyes, and a quiet, refined face. It had never been known just how he came to be so feared. It could not be proved that he had ever shed blood. Perhaps it was the air, or the short way he talked. No sober man, the boys all said, would cross Jim for a moment, yet when Clanton came in to the bar that night he was not dead drunk. He was not sufficiently drunk Offices at Bellefonte. to be denominated beastly. It was doubtless his fate egging him on. For he walked right up to Jim and started "Jim," he said, "lend me ten dollars!" "I've only got a couple of dollars in my pocket, old man," said Fielder,

"but you are welcome to them." "I don't want two dollars, I want ten dollars," returned Clanton angrily, and then he shut his mouth down hard and looked at Jim with that nasty gleam of the eye which people who knew Clanton recognized as a sure sign of trouble.

Fielder saw that the fellow was drunk and quarrelsome, but he liked the man when he was sober, and he tried to avoid trouble.

"I'm sorry I haven't got more," said ticket. he, "but it's all I've got. If you'll wait a minute I'll go and borrow some money and lend it to you."

"No, d-n you," Clanton came back, got plenty of money in your pocket, and if you weren't such a-H A Yearick, laborer.....Gregg you'd let me have what I want!"

Fielder's face flushed up a little at these words, but he controlled himself and made another effort to pacify the unreasonable fellow.

"I'll tell you what I'll do," said he, "I'll take off my watch and pawn it, if that will satisfy you. I am telling here you the truth. I haven't any money besides the two dollars here in my pocket, but if you'll be easy I'll get you all you want," and, so saying, he tried to walk away.

"You don't have to pawn nothing for me," said Clanton. "If you don't want to let me have the $10 you can go to -.. Fielder stood facing the bar, leaning with his shoulders against the wall. From his right hand he dangled a small cane, in the right side of his mouth he held a cigar. He did not say anything in answer to this last remark.

Clanton stood at the bar, about seven feet distant. After drinking a glass of Robert Smith, gentlemanGregg whisky that sat before him he turned and faced Fielder, drew a revolver and, saying, "D-n you, I'll just kill you, anyhow," fired three shots at him point blank.

Sea Shore Excursion.

The Central R. R. of Pa, in connecson River R. R. and the Reading's "Roy- mer's crops. al Route to the Sea" will run the first of look at him you would never think him late of $5.75 for the round trip, valid for will be less than half. return within sixteen days, in place of In some sections the grubworm is doten, days as in former years. These ing harm in the corn fields. tickets will permit of stop off in Phila- With season favorable from now to delphia on the going or return trip and September, corn, oats, potatoes and apone piece of baggage will be transported ples may be a good crop. through Philadelphia in each direction In the main the farmer is going to be free of charge. Passengers traveling on short in his products this year, all over the night trains can take Pullman sleep- the state, with no paying prices for what ing car at Williamsport at 9:00 p. m., he raises, while on the other hand prices and berths may be engaged in advance have doubled and trebled on all he must by application to the ticket agents of buy. the Central R. R. of P., or at the General

Niagara Falls Excursion.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has selected the following dates for its popular ten-day excursion to Niagara Falls from Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington: July 26, August 9 and 23, September 6 and 20, and October 4 and On these dates the special train will leave Washington at 8:00 a. m., Baltimore 9:05 a. m. Excursion tickets, good for return passage on any regular train, exclusive of limited express trains, within ten days. A stop-over will be allowed at Buffalo. Rochester, Canandaigua, and Watkins within the limit returning, on the excursions of July 26, August 9, September 6, October 4 and 18.

For the excursion of August 23 and September 20, stop-over will be allowed at Buffalo on return trip within limit of INFORMATION WANTED.

Lighting Tore Off His Clothes.

During a storm Saturday evening, Frank Lazenberger, of White Deer Val-"I can borrow for myself. You have ley, was struck by lighting while seeking shelter with his team under a tree. His clothing was half torn off and he was severely injured, but will recover.

> -On Wednesday the Tyrone base ball'team played the Bellefonte "Corinthians" at this place and they won by a score of 19 to 9. The game was played Outlook Gloomy for the Farmer.

The Centre county farmer does not tion with the New York Central & Hud- have a rosy prospect ahead for this sum-

First to come in will be the hay crop. their popular sea shore excursions on somewhat above half; owing to want of The wheat fields were lacking their

FREE AD COLUMN.

(Persons desiring to have any article adver-tised in our Free Want Column can hand same to our correspondents and they will send them n without any cost to you.)

Advertisements in this column, such as Bitua-ion or Help Wanted, For Rent, or any Pur-chase you desire to make, of an acceptable nature tool to exceed 25 words, will be inserted for our subscribers one time free. Additional invertions to cents.

BICYCLE-Columbia bleycie in good condi-tion, cheap. Harry Walkey, Bellefonte, Pa

LOST-A ladies' umbrella with steel rod and round handle, was lost between Snow Shoe Intersection along the railroad, near Edward Long's residence, on Saturday afternoon, June leth. Finder will please leave same at Edward Long's or at this office.

FOR SALE-Stock of General Merchandlse, Dry Goods, Groceries, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hardware, Queensware, Hats and Caps, Notions, etc. Will sell on easy terms. Rents cheap. For particulars address W. J. Carlin, Rebersburg, Pa. x22.

Certain patrons, through negligence, or for peculiar reasons known to themselves, removed rom one locality to another, without notifying his office. We are anxious to locate them so that they may receive their paper regularly and for other reasons, important to us. Any one who can furnish the present address of the ollowing will confer a special favor. We give he former address:

CHAS. A. SHULTZ, Tylersville, Pa. SAMUEL BRESSLER, Gatesburg, Pa. O. H. WALTERS, Colyer, Pa. ALFRED WALEER, Snow Shoe, Pa. JOHN M. CLARE, LOTAIN, O. MRS. J. C. STOVER, Rosecrans, Pa.

Here is a List of

FIRE INSURANCE CO

The Fielders always bore the repu-

at Harters school.

David Diehl, Wm. Hackman's promising blacksmith, is at present helping his father at Centre Mills to make hay and harvest.

Spring Mills.

Harvest is past and was a poor one at that.

The corn is making a good showing, since the late rains.

Miss May Smith has been visiting for the past two week, at Pine Grove Mills.

Mrs. Wm. Bitner, Frank Kenelley and David McCool are down with tyhpoid fever; none are seriously ill.

J. P. Harris' Uncle Tom Cabin combination pitched their tents here on Tuesday. They gave a first class entertainment and the patronage was good.

The festival, last Saturday evening. was somewhat of a failure, on account of the rain.

The man of a few ideas is always afraid that they will be stolen.

J. B. Mayes, of Houserville, the marble and granite hustler, was in this section. From the amount of orders he took, he must have given satisfactory prices; hls work is all guaranteed to give tion satisfaction.

A man's enemies never kick him when he is down; they stand aside and let his friends do that.

The Fourth passed off without any accidents.

O. T. Corman, Wm. Alexander, Sam'l Brown and Billy Ruhl paid a visit to the Millheim Golden Eagle Castle.

Smith Brothers held their 10th annual picnic, and set apart the 4th of July for all to meet and have a days outing. M. L., of Johnstown; Lowell, of Pine Grove Mills; Emanuel and Michael, of Potters Mills; John and William, of this place, constituted the family gathering. May they all live to see many more of such pleasant gatherings.

Fairbrook.

The Centre Democrat was greatly missed last week.

Miss Ella Livingston, of Tyrone, is visiting her many friends here about.

The wheat crop is not a heavy one in this section, althouh quite a lot of binders were sold.

Misses Bell and Wolf, of Warriors his right arm. Mark, were in Pine Grove last week.

Rev. Dale filled the Lutheran pulpit last Sunday evening. A large crowd gathered to hear the able divine.

Mrs. George Lutz, of Oak Grove, has been very ill with heart trouble, but at present she is improving under Dr. Glenn's care.

The Fairbrook people do not want any more canine animals destructive to chickens, but we thanked some of the Branch people for their kindness to deliver them.

The Baileyville select school has closed, and on Tuesday evening they held an day from the Jefferson hospital, Phila-

Rev. Gerhart's wife and son arrived in this place on Tuesday evening of last week and they have now gone to housekeeping in the Lutheran parsonage on West Main street. The members of his congregation tendered them a surprise party on the same evening and brought with them many of the necessities of life. A very enjoyable time was spent.

A new arrival put in an appearance at the residence of Frank Detweiler recently-a boy-and the mother. Mrs. Winklebleck, is getting along nicely.

Beech Creek.

Ralph O. Hall is home for the summer, having graduated from the Central State PC Walker, merchant Normal last week.

Harry Heverly moved his family from Monument to this place, occupying a house on Harrison street.

County Superintendent Snyder held an examination of teachers at this place recently. Seventeen took the examina-

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Horne and children, and Miss Gertrude Quigley, ar-rived here from Yonkers, N. Y., last Thursday to visit the family of Capt. John E Miles, clerk. James A. Quigley for several weeks. Mr. Horne returned to Yonkers Saturday evening.

The severe wind storms on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons of last week were the worst experienced here for several years. A barn belonging to Frank Berry was blown down, although it was not an old building and was in good repair. A portion of a tree fell on the roof of I. A Harvey's residence and injured the roof. Slate and shingles on many roofs were blown off and there was a general uprooting of trees and much damage to corn and fruit.

A party of young people from this vicinity are camping this week at the David farm on the summit of the 'Scootac mountain.

Stephen D. Deise has been confined to his bed for the past ten days with a tureatened attack of appendicitis.

A son of John Gummo, of Beech Creek township, while standing on a fence to pick cherries last week, fell and broke

Robert H. Clark, John Liggett, Ed. Mobley and John Winklebeck left Monday to survey the 20,000 acres of woodland bought by the state in the northwestern part of Clinton and Centre counties.

The school directors of Liberty township, Saturday evening, opened the sealed bids for the erection of the new school house in Eagleville. Samuel Gault, of Bellefonte, whose bid was for $4,447, got the contract. The building will be finished by the first of October.

Mrs. Nathan Simcox returned Satur-

Fisher Motz, merchantHaines H J Krouse, huckster..... .Millhelm .Gregg Henry Stickler, laborer. Elias Edmondson, laborer. James Kennelly, Joseph Rooply, State College went wild. C N showalter, carpenter ... Henry Kling, laborerPenn D M Dunkie, salesman Walker James Fleming, laborerBellefonte W H Musser, insurance agent..... L H Wian, farmer Isaac Beck, farmer. Andy Rote, farmer P Gray Murray, laborer H B Miller, farmer Philipsburg E G Jones, clerk Arthur Johnsonbaugh, laborer Huston John Weaver, shoemakerPenn George B M Waite, farmer Miles Elmer Henderson, merchant...... .Huston William Hepburn, carpenterSpring George Garbrick farmer Spring

William Wilson, laborer Philipsburg through his heart .-- Cincinnati En-Geotge Heverly, Liberty Harry Viehdorier, "Burnside Edward Williams, teacher Unionville ...Snow Shoe A H Vonada, farmerMilea S R Markle, laborer ... Benner J C Rowe, tailorPhilipsburg J M Ward, laborer Haltmoor Charles McCiellen, farmerRush Henry Woomer, stonemason Benner Joseph Beezer, clerkBellefonte Joseph Schenck, carpenter. .Howard W A Ishler, implement dealer Bellefonte William Stover, farmer Penn Howard Harris John E Miles, clerk Milesburg

TRAVERSE JUROES DRAWN FOR FIRST WEEK OF SEPTEMBER.

Howard Holzworth, agent Unionville
Reuben Etters, laborer
Scott Decker, laborerGregg
Jonathan Harter, gentleman Millheim
David W Keiler, laborer
Joseph Rightnour, gentleman Bellefonte
H B Pontius, agent
C B Neff, farmer
Homer Carr, laborer Milesburg
Chas Jobnsonbaugh, farmer Marton
Peter Shultz, farmer College
W H Zeigler, laborerMiles
J Clayton Brooks, laborer
Thomas G Hutchison, isborer Philipsburg
M O Stover, farmer
J D Hicks, farmer
John G Balley, farmer
Harvey O Pletcher, farmer Liberty
Wifson Stiver, "
W L Taylor, carpenter
Charles Caldwell, carpet weaver Boggs
Samuel Williams, millright
Amos Mullen, policeman
Joseph Beehdol, farmer
Fergus Potter, "
Wesley Shamp, laborer
Augus Ewings, "
J W Lucas, laborer
John Hoy, Jr. farmer
H A Garner, farmer
John Woods, farmer
Henry Houtz, "
Vinton Beckwith, justice
D G Stuart, farmerBurnside
William Chandler, laborer
Harry Stuart, merchant
John D Keen, farmer Penn
Joseph Lowry, laborer
James N Williams, carpenter Beliefonte

Fielder never moved a muscle. .Bellefonte some strange chance none of the shots Rush | struck him. One ball went within a half .Grezg inch of his cheek, another passed under Rush his arm and near his breast, the third After the third shot Clanton stopped, apparently surprised at his bad marksmanship Fielder, still leaning back and calmly .spring eying his would-be murderer, now shifted his cigar from the right side of Boggs over into his left hand, reached back to .Haines his hip, and, saying, "Well, are you all through, Clanton?" drew a revolver and fired one shot. Then he replaced the revolver in his pocket, took his cane into his right hand again and walked out. What did Clanton do about it? Nothing. That ball from Fielder's gun went quirer.

FINED FOR WINNING. .

Out West It's Not Considered the Proper Thing to Defend a Horse Thief.

"When I graduated from the law school," said the old lawyer, with a reminiscent smile, "I took Horace Greeley's advice and went west. I located in a little town that then was on the frontier and waited with the confidence of youth for clients.

"Before I had fairly opened my office I was retained to defend a man for stealing a horse. This elated me very much, for I was not aware at the time that the case had been refused by all the other lawyers in town, as defending a horse thief was not a thing to be fesired if a man valued his life.

ellefonte "The case came to trial before an old Potter judge and a jury composed of befilesburg | whiskered ranchers. There was no .Marlon doubt that the man was guilty, but he .College had a number of friends who were ... Miles willing to swear to anything, and I Spring thought that it was my duty to make llpsburg the best possible use of them. They Haines were all willing to swear that the de-Halfmoon fendant was 40 miles away from the erguson .Liberty spot when the horse was stolen, and ...Huston the prosecution was unable to break ...Rush down their testimony. I saw that I .Boggs was going to free my client, so it was .Haines with a satisfied air that I saw the jury elletonte leaving the room to prepare their ver-...Harris dict.

"They were back in five minutes, and Marion the old judge asked them if they had ..Coll+ge succeeded in arriving at a verdict. low Shoe

"'We hev,' answered the foreman, as .Walker erguson he shifted the gun he carried on his .Spring hip. 'We find the defendant not guilty, .. College an' recommend the defendant's lawyer. ... Miles owin' to his youth an' innocence, to the Taylor mercy of the court.' Jurn+ide

"While I was gasping for breath the .Huston judge fined me $500, and suspended sen-,Rush Penn tence long enough for me to get out of spring town. It wasn't law, but I didn't stop liefonte to argue the matter."-N. Y. Sun.

GREAT 9 CENT SALE

Many new articles added to our great 9 cent list to-day to make the last week of this great sale the most attractive to economical buyers.

3000 yards of new and handsome designs in

ORGANDIES, LAWNS and DIMITIES on sale this week at 9 CENTS A YARD, former price 15c.

Our Sacrifice Sale of Millinery is Now On.

Our positive rule is never to carry over any Millinery from one season to another. This enables us to begin each succeeding season with an entirely new and fresh stock. Untrimmed Hats formerly sold from 75c to $2.00, now 25 CTS. Flowers worth from 50 cents to $1.00, now 25 CTS. Trimmed Hats at 98c. $1.10 and $1.48. These prices are less than half cost for trimmings and flowers.

